PART 1351—FOOD AND FOOD PRODUCTS

[MPR 280,[1] Amdt. 44]

MALTED MILK

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this amendment, issued simultaneously herewith, has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Maximum Price Regulation 280 is amended in the following respect:

Section 1351.806 is added to read as follows:

§ 1351.806 Adjustment of maximum prices of malted milk. (a) The Office of Price Administration may, either on application for adjustment in accordance with the provisions of Procedural Regulation No. 1[3] or on its own motion, by letter order adjust the maximum price or prices of a processor or manufacturer of malted milk where it appears that:

(1) The processor's or manufacturer's maximum price or prices are below the general price level prevailing for the same quantities of malted milk sold by other processors or manufacturers; and

(2) The processor's or manufacturer's prevailing ceiling prices subject him to such a degree of hardship as to prevent or threaten to prevent his continued production of malted milk; and

(3) An increase in his maximum price or prices will enable him to continue production; and

(4) The loss of his production would result in consumers having to pay higher prices for malted milk produced by other processors or manufacturers; and

(5) The Administrator is of the opinion that an increase in his maximum price or prices would under all circumstances be in furtherance of the purposes of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, and Executive Order Nos. 9250 and 9328.

(b) The adjusted maximum price granted to a processor or manufacturer under the provisions of this section shall in no event exceed the general price level prevailing for the same quantities of malted milk produced by other manufacturers or processors. Subject to this limitation, an increased price may be granted a processor or manufacturer not to exceed the total cost of the product based upon a cost to him of $2.65 per cwt. for 3½% butterfat milk; or if the manufacturer's or processor's earnings from all operations before income and excess profits taxes are low in comparison with those of a "representative peace time period", adjusted for subsequent changes in investment, and if in view of such over-all earnings a small margin of profit is reasonably necessary to encourage production, an increased price estimated to yield such a profit margin based again upon a cost for 3½% butterfat milk of $2.65 per cwt. may be allowed.

(c) The Price Administrator may also grant an upward adjustment, limited to an amount not in excess of the actual increase granted the processor or manufacturer, in the price or prices which any particular, or all, distributors may charge for malted milk purchased from a processor or manufacturer who has been granted an increase in his price for that product under the provisions of this section. No increase will be granted in the price or prices any distributor may charge for such product, however, unless the Price Administrator is of the opinion that the distributor cannot reasonably be expected to absorb the increased cost out of his prevailing distributive margin of profit realized on the resale of that product. Furthermore, the adjusted maximum price granted to any distributor under the provisions of this section shall in no event exceed the general price level prevailing for the same quantities of malted milk sold by other distributors of the same class.

(d) Definitions—(1) Representative peace time period. A "representative peace time period" means the period of the years 1936–1939 inclusive. When 1936–1939 does not represent a reasonably normal pre-war (December 7, 1941) period, some other period may be used but its use must be positively justified.

(2) Malted milk. "Malted milk" means the product made by combining whole milk with the liquid separated from a mash of ground barley malt and wheat flour, with or without the addition of sodium chloride, sodium bicarbonate, and potassium bicarbonate, in such a manner as to secure the full enzymic action of the malt extract, and by removing water. The resulting product may contain not less than 7.5% of butterfat and not more than 3.5% of moisture.

This amendment shall become effective April 13, 1944.

1. Section 4 (f) is amended to read as follows:

(f) Priority-constructed housing. For housing accommodations newly constructed with priority rating from the United States or any agency thereof for which the rent is approved by the United States or any agency thereof prior to the maximum rent date or, if the accommodations were not rented on that date, prior to the first renting of the accommodations after that date, the rent so approved, but in no event more than the rent on the maximum rent date, or, if the accommodations were not rented on that date, more than the first rent after that date: Provided, however, That if, prior to the maximum rent date or, if the accommodations were not rented on that date, prior to the first renting of the accommodations after that date, the landlord made a written request to the appropriate agency of the United States to approve a higher rent than the rent initially approved because of increased costs of construction, and a higher rent is approved by such agency on or after March 29, 1944, because of such increased costs of construction, the maximum rent on and after the date of such approval shall be the rent so approved.

The provisions of this paragraph (f) shall apply to the approval of rents for such housing accommodations by the United States or any agency thereof in connection with the grant of an application for priority rating filed on any of the application forms of the Office of Production Management or the War Production Board, including the September 1941 form in use by the Office of Production Management prior to the revision of this form on December 15, 1941.

This paragraph (a) (10) shall apply only to housing accommodations which were first rented prior to March 29, 1944.

NEW COMMERCIAL MOTOR VEHICLES; MODIFICATION OF MAXIMUM PRICES

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this amendment, issued simultaneously herewith, has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Section 6.3 of Revised Supplementary Regulation 14 is amended in the following respects:

1. The undesignated subparagraph in paragraph (a) which precedes subparagraph (1) is amended to read as follows:

The maximum price of a new commercial motor vehicle shall be a price determined in accordance with § 1499.2, or § 1499.3 when § 1499.2 cannot be applied, of the General Maximum Price Regulation, to which may be added an allowance (called increment) permitted by subparagraph (1), (2) or (3), below, whichever is applicable, for each calendar month or greater part thereof within the period from March 1, 1942, up to and including, whichever is earlier, April 30, 1944, or the date of sale of the new commercial motor vehicle. However, the increment may be added only if the seller complies with the conditions in subparagraph (4), (5), (6) or (7), below, and at the time of delivery the seller executes and delivers to the purchaser and to the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., the certification set forth in paragraph (e). Such increment shall not include any provision for extra, special or optional equipment until such equipment is part of the vehicle. Where a reseller of a new and unused commercial motor vehicle who purchased the vehicle for use cannot determine a price under § 1499.2 of the General Maximum Price Regulation, he may either charge a price not to exceed the price, including increment, which he paid for such vehicle less 75 percent of the retail price of each piece of equipment he removed from the vehicle, regardless of the conditions in subparagraph (4), (5), (6) or (7), below, and the furnishing of the certification in paragraph (e), or like other resellers who cannot establish a price under § 1499.2 of the General Maximum Price Regulation, he may obtain a price under § 1499.3 of that regulation.

2. Subparagraph (3) in paragraph (a) is amended to read as follows:

(3) In the case of trailers stored outdoors at any time on or after October 31, 1942, the lower of the following two amounts; (i) ½ of 1 per cent of the list price of such trailer, and of the list price of any extra, special or optional equipment built into or installed on such trailer, or if there is no such list price, ½ of 1 per cent of the price at which such trailer or extra, special or optional equipment was last contracted to be sold between January 1, 1942, and March 31, 1942, or (ii) $15.

3. Subparagraph (1) in paragraph (f) is amended by deleting from the first sentence the words "and has not been transferred to any person other than a sales agency for the purpose of resale" and substituting therefor the words "has not been used except for the purpose of sale".

This amendment shall become effective April 19, 1944.

FEDERAL POWER COMMISSION.

NORTHERN NATURAL GAS CO.

NOTICE OF APPLICATION

APRIL 12, 1944.

Notice is hereby given that on April 10, 1944, Northern Natural Gas Company (hereinafter referred to as "Applicant") filed with the Federal Power Commission an application seeking authority under Section 7 of the Natural Gas Act, as amended, to construct and operate a regulator station and approximately 1600 feet of 8⅝-inch pipe line. The proposed line would connect at a point in Pottawattamie County, Iowa, with an existing 8⅝-inch line of Applicant and extend in a northwesterly direction to the eastern end of the Douglas Street Bridge, crossing the Missouri River between Omaha, Nebraska, and Council Bluffs, Iowa, where the proposed line would connect with Applicant's 14- and 16-inch lines extending across such bridge to the American Smelting and Refining Company's plant in Omaha, Nebraska.

Applicant states that the proposed facilities will enable it to transport gas to the American Smelting and Refining Company entirely through its own facilities instead of having the Council Bluffs Gas Company participate in such transportation as at present. The Applicant further states that the proposed facilities will provide an additional connection with the Council Bluffs' distribution system for emergency use.

Any person desiring to be heard or to make any protest with reference to this application should, on or before April 29, 1944, file with the Federal Power Commission a petition or protest in accordance with the rules of practice and regulations of the Commission.

Secretary.

OFFICE OF PRICE ADMINISTRATION.

[MPR 188, 2d Rev. Order A-3]

CERTAIN LISTED BUILDING MATERIALS AND CONSUMERS' GOODS

ADJUSTMENT OF MAXIMUM PRICES

2d Revised Order No. A-3 under § 1499.159b of Maximum Price Regulation No. 188. Manufacturers' maximum prices for specified building materials and consumers' goods other than apparel. Applications for absorbable adjustment of maximum prices for manufacturers of particular articles under Maximum Price Regulation No. 188.

Revised Order No. A-3 is revised and amended to read as follows:

An opinion accompanying this 2d Revised Order No. A-3 under § 1499.159b of Maximum Price Regulation No. 188 has been issued simultaneously herewith and filed with the Division of the Federal Register.

For the purpose of removing price impediments to supply in certain cases where the cost of living is not affected because an adjustment will clearly and equitably be absorbed at a subsequent level of production or trade, the Price Administrator, Washington, D. C., may adjust maximum prices for particular articles established under Maximum Price Regulation No. 188 as hereinafter provided. Applications for adjustment may be made by the seller or by the buyer on the seller's behalf and shall be filed in accordance with Revised Procedural Regulation No. 1.

The provisions of this order apply only to sellers of the articles listed below, under the circumstances and to the extent specified.

(a) Who may apply. An application for adjustment will be entertained in the case of any manufacturer of any of the commodities listed below if:

(1) His operating position and his ceiling price or prices for the article are such that he would qualify for relief under (b) below; and

(2) An increase in his ceiling price will not threaten an increase in established retail ceiling prices either for the article he sells, or for any commodity or service sold by those who use his article.

This latter condition is satisfied if either one of the following situations is found to exist:

(i) The article is not sold to household consumers in any form (as a finished good or as a component part or material of a finished good), but on the contrary is finally sold to persons, such as professional, institutional, industrial, or commercial consumers, who use it in the conduct of their business or profession. Its adjusted price to the user will be an inconsequential cost factor that can readily be absorbed by him.

(ii) The article is sold to a very small number of purchasers, who are purchasers for resale and not ultimate consumers. One of them accounts for at least one-third of the manufacturer's entire output of the article. The purchasers are ready to absorb the adjustment requested in the manufacturer's price without either changing their own resale price or prices for the article (if their selling prices are less than their maximum prices) or using the adjustment as a basis for increasing their maximum prices. Letters from them to this effect must accompany the application.

(b) Amount of manufacturer's adjustment. Any adjustment of a manufacturer's maximum price made under this order will not exceed the following:

(1) If the manufacturer's entire operation is profitable, an amount sufficient to cover the unit manufacturing cost plus packing cost, and shipping cost where delivered prices are quoted or freight is allowed or equalized;

(2) If the manufacturer's entire operation is being conducted at a loss (or will be so within 30 days), an amount sufficient to cover his total unit cost to make and sell the article.

In the case of any manufacturer who qualifies under paragraph (a) (2) (ii) above, no adjustment will be made under this order in an amount greater than his customers have agreed to absorb.

(c) Purchasers for resale.—(1) Adjustment of resale prices to business users. In the case of any manufacturer who qualifies under paragraph (a) (2) (i) above, if a purchaser for resale handles the article in the course of its distribution from the manufacturer to the user, an order making an adjustment in the manufacturer's maximum price or prices may also adjust the maximum prices for subsequent sales of the article. Such adjustments will be made only if it is found that purchasers for resale would not otherwise receive their normal peacetime dollar margins on the article; and the adjustments will in no event exceed the dollar amount of the manufacturer's adjustment.

(2) Absorption by purchasers for resale in other cases. In the case of any manufacturer who qualifies under paragraph (a) (2) (ii) above, the amount of any adjustment made in the manufacturer's maximum price under this provision shall not hereafter be considered by the customer in calculating his maximum price for the article when resold by him; nor will any petition or application for amendment, adjustment, exception or other relief made by any wholesaler or retailer of the article be entertained by the Office of Price Administration to the extent that such petition or application is based, directly or indirectly, upon the increase in price granted to the manufacturer under this provision.

(d) Definitions. The term "unit manufacturing cost" means the total of direct materials, direct labor, and manufacturing expenses or factory overhead, applicable to each unit of the article.

The term "total unit cost" means the total of unit manufacturing cost and reasonable general, administrative, and selling expenses applicable to the article, excluding income and excess profits taxes.

Depreciation included in cost shall be at rates which do not exceed those approved by the Bureau of Internal Revenue. Expenses not related to the manufacture and sale of the article will be excluded.

(e) Articles covered. This 2d Revised Order No. A-3 applies only to the following commodities:

(1) Building materials:

Clay silo staves.

(2) Consumers' goods:

Dental supplies.
Household furniture (as defined in Appendix A under Maximum Price Regulation No. 188).

[Region II Order G-36 Under RMPR 122]

PENNSYLVANIA ANTHRACITE IN SALEM, CUMBERLAND, AND CAPE MAY COUNTIES, N. J.

Order No. G-36 under §§ 1340.260 and 1340.259 (a) (1) of Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 122. Solid fuels sold and delivered by dealers. Pennsylvania anthracite delivered by dealers in Salem County, Cumberland County, and Cape May County, State of New Jersey, Coal Area X.

For the reasons set forth in an opinion issued simultaneously herewith and under the authority vested in the Regional Administrator of the Office of Price Administration by §§ 1340.260 and 1340.259 (a) (1) of Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 122, it is ordered:

(a) What this order does.—(1) Dealers' maximum prices, area covered. If you are a dealer in "Pennsylvania anthracite", this order fixes the maximum prices which you may charge, and if you are a purchaser in the course of trade or business, this order fixes the maximum prices which you may pay, for certain sizes and quantities of "Pennsylvania anthracite" (hereinafter called simply "anthracite") delivered to or at any point in the zones comprising State of New Jersey, Coal Area X.

Zone 1. Zone 1 includes all of Salem County in the State of New Jersey.

Zone 2. Zone 2 includes all of Cumberland County in the State of New Jersey.

Zone 3. Zone 3 includes all of Cape May County in the State of New Jersey.

(2) Schedules of prices, charges and discounts. The applicable prices, authorized charges, and required discounts, from which you shall determine the maximum prices for designated sizes and quantities of anthracite delivered within Zones 1, 2 and 3 are set forth in Schedules I, II and III, respectively.

(3) To what sales this order applies. If you are a dealer in anthracite you are bound by the prices, charges and discounts, and by all other provisions of this order for all deliveries within Zones 1, 2 and 3.

You shall determine the maximum price for "Direct-delivery" sales, as hereinafter defined, by reference to the appropriate schedule of this order covering the zone to which delivery is made, whether or not you are located in one of the three zones.

You shall determine your maximum price for a "yard" sale, as hereinafter defined, by reference to the appropriate schedule of this order covering the zone in which the purchaser takes physical possession or custody of the anthracite.

(b) What this order prohibits. Regardless of any contract or other obligations, you shall not:

(1) Sell or, in the course of trade or business, buy anthracite of the sizes and in the quantities set forth in the schedules herein, at prices higher than the maximum prices computed as set forth in paragraph (c) of this order, although you may charge, pay, or offer less than maximum prices.

(2) Obtain any price higher than the applicable maximum price by:

(i) Changing the discounts authorized herein, or

(ii) Charging for any service rendered in connection with the sale or delivery of anthracite subject to this order, or

(iii) Using any tying agreement or requiring that the buyer purchase anything in addition to the fuel requested by him, except that a dealer may comply with requirements or standards with respect to deliveries which have been or may be issued by an agency of the United States Government.

(iv) Using any other device by which a higher price than the applicable maximum price is obtained, directly or indirectly.

(c) How to compute maximum prices. You must figure your maximum price as follows:

(1) Use the schedule which covers your sale. (Schedule I applies to sales on a "direct-delivery" basis and "yard sales" within Zone 1. You will find Schedule I in paragraph (d). In like manner, Schedules II and III apply to similar sales in Zones 2 and 3, respectively. You will find Schedule II in paragraph (e) and Schedule III in paragraph (f).)

(2) Take the dollars-and-cents figure set forth in the applicable table of the schedule, for the sizes and quantity you are selling.

(3) Deduct from that figure the amount of the discount which you are required to give, as specified therein. Where a discount is required, you must state it separately on your invoice.

(4) If you deliver a fraction of a net ton, but more than one-half ton, and the applicable schedule provides a discount on the basis of one ton or one-half ton, you shall allow a proportionate discount, making your calculation to the nearest full cent. For example, if you are required to deduct 50¢ per ton for cash payment, you shall deduct 38¢ for three-quarters of a ton.

(d) Schedule I. Schedule I establishes specific maximum prices for certain sizes of anthracite in certain specific quantities, delivered to or at any point within Zone 1. There is a separate table of prices for "direct-delivery" sales and "yard sales".

(1) Sales on a "direct-delivery" basis.

For sales of anthracite of the sizes and in the quantities specified

Size	Per net ton	Per net ½ ton	Per 100 lbs. for sales of 100 lbs. or more but less than ½ ton	Per 50 lb. paper bag
Broken, egg, stove, nut	$14.25	$7.40	$0.90	$0.50
Pea	12.70	6.60	.80	.45
Buckwheat	10.60	5.55	.70	.....
Rice	9.00	4.75	.....	.....
Barley	8.60	4.25	.....	.....
Screenings	5.95	2.00	.....	.....

Required discounts. You shall deduct from the prices set forth in table (1) of this Schedule, on sales and deliveries of all sizes except screenings, in quantities of ½ ton or more, a discount of 50¢ per net ton and 25¢ per net ½ ton, where payment is made within fifteen days after delivery. Nothing herein requires you to sell on other than a cash basis.

OFFICE OF PRICE ADMINISTRATION.

[MPR 188, 2d Rev. Order A-3]

ADJUSTMENT OF MAXIMUM PRICES

2d Revised Order No. A-3 under § 1499.159b of Maximum Price Regulation No. 188. Manufacturers' maximum prices for specified building materials and consumers' goods other than apparel. Applications for absorbable adjustment of maximum prices for manufacturers of particular articles under Maximum Price Regulation No. 188.

Revised Order No. A-3 is revised and amended to read as follows:

An opinion accompanying this 2d Revised Order No. A-3 under § 1499.159b of Maximum Price Regulation No. 188 has been issued simultaneously herewith and filed with the Division of the Federal Register.

For the purpose of removing price impediments to supply in certain cases where the cost of living is not affected because an adjustment will clearly and equitably be absorbed at a subsequent level of production or trade, the Price Administrator, Washington, D. C., may adjust maximum prices for particular articles established under Maximum Price Regulation No. 188 as hereinafter provided. Applications for adjustment may be made by the seller or by the buyer on the seller's behalf and shall be filed in accordance with Revised Procedural Regulation No. 1.

The provisions of this order apply only to sellers of the articles listed below, under the circumstances and to the extent specified.

(a) Who may apply. An application for adjustment will be entertained in the case of any manufacturer of any of the commodities listed below if:

(1) His operating position and his ceiling price or prices for the article are such that he would qualify for relief under (b) below; and

(2) An increase in his ceiling price will not threaten an increase in established retail ceiling prices either for the article he sells, or for any commodity or service sold by those who use his article.

This latter condition is satisfied if either one of the following situations is found to exist:

(i) The article is not sold to household consumers in any form (as a finished good or as a component part or material of a finished good), but on the contrary is finally sold to persons, such as professional, institutional, industrial, or commercial consumers, who use it in the conduct of their business or profession. Its adjusted price to the user will be an inconsequential cost factor that can readily be absorbed by him.

(ii) The article is sold to a very small number of purchasers for resale and not ultimate consumers. One of them accounts for at least one-third of the manufacturer's entire output of the article. The purchasers are ready to absorb the adjustment requested in the manufacturer's price without either changing their own resale price or prices for the article (if their selling prices are less than their maximum prices) or using the adjustment as a basis for increasing their maximum prices. Letters from them to this effect must accompany the application.

(b) Amount of manufacturer's adjustment. Any adjustment of a manufacturer's maximum price made under this order will not exceed the following:

(1) If the manufacturer's entire operation is profitable, an amount sufficient to cover the unit manufacturing cost plus packing cost, and shipping cost where delivered prices are quoted or freight is allowed or equalized:

(2) If the manufacturer's entire operation is being conducted at a loss (or will be so within 30 days), an amount sufficient to cover his total unit cost to make and sell the article.

In the case of any manufacturer who qualifies under paragraph (a) (2) (ii) above, no adjustment will be made under this order in an amount greater than his customers have agreed to absorb.

(c) Purchasers for resale—(1) Adjustment of resale prices to business users. In the case of any manufacturer who qualifies under paragraph (a) (2) (i) above, if a purchaser for resale handles the article in the course of its distribution from the manufacturer to the user, an order making an adjustment in the manufacturer's maximum price or prices may also adjust the maximum prices for subsequent sales of the article. Such adjustments will be made only if it is found that purchasers for resale would not otherwise receive their normal peacetime dollar margins on the article; and the adjustments will in no event exceed the dollar amount of the manufacturer's adjustment.

(2) Absorption by purchasers for resale in other cases. In the case of any manufacturer who qualifies under paragraph (a) (2) (ii) above, the amount of any adjustment made in the manufacturer's maximum price under this provision shall not hereafter be considered by the customer in calculating his maximum price for the article when resold by him; nor will any petition or application for amendment, adjustment, exception or other relief made by any wholesaler or retailer of the article be entertained by the Office of Price Administration to the extent that such petition or application is based, directly or indirectly, upon the increase in price granted to the manufacturer under this provision.

(d) Definitions. The term "unit manufacturing cost" means the total of direct materials, direct labor, and manufacturing expenses or factory overhead, applicable to each unit of the article.

The term "total unit cost" means the total of unit manufacturing cost and reasonable general, administrative, and selling expenses applicable to the article, excluding income and excess profits taxes.

Depreciation included in cost shall be at rates which do not exceed those approved by the Bureau of Internal Revenue. Expenses not related to the manufacture and sale of the article will be excluded.

(e) Articles covered. This 2d Revised Order No. A-3 applies only to the following commodities:

(1) Building materials:

Clay silo staves.

(2) Consumers' goods:

Dental supplies.
Household furniture (as defined in Appendix A under Maximum Price Regulation No. 188).
Optical supplies.
Freehand blown glassware.
Illuminating glassware.
Insecticide dusters and sprayers.
Combs for personal use.
Embossed wood top cork closures.
Gas mantle rings.

Brushes for industrial use.
Woodenware (Except turned or shaped wood products covered by MPR 196).
Artists' supplies.
Commercial kitchen utensils.
Laboratory, hospital and professional fixtures and equipment (except those covered by MPR No. 136, as amended).
Office fixtures and safes.
Office machines and equipment.
School and office supplies, including carbon paper, but no other paper.
Store machines, fixtures and equipment, including:
Store displays and display fixtures.
Dispensers.
Measuring devices for yard goods, screens, linoleums, etc.
Signs, electric, mechanical, etc.
Bulletin boards.
Tool cases.
Wire baskets for commercial use.

This 2d Revised Order No. A-3 shall become effective April 14, 1944.

NOTE: The reporting and record-keeping requirements of this order have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

Where a purchaser requests that two or more sizes of anthracite be commingled in one delivery, then, in that event, if those sizes are separately weighed at the point of loading, the dealer may commingle those sizes in the truck or other vehicle in which the delivery is made. The price for anthracite so commingled shall be calculated on the basis of the applicable per net ton price for each size in the combination, and the invoice shall separately state the price, so determined, for the quantity of each size in the combination.

(h) Ex Parte 148, Freight Rate Increase. Since the Ex Parte 148 Freight Rate Increase has been rescinded by the Interstate Commerce Commission, dealers' freight rates are the same as those of December 1941. Therefore, you may not increase any schedule price on account of freight rates.

(i) Addition of increase in supplier's maximum prices prohibited. You may not increase the specific maximum prices established by this order to reflect, in whole or in part, any subsequent increase to you in your supplier's maximum price for the same fuel. The specific maximum prices already reflect increases to you in your supplier's maximum prices occuring up to the effective date of this order. If increases in your supplier's maximum prices should occur after such date, as the result of any amendment to or revision of a maximum price regulation issued by the Office of Price Administration governing sales and deliveries made by such suppliers, the Regional Administrator will, if he then deems it to be warranted, take appropriate action to amend this order to reflect such increases.

(j) Taxes. If you are a dealer subject to this order you may collect, in addition to the specific maximum prices established herein, provided you state it separately, the amount of the Federal tax upon the transportation of property imposed by section 620 of the Revenue Act of 1942 actually paid or incurred by you, or an amount equal to the amount of such tax paid by any of your prior suppliers and separately stated and collected from you by the supplier from whom you purchased. On sales to the United States or any agency thereof, or to the State of New Jersey or any political subdivision thereof, you need not state this tax separately.

(k) Adjustable pricing. You may not make a price adjustable to a maximum price which will be in effect at some time after delivery of the anthracite has been completed; but the price may be adjustable to the maximum price in effect at the time of delivery.

(l) Petitions for amendment. Any person seeking an amendment of any provision of this order may file a petition for amendment in accordance with the provisions of Revised Procedural Regulation No. 1, except that the petition shall be filed with the Regional Administrator and acted upon by him.

(m) Right of amendment or revocation. The Regional Administrator or the Price Administrator may amend, revoke or rescind this order, or any provision thereof, at any time.

(n) Applicability of other regulations. If you are a dealer subject to this order, you are governed by the licensing provisions of Licensing Order 1. Licensing Order 1 provides, in brief, that a license is required of all persons making sales for which maximum prices are established. A license is automatically granted. It is not necessary to apply for the license. The license may be suspended for violations in connection with the sale of any commodity for which maximum prices are established. If your license is suspended, you may not sell any such commodity during the period of suspension.

(o) Records. If you are a dealer subject to this order, you shall preserve, keep, and make available for examination by the Office of Price Administration, a record of every sale of anthracite hereunder, showing the date, the name and address of the buyer, if known, the per net ton price charged, and the solid fuel sold. The solid fuel shall be identified in the manner in which it is described in the order. The record shall also state separately each service rendered and the charge made for it.

(p) Posting of maximum prices; sales slips and receipts. (1) If you are a dealer subject to this order, you shall post all your maximum prices (as set forth in the applicable schedule or schedules of this order) in your place of business in a manner plainly visible to and understandable by the purchasing public.

(2) If you are a dealer subject to this order, you shall, except for a sale of less than one-half ton, give each purchaser a sales slip or receipt showing your name and address, the kind, size, and quantity of the anthracite sold to him, the date of the sale or delivery and the price charged, separately stating the amount, if any, of the required discounts which must be deducted from, and the authorized service charges and the taxes which may be added to, the specific maximum prices prescribed herein.

In the case of all other sales, you shall give each purchaser a sales slip or receipt containing the information described in the foregoing paragraph, if requested by such purchaser or if, during December 1941, you customarily gave purchasers such sales slips or receipts.

(q) Enforcement. (1) Persons violating any provision of this order are subject to civil and criminal penalties, including suits for treble damages, provided for by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended.

(2) Persons who have any evidence of any violation of this order are urged to communicate with the Camden District Office of the Office of Price Administration or with the Price Panel of the appropriate War Price and Rationing Board.

(r) Definitions and explanations. When used in this Order No. G-36, the term:

(1) "Person" includes an individual, corporation, partnership, association, or any other organized group of persons, or legal successor or representative of any of the foregoing, and includes the United States or any agency thereof, or any other government, or any of its political subdivisions, or any agency of any of the foregoing.

(5) The sizes of "Pennsylvania anthracite" described as broken, egg, stove, nut, pea, buckwheat, rice, barley and screenings shall refer to the same sizes of the same fuel as were sold and delivered in the State of New Jersey—Coal Area X with such designation during December 1941.

(6) "Direct-delivery" means delivery to the buyer's bin or storage space.

(7) "Yard sales" means sales accompanied by physical transfer to the buyer's truck or vehicle at the yard, dock, barge, car, or at a place of business of the seller other than at seller's truck or vehicle.

(8) Except as otherwise provided herein, or as the context may otherwise require, the definitions set forth in §§ 1340.255 and 1340.266 of Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 122 shall apply to terms used herein.

(s) Effect of order on Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 122. This order shall supersede Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 122, except as to any sales or deliveries of solid fuels not specifically subject to this order.

NOTE: The record-keeping requirements of this order have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

[Region VII Order G-26 Under RMPR 122]

SOLID FUELS IN SPECIFIED TRADE AREAS IN DENVER REGION

Order No. G-26 under Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 122. Solid fuels sold and delivered by dealers. Maximum prices for solid fuels when sold by dealers within specified trade areas in Region VII.

Pursuant to the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, and §§ 1340.259 (a) and 1340.260 of Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 122, and for the reasons set forth in the accompanying opinion, this Order No. G-26 is issued.

General statement. This order brings together and integrates into a single order over twenty area pricing orders previously issued by this Regional Office. it also affords a simple method for extending area pricing of solid fuels to additional communities.

(a) What this order does. This order establishes area ceiling prices for certain solid fuels sold within various trade areas within Region VII. The general provisions applicable to all solid fuels and in all trade areas covered by this order are contained in the paragraphs that immediately follow. The special provisions and dollars-and-cents prices applicable in the individual trade areas are contained in separate appendices in paragraph (q). If any special provision is contrary to or inconsistent with any of the general provisions, the special provision shall be controlling in the area covered by the appendix containing that special provision. This order applies only to the solid fuels for which specific maximum prices are provided and only in the trade areas covered by the various appendices. As area pricing is extended new appendices will be added by amendment to paragraph (q).

(b) To what sales this order applies. If you sell coal of the kind specified in any one or more of the appendices set forth in paragraph (q) hereof and make delivery thereof either by truck direct from the mine or from or at your yard to any person within a trade area covered by the applicable appendix, the maximum prices which you may charge therefor and the customary discounts and allowances which you must give are those set forth in such appendix.

(c) Determination of mixed coal prices. If you mix sizes or kinds of coal, your maximum prices shall be the proportionate sum of the applicable maximum price per net ton established in this order for each of the coals so mixed, adjusted to the nearest five cents.

(d) When transportation tax may be collected. If on any purchase of coal made by you, you are required to pay the amount of the transportation tax imposed by section 620 of the Revenue Act of 1942, you may, in addition to the specific maximum prices established in the appendix applicable to your trade area, collect from the buyer the amount of such tax actually incurred or paid by you, or an amount equal to the amount of such tax paid by any of your prior suppliers and separately stated and collected from you by the supplier from whom you purchased, provided you state separately on your sales invoice, slip, ticket, or other memorandum, the amount of such tax so collected by you. But on sales to the United States or any agency thereof, or any state government or any political subdivision thereof, such tax need not be separately stated.

(e) What you must not do. Regardless of any contract or other obligation which you may have heretofore entered into, you shall not:

(1) Sell or in the course of trade or business buy solid fuels of the kinds and sizes covered by this order at prices higher than the maximum prices set forth in the applicable appendix; but you may sell or buy such coal at lower prices than such specific maximum prices.

(2) Obtain from a buyer anything of value over and above the applicable maximum price by:

(i) Changing or withdrawing your customary discounts, differentials, or allowances;

(ii) Charging for any service which is not expressly requested by the buyer; or

(iii) Charging for any service for which a charge is not specifically authorized by this order; or

(iv) Charging a price for any service higher than the price authorized by this order for such service; or

(v) Increasing your delivery charges, if any, for delivery outside the areas for which the maximum prices are herein set forth or increasing any interest rate on delinquent and past-due accounts over the rate or charge made by you in December, 1941; or

(vi) Using any tying agreement whereby the buyer is required or persuaded to purchase anything other than the fuel requested by him; or

(vii) Using any other device by which a price higher than your maximum price is obtained, either directly or indirectly.

(f) An increase in your supplier's prices does not authorize you to increase your prices. You must not increase the specific maximum prices established for you by this order to reflect in whole or in part any subsequent increase to you in your supplier's maximum prices for the fuel covered by this order. These specific maximum prices established for you by this order reflect all of the increases in the maximum prices of your supplier to the date hereof. If increase in your supplier's maximum prices shall occur after the effective date of this order, you may bring that fact to the attention of the Regional Administrator, whereupon he will take such appropriate action in the premises as the then existing facts and circumstances justify.

(g) Adjustable pricing. You may not make a price adjustable to a maximum price which becomes effective at some time after you have made delivery of the coal; but you may agree to sell at whatever maximum price is in effect at the time of delivery.

(h) Petition for amendment. If you desire an amendment of any provision of this order, you may file a petition therefor in accordance with the provisions of Revised Procedural Regulation No. 1, except that it shall be filed with the Regional Administrator and acted upon by him.

(i) Licensing. The provisions of Licensing Order No. 1, licensing all persons who make sales under price control, are applicable to all sellers subject to this order, regulation or schedule. A seller's license may be suspended for violations of the license or of one or more applicable price schedules or regulations. A person whose license is suspended may not, during the period of suspension, make any sale for which his license has been suspended.

(j) Applicability of other regulations. Except as inconsistent with or contradictory of the terms and provisions of this order, all of the terms and provisions of Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 122, except paragraph (c) of § 1340.262 thereof, as stated in paragraph (k) of this order, shall apply to all dealers selling and delivering coal in the areas covered hereby with like force and effect as though the same were rewritten herein. If you sell solid fuel of a kind or size not specifically priced by this order, all such sales and deliveries remain subject to the provisions of Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 122 and orders issued thereunder.

(k) Filing requirements. Dealers whose prices are established by this order shall not be required to file prices with their District OPA Office as previously required in § 1340.262 (c). However, prices for coals not specifically covered by this order shall be filed as required by that section.

(l) Definitions. (1) "Carry" or "wheel-in" means to transport coal from the vehicle in which delivery is made or from the nearest accessible point of dumping or unloading and place the same in the buyer's bin or storage space when the physical condition of the premises is such as to prevent dumping or unloading directly into such bin or storage space.

(2) "Pull-back" or "trimming" means to arrange and place coal in the buyer's bin by rehandling the same for the purpose of filling the bin; and applies only to the amount of coal actually rehandled.

(3) "Carrying up or down stairs" means generally the labor involved in carrying the coal up or down stairs for depositing in customer's bin or storage space.

(4) "Delivery" means delivery to the buyer's bin or storage space by dumping, chuting, or shovelling directly from the seller's truck or vehicle, or where such delivery to the buyer's bin or storage space is physically impossible, by discharging at the point nearest and most accessible to the buyer's bin or storage space and at which the coal can be discharged directly from the seller's truck.

(5) "Dealer" means any person selling solid fuels of any kind or size for which a maximum price is established by an appendix to this order for sales and deliveries made in the area covered by such appendix, but does not include transactions whereby a producer or distributor makes a sale at or from a mine or preparation plant operated as an adjunct of a mine.

(6) "Bituminous coal" means coal produced in Districts 16 to 20, both inclusive, and 22, and any sub-districts thereof, as set forth in the Minimum Price Schedules of the Bituminous Coal Division of the Department of the Interior and in effect as of midnight, August 23, 1943.

(m) Additional charges for delivering beyond trade area. For a delivery made to a place beyond the trade area as specified in the appendix applicable to you, you may make an additional charge not in excess of any such additional delivery charge you regularly made in December, 1941. If you are a dealer who was not in business in December, 1941, or if you were in business then but made no such deliveries, you may take for your additional delivery charge the charge of your nearest competitor who was established in business and did make such delivery charge in December, 1941.

(n) Records. Every person making a sale of solid fuel for which a maximum price is set by this order shall keep a record thereof showing the date, the name and address of the buyer, if known, the per-net-ton price charged and the solid fuel sold. The solid fuel shall be identified in the manner in which it is described in this order. The record shall also separately state each service rendered and the charge made for it.

(o) Bureau of the Budget approval. The reporting and record-keeping requirements of this order have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

(p) Right to revoke or amend. This order and any amendment or appendix hereto may be revoked, modified, or amended at any time by the Price Administrator or the Regional Administrator.

(q) Appendices establishing specific maximum prices for certain trade areas in Region VII.

All interested persons are referred to said Amendment No. 6, which is on file in the office of this Commission, for a statement of the transaction therein proposed, which is summarized as follows:

American Gas has contracted to sell all its interest in St. Augustine Gas Company ("St. Augustine") consisting of 2,771 shares of Common Stock of the par value of $100 each (including five directors' qualifying shares) to H. Hansell Hillyer of St. Louis, Missouri, for the sum of $100,000 plus the net earnings of St. Augustine from January 31, 1944, to the date of closing, pursuant to the terms and provisions of a contract of sale date April 3d, 1944. The proceeds to be derived by American Gas will be deposited with the Trustee under its Debenture Agreement, 5% and 6% Series, pursuant to the provisions of such agreement.

American Gas was directed to dispose of its interest in St. Augustine by this Commission's Order dated July 2, 1943 (entered in File No. 59–55 proceedings) pursuant to section 11 (b) (1) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935. The officer so designated to preside at any such hearing is hereby authorized to exercise all powers granted to the Commission under section 18 of the act and to a trial examiner under the Commission's rules of practice.

It is further ordered, That without limiting the scope of the issues presented in the consolidated proceedings, particular attention will be directed at the hearings to the following matters and questions:

1. Whether and to what extent it is necessary or appropriate in the public interest or for the protection of investors or consumers to impose terms or conditions in regard to the proposed sale having particular regard for the consideration to be received for such sale, maintenance of competitive conditions, fees and commissions, accounts, disclosure of interest, and similar matters.

2. Generally, whether the proposed transaction is in all respects in the public interest and in the interest of investors and consumers and consistent with all applicable requirements of the Act and the rules thereunder and, if not, what modification should be required to be made therein and what terms and conditions should be imposed to satisfy the statutory standards.

PART 81—PROCUREMENT OF MILITARY SUPPLIES AND ANIMALS

GENERAL PURCHASE POLICIES

In § 81.223 paragraphs (a) to (f), inclusive, are amended:

§ 81.223 Factors governing placement of contracts. The selection of a contractor for a particular contract from among the available qualified producers depends on a number of factors. In making such selections effect must be given to various policies expressed by the Office of War Mobilization, by the War Production Board (see Directive No. 2, 18 September 1942; 8 F.R. 12968), by the War Manpower Commission in its directives and by Congress, as in the Smaller War Plants Act. These policies, their relation and relative importance are discussed in the following paragraphs, which are applicable both to the placement of new business and to the revision or reduction of existing programs:

(a) Ability to perform. Primary emphasis shall be placed upon securing performance or deliveries at the time, in the quantity, and of the quality required by the war program. As indicated in paragraph (a) of § 81.222, the objective is to insure delivery in time to avoid delays in the war program, but to avoid creation of unnecessary inventories.

(b) War Manpower Commission labor areas. The War Manpower Commission has divided the country into twelve regions and from time to time classifies localities in each region according to their labor supply conditions and on this basis designates them as:

Group I—Areas of current acute labor shortage.

Group II—Areas of labor stringency and those anticipating a labor shortage within six months.

Group III—Areas in which a slight labor surplus will remain after six months.

Group IV—Areas in which labor supply is and will continue to be adequate to meet all known labor requirements.

The Industrial Personnel Division, Headquarters, Army Service Forces, will advise the technical services monthly, or more often if conditions warrant, of the designations of the War Manpower Commission.

(c) Area Production Urgency Committee areas. Effective 15 September 1943 the Office of War Mobilization announced a program for dealing with the acute labor shortage problem in certain localities of the West Coast. On 5 October 1943 the War Production Board announced a program for the placement of contracts in the States of Washington, Oregon, and California. The War Production Board announced a similar program for the Hartford, Connecticut, Akron, Ohio, and Detroit, Michigan, areas on 15 October 1943, and for the Cleveland, Ohio, and Buffalo, New York, areas on 14 December 1943. Area Production Urgency Committees have been appointed for and are functioning in respect of these unusually critical labor areas. Similar programs may be adopted for other such labor areas, in which event any necessary directives will be issued prescribing the procedures to be followed for complying therewith. The policies stated in paragraphs (d) to (h) of this section and in § 81.224 will be subject to the requirements of such directives.

(d) Policy with respect to placing of contracts in labor shortage areas. The following policies will be observed with respect to the placing of contracts in the labor shortage areas:

(1) Group I areas for which Area Production Urgency Committees have been appointed—(i) Contracts not requiring clearance of Committee; reporting as to intended placement. (a) Except to the extent provided in any directive issued after 1 February 1944 as to any Group I Area for which an Area Production Committee has been appointed, the provisions of which directive will control as to the placement of contracts in that area until revoked,[1] the following types of contracts may be placed in these areas without clearance with, or approval of, the appropriate Committee:

(1) New and continuation contracts which cannot be placed elsewhere with adequate assurance of obtaining satisfactory performance and timely deliveries and which will not increase employment in the contractor's plant; and

(2) New and continuation contracts with independent contractors (those not subsidiaries of larger concerns) that employ no more than 100 persons (excluding office and sales personnel) which will result in no increase whatsoever in the number of persons so employed; for example, an independent concern employing 30 persons, if performance of the contract will not require it to increase the number above 30: Provided, That such contracts may be placed with independent contractors in the States of Washington, Oregon or California only if they employ no more than 50 such persons.

(b) Although such contracts may be placed in any such area without approval of the appropriate Committee, nevertheless before such placement of an unclassified contract of a total value in excess of $50,000, there will be transmitted to the Appropriate Committee four copies of form GA–861, duly completed, which will have endorsed thereon the proposed contract number and the legend "For Information Only". These will be transmitted through the Army representative on the Committee, or in the case of the Army Air Forces the Army Air Forces representative on the Committee, at least seven days before placement of the contract, unless this will unduly delay production, in which case they will be transmitted as far before placement as is practicable.

(ii) Contracts requiring clearance of Committee; application for such clearance. (a) The following types of contracts must be cleared with the appropriate Area Production Urgency Committee before placement in any Group I area for which a Committee has been appointed and may be placed in these areas only if such placement has been approved by the Committee:

(1) New and continuation contracts which cannot be placed elsewhere with adequate assurance of obtaining satisfactory performance and timely deliveries but which will increase employment in the contractor's plant;

(2) New contracts which can be placed elsewhere with adequate assurance of obtaining satisfactory performance and timely deliveries but which the technical service believes should be placed in the area, as, for example, to effect a substantial saving in transportation;

(3) Continuation contracts which can be placed elsewhere with adequate assurance of obtaining satisfactory performance and timely deliveries but which the technical service desires to continue in the area, as, for example, to prevent an undue hardship to the contractor which might result from withholding continuation orders.

(b) Since the Committee areas are the most critical of all the Group I areas, the technical services will not request Committee approval under subdivisions (2) or (3) above for any contract which the technical services are not authorized to place in non-Committee Group I areas under paragraph (d) (2) of this section.

(c) Applications for clearance by the Committee will be made to the Committee for the area in which the facilities of the contractor at which the work, or a major part of the work, will be done are situated. Applications, which may seek approval of a single contract or an entire program, will be submitted in four copies on Form GA–861 and will be transmitted through the Army, or in the case of the Army Air Forces the Army Air Forces, representative on the Committee.

(2) Group I areas for which no Area Production Committee has been appointed. It is the intent to avoid so far as possible the placement of contracts

[1] Special restrictions upon the placement and continuation of contracts in the Hartford, Connecticut, area are stated in Army Service Forces Circular No. 38 of 3 February 1944, to which reference is made for the policy governing placement in that area so long as the provisions of such circular are in effect.

in these areas. The only contracts which may be placed in these areas are those:

(i) Which cannot be placed elsewhere with adequate assurance of obtaining satisfactory performance and timely deliveries; or

(ii) For which established special facilities exist and for which labor has been specially trained; or

(iii) Which, in the considered judgment of the chief of the technical service concerned, or of any person or persons to whom he may delegate his authority in this respect, it is impracticable to place elsewhere.

(3) Group II areas. The following types of contracts may be placed in Group II areas:

(i) Continuation contracts which will require no labor in addition to that currently employed by the contractor and

(ii) New and continuation contracts which cannot be placed in a Group III, IV or an unclassified area with adequate assurance of satisfactory performances and timely deliveries.

(4) Exceptions as to restrictions applying to Group I and Group II areas. (i) The foregoing restrictions upon the placement of contracts contained in subparagraphs (1) to (4) of this paragraph (d) do not apply to contracts with originating manufacturers for newly developed articles placed in accordance with § 81.224. The provisions of subparagraph (1) (i) (b) of this paragraph (d), with respect to reporting placement to the Area Production Urgency Committee, however, apply in the event such contracts are placed in a Group I area for which a Committee has been appointed.

(ii) The restrictions contained in subparagraphs (2) and (3) do not apply with respect to contracts with firms which currently employ less than 100 wage earners and which will not employ more than 100 wage earners during the performance of the contract.

(5) Group III and unclassified areas. There are no restrictions upon the placement of contracts in Group III and unclassified areas.

(e) Policy with respect to placing of contracts in labor surplus areas. It is the policy of the War Department to make every effort to place a substantial amount of its business with concerns located in Group IV areas, to the extent placement there is consistent with other procurement objectives and satisfactory performance and timely deliveries can be assured.

(f) Subcontracting in labor shortage areas. (1) Prime contractors holding the bulk of War Department contracts have received a request from the Under Secretary of War to apply principles similar to those described in paragraphs (d) and (e) of this section, in placing their subcontracts for the fabrication of products required by their prime contracts. When new prime contracts which may involve subcontracting are made, the prime contractors will be advised of these principles by contracting officers and will be strongly urged to apply them in placing subcontracts.

(2) Where to give effect to changes in the classification of labor supply areas occurring after the execution of a particular prime contract would decrease the efficiency or increase the cost of placing recurring subcontracts thereunder, the chief of a technical service or his duly authorized representative is authorized, pursuant to the First War Powers Act, 1941, to enter into and approve supplemental agreements to provide for the payment of any increased price to the prime contractor to cover increased costs resulting from such changes in subcontracting, in the same manner as provided in paragraph (f) (3) of § 81.225. It is hereby determined that supplemental agreements entered into for this purpose will facilitate the prosecution of the war.

(3) Many prime contractors are regularly receiving the monthly classification of labor market areas issued by the War Manpower Commission. Arrangements may be made to have additional prime contractors supplied with them by communicating directly with the Division of Procurement Policy, War Production Board, Washington, D. C.

The following rule of thumb is prescribed to resolve the difficulty in such cases: It will be assumed for the purpose of making the determination that the contract will run for a period of three years from its starting date, and the aggregate charge will be estimated on this basis. If the aggregate charge, so estimated, is $20,000 or more, the Disputes article will be included in the contract; if less than $20,000 the article may be included at the option of the contractor.

PLANT FACILITIES EXPANSIONS

Section 81.1004a is added:

§ 81.1004a Use of War Department owned machine tools and other industrial equipment for other than War Department production—(a) Use by contractor under other contracts or for commercial production. To promote the most effective possible use of Government owned machine tools and other industrial equipment which have been furnished to private concerns under War Department facilities contracts, the chief of each technical service, or his duly authorized representative, is authorized hereby to permit the use of such machine tools or equipment by the contractor under the conditions hereinafter set forth: Provided, That the War Department does not for the time being require such machine tools and equipment for its own production at the contractor's plant. Such use may be permitted:

(1) Where such machine tools and equipment are to be used by the contractor for the performance of other war contracts, either as a prime contractor with any Government department or agency or as a subcontractor.

(2) Where such machine tools and equipment are to be used by the contractor for the production of items determined by the Director, Production Division, Headquarters, Army Service Forces or by the chief of the technical service, or by the duly authorized representative of either of them, to be of importance in some direct and immediate manner to the prosecution of the war or to the national defense. In such cases instruments authorizing the use shall provide for a limitation of such use to a definite period of time or to a definite quantity of production.

(3) Where such machine tools and equipment are to be used by the contractor for other commercial production not directly connected with war procurement and not of the type mentioned in subparagraph (2) above: Provided, That the instrument permitting such use expressly states that such permission is granted subject to termination at any time by the chief of the technical service or his duly authorized representative upon written notice to the contractor.

(b) Lease agreement. In all instances a fair and reasonable rental will be charged for the use of such machine tools and equipment in an amount determined by the chief of the technical service or his duly authorized representative to be adequate to protect the Government's interest. The lease agreement must make provision for proper repair and maintenance of such machine tools and equipment.

(c) Quarterly summary report. A summary report will be made by the chief of each technical service quarterly (as of 31 March, 30 June, 30 September and 31 December) to the Director, Production Division, Headquarters, Army Service Forces, giving a summary statement of the approximate value of such machine tools and equipment so leased or used and the number of units involved.

(d) Statutory authority for lease. Each instrument authorizing the lease or use of such machine tools and equipment in accordance with these regulations will be made pursuant to Public Law 703, 76th Congress (as amended by Public Law 580, 77th Congress, section 13) and to Title II of the First War Powers Act and Executive Order No. 9001.

(e) Determination as to benefits from permitted use of machine tools and other industrial equipment. It is hereby determined that the use to full advantage of Government owned machine tools and other industrial equipment which have been furnished to War Department contractors under facilities agreements, when such machine tools and equipment would otherwise be idle or unproductive:

(1) Will increase production required for war purposes and for the national economy, thereby promoting the interest of national defense and facilitating the prosecution of the war, and

(2) Will tend to reduce the cost to the Government of the war procurement program by obtaining fair compensation for the use of such machine tools and equipment, when idle, much of which is rapidly depreciating in value, and

The primary purpose of the authority granted by paragraph (a) (3) is to provide for the effective use of machine tools and other equipment (1) during the period of circularization and pending determination of its appropriate disposition, and (2) during intervals in war production in the plant of the contractor having custody of such machine tools and equipment.

§ 81.1207 Articles authorized. Standard forms of contract articles approved for use in accordance with this procurement regulation No. 12 (§§ 81.1200–81.1292) are set forth in paragraphs (a) (Form I), (b) (Form II), and (c) (Form III) of § 81.342. Except as expressly authorized in this procurement regulation No. 12 or subsequent instructions, deviations from the standard articles will not be used.

§ 81.1208 Use of articles. (a) Form I will be used in all fixed price or cost-plus-a-fixed-fee contracts made after 26 March 1944 involving an estimated amount of more than $100,000 unless such contract is exempt under subsection (i) (1) of the 1943 Act (§ 81.1204) or is exempted pursuant to subsection (i) (4) (§ 81.1205).

(b) If a contract involving an estimated amount of more than $100,000 and made after 26 March 1944 is exempted pursuant to subsection (i) (4) of the 1943 Act (§ 81.1205), Form I will not be used and Form II will be inserted, unless all subcontracts thereunder are also exempt. If the contract is exempt under subsection (i) (1) of the 1943 Act (paragraphs (a) to (e) of § 81.1204), no renegotiation article will be inserted.

(c) Form III will be inserted (in addition to any renegotiation article contained in the original contract as amended) in each supplemental agreement (including change orders) involving an estimated amount of more than $100,000 unless such supplemental agreement is exempt under subsection (i) (1) contract as amended contains Form I or Form II. If the supplemental agreement is exempt under subsection (i) (1) of the 1943 Act (paragraphs (a) to (e) of § 81.1204), no renegotiation article need be inserted. If the supplemental agreement has been exempted pursuant to subsection (i) (4) of the 1943 Act (§ 81.1205 et seq.), Form II will be used, unless all subcontracts thereunder are also exempt, and section (c) of Form III will be added.

§ 81.1209 Optional provisions in subcontracts. Where a contractor with the War Department or a subcontractor under a prime contract with the War Department is required by his contract or subcontract to insert a renegotiation article in his subcontracts, and there is doubt (a) whether an agreement or order which he proposes to make or place is a subcontract under the Renegotiation Act, or (b) whether it is exempt from renegotiation under subsection (i) of the Renegotiation Act, he should insert the prescribed renegotiation article in the agreement or order, but may add the following additional provision at the end of the article:

This article shall apply to this contract only if it is a "subcontract" subject to renegotiation under the Renegotiation Act.

§ 81.1210 Use of other articles. Statutory renegotiation under the contract articles discussed in this section is for the purpose of eliminating excessive profits and is handled by the War Contracts Price Adjustment Board, the War Department Price Adjustment Board and Price Adjustment Sections. As authorized by the 1943 Act, it is conducted on an over-all basis for the contractor's fiscal year rather than by individual contracts, although the Board may renegotiate by individual contracts at the request of the contractor or subcontractor. Various other articles discussed in the following sections designed to provide for adjustment of the price of the specific contract to meet various types of conditions, may be used in addition to the contract articles for statutory renegotiation.

Section 81.1245 is rescinded:

[Procurement Reg. 15]

PART 88—TERMINATION OF CONTRACTS

TERMINATION OF CONTRACTS FOR THE CONVENIENCE OF THE GOVERNMENT

In § 88.15–325 paragraphs (a) and (b) are amended, paragraph (c) is redesignated (d) and a new paragraph (c) is added:

§ 88.15–325 Termination and settlement of subcontracts—(a) Duty to terminate. Paragraph (b) (3) of the uniform termination article (§§ 81.324 and 88.15–901) for lump sum supply contracts[1] requires that the prime contractor "terminate all orders and subcontracts to the extent that they relate to the performance of any work terminated by the Notice of Termination", except as otherwise directed by the contracting officer. This obligation of the contractor should be performed immediately upon receipt of the notice of termination. Settling with the subcontractors and suppliers then becomes an obligation and responsibility of the contractor, subject to the approval (when required) of settlements by the contracting officer.

(b) Rights of subcontractors. Under uniform termination article (§§ 81.324 and 88.15–901) for lump sum contracts,[2] subcontractors and suppliers have no direct rights against the Government upon the termination of a prime contract for the convenience of the Government. The rights of such subcontractors and suppliers are against the prime contractor or intermediate subcontractor who is directly obligated to them on the subcontract or purchase order which they hold. The extent of these rights will generally depend upon the terms of the subcontract or purchase order in question.

(c) Settlement of subcontracts. (1) Paragraph (b) (5) of the uniform termination article (§§ 81.324 and 88.15–901) for lump sum supply contracts[3] provides that after receipt of a Notice of Termination, the contractor shall terminate all orders and subcontracts to the extent that they relate to the performance of work terminated and shall "settle all claims arising out of such termination of orders and subcontracts with the approval or ratifications of the Contracting Officer to the extent that he may require, which approval or ratification shall be final for all the purposes of" such article.

(2) The contracting officer in his discretion may authorize the prime contractor to make settlements of subcontracts within some stated figure, where the contracting officer has confidence that such authority will be exercised fairly and reasonably. The contracting

[1] A similar provision is found in paragraph (a) (1) of the old standard termination article (§ 88.15–901a) formerly authorized for lump sum supply contracts and in paragraph (b) (2) of the standard termination article (§ 81.324 (b)) for lump sum construction contracts.

[2] Subcontractors also have no direct rights against the Government in the event of termination under the old standard termination article (§ 88.15–901a) formerly authorized for lump sum supply contracts under the standard termination article (§ 81.324 (b)) for lump sum construction contracts.

[3] The old standard termination article (§ 88.15–901a) formerly authorized for lump sum supply contracts and the standard termination article (§ 81.324 (b)) for lump sum construction contracts contain no requirement that subcontract settlements be approved or ratified by the contracting officer where settlement of the prime contract is on a negotiated basis. However, because such articles provide that the contractor will be reimbursed for such of his costs, expenditures, liabilities, commitments and work as was "reasonably necessary", many contractors requested approval of contracting officers before making subcontract settlements. In addition, such articles require approval by the contracting officer of such settlements as a condition of reimbursing the contractor in a settlement by formula.

officer ordinarily should not require that settlements made by subcontractors with second tier and more remote subcontractors and suppliers be submitted for his prior approval, although he may do so and he may give such approval in any proper case when it is requested. Such settlements should usually be approved after they have been made unless in particular instances the settlements appear to have been made in bad faith. The contracting officer in requiring and granting approval of settlements of subcontracts, particularly those made with second tier and more remote subcontractors, should act reasonably, without unnecessary formality and with recognition of the fact that, as a practical matter, it is impossible for him to attempt to scrutinize such settlements in detail, except in cases where he had cause to doubt the good faith or reliability of the contractor (or other person claiming through him) making the settlement.

(d) Action to be taken by prime contractor with respect to settlement of subcontracts. * * *

In § 88.15–350 (d) subparagraph (3) is amended:

§ 88.15–350 Sale of property. * * *

(d) Protection of the rights of assignees and the Government. * * *

(3) Where the Government has made advance payments, or partial payments pursuant to §§ 88.15–500 to 88.15–506, or participated in guaranteed loans, related to the contract in process of termination, the interest of the Government in preserving adequate security or obtaining payment where property is to be retained by the contractor or in the proceeds of the property which is to be sold or retained for sale by the contractor should be protected by proper coordination, in advance, with the officers or Branch charged with the administration of such advance payments, partial payments, or loans.

Section 88.15–353 is amended to read as follows:

§ 88.15–353 Where contractor or subcontractor is willing to forego reimbursement for the cost of any property. Frequently as to certain property (e. g. standard materials and parts) the contractor will be willing to retain or take over property at cost and agree not to include such property in any request for reimbursement. Unless in rare instances where the contracting officer wants the specific property transferred to the Government (as, for example, because it is a critical material or because it has risen sharply in value) it will be normal procedure for the contracting officer to notify the contractor, at the time of serving the termination notice or by subsequent written instructions (see par. 7a of suggested instructions to contractor, § 88.15–936), that, without further authority of the contracting officer, the contractor may retain any property to which he has title if he agrees to make no request for reimbursement. The contracting officer should direct the contractor similarly to advise subcontractors and suppliers. However, in any case where there is an advance payment or partial payment outstanding with respect to the contract, or a guaranteed loan outstanding to the contractor, subcontractor or supplier, no such blanket authority will be given by the contracting officer without proper coordination in advance with the officers or branch charged with the administration of advance payments, partial payments, or guaranteed loans, as provided in § 88.15–350 (d) (3). Where such blanket authority has previously been granted, it should appropriately be limited or conditioned, if the interests of the Government so require, before an advance or partial payment is thereafter made.

In § 88.15–501 paragraph (b) is amended as follows:

§ 88.15–501 Partial payments to prime contractors. * * *

(b) Criteria. Partial payments are authorized to be made wherever:

(1) The contractor represents that at least the amount of the proposed partial payment is due;

(2) The contracting officer is satisfied that such amount is clearly within the amount due to the contractor in connection with the termination; and

(3) Such amount is payable without prejudice to the determination of any of the other items involved in the termination. Subject to the provisions of §§ 88.15–504 to 88.15–506 partial payment in the agreed amount may be made as soon as these two determinations have been made.

In § 88.15–806 paragraph (a) is amended as follows:

§ 88.15–806 Instructions with respect to report form—(a) Successive partial terminations. (1) In the event that successive partial terminations are effected in regard to one prime contract, each such termination will be treated as a separate transaction (see paragraph (d) (1) of this section) unless it is intended to settle all partial terminations in one supplemental agreement.

(2) When a further termination is made against a contract which has already been partially terminated, and it is intended to settle all partial terminations in one supplemental agreement, the previous partial termination or terminations should be listed in the "Rescinded" section of the Monthly Status Report with an appropriate explanation. The total terminations "to date" against the contract would then be picked up as a single authorized case under the date of one latest current termination.

In § 88.15–912 (a) a footnote is added in connection with paragraph 8 of notice to prime contractor;

§ 88.15–912 Lump sum supply or construction contracts—(a) Letter notice to prime contractor. * * *

ARTICLE II. The payment provided for herein, together with any prior payments received by the contractor in connection with such termination, shall be without prejudice to the right to receive any additional amounts to which the contractor may be entitled as a result of such termination.

ARTICLE III. Said payments shall be applied against the amount finally determined to be payable by the Government to the contractor in connection with such termination. If such payments exceed the amount finally determined to be payable to the contractor in connection with such termination, the contractor agrees to repay the excess to the Government on demand together with interest thereon at the rate of 6% per annum from the date of receipt of such excess payment by the contractor to the date of the repayment of such excess. In the event that an excess payment results from credits arising in favor of the Government by reason of the retention or disposition of property by

(c) Upon receipt of such advance notice, the authorized representative of the owner of or agency controlling the bridge, in compliance therewith, shall arrange for the prompt opening of the draw at the time specified in the notice for the passage of the vessel.

(d) The owner of or agency controlling the bridge shall keep conspicuously posted on both the upstream and downstream sides thereof, in such manner that it can be easily read at any time, a copy of these regulations together with a notice stating exactly how the representative specified in paragraph (b) may be reached.

(e) The operating machinery of the draw shall be maintained in a serviceable condition, and the draw shall be opened and closed at intervals frequent enough to make certain that the machinery is in proper order for satisfactory operation. (28 Stat. 362; 33 U.S.C. 499) [Regs. 11 April 1944, CE 823 (Manantico Creek—Millville—Port Elizabeth, N. J.—Mile 0.5)—SPEWR]

PART 3293—CHEMICALS

[General Allocation Order M-300, Schedule 13]

DIPENTENE

§ 3293.1013 Schedule 13 to General Allocation Order M-300—(a) Definition. "Dipentene" means certain terpene solvents, consisting largely or entirely of mono cyclic terpene hydrocarbons of the empirical formula $C_{10}H_{16}$, having a distilling range and solvent power above that of turpentine.

(b) General provisions. Dipentene is subject to allocation under General Allocation Order M-300, as an Appendix B material. The initial allocation date is May 1, 1944. The allocation period is the calendar month. The small order exemption is 5 gallons per person per month.

(c) Suppliers' applications on Form WPB-2947. (1) Each supplier seeking authorization to use or deliver dipentene shall file application on Form WPB-2947 (formerly PD-602) on or before the 20th day of the month preceding the proposed delivery month.

(2) Form WPB-2497 should be completely filled in. The unit of measure is gallons. No grade need be specified.

(3) List, individually, the names of customers who have ordered more than the quantity permitted for small orders. No such orders shall be listed or filled unless the customer has filed with the supplier the required end use certificate. An aggregate quantity may be requested for "small orders" without listing the names of the individuals placing the small orders.

(4) Normally the War Production Board will issue its authorizations and directions for delivery by returning Form WPB-2947 to the supplier showing the amount which may be delivered to each customer and the aggregate amount which may be delivered to fill small orders.

(d) Customers' certificate of end use. (1) Each person ordering for delivery in any month more than the quantity permitted by the small order exemption shall furnish to each supplier with whom an order is placed a certified statement, in the form and subject to the instructions set forth in Appendix D of General Allocation Order M-300, specifying each separate proposed use to be made of the dipentene and the quantity desired for each such use. Customers' orders accompanied by such certifications should be in the hands of suppliers not later than the 15th day of the month preceding the period during which delivery is sought.

(2) No supplier shall deliver dipentene to any person when he knows or has reason to believe such person's certificate to be false; but in the absence of such knowledge or reason to believe, the supplier may rely on the certificate.

(e) Customer's one-time report. (1) Each person (excluding government departments or agencies) who orders for delivery in any month more than the exempt quantity of dipentene shall file with the War Production Board—one time only—a report on Form WPB-3442. The report shall be filed not later than the 20th day of the month during which delivery of dipentene is sought for the first time, but in any case the report need not be filed before May 20, 1944.

(2) Copies of Form WPB-3442 may be obtained at local field offices of the War Production Board. One copy shall be forwarded to the War Production Board. In section I, above Column (c), specify "calendar year, 1943"; Columns (d) to (g) may be left blank. In section II, Column (b) the date to be specified is December 31, 1943; in Column (c) the date to be specified is the last day of the month preceding the month in which the report is filed. Column (d) may be left blank.

(f) Communications to War Production Board. All reports required to be filed hereunder and all communications concerning this Schedule shall, unless otherwise directed, be addressed to War Production Board, Chemicals Bureau, Washington 25, D. C., Ref: M-300-Schedule 13.

NOTE: Forms WPB-2947 and 3442 and the instructions in this schedule and the appendices of Order M-300 for applications and reports regarding dipentene have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

Issued this 17th day of April 1944.

PART 3087—ELECTRICAL INDICATING INSTRUMENTS

[General Limitation Order L-203, Revocation]

Section 3087.1 General Limitation Order L-203 is revoked. This revocation does not affect any liability incurred under the order. Manufacturers of electrical indicating instruments must, however, continue to observe any frozen schedules or specific directions which they have received under Order L-203 until they expire by their terms (See Direction 1 to General Scheduling Order M-293). Such manufacturers should also observe carefully the provisions of General Scheduling Order M-293 (and especially Table 9 to Order M-293) which now supersedes Order L-203 with respect to screening purchase orders and scheduling these instruments.

Issued this 15th day of March 1944.

PART 3175—REGULATIONS APPLICABLE TO THE CONTROLLED MATERIALS PLAN

[CMP Reg. 9A, as Amended Apr. 15, 1944]

PARTS AND MATERIALS FOR REPAIRMEN

§ 3175.9a CMP Regulation 9A—(a) What repairmen can buy materials and parts under this regulation. Anyone in the business of making repairs may buy materials and parts under this regulation. This includes such persons as farm machinery repair shops, blacksmiths shops, electricians, radio repair shops, plumbers, refrigeration repair shops, boiler repair shops, motor rewinders, electrical contractors, automotive repair shops, upholstery repair shops, bicycle repair shops, and carpenters. It also includes repair shops which are owned by the persons for whom the repair work is done if that person can segregate the purchases of his repair shop from his other purchases. It also includes persons who recondition or rebuild damaged or used items for resale.

(b) How much materials a repairman can buy. Each calendar quarter a repairman may buy, under this regulation, up to 20 tons of carbon and alloy steel, a total of 500 pounds of copper and copper base alloy brass mill and foundry products, and 200 pounds of aluminum, in the forms listed in Schedule I. In addition, refrigeration repairmen, domestic appliance repairmen, electricians, electrical contractors, and radio repairmen may buy $150 worth of copper wire, or one-eighth of what they used in making repairs in 1941 (figured as accurately as possible by dollar value), whichever is more. A repairman may buy as much other material and repair parts as he needs for his maintenance and repair work.

(c) How to buy materials under this regulation. (1) When buying materials and parts under this regulation a repairman must put on his order a certification in substantially the following form:

CMP Allotment Symbol V–3; Preference Rating AA–3

The undersigned purchaser certifies, subject to the penalties of section 35 (A) of the United States Criminal Code, to the seller and to the War Production Board, that, to the best of his knowledge and belief, the undersigned is authorized under applicable War Production Board regulations or orders to place this delivery order, to receive the items ordered for the purpose for which ordered, and to use any preference rating or allotment number or symbol which the undersigned has placed on this order.

He must sign the certification himself, or as described in Priorities Regulation No. 7. An order for controlled materials bearing this certification is an authorized controlled material order under all CMP regulations.

(2) If a repairman does repair work for persons who have the right to use a preference rating higher than AA–3 to buy non-controlled materials and parts for their own maintenance, and repair, the repairman may use that rating to buy what he needs to do their work or to replace in inventory what he has already used for that purpose.

(d) How a repairman can get more controlled materials. (1) The War Production Board may authorize repairmen who do work primarily of an industrial nature to buy up to 2000 pounds of copper wire and a total of 2000 pounds of copper and copper base alloy brass mill and foundry products, and to use the preference rating AA–2. To get this authority, a repairman must apply to the War Production Board, Reference CMP Regulation No. 9A, Washington (25), D. C., by letter giving information showing what kind of work he is doing, and what kind of customers he has.

(2) If a repairman needs to buy more controlled materials a quarter than he can get under this regulation including what an industrial repairman can get under paragraph (1), he should fill out and send Form CMP–4B to the War Production Board, Washington (25), D. C. The War Production Board may allot him controlled materials and assign him a preference rating. If he gets an allotment, he may not buy any controlled materials or non-controlled materials or parts under this regulation.

(e) What kind of work a repairman may do with materials or parts bought under this regulation. A repairman may use what he buys under this regulation only to do maintenance and repair work. He may not use what he buys to make products, such as repair parts, which he does not expect to use himself in making repairs.

A repairman may use what he buys under this regulation to recondition or rebuild a damaged or used item which he plans to sell, but he may not use it to replace material or parts which are still usable, nor to replace material or parts solely to improve it from its original design.

(f) Restrictions on inventory. A repairman may not accept delivery of any item of parts or materials bought under this regulation if his inventory of that item of parts or materials is or would by accepting delivery become larger than he needs to continue his repair and maintenance service for a 60-day period, according to his current method of operation. A repairman may not accept delivery of any item of copper wire if his inventory of that item is or would by accepting delivery become more than he needs for a 15-day period. However, if the supply of any item which he has on hand is less than the permitted amount, he may accept delivery of the smallest commercial amount of that item which his distributor normally sells, even if that will increase his supply beyond the amount specified.

(g) Effect of other orders and regulations. (1) Repairmen buying and using parts and materials under this regulation are subject to all applicable provisions of the other orders and regulations of the War Production Board as amended from time to time. Attention is specifically called to the provisions of Conservation Order M–9–c and M–9–c–4 which limit the use of copper, Order M–1–i which limits the use of aluminum, Order M–126 which limits the use of steel, and Order L–41 which forbids construction (including wiring and piping) except under certain conditions. Information concerning these orders can be secured from the nearest War Production Board field office.

(2) No item appearing on List A or B of Priorities Regulation No. 3, (such as automotive repair parts) may be bought under this regulation.

(3) Certain orders of the War Production Board require special applications for some materials and parts. An example of this type of order is M–328, Textiles. A repairman will not be able to buy these materials and parts under this regulation. Generally his supplier can tell him if a special application is needed.

(g–1) Certain items may not be rated by a repairman. No repairman may use the AA–3 rating assigned by this regulation to buy any of the following items. These items are made available to repairmen and retailers on a pro-rata basis without the use of ratings, and a repairman does not need a rating to get his fair share.

The following radio repair items:

Capacitors (CMP Code No. 500).
Microphones and loudspeakers (CMP Code No. 505).
Resistors (CMP Code No. 508).
Transformers (CMP Code No. 510).
Tubes (CMP Code No. 511).

Paint.

(h) Communications. Any communications or appeals under this regulation should be made by writing a letter to the War Production Board, Reference CMP Regulation 9A, Washington (25), D. C.

Issued this 15th day of April 1944.

INTERPRETATION 1

REPAIR PARTS

Paragraph (b) of CMP Regulation 9A assigns a preference rating of AA-3 to a repairman to buy repair parts and materials for carrying on his repair work. The term "repair parts and materials" does not include any complete item ordinarily used by itself. For instance, a repairman can use the rating to buy grates which he requires in repairing furnaces, but cannot buy a complete furnace by use of the rating. Similarly, an industrial repairman could buy a gear needed to repair a lathe but could not buy a complete lathe. (Issued Dec. 15, 1943.)

PART 3175—REGULATIONS APPLICABLE TO THE CONTROLLED MATERIALS PLAN

[CMP Reg. 9A, Interpretation 2]

RESPONSIBILITIES OF DISTRIBUTORS OF MATERIALS AND PARTS TO REPAIRMEN

The following interpretation is issued with respect to CMP Regulation 9A:

(a) A distributor who receives an order under CMP Regulation No. 9A is entitled to rely upon the customer's certification that he is entitled to place the order, and is not required to find out whether his customer is complying with the regulation, unless he knows or reasonably believes otherwise. However, in the case of copper tubing which a distributor bought under Direction 1, the distributor must know or reasonably believe that his customer is a refrigeration, automotive, or gas or oil burner repairman. If he delivers materials or parts under those circumstances in good faith, he is not responsible even though in fact his customer was not entitled to buy the materials or parts, or used them to do work not permitted by paragraph (e) of the regulation.

(b) Sometimes a distributor will receive both MRO orders and V-3 orders from the same customer. Paragraph (g-1) of CMP Regulation 5, and paragraph (c) (2) of CMP Regulation 9A, allow a repairman to use his customer's MRO symbol and rating to get materials needed for repair, in addition to materials bought with the rating and symbol assigned by CMP Regulation 9A. Hence, unless he knows or has reason to believe that his customer does not have the right to use both symbols and the related preference ratings, the distributor may rely upon the customer's certification that he is entitled to use them.

PART 3290—TEXTILE, CLOTHING AND LEATHER

[General Conservation Order M-356, as Amended Apr. 15, 1944]

SYNTHETIC FIBERS, YARNS AND FABRICS

The fulfillment of requirements for the defense of the United States has created shortages in the supplies of synthetic fibers, yarns and fabrics for defense, for private account and for export; and the following order is deemed necessary and appropriate in the public interest and to promote the national defense:

Nylon

§ 3290.326 General Conservation Order M-356—(a) Definitions. (1) "Nylon" means synthetic fiber-forming polymeric amides having a protein-like chemical structure, derivable from coal, air and water, or other substances, and characterized by extreme toughness and strength and the peculiar ability to be formed into fibers (yarns and fabrics) and into various shapes, such as bristles, sheets, etc. "Nylon" also means fibers, yarn, thread and fabrics made of nylon.

(2) "Nylon waste" means waste, noils and garnetted or reclaimed fibers (including scraps and clippings, generated in the manufacture of thread, fabrics, rope, braiding or other material containing nylon) the total nylon content of which is 95% or more by weight.

(b) Restrictions on nylon. (1) No person shall sell or deliver nylon except as specifically authorized in writing by the War Production Board.

(2) No person shall knowingly purchase, accept delivery or commercially use nylon contrary to any restriction of the War Production Board.

(c) Restrictions on nylon waste. No person shall sell, purchase, deliver, accept delivery, process or commercially use nylon waste except to recover nylon flake. No person shall mix nylon waste with any other waste material having less than 95% nylon content by weight.

Export of Fine Rayon Yarn and Rayon Fabrics

(d) Definitions. (1) "Rayon fabrics" mean broad woven synthetic fabrics (over 24 inches in width) made from continuous filament viscose yarn, cuprammonium yarn or cellulose acetate yarn, from viscose or acetate staple fiber, or from combinations or blends containing more than 50 per cent by weight of any such synthetic yarns. The term shall not include velvets, plushes, and other pile fabrics, upholstery, drapery and tapestry fabrics, and jacquard woven fabrics.

(2) "Fabric producer" means a person who wove, or caused to be woven for him on commission, an average of more than 25,000 yards of rayon fabrics per week during the three months' period ending September 30, 1943. Wherever the words "his total yardage production" or "produced by him" are used in paragraph (e), they refer to the yardage of rayon fabrics manufactured for, as well as by, the fabric producer.

(3) "Procurement orders" mean orders for rayon fabrics placed by the Army or Navy of the United States (including military exchanges and service departments when the order bears the appropriate endorsement referred to in paragraph (c) of Priority Regulation 17), the Maritime Commission or War Shipping Administration.

(4) "Export orders" means, with respect to fine rayon yarns as defined in General Preference Order M-37-d, orders bearing a preference rating of AA-3 or higher, and with respect to rayon fabrics, orders bearing a preference rating of AA-5 or higher, for material which is covered by or the subject of one of the following:

(i) An export license issued by Foreign Economic Administration.

(ii) A release certificate issued by or pursuant to the authority of Foreign Economic Administration in connection with a program license of the Foreign Economic Administration.

(iii) A United States Treasury Procurement Division contract or requisition placed for Foreign Economic Administration under the Act of March 11, 1941, (Lend-Lease).

(iv) A purchase by The Canadian Commodity Prices Stabilization Corporation.

Deliveries to or for the United States Army, Navy, Maritime Commission or War Shipping Administration are not exports for the purpose of this order.

(e) (1) No preference rating applied or assigned in connection with any export order as defined in paragraph (d) (4) shall be valid, used, or given any effect unless the preference rating is applied and extended as provided in Priorities Regulation 3 and, in addition, substantially one of the following notations (whichever is appropriate) is placed on the order:

(i) The goods hereby ordered will be exported under export license No. _____ issued (fill in)
by Foreign Economic Administration.

(ii) The goods hereby ordered will be exported under release certificate No. _____ (fill in) issued by or pursuant to the authority of Foreign Economic Administration.

(iii) The goods hereby ordered are the subject of United States Treasury Procurement Division Contract No. _____ (fill in)

(iv) The goods hereby ordered will be delivered to or for the account of The Canadian Commodity Prices Stabilization Corporation.

(When this is done the requirements of M-328 are met, and it is unnecessary to use any other notation.)

(2) No person shall purchase, accept delivery of, deliver or knowingly sell for delivery for export any rayon yarn or rayon fabric, without a preference rated export order as defined in paragraph (d) (4), except rags or pieces of fabric shorter than ten yards commonly sold by the pound.

NOTE. Paragraphs (f), (g) and (h), formerly (e), (f) and (g), redesignated April 15, 1944.

(f) Establishment of export quotas for fine rayon yarn. (1) An export quota system is hereby established for the producers of fine rayon yarn as defined in General Preference Order M-37-d. Such export quotas will be established from time to time by the War Production Board within which quotas the Foreign Economic Administration will be authorized to assign preference ratings. Until further notice from the War Production Board, each producer of fine rayon yarn shall, regardless of preference ratings, each day set aside an amount of such yarn equal to the production of 4% of his active spindles producing viscose or cuprammonium yarn and 4% of his active spindles producing acetate yarn. The number of active spindles producing high tenacity tire-type rayon yarn shall not be included in computing the above percentages. The yarn thus set aside shall be known as "export yarn," and shall be set aside, as nearly as practicable, in such denier sizes as will fill the producer's orders on hand for such yarn at the time the producer sets his production schedule. No producer of fine rayon yarn shall be compelled to export or accept an order for export of fine rayon yarn under export license granted by the Foreign Economic Administration in excess of the export quota so established for him: Provided, That no such producer shall be prohibited from exporting or accepting an order for export of fine rayon yarn in excess of such quota, unless specifically prohibited by the War Production Board.

(2) Disposition of export yarn not booked or delivered. All export yarn set aside from the production of any one month, pursuant to the provisions of paragraph (f) (1) and which has not been delivered or booked during said month, shall be immediately available for sale to any person otherwise eligible to purchase such yarn.

(3) [Deleted Feb. 8, 1944]

(g) Establishment of export quota for rayon fabrics. (1) An export quota system is hereby established for rayon fabrics. Pursuant to such system export quotas will be fixed from time to time by the War Production Board. Until further notice from the War Production Board, each fabric producer must accept and fill export orders for rayon fabrics until they aggregate for the current calendar quarter four per cent of his total yardage production of rayon fabrics (excluding yardage produced by him to fill procurement orders) during the preceding calendar quarter. No fabric producer is required to accept or fill export orders for more than the established export quota, nor for more than fifteen per cent of any particular construction of rayon fabrics produced by him during the current calendar quarter. However, he is not prohibited from doing so, unless compliance with other orders or regulations of the War Production Board would forbid it.

(2) Unfilled export quota to be carried over to next quarter. If a fabric producer does not fill his entire export quota of rayon fabrics in any calendar quarter, the unfilled portion shall be added to his quota for the next succeeding quarter. The portion so carried over which is not filled in such succeeding quarter may be dropped. To illustrate: if the export quota of a fabric producer for the second quarter of 1944 is 100,000 yards and he books or delivers only 75,000 yards during that quarter, the remaining 25,000 yards shall be added to his quota for the third quarter of 1944. If his quota for that quarter is also 100,000 yards, he is required to accept and fill export orders aggregating 125,000 yards during the third quarter. Any part of the 25,000 yards not delivered during the third quarter is thereafter free from the restrictions of this order.

Miscellaneous Provisions

(h) Miscellaneous provisions — (1) Applicability of regulations. This order and all transactions affected thereby are subject to all applicable regulations of the War Production Board, and General Conservation Order M-328, as amended from time to time.

§ 1346.104 Maximum prices for sales and deliveries of cement by manufacturers—(a) Maximum prices for cement sold by a manufacturer and shipped within its normal market area. • The maximum price for American Society for Testing Materials Types 1 and 2 Portland cement sold by a manufacturer and shipped within its normal market area, whether the shipment is made f. o. b. mill or on a delivered price basis, shall be such that the cost to the purchaser at the destination for like quantities and classifications of cement similarly packaged is not in excess of what it was or would have been to such purchaser for a delivery to such purchaser completed between March 1 to 15, 1942. Such price shall be calculated upon the basis of the prices, pricing practices, freight practices, trade discounts, charges (including package charges), allowances, and deposits (other than deposits on cloth bags which may be required in a reasonable amount so long as the refund equals the deposit) most favorable to purchasers in effect, published, listed, or quoted by the seller during the period March 1 to 15, 1942, but upon the basis of the freight rates in effect at the time of any shipment made subsequent to September 23, 1942, except that:

PART 1347—PAPER, PAPER PRODUCTS AND RAW MATERIALS FOR PAPER AND PAPER PRODUCTS

[MPR 268[1] incl. Amdts. 1-8]

CERTAIN TISSUE PAPER PRODUCTS

Section 1347.508 (d) is added by Amendment No. 8,[1a] effective April 20, 1944, so that Maximum Price Regulation No. 266 shall read as follows:

In the judgment of the Price Administrator it is necessary and proper to establish maximum prices for certain tissue paper products by a separate Maximum Price Regulation. The Price Administrator has ascertained and given due consideration to the prices of certain tissue paper products prevailing between October 1 and October 15, 1941, and has made adjustments for such relevant factors as he has determined and deemed to be of general applicability. So far as practicable, the Price Administrator has advised and consulted with representative members of the industry which will be affected by this regulation.

In the judgment of the Price Administrator, the maximum prices established by this regulation are and will be generally fair and equitable and will effectuate the purposes of said act. A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this regulation has been issued simultaneously herewith and has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.[2]

[1] 7 F.R. 9336. [1a] The text which is added by Am. 8 is underscored.

[2] Statements of considerations are also issued simultaneously. Copies may be obtained from the Office of Price Administration.

Insofar as this regulation uses specifications and standards which were not, prior to such use, in general use in the trade or industry affected, or insofar as their use was not lawfully required by another Government agency, the Administrator has determined, with respect to such standardization, that no practicable alternative exists for securing effective price control with respect to the commodities subject to this regulation.

[Above paragraph added by Supplementary Order 64, 8 F.R. 12554, effective 9-11-43]

Therefore, under the authority vested in the Price Administrator by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, and in accordance with Revised Procedural Regulation No. 1,[3] issued by the Office of Price Administration, Maximum Price Regulation No. 266 is hereby issued.

(b) As to a tax or increase in a tax which becomes effective after October 15, 1941, if the statute or ordinance imposing such tax or increase does not prohibit the seller from stating and collecting the tax or increase separately from the purchase price, and the seller does separately state it, the seller may collect, in addition to the maximum prices, the amount of the tax or increase actually paid by him or an amount equal to the amount of tax paid by any prior vendor and separately stated and collected from the seller by the vendor from whom he purchased.

[NOTE: Supplementary Order No. 31 (7 F.R. 9894; 8 F.R. 1312, 3702) provides that: "Notwithstanding the provisions of any price regulation, the tax on transportation of all property (excepting coal) imposed by section 620 of the Revenue Act of 1942 shall, for purposes of determining the applicable maximum price of any commodity or service, be treated as though it were an increase of 3% in the amount charged by every person engaged in the business of transporting property for hire. It shall not be treated under any provision of any price regulation or any interpretation thereof, as a tax for which a charge may be made in addition to the maximum price."]

§ 1347.513 Applicability. The provisions of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 266 shall be applicable within the continental limits of the United States.

§ 1347.514 Effective date. This Maximum Price Regulation No. 266 (§§ 1347.501 to 1347.516, inclusive) shall become effective November 26, 1942. [MPR 266 originally issued November 12, 1942]

(1) Toilet tissue.

Basis weight 24 x 36—500 classes [1]	Chemical pulp content [2]
	100% bleached price factor X	75%–99% price factor Y	Less than 75% price factor Z
1. Less than 11.00	$1.09	$1.05	$1.00
2. 11.0 to 11.99	1.15	1.10	1.05
3. 12.0 to 12.99	1.20	1.15	1.10
4. 13.0 and over	1.26	1.20	1.15

[1] The classes are established on the weight of a ream of 500 sheets of paper 24" x 36". A manufacturer is permitted a 5% tolerance per case, but in no event can the basis weight vary plus or minus from the stated basis weight by more than 5% on any case.

[2] The groups are established on a basis of chemical pulp content. Products in Group X shall have 100% bleached chemical pulp; products in Group Y shall have 75%–99% chemical pulp; products in Group Z shall have less than 75% chemical pulp.

The maximum basis weight to be used in computing the manufacturer's maximum price shall be either:

(i) The basis weight ascribed by the manufacturer for the same item from January 1, 1942 to the issuance of this regulation, or

(ii) The actual basis weight of the same item from January 1, 1942 to the issuance of this regulation, whichever is lower. In no case shall the price as calculated above exceed the price which was charged for deliveries during March, 1942.

The case price shall be computed by multiplying the applicable price factor (derived from column X, Y or Z) by the number of linear inches of paper in the case divided by 100,000, as illustrated below:

$$\frac{\text{Number of Linear Inches in the Case (Length of Sheet x Sheets per Case)}}{100{,}000}$$

(iii) In the event that the maximum price as calculated above is less than the highest carload price which was charged, on a uniform nationally delivered basis, by the manufacturer during the period of October 1 to October 15, 1941, the maximum price shall be such October 1 to 15, 1941, carload price. Freight practices which were employed by the manufacturer during such period may be continued: Provided, That the manufacturer shall not require the purchaser to pay a larger proportion of transportation costs incurred in the delivery of the toilet tissue than the manufacturer required purchasers of the same class to pay during the period of October 1 to 15, 1941.

[Subparagraph (iii) amended by Am. 4, 8 F.R. 7383, effective 6-7-43, and Am. 6, 9 F.R. 1573, effective 2-14-44]

(iv) The manufacturer's maximum price for a product not manufactured, sold or offered during the period of October 1–15, 1941, or during March, 1942, shall be determined by referring to the maximum price established by him for the most nearly comparable product which he manufactured, sold or offered during either of such base periods, and adjusting this price to reflect the actual differences in the physical specifications, including basis weight, finish, sheet area per case, upon which the formula in paragraph (a) (1) is based. Any manufacturer desiring to establish a maximum price for such product shall submit to the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., the physical specifications of the product for which a maximum price is desired, the name and physical specifications of the most nearly comparable product for which a maximum price is established by this regulation, the amount of the adjustment desired because of such difference in specifications, and the maximum price requested for the product.

The Office of Price Administration may approve, disapprove, or adjust the proposed maximum price by letter, and the proposed maximum price may not be charged prior to such approval.

[Subparagraph (iv) added by Am. 4, 8 F.R. 7383, effective 6-7-43]

(v) The manufacturer may reduce the chemical pulp content by not more than 15% of the chemical pulp content upon which the present maximum price for his product established by this regulation is based, without revising such maximum price.

(vi) The manufacturer may reduce the basis weight by not more than 5% of the basis weight upon which the present maximum price for his product established by this regulation is based, without revising such maximum price.

[Subparagraphs (v) and (vi) added by Am. 6, 9 F.R. 1573, effective 2-14-44]

(2) Facial type toilet tissue. The maximum price for facial type toilet tissue shall be computed in accordance with the provisions of paragraph (a) (1) of this section, except that $0.23 may be added to the price factor in Class 1, Group X. In no event may the price of any facial type toilet tissue exceed the price which was charged by the manufacturer for deliveries during March 1942.

(3) Special products. (i) Special small diameter rolls of toilet tissue packaged for use on Pullman cars are excluded from this Maximum Price Regulation No. 266, and are covered by the General Maximum Price Regulation.

(ii) Toilet tissue put up to conform with the new specification for the armed

B is weight after being submerged in distilled water at 70 degrees Fahrenheit for 10 seconds and then drained freely for 10 seconds. C is weight after being submerged in distilled water at 70 degrees Fahrenheit for 24 hours and then drained freely for 10 seconds.

[2] Widths greater than 4½" take a proportionately increased price; widths less than 4½" take a proportionately reduced price, except that in the case of interfolded toilet tissue the maximum price per case for such tissue 4" wide shall be calculated by deducting from the maximum price established by this regulation for a case of 100,000 sheets 4½" wide that differential customarily employed by the manufacturer during the period October 1–15, 1941, or 35¢ per case of 100,000 sheets, whichever is greater.

(iii) In special cases in which test runs of toilet tissue are made at the request of the War Production Board, such runs to be of limited quantities only, and for a limited period of time, and to be made only to discover improved methods of conserving materials, and for cost-finding purposes, the Administrator may, if he deems such procedure to be in the interest of the successful prosecution of the war, authorize by letter appropriate temporary maximum prices for such test runs of toilet tissue. The temporary maximum price or prices may in no event exceed the maximum price for that product for which the substitution is made. Any manufacturer desiring to obtain such temporary maximum prices for such purposes may request permission by letter, setting forth fully the reasons for such test-run, its duration and scope, the temporary maximum price or prices requested, and any other pertinent information.

[Subparagraph (iii) added by Am. 3, 8 F.R. 4131, effective 4-5-43]

(b) Manufacturers' maximum prices for sales not on a uniform nationally delivered basis—(1) Zone basis. Where a manufacturer does not sell on a nationally delivered basis, his maximum prices, which in no event shall exceed the prices charged by the manufacturer for deliveries during March, 1942, shall be computed in accordance with the procedure of paragraph (a) (1) (i) (ii) of this section, with the adjustments as shown in the following table:

Location of manufacturing plant	Point of delivery	Addition to or subtraction from applicable price factor
1. Zone 1	Zone 1	Deduct $0.03
2. Zone 1	Zone 2	Add $0.01

(i) In the event that the maximum price as calculated in accordance with the provisions of paragraph (b) of this section is less than the highest carload price which was charged by the manufacturer on sales into any particular zone during the period of October 1 to October 15, 1941, the maximum price shall be such October 1 to October 15, 1941, price for sales into the same zone.

[Subparagraph (1) amended by Am. 6, 9 F.R. 1573, effective 2-14-44]

(2) F. o. b. mill basis. Where shipments of toilet tissue are made on an f. o. b. mill basis the manufacturer's maximum price, which in no event may exceed the prices charged by the manufacturer during March 1942, shall be computed in accordance with the provisions of paragraph (a) (1) of this section, except that $0.12 must be deducted from the applicable price factor. Freight charges to the point of delivery may be added to the resulting f. o. b. price: Provided, That, except on shipments to the Army, Navy or Lend-Lease Administration, such maximum price (including freight charges) may not exceed the maximum zone price which would apply at the given destination.

[Subparagraph (2) amended by Am. 2, 8 F.R. 531, effective 1-12-43; and Am. 7, 9 F.R. 3079, effective 3-27-44]

(3) Manufacturers' maximum price for shipments of other than carload lots to one consignee. (i) On shipments of other than carload lots (excepting less-than-carload shipments) to one consignee, the manufacturer may add to the maximum carload price established by this regulation the established differentials which he had in effect during the period of October 1 to October 15, 1941.

(ii) On shipments of less-than-carload lots, the manufacturer may add to the maximum carload price established by this regulation the lesser of the following:

(a) That differential between his carload and his less-than-carload price which he employed during the period of October 1 to October 15, 1941, or

(b) 5.05%, plus the difference between the carload and the less-than-carload rate of freight.

(5) Manufacturers' maximum prices for sales made directly to industrial, institutional and commercial users, and to purchasers other than distributors. On sales made directly to industrial, institutional and commercial users, and to purchasers other than distributors, a manufacturer who, during the period of October 1 to October 15, 1941, had an established practice of selling to such purchasers at prices in excess of those established for other classes of purchasers, may compute the maximum price for such sales by multiplying the manufacturers' maximum price, as established by this regulation, by the lesser of the following amounts:

(i) The highest markup which the manufacturer applied to sales of toilet tissue of a given grade to a purchaser of the same class during the period of October 1 to October 15, 1941 or

(ii) The markups permitted paper merchants in § 1347.515 (c) (2).

In no event may the resulting maximum price exceed the highest price charged for such sales made during March 1942.

[Subparagraphs (4) and (5) added by Am. 2, 8 F.R. 531, 2431, effective 1-12-43]

(c) Distributors' maximum prices. The distributor's maximum price, which may, in no event, exceed the highest price charged for deliveries during March 1942 or, if no sales were made, the highest offering price during March 1942, is to be computed by multiplying the manufacturer's maximum price by the lesser of the following amounts:

(1) The highest mark-up* which the distributor applied to sales of toilet tissue of a given grade to a purchaser of the same class during March, 1942, or

(2) On sales by

[Paragraph (c) and subparagraphs (1) and (2) amended by Am. 5, 8 F.R. 12468, effective 9-14-43]

(i) Where a distributor purchases toilet tissue from a manufacturer whose petition under § 1347.510 has not been denied by the Office of Price Administration, such distributor, upon receipt of the notice provided for in such section, need not be restricted by his own March 1942 price for sales to such toilet tissue, except that the resulting maximum price shall not be in excess of the March 1942 price charged for deliveries of the same or similar commodity by his most closely competitive seller of the same class.

(ii) In the event that the mark-up as determined under paragraph (c) (2) above, (mark-up table), is less than 85% of the mark-up set forth in paragraph (c) (1) above, (March 1942 mark-up), the maximum price shall be computed by multiplying the manufacturer's maximum price by 85% of such mark-up set forth in paragraph (c) (1) above.

[Subparagraphs (1) and (ii) added by Am. 2, 8 F.R. 531, effective 1-12-43, subparagraph (ii) amended by Am. 5, 8 F.R. 12468, effective 9-14-43]

(iii) Wholesale grocers and wholesale druggists who, during the period of October 1 to October 15, 1941, operated wholesale paper departments and had an established practice of selling toilet tissue to industrial, institutional and commercial users at mark-ups approximating those set forth in paragraph (c) (2) for paper merchants during such period, may compute their maximum prices for sales on such products to such purchasers in accordance with the mark-ups provided for paper merchants in paragraph (c) (2), or in accordance with their mark-ups applied to sales to a purchaser of the same class during March 1942, whichever is lower.

[Subparagraph (iii) added by Am. 4, 8 F.R. 7383, effective 6-7-43]

(3) Paper merchants, wholesale druggists, and wholesale grocers who purchase toilet tissue from other merchants or distributors may not charge a price in excess of the maximum price which would be applicable if the purchase had been made directly at the manufacturer's ceiling price computed in accordance with paragraphs (a), (b) and (c) of this section: Provided, That on less-than-case sales by recognized service distributors, a mark-up may be charged not in excess of 165%, and that on less-than-case sales by wholesale druggists and grocers, the mark-up may exceed the mark-ups specified in paragraphs (c) (1) and (c) (2) of this section by an amount not in excess of the differential between one case and less-than-case lots which was charged on deliveries made during March 1942.

(4) For sales in carload lots involving shipment from the manufacturer to a person purchasing from a merchant or distributor where local delivery by the merchant or distributor from a warehouse or rail siding is required, there may be added to the maximum price established herein the actual delivery expense (except that no rail freight shall be included), which in no event shall exceed the applicable local common carrier rate. Such expense shall be separately noted in the invoice or other evidence of sale.

(5) Where a merchant or distributor supplies cabinets or other fixtures for the dispensing of toilet tissue in connection with the sale of such product, he may make a charge for the sale of such cabinet or fixture at a price not exceeding 150 percent mark-up of the cost to him of such cabinet or fixture. Such charge shall be set forth in the invoice or other evidence of sale, and may be amortized over a definite period of time.

[Last sentence added by Am. 2, 8 F.R. 531, effective 1-12-43]

(6) On sales of less-than-carload lots to points outside his recognized free delivery zones or areas, the merchant or distributor may add to his maximum price the lesser of the following differentials:

(i) The amount which he charged on such sales made during the period of October 1 to October 15, 1941, or, if he made no such sale, the amount which he would have charged on such sales to purchasers of the same class; or

(ii) The actual freight.

(7) On sales of toilet tissue purchased from a manufacturer who determined his maximum price on an f.o.b. mill basis as outlined in paragraph (b) (2) above, the distributor may base his maximum mark-up upon the sum of such f.o.b. mill maximum price and freight charges (not exceeding carload rate of freight) to the point of delivery, or upon the maximum zone price which would apply at the given destination, whichever is lower.

[Subparagraph (7) added by Am. 4, 8 F.R. 7383, effective 6-7-43]

(d) Retailer's maximum prices. The retailer's maximum price for toilet tissue which may in no event exceed the ceiling price in effect on November 30, 1943, as established under this regulation, is to be calculated as follows (for unit and multiple sales separately):

[Paragraph (d) amended by Am. 6, 9 F.R. 1573, effective 2-14-44]

(1) The maximum price rule. The retailer shall first find his "net cost" of the brand he is pricing. He must then multiply that "net cost" by his "March 1942 percentage mark-up." The meanings of "net cost" and "March 1942 percentage mark-up" are explained in (2) and (3) which follow.

(2) The meaning of "net cost." "Net cost" as used in the maximum price rule above means the amount the retailer paid for the brand delivered at his customary receiving point, less all discounts and all allowances allowed him, except the discount for prompt payment. "Net cost" should be based on the first sale of such brand of toilet tissue delivered to the retailer in which there has been inserted a copy of this paragraph (d). "Net cost" refers to a customary quantity from a customary supplier and by the customary mode of transportation.

[Subparagraph (2) amended by Am. 6, 9 F.R. 1573, effective 2-14-44]

(3) The meaning of "March 1942 percentage mark-up." The percentage which the retailer shall use as his "March 1942 percentage mark-up" depends upon whether or not in March, 1942 he sold such brand of toilet tissue:

(i) If the retailer did sell such brand of toilet tissue in March 1942, he shall:

(a) Take the highest price at which he made sales of such toilet tissue during March 1942, and,

(b) Divide this price by his "net cost" of such brand which appeared on his last invoice in March 1942.

The resulting figure is the retailer's "March 1942 percentage mark-up." This is the figure by which the retailer should multiply his new cost to arrive at his ceiling price.

(ii) If the retailer did not sell such brand of toilet tissue during March 1942, he shall use his "March 1942 percentage mark-up," calculated as in (d) (3) above, on the largest volume brand of toilet tissue which he sold during March 1942.

(4) Fractions of cents. If the calculation of a maximum price for a customary unit of sale under this regulation results in a fraction of less than one-half cent, the maximum price shall be reduced to the nearest lower cent; if the calculation results in a fraction one-half cent or more, it should be increased to the nearest higher cent. Calculations shall be made separately for multiple sales and for unit sales of such products.

(5) Examples: A retailer purchases from his supplier a case of X brand of toilet tissue at a net cost of $4.87 in December 1942. His last March 1942 purchase of X brand was made at a net cost of $5.00 per case. His highest March 1942 price was 7 cents per roll. He shall find his ceiling price for X brand toilet tissue as follows:

1. (i) He shall divide 7 cents (his highest March 1942 retail price) by 5 cents (his last net cost in March 1942).

The resulting figure of 1.40 is his "March 1942, percentage mark-up."

(ii) He multiplies $4.87 (his net cost) by 1.40 (his "March, 1942 percentage mark-up").

(iii) $6.818 per case of 100 rolls or 7 cents per roll is the retailer's ceiling price.

2. A retailer purchases from his supplier a case of Y Brand of toilet tissue at a net cost of $4.60 in December 1942. Assume the "March 1942 percentage mark-up" on Y brand of toilet tissue was 1.32. The calculations are as follows:

460

The retailer's ceiling price is $6.07 per case of 100 rolls or 6 cents per roll.

[Example 2 amended by Am. 2, 8 F.R. 531, effective 1-12-43]

3. Assume the retailer's March 1942 selling price was 3 for 19 cents, the new cost is $4.77, and his last March 1942 invoice was $5.00. His "March 1942 percentage mark-up" is calculated as follows:

5/6.330
10
33
30
30
30

The resulting figure of 1.266 is his "March 1942 percentage mark-up" over net cost. His ceiling price is determined as follows:

Multiply $4.87 (his net cost) by 1.266 (his "March 1942 percentage mark-up"). The retailer's ceiling price is 3 for 18 cents or $6.04 per case of 100 rolls.

[NOTE: Supplementary Order No. 13 (7 F.R. 6523) provides that retail sellers of commodities or services, who own more than one establishment and who have maintained a fixed practice of selling commodities or services at retail at uniform or at substantially uniform prices, may apply for authorization to determine and use uniform maximum prices.]

[NOTE: Supplementary Order No. 29 (7 F.R. 9616) lists certain services customarily offered by retailers which may be curtailed or eliminated without a compensating reduction in ceiling prices.]

(e) Marking of products and notices. (1) [Revoked]

[Subparagraph (1) amended by Am. 4, 8 F.R. 7383, effective 6-7-43; revoked by Am. 6, 9 F.R. 1573, effective 2-14-44]

(2) The manufacturer shall insert a copy of paragraph (d) of this section in each case of resale toilet tissue shipped before January 31, 1943, except that no such notice need be inserted in cases already prepared for shipment on the effective date of this regulation. The manufacturer shall also attach to all billings on sales made to distributors before January 31, 1943, paragraph (c) of this section.

On both these notifications, the manufacturers shall add the following statement: "Cessation of this notification will not constitute revocation thereof."

(f) The provisions governing retailer's maximum prices on toilet tissue shall become effective with respect to all brands and grades which the retailer carries in stock as soon as he receives a copy of paragraph (d), or in any event not later than June 25, 1943.

[Paragraph (f) added by Am. 4, 8 F.R. 7363, effective 6-7-43]

TOWELS DISPENSED IN SINGLE THICKNESS

(1) Towel area for interfolded towels (sq. in.)	Less than 250 (V)	Basic weight classes [1] 24" x 36"—500: 250-279 (W)	280-309 (X)	310-339 (Y)	340 and over (Z)

6. Household Roll [2]	2.60	2.90	3.20	3.50	3.65

TOWELS DISPENSED IN DOUBLE THICKNESS

7. 70 to 84.9	$2.60	$2.80	$3.25	$3.45	$3.55
8. 85 to 99.9	2.80	3.00	3.45	3.70	3.80

10. 110 and over	3.20	3.45	3.90	4.20	4.35

[1] The classes are established on basis weights of 24 x 36—500. A manufacturer is permitted a 5% tolerance per case, but in no event may the basis weight vary plus or minus from the stated basis weight by more than 5% of any case.

[2] The maximum prices for household rolls are for cases of 7,500 towels, 7¼" x 11". Where the case count or sheet size varies, a directly proportionate adjustment in price shall be made.

These maximum prices are for cases of towels made from furnish containing less than 65% chemical pulp.[3] Where the chemical pulp content is between 65% and 90%, 4% may be added to the case price; where the chemical pulp content is over 90%, 8% may be added to the case price.

The maximum basis weight to be used in computing the manufacturer's maximum price shall be either:

(i) The basis weight ascribed by the manufacturer for the same item from January 1, 1942 to the issuance of this regulation, or

(ii) The actual basis weight of the same item from January 1, 1942 to the issuance of this regulation, whichever is lower. In no case shall the price as calculated above exceed the price which was charged for deliveries during March, 1942.

[3] The groups are defined as follows:
N—Less than 65% chemical pulp.
O—65% to 90% chemical pulp.
P—Over 90% chemical pulp.

(iii) In the event that the maximum price as calculated above is less than highest carload price which was charged, on a uniform nationally delivered basis, by the manufacturer during the period of October 1 to October 15, 1941, the maximum price shall be such October 1 to 15, 1941, carload price. Freight practices which were employed by the manufacturer during such period may be continued: Provided, That the manufacturer shall not require the purchaser to pay a larger proportion of transportation costs incurred in the delivery of the toilet tissue than the manufacturer required purchasers of the same class to pay during the period of October 1 to 15, 1941.

[Subparagraph (iii) amended by Am. 4, 8 F.R. 7383, effective 6-7-43; and Am. 6, 9 F.R. 1573, effective 2-14-44]

(iv) Where towels are made from 100% chemical pulp, and where the following minimum strength and absorbency tests are met, the maximum price, calculated in accordance with the provisions of paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section, may be exceeded by not more than 65¢ per case.

Delivery from dispenser	Basis weight	Strength [1]	Absorbency [2]
Single	Under 320	30#	200 seconds.
Single	320—379	25#	175 seconds.
Single	380 and over	20#	145 seconds.
Double	Under 320	40#	30 seconds.
Double	320—379	60#	15 seconds.
Double	380 and over	60#	19 seconds.

[1] Pounds per square inch, as measured by the Mullen test.

[2] Seconds required for the absorption of one-half cubic centimeter of water placed on the top of the sheet, according to Bureau of Standards test UU-T-591.

Manufacturer's maximum prices for wet-strength paper towels shall not exceed those in the (X) basis weight class, the group to be determined by the sheet size.

(v) Continuous roll towels take a proportionate price on an area basis, to household roll towels, except that continuous unsheeted roll towels for use in special controlled-delivery dispensers and containing special cores or ends of metal, wood or both may take a differential of 20¢ a case in excess of the maximum price established by this regulation.

[Subparagraph (v) amended by Am. 5, 8 F.R. 12468, effective 9-14-43]

(vi) Household folded paper towels shall be priced on the same basis as industrial folded towels.

(vii) The manufacturer's maximum price for a product not manufactured, sold or offered during the period of October 1-15, 1941, or during March, 1942, shall be determined by referring to the maximum price established by him for the most nearly comparable product which he manufactured, sold or offered during either of such base periods, and adjusting this price to reflect the actual differences in the physical specifications, including basis weight, furnish, sheet area per case, upon which the formula in paragraph (a) (1) is based. Any manufacturer desiring to establish a maximum price for such product shall submit to the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., the physical specifications of the product for which a maximum price is desired, the name and physical specifications of the most nearly comparable product for which a maximum price is established by this regulation, the amount of the adjustment desired because of such difference in specifications, and the maximum price requested for the product.

The Office of Price Administration may approve, disapprove, or adjust the proposed maximum price by letter, and the proposed maximum price may not be charged prior to such approval.

[Subparagraphs (vi) and (vii) added by Am. 4, 8 F.R. 7383, effective 6-7-43]

(viii) The manufacturer may reduce the chemical pulp content by not more than 15% of the chemical pulp content upon which the present maximum price for his product established by this regulation is based, without revising such maximum price.

[Subparagraph (viii) added by Am. 6, 9 F.R. 1573, effective 2-14-44]

(ix) The manufacturer may reduce the basis weight by not more than 10% of the basis weight upon which the present maximum price for his product established by this regulation is based, without revising such maximum price.

[Subparagraph (ix) added by Am. 6, 9 F.R. 1573, effective 2-14-44]

(2) Special products. (i) Paper towels sold through coin-operated vending machines are excluded from this Maximum Price Regulation No. 266, and are covered by the General Maximum Price Regulation.

[Subparagraph (2) added by Am. 2, 8 F.R. 531, effective 1-12-43]

(ii) In special cases in which test runs of paper towels are made at the request of the War Production Board, such runs to be of limited quantities only, and for a limited period of time, and to be made only to discover improved methods of conserving materials, and for cost-finding purposes, the Administrator may, if he deems such procedure to be in the interest of the successful prosecution of the war, authorize by letter appropriate temporary maximum prices for such test runs of paper towels. The temporary maximum price or prices may in no event exceed the maximum price for that product for which the substitution is made. Any manufacturer desiring to obtain such temporary maximum prices for such purposes may request permission by letter, setting forth fully the reasons for such test-run, its duration and scope, the temporary maximum price or prices requested, and any other pertinent information.

[Subparagraph (ii) added by Am. 3, 8 F.R. 4131, effective 4-5-43]

(b) Manufacturers maximum prices for sales not on a uniform nationally delivered basis. (1) Where a manufacturer does not sell on a nationally delivered basis, his maximum prices, which in no event may exceed the prices charged for deliveries made during March 1942, shall be computed in accordance with the procedure of paragraph (a) (1) (i) (ii) of this section, with the adjustments as shown in the following table:

Location of manufacturing plant	Point of delivery	Addition to or subtraction from applicable case price
1. Zone 1	Zone 1	Deduct $0.10
2. Zone 1	Zone 2	Add $0.05
3. Zone 1	Zone 3	Add $0.20
Zone 4
4. Zone 1	Zone 4	Add $0.30
5. Zone 2	Anywhere in continental United States (subject to (3) above).	No addition or deduction.
Zone 4

(i) In the event that the maximum price as calculated in accordance with the provisions of paragraph (b) of this section is less than the highest carload price which was charged by the manufacturer on sales into any particular zone during the period of October 1 to October 15, 1941, the maximum price shall be such October 1 to October 15, 1941, price for sales into the same zone.

[Subparagraph (i) amended by Am. 6, 9 F.R. 1573, effective 2-14-44]

(2) Manufacturers' maximum prices for shipments of other than carload lots to one consignee. (i) On shipments of other than carload lots (excepting less-than-carload shipments) to one consignee, the manufacturer may add to the maximum carload price established by this regulation the established differentials which he had in effect during the period October 1 to October 15, 1941.

(ii) On shipments of less-than-carload lots, the manufacturer may add to the maximum carload price established by this regulation the lesser of the following:

(a) That differential between his carload and the less-than-carload price which he employed during the period of October 1, to October 15, 1941, or freight.

(b) 5.05% plus the difference between the carload and the less-than-carload rate of freight.

[Subparagraph (2) amended by Am. 5, 8 F.R. 12468, 13117, effective 9-14-43]

(3) F. o. b. mill basis. Where shipments of paper towels are made on an f. o. b. mill basis the manufacturers' maximum price, which in no event may exceed the prices charged by the manufacturer for deliveries during March 1942, shall be computed in accordance with the provisions of paragraph (a) (1) of this section, except that $0.70 per cwt. shall be deducted from the price. Freight charges to the point of delivery may be added to the resulting f. o. b. mill price: Provided, That in no event shall such maximum price, including freight charges, exceed the maximum zone price which would apply at the given destination.

(4) Maximum prices for sales to industrial, institutional and commercial users and to purchasers other than distributors. On sales made directly to industrial, institutional and commercial users or to purchasers other than distributors a manufacturer who, during the period of October 1 to October 15, 1941, had an established practice of selling to such purchasers at prices in excess of those established for other classes of purchasers, may compute the maximum price for such sales by multiplying the manufacturer's maximum price as established by this regulation by the lesser of the following amounts:

(i) The highest mark-up which the manufacturer applied to sales of paper towels of a given grade to a purchaser of the same class during the period of October 1 to October 15, 1941; or

(ii) The mark-ups permitted paper merchants in § 1347.516 (c) (2).

In no event may the resulting maximum price exceed the highest price charged for such sales made during March, 1942.

[Subparagraph (3) and (4) added by Am. 2, 8 F.R. 531, effective 1-12-43]

(c) Distributors' maximum prices. The distributors' maximum price, which may, in no event, exceed the highest price charged for deliveries during March 1942 or, if no sales were made, the highest offering price during March 1942, is to be computed by multiplying the manufacturer's maximum price by the lesser of the following amounts:

(1) The highest mark-up which the distributor applied to sales of paper towels of a given grade to a purchaser of the same class during March 1942, or

(2) On sales by

	Paper merchants	Wholesale druggists	Wholesale grocers
	Percent	Percent	Percent
1. 2 cases or less	165	120½	117½
2. 3 to less than 6 cases	140	120½	117½
3. 6 to less than 25 cases	127½	120½	117½
4. 25 to less than 200 cases	122½	120½	117½
5. 200 cases to less than C/L	117½	120½	117½
6. Carload	105	120½	117½

[Paragraph (c) and subparagraphs (1) and (2) amended by Am. 5, 8 F.R. 12468, effective 9-14-43]

(i) Where a distributor purchases paper towels from a manufacturer whose petition under § 1347.510 has not been denied by the Office of Price Administration, such distributor, upon receipt of the notice provided for in such section, need not be restricted by his own March 1942 price for sales of such paper towels, except that the resulting maximum price shall not be in excess of the March 1942 price charged for deliveries of the same or similar commodity by his most closely competitive seller of the same class.

(ii) In the event that the mark-up as determined under paragraph (c) (2) above (mark-up table), is less than 85% of the mark-up set forth in paragraph (c) (1) above (March 1942 mark-up), the maximum price shall be computed by multiplying the manufacturer's maximum price by 85% of such mark-up set forth in paragraph (c) (1) above.

[Subparagraphs (i) and (ii) added by Am. 2, 8 F.R. 531, effective 1-12-43. Subparagraph (ii) amended by Am. 5, 8 F.R. 12468, effective 9-14-43]

(iii) Wholesale grocers and wholesale druggists who, during the period of October 1 to October 15, 1941, operated wholesale paper departments and had an established practice of selling paper towels to industrial, institutional and commercial users at mark-ups approximating those set forth in paragraph (c) (2) for paper merchants during such period, may compute their maximum prices for sales on such products to such purchasers in accordance with the mark-ups provided for paper merchants in paragraph (c) (2), or in accordance with their mark-ups applied to sales to a purchaser of the same class during March 1942, whichever is lower.

[Subparagraph (iii) added by Am. 4, 8 F.R. 7383, effective 6-7-43]

(3) Paper merchants, wholesale druggists, and wholesale grocers who purchase paper towels from other merchants or distributors may not charge a price in excess of the maximum price which would be applicable if the purchase were made directly from the manufacturer, computed in accordance with paragraphs (a), (b), and (c) of this section: Provided, That on less-than-case sales by wholesale druggists and grocers, the mark-up may exceed the mark-ups specified in paragraphs (c) (1) and (c) (2) of this section by an amount not in excess of the differential between one case and less-than-case lots which was charged on deliveries made during March 1942.

(4) For sales in carload lots involving shipment from the manufacturer to a person purchasing from a merchant or distributor where local delivery by the merchant or distributor from a warehouse or rail siding is required, there may be added to the maximum price established herein the actual delivery expense (except that no rail freight shall be included), which in no event shall exceed the applicable local common carrier rate. Such expense shall be separately noted in the invoice or other evidence of sale.

(5) Where a merchant or distributor supplies cabinets or other fixtures for the dispensing of paper towels in connection with the sale of such products, he may make a charge for the sale of such cabinet or fixture at a price not exceeding 150 per cent mark-up of the cost to him of such cabinet or fixture. Such charge shall be set forth in the invoice or other evidence of sale, and may be amortized over a definite period of time.

[Subparagraph (5) amended by Am. 2, 8 F.R. 531, effective 1-12-43]

(6) On sales of less than carload lots to points outside his recognized free delivery zones or areas, the merchant or distributor may add to his maximum price the lesser of the following differentials:

(i) The amount which he charged during the period of October 1 to October 15, 1941, or if he made no such sale, the amount which he would have charged on such sales to purchasers of the same class; or

(ii) The actual freight.

(7) On sales of paper towels purchased from a manufacturer who determined his maximum price on an f. o. b. mill basis as outlined in paragraph (b) (2) above, the distributor may base his maximum mark-up upon the sum of such f. o. b. mill maximum price and freight charges (not exceeding carload rate of freight) to the point of delivery, or upon the maximum zone price which would apply at the given destination, whichever is lower.

[Subparagraph (7) added by Am. 4, 8 F.R. 7268, effective 6-7-43]

(d) Retailer's maximum prices. The retailer's maximum price for paper towels, which may in no event exceed the ceiling price in effect on November 30, 1943, as established under this regulation, is to be calculated as follows (for unit and multiple sales separately):

[Paragraph (d) amended by Am. 6, 9 F.R. 1573, effective 2-14-44]

(1) The maximum price rule. The retailer shall first find his "net cost" of the brand he is pricing. He must then multiply that "net cost" by his "March 1942 percentage mark-up." The meanings of "net cost" and "March 1942 percentage mark-up" are explained in (2) and (3) which follow.

(2) The meaning of "net cost." "Net cost" as used in the maximum price rule above means the amount the retailer paid for the brand delivered at his customary receiving point, less all discounts and all allowances allowed him, except the discount for prompt payment. "Net cost" should be based on the first sale of such brand of paper towels delivered to the retailer in which there has been inserted a copy of this paragraph (d). "Net cost" refers to a customary quantity from a customary supplier and by the customary mode of transportation.

[Subparagraph (2) amended by Am. 6, 9 F.R. 1573, effective 2-14-44]

(3) The meaning of "March 1942 percentage mark-up." The percentage which the retailer shall use as his "March 1942 percentage mark-up" depends upon whether or not in March 1942 he sold such brand of household roll towels:

(i) If the retailer did sell such brand of household roll towels in March 1942, he shall:

(a) Take the highest price at which he made sales of such household roll towels during March 1942, and,

(b) Divide this price by his "net cost" of such brand which appeared on his last invoice in March 1942.

The resulting figure is the retailer's "March 1942 percentage mark-up." This is the figure by which the retailer should multiply his new cost to arrive at his ceiling price.

(ii) If the retailer did not sell such brand of household roll towels during March 1942, he shall use his "March 1942 percentage mark-up" calculated as in (d) (3) above, on the largest volume brand of household roll towels which he sold during March 1942.

(4) Fractions of cents. If the calculation of a maximum price for a customary unit of sale under this regulation results in a fraction of less than one-half cent, the maximum price shall be reduced to the nearest lower cent; if the calculation results in a fraction one-half cent or more, it should be increased to the nearest higher cent. Calculations shall be made separately for multiple sales and for unit sales of such products.

(5) Example: A retailer purchases from his supplier a case of X brand of household roll towels at a net cost of $3.90 in December 1942. His last March 1942 purchase of X brand was made at a net cost of $4.20 per case. His highest March 1942 price was 10 cents per roll. He shall find his ceiling price for X brand of household roll towels as follows:

(i) He shall divide 10 cents (his highest March 1942 retail price) by 8.4 cents per roll (his last net cost in March, 1942).

8.4/10.000

760
756
400

The resulting figure of 1.19 is his "March 1942 percentage mark-up."

(ii) He multiplies 7.8 cents (his net cost per roll) by 1.19 (his "March 1942 percentage mark-up")

$1.19

(iii) His ceiling price is $.09282 or 9 cents per roll.

(e) Marking of products and notices.
(1) [Revoked.]

[Subparagraph (1) revoked by Am. 6, 9 F.R. 1573, effective 2-14-44]

(2) The manufacturer shall insert a copy of paragraph (d) of this section in each case of resale paper towels shipped before January 31, 1943, except no such notice need be inserted in cases already prepared for shipment. The manufacturer shall also attach to all billings on sales made to distributors before January 31, 1943, paragraph (c) of this section.

On both these notifications, the manufacturers shall add the following statement: "Cessation of this notification will not constitute revocation thereof."

(f) The provisions governing retailer's maximum prices on paper towels shall become effective with respect to all brands and grades which the retailer carries in stock as soon as he receives a copy of paragraph (d), or in any event not later than June 25, 1943.

[Paragraph (f) added by Am. 4, 8 F.R. 7883, effective 6-7-43]

*Copies may be obtained from the Office of Price Administration.

[1] Rates and charges for distances less than 75 miles and for harbor towage and towage within harbor district areas are exempt from maximum price regulation under § 1499.48 (b) (125) and (126) of Revised Supplementary Regulation No. 11 to the General Maximum Price Regulation.

the case of movements having one terminus east of Canal Street, New Orleans, Louisiana, and the other west of Harvey Canal Lock.

(2) Application of rates to cargoes in tow. The rates set forth in the above table are for the furnishing of tugs and barges by the carrier. Maximum rates for furnishing towing services only shall not exceed 75% of the maximum rates herein provided for furnishing tugs and barges.

The rates set forth in the above table are based on the specified minimum cargoes in tow. The maximum charge for a cargo in tow of less than 500 tons for distances over 75 miles shall be either (i) the charge determined by agreement between the parties, or (ii) the maximum charge for a cargo of 500 tons computed at the 500-ton rate for the applicable distance. Charges determined under subdivision (i) of this subparagraph which exceed the maximum charges computed in accordance with the terms of subdivision (ii) shall be reported by the carrier within 10 days of the date of the agreement to the District Office of the Office of Price Administration, Canal Building, New Orleans, Louisiana.

The maximum charge for a particular cargo shall not, in any case, exceed the maximum charge for a cargo of the next higher minimum tonnage computed at the rate applicable thereto. For example, the maximum charge for a cargo in tow of more than 500 tons but less than 1,000 tons shall be computed at the rate established in the above table for minimum cargoes of 500 tons, unless the charge thus computed exceeds the charge for a cargo of 1,000 tons computed at the 1,000-ton rate, in which event the latter charge shall prevail.

The maximum charge for a voyage shall not in any case exceed the maximum charge for the transportation of the same cargo a greater distance.

(3) Wharfage and dockage. Wharfage and dockage charges are not included in the rates set forth in the above table.

(4) Tolls and port charges. Canal tollage, lock charges, and port charges are included in the rates set forth in the above table for tugs and barges but are not included in the rates for towing only.

(5) Insurance. Cargo insurance is not included in the rates set forth in the above table. Insurance on barges is included in the rates for tugs and barges but is not included in the rates for towing only.

In the event the shipper does not clean barges which have become dirtied in his service, the carrier may make an additional charge not to exceed the actual cost incurred for the cleaning necessary to render such barges suitable for the transportation of the commodities for which they were suitable when placed in the shipper's service. In addition, the carrier may charge for all time necessarily consumed for such cleaning, whether performed by carrier or shipper, at the rates specified below for demurrage.

(8) Demurrage. The rates specified above include free time of three hours at loading point and three hours at unloading point plus one hour in each case for each barge in excess of three in the tow. Loading and discharge rates shall be determined by agreement between the parties, or, in the absence of such agreement, the loading rate shall be 2,500 barrels per running hour and the discharge rate shall be 1,500 barrels per running hour day and night, Saturdays, Sundays and holidays not excepted. Demurrage for all time in addition to the free time and the loading and discharge time may be charged at the rate of three cents per hour per indicated or rated horsepower, as the case may be, with a minimum charge of $10.00 per tug per hour or fraction thereof and $2.50 per barge per hour or fraction thereof.

(6) Pumping out by carrier. When cargo is discharged by use of carrier's pumps, a charge of three-quarters (¾) of one cent per barrel may be made for use of carrier's pumps. In addition, if the carrier performs discharging service, at the request of the shipper, an additional charge therefor may be made, which shall not exceed the actual cost to the carrier of furnishing such service.

(7) Cleaning of equipment. Where cleaning is required to render barges suitable for transportation of the products of a particular shipper, the cost of cleaning shall be paid by the carrier or shipper, as determined by agreement between the parties: Provided, That the amount which may be added to the maximum prices herein specified shall not exceed the actual cost of such cleaning. In the event the shipper does not clean barges which have become dirtied in his service, the carrier may make an additional charge not to exceed the actual cost incurred for the cleaning necessary to render such barges suitable for the transportation of the commodities for which they were suitable when placed in the shipper's service. In addition, the carrier may charge for all time necessarily consumed for such cleaning, whether performed by carrier or shipper, at the rates specified below for demurrage.

(8) Demurrage. The rates set forth above include free time of three hours at loading point and three hours at unloading point. Loading and discharge rates shall be determined by agreement between the parties, or, in the absence of such agreement, the loading rate shall be 1,250 barrels per running hour and the discharge rate shall be 750 barrels per running hour, day or night, Saturdays, Sundays and holidays not excepted. Demurrage for all time in addition to the free time and the loading and discharge time may be charged at the rate of $10.00 per running hour or fraction thereof per tug, and $2.50 per running hour or fraction thereof per barge.

(9) Split deliveries. When a tow consists of more than one delivery, the total maximum charge for the services shall be the lower of the charges resulting from the following methods of computation: (1) the total of the charges for each delivery computed separately as if it were unaccompanied in the same tow by other deliveries; or, (2) the charge for the total tonnage of the tow at the rate appropriate for the distance to the farthest port of discharge, as if such total tonnage were transported to such farthest port of discharge.

(e) Maximum rates on the Mississippi River. Maximum rates for the transportation, by carriers other than common carriers, of petroleum and petroleum products in bulk by barge between points on the Mississippi River and its tributaries, shall continue to be determined under the provisions of § 1499.2 of the General Maximum Price Regulation, except that the maximum prices for distances of 150 miles or more shall be as set forth below: Provided, That the provisions of paragraph (b) of this section 7.6, governing transportation on the Gulf Intracoastal Waterway, shall apply to transportation which originates on the Gulf Intracoastal Waterway and terminates at a point on the Mississippi River south of, and including, North Baton Rouge, Louisiana, and also to movements on the Mississippi River wholly between points south of, and including, North Baton Rouge, Louisiana, and, with respect to movements originating on the Gulf Intracoastal Waterway which are transferred or interchanged at a point on the Mississippi River south of, and including, North Baton Rouge for further transportation beyond North Baton Rouge, to that part of the transportation performed prior to such transfer or interchange.

Rules and Regulations Applicable to the Mississippi River

(1) Distances. Distances shall be determined in accordance with the 1942 U. S. Coast Guard Light List, with no deductions for cut-offs.

(2) Application of rates to cargoes in tow. The rates set forth in the above table are for the furnishing of tugs and barges or towboats and barges by the carrier. Maximum prices for furnishing towing services only shall not exceed 75% of the maximum prices herein provided for furnishing tugs and barges or towboats and barges.

The rates set forth above are based on minimum cargoes of 500 tons per barge. The maximum charge for cargoes of less than 500 tons per barge shall be the charge for a cargo of 500 tons.

(3) Wharfage and dockage. Wharfage and dockage charges are not included in the rates set forth in the above table.

(4) Insurance. Cargo insurance is not included in the rates set forth in the above table. Insurance on barges is included in the rates for tugs and barges and towboats and barges but is not included in the rates for towing only.

(5) Pumping out by carrier. When cargo is discharged by use of carrier's pumps installed on barges, an additional charge of three-quarters (¾) of one cent per barrel may be made for use of carrier's pumps. If the carrier performs discharging service, at the request of the shipper, an additional charge therefor may be made, which shall not exceed the actual cost to the carrier of furnishing such service.

(6) Cleaning of equipment. Where cleaning is required to render barges suitable for transportation of the products of a particular shipper, the cost of cleaning shall be paid by the carrier or shipper, as determined by agreement between the parties: Provided, That the amount which may be added to the maximum prices herein specified shall not exceed the actual cost of such cleaning. In the event the shipper does not clean barges which have become dirtied in his service, the carrier may make an additional charge not to exceed the actual cost incurred for the cleaning necessary to render such barges suitable for the transportation of the commodities for which they were suitable when placed in the shipper's service. In addition, the carrier may charge for all time necessarily consumed for such cleaning, whether performed by carrier or shipper, at the rates specified below for demurrage.

(7) Demurrage. The rates specified above include free time of three hours at loading point and three hours at unloading point plus one hour in each case for each barge in excess of three in the tow. Loading and discharge rates shall be determined by agreement between the parties or, in the absence of such agreement, the loading rate shall be 2,500 barrels per running hour and the discharge rate shall be 1,500 barrels per running hour, day or night, Saturdays, Sundays, and holidays not excepted. Demurrage for all time in addition to the free time and the loading and discharge time may be charged at rates for barges which shall not exceed three-tenths (3/10) of one mill per barrel of 42 gallons per hour, based on barge capacity, size of barge to be determined by Barge Calibration Table, and at rates for tugboats which shall not exceed three (3) cents per indicated or rated horsepower, as the case may be, per hour.

(8) Split deliveries. When a tow consists of more than one delivery, the total maximum charge for the services shall be the lower of the charges resulting from the following methods of computation: (1) the total of the charges for each delivery computed separately as if it were unaccompanied in the same tow by other deliveries; or, (2) the charge for the total tonnage of the tow at the rate appropriate for the distance to the farthest port of discharge, as if such total tonnage were transported to such farthest port of discharge.

(f) Maximum rates for the charter of tank barges. Maximum rates for the charter of tank barges for use in the transportation of petroleum and petroleum products between points on the Gulf Intracoastal Waterway, the Atlantic Intracoastal Waterway south of Norfolk, Virginia, and the Mississippi River, and their tributary waterways, shall be as follows:

Capacity of barge	Rate per barge per month
Under 750 barrels	$187.50.
750–1,499 barrels	25 cents per barrel.
1,500–2,999 barrels	22 cents per barrel.
3,000–5,999 barrels	$570, plus 11 cents per barrel over 3,000.
6,000 barrels and over	$900, plus 9 cents per barrel over 6,000.

Rules and Regulations Applicable to the Charter of Tank Barges

(1) Capacity shall be the full cubical capacity of the barge as allowed in its certificate without regard to the density of the cargo.

(2) The maximum charge for a particular barge shall not, in any case, exceed the maximum charge for a barge of the next greater capacity group computed at the rate applicable thereto. For example, the maximum charge for a barge of more than 750 barrels capacity but less than 1,500 barrels shall be computed at the rate established in the above table for barges of 750 to, but not including, 1,500 barrels, unless the charge thus computed exceeds the charge for a barge of 1,500 barrels capacity computed at the 1,500 barrel rate, in which event the latter charge shall prevail.

(3) The rates set forth in the above table may be increased by twenty percent (20%) for barges equipped with pumps.

(4) The rates set forth in the above table are for a period of one month extending from the date on which the charter commences to, but not including, the same date in the next calendar month, but, if there be no corresponding date in the next succeeding calendar month, it shall extend to and include the last day of that month. Fractions of a month shall be computed on the basis of one-thirtieth (1/30) of the monthly rate for each twenty-four hour period or fraction thereof.

(5) The rates set forth in the above table include hull insurance to be carried at the owner's expense for the benefit of the owner and the charterer as their interests may appear. The cost of P and I insurance shall be borne by the owner or the charterer as they may agree. All other insurance carried for the benefit of the charterer shall be at his expense.

(6) The rates set forth herein contemplate that the barge shall be returned to the owner in the same condition as when received, ordinary wear and tear excepted.

This amendment shall become effective April 20, 1944.

CERTAIN COTTON RUG MATERIALS

Maximum Price Regulation No. 504[1] is redesignated Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 504 and is revised and amended to read as follows:

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this regulation has been issued simultaneously herewith and filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

In the judgment of the Price Administrator, the maximum prices established by this regulation are and will be generally fair and equitable and will effectuate the purposes of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, and Executive Orders 9250 and 9328. So far as practicable, the Price Administrator has advised and consulted with members of the industry which will be affected by this regulation. Insofar as this regulation uses specifications and standards which were not, prior to such use, in general use in the trade or industry affected, or insofar as their use was not lawfully required by another Government agency, the Administrator has determined, with respect to such standardization, that no practicable alternative exists for securing effective price control with respect to the commodities subject to this regulation.

§ 1347.805 Maximum prices for certain cotton rug materials. Under the authority vested in the Price Administrator by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, and Executive Orders 9250 and 9328, Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 504, Certain Cotton Rug Materials, which is annexed hereto and made a part hereof, is hereby issued.

(a) No person shall sell or deliver any cotton rug materials listed in Appendix A at higher prices than those set forth in such appendix.

(b) No person shall in the course of trade or business buy or receive cotton rug materials listed in Appendix A at prices higher than those set forth in such appendix.

(c) No person shall agree, offer, solicit, or attempt to do any of the foregoing.

SEC. 2. Less than maximum prices. Lower prices than those established by this regulation may be charged, demanded, paid or offered.

SEC. 3. Geographical applicability. The provisions of this regulation shall be applicable to the forty-eight states and to the District of Columbia.

SEC. 4. The relation of this regulation to other regulations. The provisions of this regulation supersede the provisions of the General Maximum Price Regulation[1] and of Maximum Price Regulation No. 344,[2] New Cotton, Linen and Underwear Cuttings, with respect to sales and deliveries for which maximum prices are established by this regulation. Since the term "certain cotton rug materials," as defined in section 14 (a) (2), does not include any material used for any purpose other than the making of cotton rugs, Maximum Price Regulation No. 344 continues to apply to sales of any of the materials listed in Appendix A of this regulation when sold for such other purposes.

SEC. 5. Federal and state taxes. Any tax upon, or incident to, the sale, delivery, processing or use of cotton rug materials listed in Appendix A imposed by any statute of the United States or statute or ordinance of any state or any subdivision thereof, shall be treated as follows in determining the seller's maximum price for such cotton rug materials and in preparing the records of such seller with respect thereto:

If, at the time the seller determines his maximum price the statute or ordinance imposing such tax does not prohibit the seller from stating and collecting the tax separately from the purchase price, and the seller does state it separately, the seller may collect, in addition to the maximum price, the amount of the tax actually paid by him or an amount equal to the amount of tax paid by any prior vendor and separately stated and collected from the seller by the vendor from whom he purchased, and in such case the seller shall not include such amount in determining the maximum price under this regulation.

SEC. 6. Export sales. The maximum price at which a seller may export or sell for export the cotton rug materials listed in Appendix A shall be determined in accordance with the provisions of the Second Revised Maximum Export Price Regulation* issued by the Office of Price Administration.

SEC. 7. Imports. No person importing cotton rug materials listed in Appendix A shall pay a total price for such materials including United States custom duties, paid directly or indirectly by him, which exceeds the maximum price applicable to a domestic sale established under this regulation.

SEC. 8. Evasion. (a) The price limitations set forth in this regulation shall not be evaded whether by direct or indirect methods, in connection with an offer, solicitation, agreement, delivery, purchase, or receipt of or relating to any of the cotton rug materials listed in Appendix A alone or in connection with any other commodity, or by way of commission, service, transportation, or other charge or discount, premium, or other privilege, or by tying agreement, or other trade understanding, or otherwise.

(b) Specifically, but not exclusively, the following practices are prohibited if used as a means of evading the price limitations imposed by this regulation: modifying, discontinuing or altering any customary trade practice of the seller, or deteriorating the quality or changing the identity of any grade.

SEC. 9. Enforcement. Persons violating any provisions of this regulation are subject to the criminal penalties, civil enforcement actions, suits for treble damages, and proceedings for suspension of license as provided by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended.

*Copies may be obtained from the Office of Price Administration.

SEC. 10. Licensing. The provisions of Licensing Order No. 1,[1] licensing all persons who make sales under price control, are applicable to all sellers subject to this regulation or schedule. A seller's license may be suspended for violations of the license or of one or more applicable price schedules or regulations. A person whose license is suspended may not, during the period of suspension, make any sale for which his license has been suspended.

SEC. 11. Records and reports. (a) Every person making sales or purchases of 10 tons or more per month of the cotton rug materials listed in Appendix A shall keep for inspection by the Office of Price Administration for so long as the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, shall remain in effect, complete and accurate records of each such sale or purchase, showing the following:

(1) Date of purchase or sale.
(2) Name and address of the buyer or seller.
(3) Grade of cotton rug materials purchased or sold.
(4) Quantity of each grade purchased or sold.
(5) Prices paid or received.
(6) Warranties, if any, given or received.

Such records shall set forth separately the f. o. b. point of shipment price, the origin and destination of the shipment, the means of transportation used, the amount of the transportation charge, and any other amounts paid or received in connection with such sale. Such records may be in the form of the invoice or a copy thereof furnished in connection with each such sale or purchase, providing the invoice contains the information specified above.

(b) Persons required to keep records by paragraph (a) of this section shall keep such other records and shall submit such reports as the Office of Price Administration may from time to time require, subject to the approval of the Bureau of the Budget pursuant to the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

SEC. 12. Petitions for amendment. Any person seeking an amendment of any provision of this regulation may file a petition for amendment in accordance with the provisions of Revised Procedural Regulation No. 1.[2]

SEC. 13. Adjustable pricing. Any person may agree to sell at a price which can be increased up to the maximum price in effect at the time of delivery; but no person may, unless authorized by the Office of Price Administration, deliver or agree to deliver at prices to be adjusted upward in accordance with action taken by the Office of Price Administration after delivery. Such authorization may be given when a request for a change in the applicable maximum price is pending, but only if the authorization is necessary to promote distribution or production and if it will not interfere with the purposes of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended. The authorization may be given by the Administrator or by any official of the Office of Price Administration to whom the authority to grant such authorization has been delegated. The authorization will be given by order.

SEC. 14. Definitions: (a) When used in this regulation the term:

(1) "Person" means an individual, corporation, partnership, association, or any other organized group of persons, or legal successor or representatives of any of the foregoing, and includes the United States, or any agency thereof, or any other government, or any of its political subdivisions, or any agency of any of the foregoing.

PART 1407—RATIONING OF FOOD AND FOOD PRODUCTS

[RO 16,[1] Amdt. 131]

MEAT, FATS, FISH AND CHEESES

A rationale for this amendment has been issued simultaneously herewith and has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Ration Order 16 is amended in the following respects:

1. Section 7.6 (i) is added to read as follows:

(i) Reduction of allotment and adjustment of excess inventory based on shortening or cooking and salad oils. (1) The allotment for the second allotment period of 1944 of any industrial user who used shortening or cooking and salad oils during the second quarter of his base period, shall be reduced by five-sixths of the amount which represents that use. The amount of the reduction shall be treated as excess inventory. He may not, after April 15, 1944, use foods covered by this order which have a point value, if, before that date, he used such foods up to the amount of that reduced allotment plus any unused parts of his prior allotments or if such use of foods covered by this order would cause his total use, in points, during the second allotment period to exceed that reduced allotment plus any unused parts of his prior allotments.

(2) An industrial user who acquired shortening or cooking and salad oils for points after March 15, 1944, from points issued to him for the second allotment period, may apply for an adjustment of his excess inventory. (An industrial user who, on March 15, 1944, had points on hand or in his ration bank account is considered to have acquired shortening or cooking and salad oils from points issued to him for his second allotment period only to the extent that the point value of shortening or cooking and salad oils he acquired after March 15, 1944, exceeds the points he had on hand and in his ration bank account on that date.) Application shall be made on OPA Form R-315 to the board with which he is registered and must state, with respect to each such acquisition:

(i) The point value of shortening and cooking and salad oils acquired for points after March 15, 1944, from points issued to him for the second allotment period;

(ii) The types and quantities of shortening and cooking and salad oils acquired with these points;

(iii) The dates on which such foods were acquired; and

(iv) The names and addresses of the persons from whom such feeds were acquired.

(3) If the board finds the statements made in the application are true, it shall grant the application and reduce his excess inventory by the number of such points which he used between March 16 and April 15, 1944, inclusive, to acquire shortening or cooking and salad oils.

2. Section 11.19 is added to read as follows:

SEC. 11.19 Restriction on industrial and institutional users' inventory of rationed fats or oils having a zero point value. (a) On or after April 16, 1944, an industrial or institutional user may not acquire rationed fats or oils having a zero point value at the time he acquires them if he already has in his inventory a 30-day supply (at his current rate of use) of such rationed fats or oils. An industrial or institutional user also may not acquire such rationed fats or oils if such acquisition would bring his inventory of these foods above a 30-day supply. However, if he has less than a 30-day supply on hand, he may acquire an amount of such foods equal to the smallest amount he customarily acquires in a single transaction. In no event, however, may any industrial or institutional user acquire such rationed fats or oils in an amount which would bring his inventory of them above a 45-day supply, at his current rate of use. Notwithstanding any provision in this paragraph, an industrial or institutional user may accept delivery of any rationed fats or oils which were in transit to him on April 15, 1944.

This amendment shall become effective 12:01 a. m., April 16, 1944.

NOTE: All reporting and record-keeping requirements of this amendment have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

PART 304—LABOR

EMPLOYMENT CARDS FOR ISSUANCE TO SEAMEN EMPLOYED OR TO BE EMPLOYED ON PANAMANIAN FLAG VESSELS OWNED BY OR UNDER CHARTER TO WAR SHIPPING ADMINISTRATION

Whereas a substantial number of vessels registered under the laws of Panama are owned by or under bareboat or time charter to the War Shipping Administration and manned by officers and seamen of various nationalities.

The successful operation and complete utilization of such vessels are vital to the interests of the United States and the United Nations in the successful prosecution of the war.

An investigation has demonstrated that the conduct and efficiency of some of the personnel aboard such vessels during voyages has been of such a nature that the contribution of such vessels to the successful prosecution of the war had been diminished; that such performance and conduct are definitely prejudicial to the interests of the United States and the United Nations in the prosecution of the war; that such conditions will be reduced to a minimum and better performance and proper discipline and morale among personnel will be brought about by the establishment and administration, with the cooperation of the United States Coast Guard, acting as agent of the War Shipping Administration, of a system of more complete control over the employment of personnel aboard such vessels.

Now, therefore, it is ordered: That:

Sec.
304.61 Employment card.
304.62 United States Coast Guard to issue.
304.63 Application for card.
304.64 Master to retain card during voyage.
304.65 Duty of Master upon offenses of seaman.
304.66 Duties and authority of United States Coast Guard with respect to complaints against card holders; hearings.
304.67 Decisions of United States Coast Guard; exoneration, revocation of card, restrictive endorsement.
304.68 Revocations and suspensions barring issuance of card.
304.69 Unlawful use of card; penalty.
304.70 Waiver of requirements of General Order 41.
304.71 Delegation of authority to the Commandant, United States Coast Guard.
304.72 Other disciplinary measures not affected.

AUTHORITY: §§ 304.61 to 304.72, inclusive, issued under E.O. 9054, 7 F.R. 837.

§ 304.61 Employment card. Effective as to all voyages commencing in a port in continental United States, inclusive of Alaska, on or after 12:01 a. m. of May 21, 1944, no seaman, master or officer shall be permitted to sign articles or be employed for a foreign voyage aboard a vessel registered under the laws of Panama, owned by or under bareboat or time charter to the War Shipping Administration, unless he holds in his possession an employment card[1] issued by the United States Coast Guard. Such card shall be in the form prescribed by the War Shipping Administration and shall bear a serial number and the official seal of the United States Coast Guard and show the name and address of the seaman, his nationality, weight, height, color of hair and eyes, photograph and his thumb print, and shall contain the following statements:

1. The holder of this card may be employed on board vessels of Panamanian registry owned by or under bareboat or time charter to the War Shipping Administration.

2. This card is issued subject to all the agreements and representations of the holder's application, and may be revoked or suspended for any violation thereof.

3. Upon signing articles, this card must be deposited with the Master who shall return it upon completion of the voyage unless complaint of any violation of the agreements or representations of the holder's application has been made, or the holder has been requested to appear before the United States Coast Guard. In such case, the Master shall deliver this card to the United States Coast Guard.

4. Each use of this card constitutes a representation to the United States that the same was duly issued to the user, and is valid, subsisting, unrevoked, unsuspended and unrestricted for the purpose for which used. Violation of that representation will constitute a violation of section 35 (A) of the Criminal Code (18 U.S.C. 80) punishable by fine and imprisonment. Possession or use of this employment card, in any way not authorized by the War Shipping Administration's General Order 41, and sale, transfer or imitation thereof, are prohibited and constitute an offense punishable by fine and imprisonment under Title 18 U.S.C. secs. 76a and 76b.

Failure to Appear and Testify at a Hearing When Requested in Writing by the United States Coast Guard May Result in Suspension or Revocation of This Card Without Further Notice.

§ 304.62 United States Coast Guard to issue. Except as otherwise herein provided, the United States Coast Guard shall issue an employment card to any seaman, master or officer, who makes application in writing on the form prescribed by the War Shipping Administration and who furnishes satisfactory proof of past employment on board Panamanian flag vessels owned by or under charter to the War Shipping Administration, or shall issue such card to any seaman, master or officer, whether or not previously so employed, upon request in writing by the Recruitment and Manning Organization of the War Shipping Administration and upon completion of the required application.

§ 304.63 Application for card. The application for an employment card[1] shall contain representations and agreements by the applicant as follows:

(a) That all representations made by him in the application are true.

(b) That he is competent for employment as a seaman, master, or officer, in the ratings or capacities set forth in the statement of his qualifications.

(c) That during his employment he will faithfully and diligently perform all the duties customarily required of a seaman, master or officer, similarly employed on a vessel of United States registry.

(d) That during such employment he will conduct himself in the same manner as required of a seaman, master or officer, similarly serving on vessels of United States registry by all the laws, rules, and regulations of the United States.

(e) That during such employment he will commit no act of misconduct detrimental to the interests of the United States or the United Nations in the prosecution of the war.

(f) That he will attend on written request all investigations or hearings conducted by the United States Coast Guard concerning his or any other employment card.

(g) That no license or certificate issued to the applicant under the laws of the United States or any employment card issued by the United States Coast Guard is presently revoked or suspended without probation; that subsequent revocation or suspension of any license or certificate issued under the laws of the United States shall be grounds for similar action against his employment card.

(h) That the United States Coast Guard shall hear and determine all complaints of violation of the agreements and representations hereof and all questions relating to the revocation, suspension or restriction of the employment card applied for, and every such determination made by it shall be binding and conclusive.

(i) That for any violation of the agreements and representations set forth in the application, his card may be revoked or suspended or restricted as to rating.

(j) That the applicant's privilege to retain and use the employment card is in all respects subject to War Shipping Administration's General Order 41.

(k) That each use of the employment card by the applicant shall constitute a representation to the United States that the same was duly issued to the user and is valid, subsisting, unrevoked, unsuspended and unrestricted for the purpose for which used.

§ 304.64 Master to retain card during voyage. Upon signing Articles each seaman and officer shall surrender the employment card to the Master, and such card shall be retained by the Master with the Articles and other ship's papers until the end of the voyage, except as provided in this section and in § 304.65. At the end of the voyage the Master shall return the employment card to each seaman and officer and shall furnish each seaman and officer a certificate of discharge in the form prescribed by Operations Regulation No. 90, or by any other form customarily in use on the vessel. The Master shall deliver the employment card to any seaman or officer who, during the course of the voyage, is paid off by mutual consent, or who becomes physically incapacitated during the voyage, or who is left ashore during the voyage for any reason other than one specified in § 304.65.

§ 304.65 Duty of Master upon offenses of seamen. If the Master finds that a seaman or officer during the voyage has been incompetent, negligent, inattentive to duty, or guilty of misconduct, or that his acts or omissions have been prejudicial to the interests of the United States or the United Nations in the successful prosecution of the war, or that he has otherwise violated the agreements and representations evidenced by his application, the Master shall insert in the official log a complete statement thereof, furnish a copy of such statement to the offender, and enter in the log such reply as he may make. The Master shall deliver the offender's card to the United States Coast Guard officer in the port in which the offense was committed or in the first port where a Coast Guard officer is stationed in which the vessel shall arrive after the commission of the offense. In addition to the offender's card, the Master shall likewise deliver a certified copy of the official log entry and the employment cards of all witnesses, including those of the witnesses requested by the offender. At the conclusion of the voyage, the cards of all offenders and witnesses in cases which have not been concluded at some interim port, together with certified copies of the official log entries, shall be delivered by the Master to the United States Coast Guard.

§ 304.66 Duties and authority of United States Coast Guard with respect to complaints against card holders; hearings. The United States Coast Guard shall investigate all complaints against the holders of employment cards, whether made as required by § 304.65 or otherwise reported, in accordance with such rules and regulations as it may deem necessary and appropriate to carry out its functions hereunder. If it is found that no reasonable grounds for complaint exist, the United States Coast Guard shall return all employment cards theretofore delivered by the Master in connection with the complaint. Whenever it is determined that there are reasonable grounds to believe that the offense complained of has been committed by the holder of an employment card, a proceeding to suspend or revoke the right to use such card shall be instituted by the United States Coast Guard. The procedure in such cases, including procedures for appeal, shall conform as near as may be to the procedures established under R.S. 4450 (46 U.S.C. 239) for the revocation and suspension of licenses and certificates. Written charges and specifications shall be prepared and served upon the alleged offender with a written request for appearance specifying the time and place of a hearing to be held on such charges. All witnesses, including witnesses desired by the alleged offender, shall be served with a notice in writing, whether or not their employment cards may have been delivered to the Coast Guard by the Master, requesting them to appear at the hearing, which notice shall also provide that if a witness fails to appear and testify under oath his employment card may be suspended or revoked.

§ 304.67 Decisions of United States Coast Guard: exoneration, revocation of card, restrictive endorsement. At the conclusion of the hearing, the United States Coast Guard shall make an appropriate decision, based upon the evidence produced at the hearing. If the alleged offender is exonerated, his employment card shall be returned to him. If the charges are sustained, and the United States Coast Guard determines that his right to use his employment card should be suspended, the same shall be retained by the United States Coast Guard during the period of suspension, and shall be returned to the holder at the expiration of such period of suspension. If the United States Coast Guard determines that his right to use the employment card should be revoked, the same shall be canceled. If incompetency or other violation is found, not requiring suspension or revocation, a restrictive endorsement may be placed on the employment card specifying the highest rating or capacity in which the seaman or officer may thereafter serve. In such cases, the holder shall not thereafter be eligible for employment in any higher rating than the one so specified unless upon further hearing, granted upon request at any time after expiration of six months from the date of the restrictive endorsement, the endorsement shall be modified or removed.

§ 304.68 Revocations and suspensions barring issuance of card. The United States Coast Guard shall not issue an employment card to any applicant whose license or certificate issued by the Bureau of Marine Inspection and Navigation or the United States Coast Guard has been revoked on or after May 21, 1944, or during any period when the use thereof has been suspended by the United States Coast Guard, or to any applicant who has theretofore received an employment card which has been revoked by the United States Coast Guard or while the right to the use of such employment card has been suspended.

§ 304.69 Unlawful use of card; penalty. Each use of the employment card constitutes a representation by the user to the United States that the same was duly issued to the user and is valid, subsisting, unrevoked, unsuspended and unrestricted, for the purpose for which used. Violation of that representation will constitute a violation of section 35 (A) of the Criminal Code (18 U.S.C. 80) punishable by fine and imprisonment. Possession or use of the employment card except in accordance with the terms of this Order, and sale, transfer or imitation thereof, are prohibited and constitute an offense punishable by fine and imprisonment under Title 18 U.S.C. secs. 76a and 76b.

§ 304.70 Waiver of requirements of General Order 41. In emergency cases when it may not be possible to obtain from the United States Coast Guard the employment card provided for herein, the several District Marine Superintendents of the Division of Operations of the War Shipping Administration are authorized to waive the requirements of this general order.

§ 304.71 Delegation of authority to the Commandant, United States Coast Guard. For the purpose of carrying out the functions delegated to the United States Coast Guard by this order, the Commandant thereof and such other officers of the Coast Guard as he may designate are authorized to exercise on behalf of the Administrator, War Shipping Administration, all powers vested in the Administrator as may be necessary for such purpose, including the power to issue subpoenas and subpoenas duces tecum pursuant to Title 46 U.S.C. 1124.

§ 304.72 Other disciplinary measures not affected. Nothing contained in this order shall limit or affect the jurisdiction of the representatives of the Government of Panama, or of the Master of any vessel during the course of any voyage, with respect to discipline aboard any vessel, or the obligation of the Master to enforce such penalties as the laws of Panama may permit or require.

[SEAL] E. S. LAND,
Administrator.

The provisions of this general order are promulgated in order:

(a) To promote uniformity in the execution and form of all contracts made by agents of the War Shipping Administration for the account of the United States; and

(b) To insure compliance with all provisions of law applicable to such contracts.

Sec.

306.111 Contracts to be made in name of War Shipping Administration.
306.112 Clauses to be included in contracts in name of War Shipping Administration.
306.113 Short form compliance.
306.114 Definitions.
306.115 Date effective.

AUTHORITY: §§ 306.111 to 306.115, inclusive, issued under E.O. 9054 as amended by E.O. 9244, 7 F.R. 837, 7327.

§ 306.111 Contracts to be made in name of War Shipping Administration. (a) Except when the Administrator shall hereafter otherwise and in writing expressly direct, all contracts for facilities, equipment, services or supplies that are for the account of the United States (whether in the form of purchase orders, letters of intent, confirmation, or otherwise) entered into pursuant to the several service agreements by Agents, General Agents and Berth Agents must be executed in the name of the United States of America, War Shipping Administration. Any authorizations to the contrary hitherto granted by the Administrator are hereby withdrawn.

(b) Letterheads, recitals, and forms of signature shall be employed appropriate to indicate that contracts executed for the account of the United States are government contracts made through agents of the War Shipping Administration. The following form of signature should be used:

United States of America,
War Shipping Administration,
By: ----------,
Agent

Contractors should be instructed to render bills for all types and kinds of goods and services as follows:

United States of America,
War Shipping Administration,
% ----------,
Agent

Under no circumstances, however, shall this form of signature or identification or any other indicating an agency relation with the War Shipping Administration be employed by Agents, General Agents or Berth Agents when acting for their own account as owners or in connection with their private business.

(c) Invoices for freight shall be signed as "Agent", and payment by check shall be accepted payable to the agent's special account.

§ 306.112 Clauses to be included in contracts in name of War Shipping Administration. Except as otherwise herein provided, the following clauses are required to be included and it is hereby expressly ordered that they shall be included in all contracts (whether for food, supplies, fuel, ship ceiling, wharfage and dockage, towage, stevedoring, repairs or otherwise, and whether in the form of purchase orders, letters of intent or confirmation, or otherwise) into which Agents, Berth Agents and General Agents are authorized by the service agreements to enter for the account of the United States and which are to be performed any where in the United States, its territories, or possessions. Commercial clauses not in conflict with these or other regulations of the Administrator may also be used where usual and desirable.

(a) Warranty against contingent fees:

The contractor warrants that he has not employed any person to solicit or secure this contract upon any agreement for commission, percentage, brokerage or contingent fees. Breach of this warranty shall give the Administrator the right to annul the contract, or in his discretion, to deduct from the contract price or consideration the amount of such commission, percentage, brokerage, or contingent fees. This warranty shall not apply to commissions payable by contractors upon contracts or sales secured or made through bona fide established commercial or selling agencies maintained by the contractor for the purpose of securing business.

(b) Labor provisions—(1) Copeland Act (Kickback Act).

The contractor shall comply with the regulations of the Secretary of Labor pursuant to the Act of June 13, 1934 (48 Stat. 948, 40 U.S.C. sec. 276 b, c), and any amendments and modifications thereof, and shall cause appropriate provisions to be inserted in subcontracts to insure compliance therewith by all the subcontractors subject thereto, and shall be responsible for the submission of affidavits required of the subcontractors thereunder, except as the Secretary of Labor may specifically provide for reasonable limitations, variations, tolerances, and exemptions from the requirements thereof.

(2) Eight Hour Law. The following clause is applicable only to contracts involving employment of laborers and mechanics:

No laborer or mechanic doing any part of the work contemplated by this contract, in the employ of the contractor or any subcontractor contracting for any part of said work contemplated, shall be required or permitted to work more than eight hours in any one calendar day upon such work at the site thereof except upon the condition that compensation is paid to such laborer or mechanic in accordance with the provisions of this paragraph. The wages of every laborer or mechanic employed by the contractor or any subcontractor engaged in the performance of this contract shall be computed on a basic day rate of eight hours per day, and work in excess of eight hours per day is permitted only upon the condition that every such laborer and mechanic shall be compensated for all hours worked in excess of eight hours per day at not less than one and one-half times the basic rate of pay. For each violation of the requirements of this paragraph, a penalty of five dollars shall be imposed upon the contractor for each laborer or mechanic for every calendar day in which such employee is required or permitted to labor more than eight hours upon said work without receiving compensation computed in accordance with this paragraph, and all penalties thus imposed shall be withheld for the use and benefit of the Government.

(3) Walsh-Healey Act. The following clause is applicable only to contracts involving $10,000 or more for materials, supplies, articles and equipment:

The representations and stipulations required by sec. 1 of the Act of June 30, 1936 (Walsh-Healey Act, Public No. 846, 74th Cong.) to be included in all contracts therein specified are hereby incorporated and made a part of this contract with the same force and effect as if fully set forth in the contract. Such representations and stipulations shall be subject to all applicable regulations, determinations and exemptions of the Secretary of Labor now or hereafter in effect.

(4) Convict labor.

No convict labor will be employed in the performance of the work under this contract.

(5) Nondiscrimination.

The contractor, in performing work under this contract, shall not discriminate against any employee or applicant for employment because of race, creed, color, or national origin. The contractor shall include a similar provision prohibiting such discrimination in all subcontracts.

(c) Member or delegate.

No member of or Delegate to Congress and no Resident Commissioner is or shall be admitted to any share or part of this agreement or to any benefit that may arise therefrom except to the extent allowed by 18 U.S.C. sec. 206.

(d) Assignment of claims.

No sale, transfer or assignment of this contract or any interest therein or of moneys due or to become due thereunder shall be made directly, or indirectly, or through any reorganization, merger or consolidation without the prior obtained written consent of the Administrator and in accordance with the Assignment of Claims Act, 1940.

(e) Tax exemption.

The contractor or vendor warrants and certifies that the amount of the invoice or purchase price charged to the Agent does not include any state or local sales, use or other similar taxes from which the United States is exempt or from which the contractor or vendor is exempt because the sale is to the United States. If any such taxes have been so included or charged and are paid by the Agent, the contractor shall on demand refund the amount thereof to the Agent or to the Administrator.

The contractor shall keep complete and accurate records and books of account showing details of all income and expenses incident to or derived from the performance of this contract. The method of accounting employed by the contractor shall be subject to the approval of the Administrator but no material change will be made therein if the same conforms to good accounting practice and is sufficient for the purposes of this contract.

The Administrator and his employees shall at all times have free and unrestricted access to the premises of the contractor and to the work, and shall have the right to inspect, examine, audit and make copies of the contractor's books, records, correspondence, vouchers, and memoranda of every description pertaining to the work. The contractor shall make such reports to the Administrator concerning the work, this contract, and the contractor's financial operations and standing as the Administrator may determine or from time to time require. The contractor shall, without charge to the Administrator and without receiving additional remuneration or payment, keep and preserve all books, records, correspondence, vouchers, memoranda, and reports of every description in this paragraph referred to for at least three years from the date upon which final payment for any operation under this contract is made.

(g) Compliance with applicable laws and regulations.

In performing this contract the contractor shall abide by and comply with all applicable statutes, ordinances, laws, and regulations of the United States (including Executive orders of the President), any state, or any public authority, now or hereafter in force, including but not limited to price ceilings set by the Office of Price Administration, and statutes and executive orders relating to wages and hours of labor.

(h) Renegotiations.

This contract shall be deemed to contain all the provisions required by subsection (b) of the Renegotiation Act, as amended by the Revenue Act of 1943. In compliance with the said subsection (b) of the Renegotiation Act, the contractor shall insert in all subcontracts specified in the said subsection (b) the provision of this paragraph.

(i) Repricing.

This contract and any subcontracts hereunder are subject to Title VIII of the Revenue Act of 1943, P. L. 235, 78th Congress, enacted February 25, 1944 (Repricing of War Contracts).

§ 306.113 Short form compliance. Contracts shall be deemed sufficiently to comply with the requirements of § 306.112 if the following language, incorporating by reference all applicable provisions thereof, shall be conspicuously stamped or printed thereon:

The contractor agrees that this contract is subject to and includes all applicable clauses set out in § 306.112 of General Order 42, issued by the War Shipping Administration on ---------- 1944. All such clauses, to the extent that the same are applicable, are expressly incorporated by this reference, and shall have the same force and effect as if herein fully set forth.

§ 306.114 Definitions. As used in this order:

(a) A General Agent is a person, firm or corporation designated as "General Agent" under a form of GAA agreement approved by the Administrator, War Shipping Administration.

[MPR 193, Order 7]

AMERICAN DISTILLING CO.

ESTABLISHMENT OF CEILING PRICES FOR DOMESTIC DISTILLED SPIRITS

For the reasons set forth in an opinion issued simultaneously herewith and in accordance with § 1420.13 (c) of Maximum Price Regulation 193 and § 1499.3 (b) (3) of the General Maximum Price Regulation, it is ordered that:

SECTION 1. Explanation of this order—(a) Purpose. This order is issued to establish (where necessary) and to gather into a single document the most important provisions relative to ceiling prices of sellers of certain packaged whiskey to be sold under the brand names "Special Privilege" and "Special Prerogative" as the result of a transfer of whiskey by The American Distilling Company (a Maryland corporation) to Gilbert B. Geiger, Trustee under Trust Indenture dated December 11, 1943; to establish ceiling prices for "clearing" that whiskey ("clearing" being defined in section 10 of this order); to require certain sellers of that whiskey to make reports to the Office of Price Administration, and to afford a convenient means of directing attention to and giving notice of those ceiling prices and requirements.

(b) Certain definitions. "Trustee" as used in this order means Gilbert B. Geiger as Trustee under Trust Indenture made and executed December 11, 1943 by The American Distilling Company (a Maryland corporation) and includes his successors in trust.

"Special Privilege whiskey" as used in this order means a blend of straight whiskeys 80.6° proof, 25% straight whiskey four years old, 27% straight whiskey three years old, and 48% straight whiskey two years old, in packages each containing 4/5 quart thereof, bearing the brand name "Special Privilege" or "Privilege Brand Special" on their front labels. A case of that whiskey means twelve of such packages in an individual shipping container.

"Special Prerogative whiskey" as used in this order means rye or bourbon whiskey 100° proof, bottled in bond, in packages each containing one quart thereof and bearing the brand name "Special Prerogative" or "Prerogative Brand Special" on their front labels. A case of that whiskey means twelve of such packages in an individual shipping container.

"Price" as used in this order means the consideration requested or received in connection with the sale of merchandise or supplying of a service.

"Ceiling price" as used in this order means the highest price that may be charged, demanded, paid or received.

(c) April 1, 1944 increase in Federal excise taxes. The ceiling prices provided in sections 2 through 6 of this order include Federal excise taxes at rates in effect prior to April 1, 1944. On that date the Federal excise tax applicable to "Special Privilege" whiskey increases $5.63 per case and the tax applicable to "Special Prerogative" increases $9.00 per case. By the use of footnotes, provision is made in this order for adding the April 1, 1944, Federal excise tax increase to ceiling prices on all whiskey with respect to which the seller pays the increase. A seller may add only the exact amount of that tax increase applicable without markup thereon or other addition thereto. On and after April 1, 1944, every seller must state on each invoice to any customer that the prices in the invoice include the increase effective April 1, 1944, in United States excise taxes and that no markup may be applied to the amount thereof. A statement in substantially the following language upon the face of the invoice shall be deemed compliance with this provision:

Our invoice prices include the increase effective April 1, 1944, in United States excise taxes. OPA regulations prohibit a markup on the amount thereof.

SEC. 2. Ceiling prices for sales of "Special Privilege" and "Special Prerogative" whiskey by special sellers. "Special seller" means a person (regardless of whether a stockholder of The American Distilling Company) not customarily engaged in the business of buying and selling distilled spirits as a wholesaler, retailer, primary distributing agent or monopoly state, who sells or offers for sale "Special Privilege" or "Special Prerogative" whiskey in accordance with a special license or permit authorizing him to receive and dispose of that whiskey issued under applicable state laws or regulations. It also includes a person who sells or offers to sell such whiskey without license or permit.

(a) Prices. The ceiling prices of a special seller for a sale of "Special Privilege" or "Special Prerogative" whiskey shall be as follows:

(1) Sales to wholesalers and monopoly states. Ceiling prices per case f. o. b. special seller's shipping point are the total of the following:

(i) $18.62 [1] per case of "Special Privilege" or $28.37 [2] per case of "Special Prerogative" whiskey; plus

(ii) Freight per case from the bottling plant to the special seller's receiv-

[1] $5.63 may be added to this amount if the April 1, 1944 increase in Federal excise tax is paid with respect to the whiskey being priced.

[2] $9.00 may be added to this amount if the April 1, 1944 increase in Federal excise tax is paid with respect to the whiskey being priced.

ing point paid by him with respect to the whiskey being priced; plus

(iii) Applicable state and local excise taxes imposed on and paid by the special seller with respect to the whiskey being priced.

(2) Sales to retailers and to all other persons except wholesalers and monopoly states. Ceiling prices per case f. o. b. special seller's shipping point are the total of the following:

(i) $18.62 per case of "Special Privilege" or $28.37 per case of "Special Prerogative" whiskey; plus

(ii) Freight per case from the bottling plant to the special seller's receiving point paid by him with respect to the whiskey being priced; plus

(iii) Applicable state and local excise taxes at rates in effect on November 2, 1942, imposed on and paid by the special seller with respect to the whiskey being priced; plus

(iv) 15% of the total of (i), (ii) and (iii) immediately above[4]; plus

(v) The applicable amount of any new state or local excise tax first imposed by statute effective after November 2, 1942, and the applicable amount of any increase effective after November 2, 1942, in state or local excise taxes on that date, imposed on and paid by the special seller with respect to the whiskey being priced.

(3) Sales of individual packages. A special seller's ceiling price for sales of one or more individual packages of "Special Privilege" or "Special Prerogative" whiskey to a purchaser of any class shall be one-twelfth of his ceiling price per case to a purchaser of that class, multiplied by the number of individual packages being priced.

(b) Reports. A special seller selling or transferring (by gift or otherwise) any "Special Privilege" or "Special Prerogative" whiskey shall file a report of the sale or transfer with the District Office of the Office of Price Administration having jurisdiction over the territory in which he resides. The report shall be in writing, signed by the special seller, shall be filed within five days after the sale or transfer has been made and shall contain statements showing:

(1) The name and address of the special seller filing the report.

(2) The name and address of the buyer or transferee.

(3) The date of the sale or transfer.

(4) The quantity (in terms of cases) of each brand of the whiskey sold or transferred in the transaction reported.

(5) The special seller's ceiling price for the sale or transfer of the whiskey described in the report and his computation thereof.

(6) The total price which the buyer paid or contracted to pay for each brand of the whiskey sold or transferred, or if the transfer was made as a gift, a statement to that effect.

(7) The amount of all clearance charges which the special seller has paid with respect to the quantity of whiskey described in the report and the name and address of the persons to whom they were paid.

(8) Whether to the knowledge of the special seller, the buyer or transferee has paid or contracted to pay any commission, brokerage or fee in connection with the sale or transfer reported, and if known to the special seller, the amount thereof and the name and address of each person to whom payment thereof is to be or has been made. If the special seller has no knowledge of such commission, brokerage or fee which the buyer paid or contracted to pay, the report shall so state.

The report required by this paragraph need not be filed if the quantity of such whiskey sold or transferred by the special seller to the buyer or transferee (in all transactions with that buyer or transferee) totals less than one case.

SEC. 3. Ceiling prices for sales of "Special Privilege" and "Special Prerogative" whiskey by wholesalers—(a) Initial ceiling prices. The ceiling prices of a wholesaler for sales of "Special Privilege" or "Special Prerogative" whiskey to customers of a particular class shall be the appropriate amounts[4] determined in accordance with section 5.4 (b) of Maximum Price Regulation 445 using $18.62 per case for "Special Privilege" and $28.37 per case for "Special Prerogative" whiskey, respectively, as his supplier's selling price (exclusive of state or local excise taxes) for purposes of determining his net cost for such whiskey he purchases from the trustee.

(b) Changes in ceiling prices. Wholesalers who receive purchases of either "Special Privilege" or "Special Prerogative" whiskey after receipt of their first purchase thereof from any seller shall refigure their ceiling prices for the particular brand, and such refigured ceiling prices[4] shall become their ceiling prices therefor, all as provided in section 5.4 (c) of Maximum Price Regulation 445. For purposes of refiguring ceiling prices, any purchase of "Special Privilege" or "Special Prerogative" whiskey, but no purchase of any whiskey of a different brand name shall be deemed a "base purchase" thereof within the meaning of that section.

SEC. 4. Ceiling prices for sales of "Special Privilege" and "Special Prerogative" whiskey by monopoly states—(a) Initial ceiling prices. The initial ceiling prices of a monopoly state for sales of "Special Privilege" or "Special Prerogative" whiskey to customers of a particular class shall be the appropriate amounts[4] determined in accordance with section 5.6 (b) of Maximum Price Regulation 445, using $18.62 per case for "Special Privilege" and $28.37 per case for "Special Prerogative" whiskey, respectively, as its supplier's selling price (exclusive of state excise taxes) for purposes of determining its net cost for such whiskey it purchases from the Trustee.

(b) Changes in ceiling prices. Monopoly states who receive purchases of either "Special Privilege" or "Special Prerogative" whiskey after receipt of their first purchases thereof from any seller shall refigure their ceiling prices for the particular brand, and such refigured ceiling prices[4] shall become their ceiling prices therefor, all as provided in section 5.6 (c) of Maximum Price Regulation 445. For purposes of refiguring ceiling prices, any purchase of "Special Privilege" or "Special Prerogative" whiskey, but no purchase of any whiskey of a different brand name, shall be deemed a "base purchase" thereof within the meaning of that section.

SEC. 5. Ceiling prices for sales of "Special Privilege" and "Special Prerogative" whiskey by retailers—(a) Prices. The ceiling prices of a retailer for sales of "Special Privilege" or "Special Prerogative" whiskey per case shall be as follows:

(1) Sales to consumers—(i) Initial ceiling prices. The initial ceiling prices of a retailer for sales of "Special Privilege" or "Special Prerogative" whiskey to customers of a particular class shall be the appropriate amounts[4] determined in accordance with section 5.5 (b) of Maximum Price Regulation 445 using $18.62 per case for "Special Privilege" and $28.37 per case for "Special Prerogative" whiskey, respectively, as his supplier's selling price (exclusive of state and local excise taxes) for purposes of determining his net cost for such whiskey he purchases from the Trustee.

(ii) Changes in ceiling prices. Retailers who receive a purchase of either "Special Privilege" or "Special Prerogative" whiskey after receipt of their first purchase thereof from any seller shall refigure their ceiling prices for the particular brand, and such refigured ceiling prices[4] shall become their ceiling prices for "Special Privilege" or "Special Prerogative" whiskey, respectively, all as provided in section 5.5 (c) of Maximum Price Regulation 445, except that a retailer shall use his "running weighted average net cost" instead of his "net cost for his most recent purchase" in determining his refigured ceiling prices for that whiskey. For purposes of refiguring ceiling prices, any purchase of "Special Privilege" or "Special Prerogative" whiskey, but no purchase of any whiskey of a different brand name, shall be deemed a "base purchase" thereof within the meaning of that section.

A retailer's "running weighted average net cost" means the amount obtained by:

(a) Determining his net cost exclusive of the April 1, 1944 increase in Federal excise tax for each case of "Special Privilege" or "Special Prerogative" whiskey, respectively, in his stock on the date of his computation. If the retailer has received two or more shipments of the whiskey to be priced (exclusive of his most recent shipment) he shall use as his net cost for any of that whiskey remaining in his stock on the date of computation, his most recent running average weighted net cost for that whiskey.

(b) Adding together the resulting figures obtained at (a); and

(c) Dividing the sum obtained at (b) by the total number of cases of "Special Privilege" or "Special Prerogative" whiskey, respectively, he has in his stock.

(2) Sales to wholesalers, monopoly states and other retailers. The ceiling price of a retailer for sales of "Special

[4] For "Special Privilege" $5.83 and for "Special Prerogative" whiskey $9.00 may be added to this resulting amount if the April 1, 1944 increase in Federal excise tax is paid with respect to the whiskey being priced.

Privilege" or "Special Prerogative" whiskey to wholesalers, monopoly states and other retailers shall be his "running weighted average net cost"[3] for "Special Privilege" or "Special Prerogative" whiskey, respectively, at the date of sale.

(b) Records. Any retailer selling "Special Privilege" or "Special Prerogative" whiskey shall, for so long as the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942 remains in effect, keep available for inspection by the Office of Price Administration, records of the same kind as he customarily keeps and in addition thereto (unless his customary records so show) records showing separately for "Special Privilege" and "Special Prerogative" whiskey the date of each of his purchases of such whiskey, the name and address of the seller, the number of cases purchased, his net cost for the purchase and his computations of his running weighted average net cost for that whiskey.

SEC. 6. Ceiling prices for sales of packaged domestic whiskey by the Trustee. The appropriate ceiling prices[3] provided by Appendix E, Article III, Maximum Price Regulation 445, are and shall be applicable to all sales of "Special Privilege" or "Special Prerogative" whiskey by the Trustee.

SEC. 7. Persons unable to determine ceiling prices. A person who cannot determine his ceiling price for a particular sale of "Special Privilege" or "Special Prerogative" whiskey under other provisions of this order shall apply by letter to the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., requesting that a ceiling price be established for that sale. The letter shall contain statements setting forth:

(1) The name and address of the person making application.

(2) The quantity and brand name of the whiskey to be sold.

(3) The reason why a ceiling price for the sale cannot be determined under other provisions of this order.

After receipt of the application, the Office of Price Administration will by order authorize a ceiling price for the applicant or for sellers of the whiskey generally including purchasers for resale, or for a class of such sellers. Until a ceiling price is authorized, the applicant may make the sale and deliver the whiskey but he may not receive any payment for it.

SEC. 8. Reports by the Trustee—Trustee's report of sales of "Special Privilege" and "Special Prerogative" whiskey. Within 15 days after his first shipment of "Special Privilege" or "Special Prerogative" whiskey pursuant to any purchase, and bi-monthly thereafter, until 15 days after his last shipment, the Trustee shall report all his shipments of "Special Privilege" and "Special Prerogative" whiskey during the preceding period to the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C. Such reports shall be in writing, signed by the Trustee and shall contain statements showing, with respect to each shipment:

(1) The name and address of the purchaser.

(2) The name and address of the consignee.

(3) The date on which shipment was made.

(4) The quantity (in cases) of each brand of whiskey.

SEC. 9. Notice of this order to be given by the Trustee. At or prior to his first shipment of any "Special Privilege" or "Special Prerogative" whiskey pursuant to a particular purchase order, and to a particular consignee, the Trustee shall notify the purchaser (and the consignee if he be a person other than the purchaser) of the provisions of this order, by delivering or mailing a copy thereof to such persons. Only one such notice need be given to a particular purchaser or consignee.

SEC. 10. Ceiling prices for clearing—(a) Prices. Ceiling prices for clearing "Special Privilege" and "Special Prerogative" whiskey shall be as follows:

(1) Clearing by wholesalers or retailers. A wholesaler's or retailer's ceiling price for clearing "Special Privilege" or "Special Prerogative" whiskey shall be $1.00 per case.

(2) Clearing by monopoly states. A monopoly state's ceiling price for clearing "Special Privilege" or "Special Prerogative" whiskey shall be the amount produced by subtracting from $18.62 per case for "Special Privilege" or $28.37 per case for "Special Prerogative" whiskey the sum of $3.91 or $6.00 respectively, and multiplying the resulting figure by the highest percentage in use during March 1942 for the monopoly state's sales of domestic whiskey to a customer of the same class as the purchaser, according to the statute, ordinance or regulation then prescribing its markup.

(3) Prohibition. No consideration or markup in excess of the appropriate amounts stated in subparagraphs (1) and (2) of this paragraph may be charged, received or paid for clearing.

(b) No charge for clearing in certain instances. No wholesaler, retailer or monopoly state purchasing "Special Privilege" or "Special Prerogative" whiskey which he has cleared shall charge, or retain a payment previously received for clearing the whiskey so purchased. If a clearing charge has been made or received by the purchasing wholesaler, retailer or monopoly state with respect to the whiskey so purchased, such charge shall be cancelled, or if paid, shall be refunded to the seller or his nominee.

"Clearing" means the service performed by a wholesaler, retailer or monopoly state in receiving "Special Privilege" or "Special Prerogative" whiskey sold by the Trustee to a person exercising an option to purchase that whiskey under the Trust Indenture under which the Trustee acts, and delivering the whiskey to or for the account of that person, his nominee or his successor in interest. The term also includes handling incident to receipt or delivery. Receiving and delivering such whiskey as a nominal purchaser, for accommodation of another, shall be deemed "clearing."

SEC. 11. License, brokerage and other fees. No person may add to or increase his ceiling prices for "Special Privilege" or "Special Prerogative" whiskey provided in this order, because of any sum paid for licenses, permits, clearing service, brokerage, finder's fees, shares of stock, stock transfer taxes, assignments of purchase privileges or orders or for other expense not specifically provided for under sections 2 through 6 of this order.

SEC. 12. Terms of sale. If a seller directly or indirectly requires a purchaser to make or furnish any payment in advance of delivery of "Special Privilege" or "Special Prerogative" whiskey, or the rendition of a service for which a ceiling price is established by this order, whether to the seller or to another person, the seller's ceiling price for that whiskey or service shall be reduced by an amount equal to interest at the rate of 5% per annum on the amount of the advance payment from the date the payment is made to the date on which the item is delivered or the service supplied, or the payment is refunded to the purchaser.

SEC. 13. Miscellaneous. (a) To the extent consistent with this order, the applicable provisions of Maximum Price Regulation 445 are incorporated herein and shall apply to sales of "Special Privilege" and "Special Prerogative" whiskey by the sellers described herein.

(b) The provisions of this order shall not operate to make lawful or to permit any sale or transfer, or handling or dealing in "Special Privilege" or "Special Prerogative" whiskey otherwise prohibited or controlled by Federal, state or local laws, ordinances or regulations, and shall not be deemed a recognition of the validity of the Trust Indenture under which the Trustee acts, or a determination of his relationship to The American Distilling Company.

(c) This order may be revoked or amended by the Price Administrator at any time.

This order shall become effective April 17, 1944.

NOTE: All reporting and record-keeping requirements of this order have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget, in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

[MPR 445, Order 69]

AMERICAN DISTILLING CO.

ESTABLISHMENT OF CEILING PRICES FOR BULK WHISKEY

For the reasons set forth in an opinion issued simultaneously herewith and in accordance with section 2.2 (c) of Maximum Price Regulation 445 and § 1499.3 (b) (3) of the General Maximum Price Regulation, It is ordered that:

SECTION 1. Explanation of this order. This order is issued to establish (where necessary) and to gather into a single document the most important provisions relative to ceiling prices for certain sales of bulk whiskey transferred by The American Distilling Company (a Maryland corporation) to Gilbert B. Geiger, Trustee under Trust Indenture dated December 11, 1943; to require certain sellers of that bulk whiskey to make reports to the Office of Price Administration; and to afford a convenient means of directing attention to and giving notice of those ceiling prices and requirements.

"Trustee" as used in this order means Gilbert B. Geiger, as Trustee under Trust Indenture made and effective December 11, 1943, by The American Distilling Company (a Maryland corporation) and includes his successors in trust.

"Price" as used in this order means the consideration requested or received in connection with the sale of merchandise or supplying of a service.

"Ceiling price" as used in this order means the highest price that may be charged, demanded, paid or received.

SEC. 2. Ceiling prices for sales of bulk whiskey. The appropriate ceiling prices [1] established by section 2.3 of Maximum Price Regulation 445 are and shall be applicable to sales of bulk whiskey (whether on an original or regauged proof gallon basis) made by the Trustee or any other person to any purchaser, whether or not made by transfer of warehouse receipts or other evidence of title.

SEC. 3. Terms of sale. If any seller of such bulk whiskey directly or indirectly requires a purchaser thereof to make or furnish any payment, whether to the seller or to another person in advance of delivery of the bulk whiskey (or warehouse receipt or other evidence of title thereto), the seller must reduce his ceiling price for that sale by an amount equal to interest at the rate of 5% per annum on the amount of the advance payment from the date the payment is made to the date on which the bulk whiskey (or warehouse receipt or other evidence of title thereto) is delivered, or the payment is refunded to the purchaser.

SEC. 4. License, brokerage and other fees. No seller of such bulk whiskey may add to or increase his ceiling prices provided in section 2.3 of Maximum Price Regulation 445 because of any sums paid for licenses, permits, brokerage, finder's fees, shares of stock, stock transfer taxes, assignments of purchase privileges or orders or other expense not specifically provided for in section 2.3 of Maximum Price Regulation 445.

SEC. 5. Reports by the Trustee and certain other sellers—(a) Trustee's reports of sales and transfers of bulk whiskey. Within 15 days after his first sale of bulk whiskey (whether or not made by transfer of warehouse receipt or other evidence of title) and bimonthly thereafter, until 15 days after his last sale or transfer, the Trustee shall report all his sales and transfers of bulk whiskey (whether or not made by transfer or warehouse receipt or other evidence of title) to the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C. Such reports shall be in writing signed by the Trustee and shall contain statements showing:

(1) The name and address of the purchaser.

(2) The date on which the sale was made.

(3) A description of the sale showing whether the sale was made in bond or Federal excise tax paid, on an original proof gallon or regauged proof gallon basis, the ages of the whiskey at date of sale and the quantity of each age involved in the sale.

(4) The total price which the purchaser paid or contracted to pay for the whiskey.

(5) Whether warehouse receipts or other evidence of title to that whiskey, or the whiskey in bulk have been or will be delivered to the purchaser by the seller.

(6) The amount of any commission, brokerage or fee which the seller has contracted to pay in connection with the sale and the name and address of each person to whom payment thereof is to be or has been made.

(7) Whether to the seller's knowledge, the purchaser or transferee has paid or contracted to pay any commission, brokerage or fee in connection with the sale, and if known to the seller, the amount thereof and the name and address of each person to whom payment thereof is to be or has been made. If the seller has no knowledge of such commission, brokerage or fee which the purchaser has paid or contracted to pay, the report shall so state.

(b) Reports of sales or transfers of bulk whiskey by any purchaser from the Trustee. Every person purchasing bulk whiskey from the Trustee, who thereafter sells or transfers all or any part of such whiskey in bulk (whether by transfer of warehouse receipts or other evidence of title) shall file a report of that sale or transfer with the District Office of the Office of Price Administration having jurisdiction over the territory in which he resides. The report shall be in writing; signed by the seller, shall be filed within 10 days after the sale or transfer is made and shall contain the same information as required under paragraph (b) of this section for sales of bulk whiskey by the Trustee.

SEC. 6. Miscellaneous. (a) To the extent consistent with this order, the applicable provisions of Maximum Price Regulation 445 are incorporated herein and shall apply to sales of such bulk whiskey by all sellers.

(b) The provisions of this order shall not operate to make lawful or to permit any sale or transfer, or handling or dealing in bulk whiskey otherwise prohibited or controlled by Federal, state or local laws, ordinances or regulations and shall not be deemed a recognition of the validity of the Trust Indenture under which the Trustee acts, or a determination of his relationship to the American Distilling Company.

(c) This order does not apply to a sale of bulk whiskey made by the trustee if prior to or at the date of sale the Trustee and the purchaser agree in writing that the Trustee is to bottle and the purchaser may sell the whiskey in packages under the brand names "Special Privilege" or "Special Prerogative," unless such agreement is thereafter cancelled.

(d) This order may be revoked or amended by the Price Administrator at any time.

This order shall become effective April 17, 1944.

NOTE: All reporting and record-keeping requirements of this order have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget, in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

ORDER REQUIRING INFORMATION FROM PROCESSORS AND PACKERS OF CERTAIN PROCESSED FOODS

In order that the Administrator may obtain information with regard to certain processed foods to assist him in prescribing maximum price regulations under the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, and pursuant to the authority vested in him by said Act and Executive Orders 9250 and 9328, and in accordance with section 202 (a) of said act, It is hereby ordered, That:

Processors, packers, salters, briners and final processors of the food products covered by the maximum price regulations hereinafter listed shall file with the Price Administrator, Washington, D. C. the specific information set forth in this order for each named regulation.

SECTION 1. Definitions of terms used in this order—(a) General Definitions. When used in this order the term:

(1) "Weighted average price" means the total gross sales dollars charged for each variety, style of pack, grade, size and container type and size during a "base period" divided by the number of dozen of containers or other units of sale sold of such variety, style, grade, size and container type and size. All sales made in the regular course of business during the base period shall be included, regardless of the date of delivery, except sales made to the armed forces of the United States. Sales contracts made at times other than during the base period shall not be included even though delivery was during the base period. "Weighted average prices" figured under this order shall be on an f. o. b. factory basis. Where more than one "brand" within a grade is packed, the "weighted average price" shall include all brands within a grade.

(2) "Base period" means the particular period of sales specified in this order for each commodity or group of commodities, such as "first 60 days after the beginning of the 1941 pack."

(3) "Processor", "packer", "salter" and "briner" and "final processor", as the case may be, means the person respectively defined as such in the particular regulation covering that person's sales of the particular product.

(b) Unless the context otherwise requires the definitions set forth in section 302 of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, shall apply to other terms used in this order.

SEC. 2. When reports must be filed and form of reports. The reports required to be filed under this order shall be filed with the Price Administrator, Washington, D. C., on or before April 30, 1944. The information shall be filed in the form specified for each regulation named herein. A separate report form shall be filed for each commodity for which a processor or other seller is required to report his weighted average price. For example, if a processor made sales during the base period of peas, beans and corn, of different styles of pack, grades, etc., he shall file a separate report for all peas, one for all beans and one for all corn sold during the base period. Likewise if the processor both cans and freezes, he shall file separate reports under each specified regulation. Forms on which to file reports will not be furnished due to the administrative difficulties involved in supplying the needed number of forms and the necessity for securing the information at the earliest possible date.

Southern Union Gas Co.

Order Granting Extension of Time

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission, held at its office in the City of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, on the 14th day of April, A. D. 1944.

The Commission having by order dated September 19, 1942, directed, pursuant to section 11 (b) (1) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935, that Southern Union Gas Company, formerly a registered holding company, divest itself of all its interest in, and of all ownership and control of, certain companies and certain properties designated in said order, and the said order having provided that such divestment should be effected within one year of said date, unless such time should be further extended by the Commission; and

The Commission, pursuant to an application filed under section 11 (e) of the act by Southern Union Gas Company, having previously granted an extension of six months from September 19, 1943, within which to comply with the provisions of the said order of September 19, 1942, without prejudice, however, to the respondent to apply for an additional extension if the circumstances warranted; and

Southern Union Gas Company now having filed an application requesting an additional extension of time of six months within which to comply with the divestment provisions of said order of September 19, 1942; and

The Commission having found that Southern Union Gas Company has been unable in the exercise of due diligence to comply with the divestment provisions of said order within the initial statutory period of one year from the date thereof and the six months extension previously granted; and that an additional extension of six months is necessary and appropriate in the public interest and for the protection of investors and consumers;

It is therefore ordered, That Southern Union Gas Company be and it is hereby granted an additional period of six months from March 19, 1944 within which to comply with the said provisions of said order of September 19, 1942.

By the Commission.

NOTE: For appointments made on and after January 16, 1940, and before November 7, 1940, the probationary period was regarded as having been completed on January 18, 1941, or upon the completion of six months service, whichever was later, unless the probation for the position had been fixed for a longer period by regulation.

When an employee had served only a portion of the probationary period and was granted a furlough or leave without pay, the probationary period was extended for the period of time the employee was in a nonpay status, which means that an employee must have served in a pay status for the total period prescribed as probationary.

NOTE: Except as provided above and in 39 U.S.C., 614, the period of probation of substitute employees in the postal field service was based on hours of service and not on calendar months. Such employees completed their probationary periods after 1224 hours were actually served. Those substitute employees who served 1224 hours or more but less than 2448 hours from the date of appointment to January 15, 1941, had completed their probation. (Appointments to positions in the postal service except Postmaster were by Executive Order No. 9378 of September 23, 1943, made subject, effective October 23, 1943, to the War Service Regulations which appear in Part 18 of this Title.)

PART 4—DETERMINATIONS RELATING TO OVERTIME, SUNDAY, AND HOLIDAY PAY

PREMIUM COMPENSATION IN BUILDING AND CONSTRUCTION TRADES

Amendment of Determination of September 30, 1942, as amended, on premium compensation in the building and construction trades.

The determination of the Secretary of Labor issued September 30, 1942 (7 F.R. 7801), pursuant to Executive Order 9248, provides that the terms of Executive Order 9240 entitled "Regulations Relating to Overtime Wage Compensation" shall not apply to work on construction projects which is subject to the Wage Stabilization Agreement of July 22, 1941, entered into between certain Government agencies engaged in defense construction and the Building and Construction Trades Department of the American Federation of Labor. This stabilization agreement applies to any contract work done for or through any federal agency for defense purposes within the continental limits of the United States and the Panama Canal Zone. Executive Order 9240, however, applies to all work relating to the prosecution of the war in the United States, its territories and possessions.

Upon investigation I have determined that the differences in the definition of work subject to the Executive Order, the Determination, and the Stabilization Agreement have created operating problems in the industry and that the nature and exigencies of operations in this industry make it necessary and advisable for the successful prosecution of the war that my Determination of September 30, 1942, as amended, be amended to provide for more uniform application of the rules on the payment of premium and overtime wage compensation.

Now, therefore, by virtue of the power vested in me by Executive Order 9240, It is ordered, for the duration of the war, that the Determination of the Secretary of Labor, issued September 30, 1942, which provides that Executive Order 9240 shall not apply to any contract work done for or through any federal agency for defense purposes within the continental limits of the United States and the Panama Canal Zone is extended to exempt from Executive Order 9240 all other work in the Building and Construction Industry performed by employees at the site of construction, provided that such work is performed under the following conditions, which are now in effect for all construction work exempted from Executive Order 9240 by my Determination of September 30, 1942, as amended:

Where a single shift is worked, eight hours of continuous employment, except for lunch periods, shall constitute a day's work beginning on Monday and through Friday of each week. Where work is required in excess of eight hours on any one day or during the interval from 5:00 p. m. Friday to 7:00 a. m. Monday, or on holidays, such work shall be paid for at 1½ times the basic rate of wages.

Where two or more shifts are worked, five days of 7½ hour shifts from Sunday midnight to Friday midnight, shall constitute a regular week's work. The pay for a full shift period shall be a sum equivalent to eight times the basic hourly rate and for a period less than the full shift shall be the corresponding proportional amount which the time worked bears to the time allocated to the fall shift period. Any time worked from Friday midnight to Sunday midnight or in excess of regular shift hours shall be paid for at 1½ times the basic rate of wages.

Any work not subject to the provisions of Executive Order 9240 pursuant to this order shall be subject to the amendment of my Determination of September 30, 1942, issued May 22, 1943, which limits holidays in this industry to New Year's Day, Fourth of July, Labor Day, Thanksgiving Day, Christmas Day, and Memorial Day.

All questions of interpretation and application arising hereunder shall be referred for determination to the Wage Adjustment Board for the Building and Construction Industry.

This order shall become effective April 17, 1944.

Dated: April 11, 1944.

FRANCES PERKINS,
Secretary of Labor.

PART 1010—SUSPENSION ORDERS

[Suspension Order S-483]

RALEIGH COCA-COLA BOTTLING WORKS

Raleigh Coca-Cola Bottling Works is a corporation engaged, among other things, in the bottling and distribution of non-alcoholic beverages, at Beckley, West Virginia, with a branch at Mullens, West Virginia. The company used 27,612 gross of new closures made of restricted materials for the period from June 1, 1942 to June 30, 1943, in excess of the quota permitted under the provisions of Conservation Order M-104, as then in effect. The company failed to keep and preserve accurate and complete records of closures used which were subject to the limitations of Order M-104. This constituted a violation of Priorities Regulation No. 1.

The responsible officers of the company were familiar with the provisions of the orders and regulations of the War Production Board, which govern the operations of the company, and its conduct constituted grossly negligent violations of Order M-104 and Priorities Regulation No. 1. As the result of these violations scarce materials have been diverted from the war effort to uses not authorized by the War Production Board, and the war effort of the United States has been hampered and impeded. In view of the foregoing, it is hereby ordered, That:

§ 1010.483 Suspension Order No. S-483. (a) Raleigh Coca-Cola Bottling Works, its successors and assigns, shall during the calendar year of 1944, reduce its use of new closures made of restricted materials to be affixed to glass containers for non-alcoholic beverages by 27,612 gross, under the quota it would otherwise be entitled to use in such a period, as defined by Limitation Order L-103-b, which on January 4, 1944, superseded Conservation Order M-104, controlling the use of such closures. Any exceptions to this reduction in use must be specifically authorized in writing by the War Production Board.

(b) Nothing contained in this order shall be deemed to relieve the Raleigh Coca-Cola Bottling Works, its successors or assigns, from any restriction, prohibition or provision contained in any other order or regulation of the War Production Board, except insofar as the same may be inconsistent with the provisions hereof.

(c) This order shall take effect on April 17, 1944, and shall expire on December 31, 1944.

PART 990—CHLORINE IN PULP, PAPER AND PAPERBOARD

[General Limitation Order L-11, Interpretation 1]

The following interpretation is issued with respect to General Limitation Order L-11:

Meaning of specific restrictions relating to pulp. Paragraphs (c) (2) and (c) (3) of Order L-11 are interpreted to mean that the brightness of any individual batch, where a batch system is used, or the average of any eight-hour period, where a continuous system is used, shall not exceed 74 for bleached sulphite, bleached sulphate or waste paper when used for conversion into bleached papers, or 70 for bleached soda pulp.

Meaning of specific restrictions relating to paper and paperboard. In the tabulation under paragraph (d) (1), "gumming" grade of paper and paperboard, listed under "Book" Division of Industry, may be made not to exceed brightness of 68. There is no restriction against using any type of bleached pulp in this grade.

Listed under Sulphite and Bleached Kraft Division of Industry, "M. F. and M. G. Waxing" may be made not to exceed brightness of 67. There is no restriction against using any type of bleached pulp in this grade.

Effect of elimination of certain pulps from specified grades of paper and paperboard. The terms of paragraph (e) provide that pulp bleached with Chlorine shall be eliminated from gummings and tape, and waxings, under "Kraft" Division of Industry. This restriction is interpreted as referring only to "unbleached" grades, as distinguished from "Book," "Sulphite" or "Bleached Kraft" grades.

Issued this 18th day of April 1944.

[CMP Reg. 1, Interpretation 24]

RECORDS OF EXPORTERS

The following interpretation is issued with respect to CMP Regulation 1:

Paragraph (7) (8) of CMP Regulation No. 1 requires each prime consumer to retain for two years all documents on which he relies as entitling him to make or receive an allotment or to deliver or accept delivery of controlled materials or Class A products. The Foreign Economic Administration and its predecessors, the Board of Economic Warfare and the Office of Economic Warfare, have since the institution of the Controlled Materials Plan made allotments of controlled materials to exporters for export by endorsing appropriate legends upon export licenses. The original of every export license, however, is required by other Government regulations to be surrendered to export officials at the time of shipment. Consequently, persons who receive their assignments and preference ratings on export licenses are not in a position to retain the original of the export license, and thus are not required to do so by paragraph (7) (3) except only in those cases where other Government regulations do not require the surrender to the Government of the documents referred to.

Issued this 18th day of April 1944.

[CMP Reg. 5, Interpretation 13]

STAVES, HEADING, AND HOOPS

The following interpretation is issued with respect to CMP Regulation 5:

(a) Persons manufacturing wooden staves, heading, and hoops for barrels are included under the item "logging operations, saw mills, veneer mills, plywood mills, planing mills, shingle mills, and dry kilns operated in connection with saw mills" appearing in Schedule I of the regulation. They are, therefore, entitled to use the allotment symbol MRO and the preference rating AA-1 in buying MRO.

(b) Persons who make barrels as such are engaged in manufacturing "containers, all types except fibre containers, gas cylinders and ton containers, and nailed wooden boxes and crates", which appears in Schedule II of CMP Regulation 5. They may use, therefore, the MRO symbol and preference rating AA-2 in buying MRO. A person who makes both staves and barrels must segregate his purchases, unless impracticable to do so as explained in paragraph (e) of the regulation.

Issued this 18th day of April 1944.

PART 3291—CONSUMERS DURABLE GOODS

[General Limitation Order L-260-a, Interpretation 1]

FURNITURE AND FURNITURE PARTS; REMODELING BY INCLUSION OF SPRINGS

The following interpretation is issued with respect to General Limitation Order L-260-a:

Since the revocation of Order L-135 on January 14, 1944, some question has arisen in connection with the remodeling of padded or upholstered furniture produced prior to that date without springs.

A person who remodels such a completely finished and upholstered item of padded fur-

entered into between certain Government agencies engaged in defense construction and the Building and Construction Trades Department of the American Federation of Labor. This stabilization agreement applies to any contract work done for or through any federal agency for defense purposes within the continental limits of the United States and the Panama Canal Zone. Executive Order 9240, however, applies to all work relating to the prosecution of the war in the United States, its territories and possessions.

Upon investigation I have determined that the differences in the definition of work subject to the Executive Order, the Determination, and the Stabilization Agreement have created operating problems in the industry and that the nature and exigencies of operations in this industry make it necessary and advisable for the successful prosecution of the war that my Determination of September 30, 1942, as amended, be amended to provide for more uniform application of the rules on the payment of premium and overtime wage compensation.

Now, therefore, by virtue of the power vested in me by Executive Order 9248, It is ordered, for the duration of the war, that the Determination of the Secretary of Labor, issued September 30, 1942, which provides that Executive Order 9240 shall not apply to any contract work done for or through any federal agency for defense purposes within the continental limits of the United States and the Panama Canal Zone is extended to exempt from Executive Order 9240 all other work in the Building and Construction Industry performed by employees at the site of construction, provided that such work is performed under the following conditions, which are now in effect for all construction work exempted from Executive Order 9240 by my Determination of September 30, 1942, as amended:

Where a single shift is worked, eight hours of continuous employment, except for lunch periods, shall constitute a day's work beginning on Monday and through Friday of each week. Where work is required in excess of eight hours on any one day or during the interval from 5:00 p. m. Friday to 7:00 a. m. Monday, or on holidays, such work shall be paid for at 1½ times the basic rate of wages.

Where two or more shifts are worked, five days of 7½ hour shifts from Sunday midnight to Friday midnight, shall constitute a regular week's work. The pay for a full shift period shall be a sum equivalent to eight times the basic hourly rate and for a period less than the full shift shall be the corresponding proportional amount which the time worked bears to the time allocated to the fall shift period. Any time worked from Friday midnight to Sunday midnight or in excess of regular shift hours shall be paid for at 1½ times the basic rate of wages.

Any work not subject to the provisions of Executive Order 9240 pursuant to this order shall be subject to the amendment of my Determination of September 30, 1942, issued May 22, 1943, which limits holidays in this industry to New Year's Day, Fourth of July, Labor Day, Thanksgiving Day, Christmas Day, and Memorial Day.

All questions of interpretation and application arising hereunder shall be referred for determination to the Wage Adjustment Board for the Building and Construction Industry.

This order shall become effective April 17, 1944.

Dated: April 11, 1944.

PART 990—CHLORINE IN PULP, PAPER AND PAPERBOARD

[General Limitation Order L-11, Interpretation 1]

The following interpretation is issued with respect to General Limitation Order L-11:

Meaning of specific restrictions relating to pulp. Paragraphs (c) (2) and (c) (3) of Order L-11 are interpreted to mean that the brightness of any individual batch, where a batch system is used, or the average of any eight-hour period, where a continuous system is used, shall not exceed 74 for bleached sulphite, bleached sulphate or waste paper when used for conversion into bleached papers, or 70 for bleached soda pulp.

Meaning of specific restrictions relating to paper and paperboard. In the tabulation under paragraph (d) (1), "gumming" grade of paper and paperboard, listed under "Book" Division of Industry, may be made not to exceed brightness of 68. There is no restriction against using any type of bleached pulp in this grade.

Listed under Sulphite and Bleached Kraft Division of Industry, "M. F. and M. G. Waxing" may be made not to exceed brightness of 67. There is no restriction against using any type of bleached pulp in this grade.

Effect of elimination of certain pulps from specified grades of paper and paperboard. The terms of paragraph (e) provide that pulp bleached with Chlorine shall be eliminated from gummings and tape, and waxings, under "Kraft" Division of Industry. This restriction is interpreted as referring only to "unbleached" grades, as distinguished from "Book," "Sulphite" or "Bleached Kraft" grades.

PART 3175—REGULATIONS APPLICABLE TO THE CONTROLLED MATERIALS PLAN

[CMP Reg. 1, Interpretation 24]

The following interpretation is issued with respect to CMP Regulation 1:

Paragraph (y) (3) of CMP Regulation No. 1 requires each prime consumer to retain for two years all documents on which he relies as entitling him to make or receive an allotment or to deliver or accept delivery of controlled materials or Class A products. The Foreign Economic Administration and its predecessors, the Board of Economic Warfare and the Office of Economic Warfare, have since the institution of the Controlled Materials Plan made allotments of controlled materials to exporters for export by endorsing appropriate legends upon export licenses. The original of every export license, however, is required by other Government regulations to be surrendered to export officials at the time of shipment. Consequently, persons who receive their assignments and preference ratings on export licenses are not in a position to retain the original of the export license, and thus are not required to do so by paragraph (y) (3) except only in those cases where other Government regulations do not require the surrender to the Government of the documents referred to.

PART 3175—REGULATIONS APPLICABLE TO THE CONTROLLED MATERIALS PLAN

STAVES, HEADING, AND HOOPS

The following interpretation is issued with respect to CMP Regulation 5:

(a) Persons manufacturing wooden staves, heading, and hoops for barrels are included under the item "logging operations, saw mills, veneer mills, plywood mills, planing mills, shingle mills, and dry kilns operated in connection with saw mills" appearing in Schedule I of the regulation. They are, therefore, entitled to use the allotment symbol MRO and the preference rating AA-1 in buying MRO.

(b) Persons who make barrels as such are engaged in manufacturing "containers, all types except fibre containers, gas cylinders and ton containers, and nailed wooden boxes and crates", which appears in Schedule II of CMP Regulation 5. They may use, therefore, the MRO symbol and preference rating AA-2 in buying MRO. A person who makes both staves and barrels must segregate his purchases, unless impracticable to do so as explained in paragraph (e) of the regulation.

PART 3291—CONSUMERS DURABLE GOODS

[General Limitation Order L-260-a, Interpretation 1]

FURNITURE AND FURNITURE PARTS; REMODELING BY INCLUSION OF SPRINGS

The following interpretation is issued with respect to General Limitation Order L-260-a:

Since the revocation of Order L-135 on January 14, 1944, some question has arisen in connection with the remodeling of padded or upholstered furniture produced prior to that date without springs.

A person who remodels such a completely finished and upholstered item of padded furniture by the mere inclusion of upholstery springs is not engaged in the production of upholstered furniture within the meaning of Order L–260–a, nor is he a "reconditioner" or "repairman" under CMP Regulation No. 9A. However, if a person adds springs to an item of furniture which had not been completely finished and upholstered prior to that date, he is a manufacturer and subject to the restrictions of that order.

Only a limited number of springs are available for this purpose. To the extent that a spring distributor has upholstery springs available which are not required to fill rated orders, he may sell them on unrated orders.

The applicant's need alone, no matter how pressing, shall not be a basis for granting a certificate; and

5. The proviso following § 1315.505 (a) (14) (v) is amended to read as follows:

Provided, however, That no certificate shall be issued under § 1315.505 (a) for a commercial motor vehicle used:

The incidental transportation of other property simultaneously with any of the aforesaid commodities shall not remove eligibility if it involves no diversion from the vehicle's normal route or schedule.

(2) A certificate for a used truck tire of a size smaller than 7.50–20, a Grade III tire, a Grade I obsolete tire or a new tube may be granted for any commercial motor vehicle which meets the applicable requirements of §§ 1315.501 and 1315.504.

(ii) In any area where recapping facilities are unavailable or inadequate, an applicant may be granted a certificate for a front-wheel tractor or farm implement or Grade III tire, even though the tire to be replaced is recappable.

9. The text of § 1315.611 (c) is amended by substituting a comma for the period at the end of the text and adding the following phrase: "except that the following variances are permitted:"

PART 1390—MACHINERY AND TRANSPORTATION EQUIPMENT

[MPR 136, as Amended,[1] Amdt. 115]

MACHINES AND PARTS, AND MACHINERY SERVICES

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this amendment, issued simultaneously herewith, has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Maximum Price Regulation 136, as amended, is amended in the following respects:

1. Section 1390.5 (e) is revoked.

2. Section 1390.6 is added to read as follows:

§ 1390.6 Maximum manufacturers' prices for modified machines or parts—(a) Pricing formula. This section is applicable to any machine or part for which the manufacturer either had a published list price or an established price in effect on the base date, or for which he has established a list price in accordance with § 1390.13. For any such machine or part in which a substantial change in design, specifications, or equipment has been made and for which machine or part as modified a new maximum price has not been previously approved by the Office of Price Administration, the manufacturer's maximum price for the machine or part as modified shall be calculated as follows:

(1) The net increase or decrease in factory costs attributable to the change in design, specifications or equipment shall first be computed by using:

(i) Direct material cost determined by using material and parts prices which are not in excess of maximum prices established by the Office of Price Administration for such materials or parts. Where materials or parts are added and eliminated, prices in effect as of the same date shall be used both for the materials or parts added and the materials or parts eliminated.

(ii) Direct labor cost determined by using labor rates in effect on October 3, 1942. If after October 3, 1942, the manufacturer voluntarily or involuntarily for price determining purposes in the month which includes the base date, whichever is lower.

(2) The net increase or decrease in factory costs so calculated shall then be added to or subtracted from the maximum price to the class of purchasers commanding the lowest net price for the machine or part before modification. This computation provides the new maximum price for the machine or part as modified when sold to the class of purchasers commanding the lowest net price.

(3) The maximum price to every other class of purchasers shall then be calculated by applying to the new lowest net price the same percentage price differential as was in effect between the former lowest net maximum price and the former net maximum price to such other class of purchasers.

(b) Reports. Prior to, or within ten days after first quoting a price for any such modified machine or part, the manufacturer shall file a report with the Office of Price Administration, Washington 25, D. C., containing the following:

(1) The maximum price for the machine or part prior to modification.

(2) The maximum prices to jobbers, dealers, industrial users, government purchasers, and all other classes of purchasers as computed in accordance with paragraph (a).

(3) A detailed statement describing the changes in design, specifications or in equipment and explaining the calculation of the proposed maximum prices. The change in direct material costs, direct labor costs, and factory overhead costs due to the modification must be specified separately.

(c) Approval of prices. If the Office of Price Administration approves the proposed maximum prices or fails to disapprove them within thirty days after receiving such report, the proposed maximum prices shall become the maximum prices applicable to all subsequent sales and deliveries. However, if the Office of Price Administration later determines that such prices were not calculated in accordance with this section, such prices the Office of Price Administration may establish a maximum price of its own accord. This price will be in line with the level of maximum prices established by this regulation, and it shall apply to all sales or deliveries of the machine or part to which such price applies made after April 18, 1944.

(d) Interim pricing. Prior to receipt of approval by the Office of Price Administration of any proposed price, or prior to the expiration of the thirty-day period after filing the report required in paragraph (b) of this section, the proposed price may be tentatively quoted and/or charged, but no more than 75% of the proposed price may be paid or received until a maximum price has been established, and final settlement shall be made in accordance with the maximum price approved by the Office of Price Administration.

3. In § 1390.7 the text preceding paragraph (a) is amended to read as follows:

This section is applicable to any machine or part for which the manufacturer had no published list price or established price in effect on the base date, and is not a modified machine or part covered by § 1390.6. The maximum manufacturers' price for the sale of any such machine or part to any purchaser shall be computed on the basis of the following:

4. In § 1390.10 (c) (1) the text preceding subdivision (i) is amended to read as follows:

This paragraph is applicable to any machine or part which either has been modified since the base date or for which the seller had no published list price or established price in effect on October 1, 1941. The maximum price for the sale of any such machine or part by a seller other than a manufacturer to any purchaser shall be the net price determined by applying a margin determined pursuant to subparagraph (2) of this paragraph to:

5. Section 1390.13 (c) is added to read as follows:

PART 1390—MACHINERY AND TRANSPORTATION EQUIPMENT

[MPR 136, as Amended,[1] Amdt. 115]

MACHINES AND PARTS, AND MACHINERY SERVICES

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this amendment, issued simultaneously herewith, has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Maximum Price Regulation 136, as amended, is amended in the following respects:

1. Section 1390.5 (e) is revoked.

2. Section 1390.6 is added to read as follows:

§ 1390.6 Maximum manufacturers' prices for modified machines or parts—(a) Pricing formula. This section is applicable to any machine or part for which the manufacturer either had a published list price or an established price in effect on the base date, or for which he has established a list price in accordance with § 1390.13. For any such machine or part in which a substantial change in design, specifications, or equipment has been made and for which machine or part as modified a new maximum price has not been previously approved by the Office of Price Administration, the manufacturer's maximum price for the machine or part as modified shall be calculated as follows:

(1) The net increase or decrease in factory costs attributable to the change in design, specifications or equipment shall first be computed by using:

(i) Direct material cost determined by using material and parts prices which are not in excess of maximum prices established by the Office of Price Administration for such materials or parts. Where materials or parts are added and eliminated, prices in effect as of the same date shall be used both for the materials or parts added and the materials or parts eliminated.

(ii) Direct labor cost determined by using labor rates in effect on October 3, 1942. If after October 3, 1942, the manufacturer voluntarily or involuntarily granted a wage increase which was approved by the National War Labor Board, the manufacturer may use that higher wage rate. Also, if the manufacturer's establishment is exempted by the National War Labor Board, he may use current wage rates.

(iii) Factory overhead allocable to such direct material and/or direct labor costs, determined in accordance with the manufacturer's method of accounting and charged at the actual rate or rates in effect in his plant on the base date, or at the standard rate or rates, if any, consistently used by the manufacturer for price determining purposes in the month which includes the base date, whichever is lower.

(2) The net increase or decrease in factory costs so calculated shall then be added to or subtracted from the maximum price to the class of purchasers commanding the lowest net price for the machine or part before modification. This computation provides the new maximum price for the machine or part as modified when sold to the class of purchasers commanding the lowest net price.

(3) The maximum price to every other class of purchasers shall then be calculated by applying to the new lowest net price the same percentage price differential as was in effect between the former lowest net maximum price and the former net maximum price to such other class of purchasers.

(b) Reports. Prior to, or within ten days after first quoting a price for any such modified machine or part, the manufacturer shall file a report with the Office of Price Administration, Washington 25, D. C., containing the following:

(1) The maximum price for the machine or part prior to modification.

(2) The maximum prices to jobbers, dealers, industrial users, government purchasers, and all other classes of purchasers as computed in accordance with paragraph (a).

(3) A detailed statement describing the changes in design, specifications or in equipment and explaining the calculation of the proposed maximum prices. The change in direct material costs, direct labor costs, and factory overhead costs due to the modification must be specified separately.

(c) Approval of prices. If the Office of Price Administration approves the proposed maximum prices or fails to disapprove them within thirty days after receiving such report, the proposed maximum prices shall become the maximum prices applicable to all subsequent sales and deliveries. However, if the Office of Price Administration later determines that such prices were not calculated in accordance with this section, such prices may be disapproved at any time. This disapproval will not be retroactive as to any deliveries made before the date of such disapproval. If the proposed maximum prices are at any time disapproved by the Office of Price Administration, the manufacturer shall file revised prices computed in accordance with paragraph (a), and the provisions of this section shall apply in all respects to such revised prices. In the event that the Office of Price Administration finds that the manufacturer's production experience does not yet warrant the establishment of a permanent maximum price, it may give temporary approval to a proposed maximum price and require further filing under this section at a later date. If the manufacturer does not file the report required by paragraph (b), the Office of Price Administration may establish a maximum price of its own accord. This price will be in line with the level of maximum prices established by this regulation, and it shall apply to all sales or deliveries of the machine or part to which such price applies made after April 18, 1944.

(d) Interim pricing. Prior to receipt of approval by the Office of Price Administration of any proposed price, or prior to the expiration of the thirty-day period after filing the report required in paragraph (b) of this section, the proposed price may be tentatively quoted and/or charged, but no more than 75% of the proposed price may be paid or received until a maximum price has been established, and final settlement shall be made in accordance with the maximum price approved by the Office of Price Administration.

3. In § 1390.7 the text preceding paragraph (a) is amended to read as follows:

This section is applicable to any machine or part for which the manufacturer had no published list price or established price in effect on the base date, and is not a modified machine or part covered by § 1390.6. The maximum manufacturers' price for the sale of any such machine or part to any purchaser shall be computed on the basis of the following:

4. In § 1390.10 (c) (1) the text preceding subdivision (i) is amended to read as follows:

This paragraph is applicable to any machine or part which either has been modified since the base date or for which the seller had no published list price or established price in effect on October 1, 1941. The maximum price for the sale of any such machine or part by a seller other than a manufacturer to any purchaser shall be the net price determined by applying a margin determined pursuant to subparagraph (2) of this paragraph to:

5. Section 1390.13 (c) is added to read as follows:

(c) This section is not applicable to manufacturers' maximum prices for any machine or part that must be priced under § 1390.6.

6. Section 1390.18 (c) is revoked.

7. In § 1390.18 paragraphs (d) to (g), inclusive, are redesignated paragraphs (c), (d), (e) and (f), respectively.

This amendment shall become effective April 18, 1944.

SUBPART A—SUMMARY OF RENEGOTIATION ACT OF 1943 AND RELATED STATUTES

§ 1601.101 Scope of subpart. The summary of the Renegotiation Act of 1943 in this subpart is designed to provide only a general outline of its structure and basic provisions. The detailed discussion of these provisions and of their interpretation and application is contained under the appropriate subparts of subsequent parts of this chapter. [RR 101]

§ 1601.102 War Contracts Price Adjustment Board. Subsection (d) of the 1943 act creates the War Contracts Price Adjustment Board, which, for convenience, is referred to in these regulations as the War Contracts Board. Authority with respect to renegotiation is vested in this Board subject, however, to being delegated, in the Board's discretion, to the Secretaries of the Departments, with right of redelegation. The Board is composed of six members, one each from the War Department, the Navy Department, the Treasury, the Maritime Commission or the War Shipping Administration, the Reconstruction Finance Corporation, and the War Production Board. The War Contracts Board, its powers, duties and functions, and its authority to delegate its duties and functions are described more fully in § 1601.130 and following. [RR 102]

§ 1601.103 Coverage. (a) In general, the 1943 act applies to amounts received or accrued in fiscal years ending after June 30, 1943 under all contracts with the Departments and subcontracts, with the exceptions stated under § 1601.104 (subsection (c) (6)).

(b) Subcontracts include purchase orders or agreements to perform all or any part of the work, or to make or furnish any article, required for the performance of any other contract or subcontract but do not include any purchase order or agreement to furnish office supplies. A contract or arrangement to procure a contract with a Department is also a subcontract. Subcontracts are not limited to those made by a prime contractor but include those made by a subcontractor or sub-subcontractor down through the various tiers (subsection (a) (5)).

(c) The coverage of the 1943 act is discussed in detail in Part 1603 (RR Chapt. III). [RR 103]

§ 1601.104 Exclusions and exemptions—(a) Mandatory. The 1943 act does not apply to:

(1) Contracts between the Departments and other Governmental agencies (subsection (i) (1) (A));

(2) Contracts or subcontracts for certain raw materials (subsection (i) (1) (B));

(3) Contracts or subcontracts for agricultural commodities in a certain form or state (subsection (i) (1) (C));

(4) Contracts or subcontracts with tax exempt charitable, religious or educational institutions (subsection (i) (1) (D));

(5) Construction contracts with a Department let under competitive bidding (subsection (i) (1) (E)); or

(6) Subcontracts under prime contracts or other subcontracts of the types listed above which are exempted by subsection (i) (1) (subsection (i) (1) (F)). [RR 104.1]

(b) Permissive. The War Contracts Board may, in its discretion, exempt from any or all of the provisions of the 1943 act:

(1) Any contract or subcontract:

(i) To be performed outside of the continental United States or in Alaska (subsection (i) (4) (A));

(ii) Under which the profits can be determined with reasonable certainty when the contract price is established (subsection (i) (4) (B));

(iii) During a specified period or periods, to the extent that the contract provisions are adequate to prevent excessive profits (subsection (i) (4) (C));

(iv) For a standard commercial article if competitive conditions are such as will reasonably protect the Government (subsection (i) (4) (D));

(v) If competitive conditions affecting the making of such contract or subcontract are likely to result in effective competition with respect to the contract price (subsection (i) (4) (E));

(2) Any subcontract or group of subcontracts, if it is not administratively feasible to segregate the renegotiable from the non-renegotiable business (subsection (i) (4) (F)).

The Board may make such exemptions by individual contracts or by general classes or types of contracts (subsection (i) (4)). [RR 104.2]

(c) Exemption measured by volume of business. Subsection (c) (6) provides that renegotiation shall not apply to any contractor or subcontractor unless the aggregate of the amounts received or accrued by the contractor or subcontractor (and all persons under the control of or controlling or under common control with the contractor or subcontractor) under contracts with the Departments and subcontracts, not including subcontracts for procuring contracts or subcontracts, exceed $500,000. In the case of subcontracts for the procuring of contracts or subcontracts, this figure is $25,000. [RR 104.3]

(d) Profits from increment in value of excess inventories. The 1943 act excludes from renegotiation that portion of the profits derived from contracts with the Departments and subcontracts attributable to the increment in value of excess inventories of certain raw materials and agricultural commodities (subsection (i) (3)). [RR 104.4]

§1601.105 Renegotiation clauses in contracts. (a) The 1943 act directs each Secretary to insert in each contract made by his Department, involving more than $100,000, terms under which the contractor agrees (1) to renegotiation, (2) to the withholding or recovery of excessive profits by the United States and (3) that he will insert like terms in all subcontracts made by him involving more than $100,000, and will require the subcontractor to insert like terms in contracts entered into by him. In the case of subcontracts for procuring contracts with the Departments these terms are to be placed in all such subcontracts for more than $25,000 (subsection (b)).

(b) The 1943 act permits these terms to be incorporated in contracts and subcontracts by reference and each contract or subcontract is made subject to such terms whether or not they are incorporated either physically or by reference. [RR 105]

§1601.106 Determination of excessive profits—(a) Costs. In determining the profits from renegotiable business, the 1943 act requires the War Contracts Board to allow costs determined in accordance with the method of cost accounting regularly employed by the contractor or if such method does not properly reflect such costs, the Board is authorized by regulations to prescribe the method under which such costs shall be determined. No item of cost shall be allowed which is unreasonable or which is not properly chargeable to the contract or subcontract. Notwithstanding these provisions, all items estimated to be allowable as deductions or exclusions for income tax purposes, to the extent they are allocable to renegotiable business, are to be allowed as items of cost in determining excessive profits. State income taxes, to the extent they are attributable to the portion of the contractor's profits determined to be excessive, however, are not allowable (subsection (a) (4) (B)). [RR 106.1]

(b) Unused amortization deduction. The 1943 act provides for the repayment by the United States to a contractor or subcontractor, without interest, of the amount of the net renegotiation rebate determined in accordance with procedures and principles set forth in the 1943 act in the event of a recomputation of the amortization deduction provided for in section 124 (d) of the Internal Revenue Code (subsections (a) (4) (C) and (D)). [RR 106.2]

(c) Fair cost allowance in the exempted state for raw materials and agricultural commodities in the case of integrated producers. In order to provide for equitable treatment of the integrated producer, the 1943 act provides for the allowance of a fair amount of cost in the exempted state for certain raw materials and agricultural commodities in the case of integrated producers who produce or acquire such materials or commodities below such state and process them up to and beyond such state (subsection (i) (3)). In this connection attention is also directed to § 1601.104 (d), which in effect gives the contractor or subcontractor who acquires the exempted raw materials and agricultural commodities at the exempt stage the benefit of a similar special cost allowance to the extent that such products constitute excess inventory of such a contractor or subcontractor. [RR 106.3]

(d) Factors in determining excessive profits. The 1943 act defines excessive profits to be the portion of the profits from the renegotiable business of the contractor or subcontractor which in the light of a list of factors set out in subsection (a) (4) (A) of the act is determined to be excessive. These factors cover such matters as efficiency, costs, capital, risk, contribution to the war effort, character of business, and such other factors as the public interest and fair and equitable dealing may require. [RR 106.4]

§ 1601.107 Renegotiation by fiscal years. The 1943 act applies to fiscal years ending after June 30, 1943, and requires that renegotiation be conducted on an over-all fiscal year basis. Renegotiation may relate to any period other than a full fiscal year only with the consent of the contractor or subcontractor. The 1943 act requires that renegotiation must relate to the aggregate of the contractor's war business for the year unless the contractor consents to the renegotiation of separate contracts (subsection (c) (1)). [RR 107]

§ 1601.108 Renegotiation procedure—(a) Mandatory filing of statement. The 1943 act requires every contractor or subcontractor not specifically exempted from renegotiation to file with the Board on or before the first day of the fourth month following the close of the fiscal year, or after the date of the enactment of the Revenue Act of 1943, which ever is the later, a statement containing such information as the Board may by regulations prescribe (subsection (c) (5) (A), discussed in § 1602.220 and following). In addition to this statement, which is considered to be the statement for the purposes of the beginning of the statute of limitations, the War Contracts Board may require from the contractor or subcontractor any other data, information or records deemed desirable. [RR 108.1]

(b) Commencement of renegotiation proceedings. The contractor or subcontractor will be given reasonable notice of the time and place for a conference with respect to renegotiation. The mailing of such notice by registered mail to the contractor or subcontractor constitutes the commencement of the renegotiation proceedings (subsection (c) (1), discussed in § 1602.241). [RR 108.2]

(c) Statute of limitations. Renegotiation proceedings must be commenced within twelve months from the close of the fiscal year or within twelve months of the date of the filing of the statement referred to in § 1601.108 (a), whichever is the later. If such proceedings are not completed or if an agreement or order determining the amount of excessive profits is not made within one year from the commencement of the renegotiation proceedings, the liability of the contractor or subcontractor under the 1943 act will be discharged. However, this one year period may be extended by mutual agreement (subsection (c) (3)). [RR 108.3]

(d) Agreement or order determining excessive profits. Upon the mailing of the notice and the commencement of the renegotiation, the Board will endeavor to make a final or other agreement with the contractor or subcontractor with respect to the elimination of excessive profits. If such an agreement is not made, the act authorizes the Board to issue an order determining the amount of the excessive profits (subsection (c) (1)). [RR 108.4]

(e) Statement to the contractor or subcontractor. Whenever a determination is made as to the amount of excessive profits, whether by order or by agreement, the Board or its authorized agency, at the request of the contractor or subcontractor, will furnish a statement setting out the determination of excessive profits made in his case, the facts used as a basis therefor, and the reasons for such determination (subsection (c) (1)). [RR 108.5]

(f) Eliminating excessive profits. When the excessive profits have been determined either by agreement or order, the War Contracts Board shall forthwith direct the secretaries to eliminate such excessive profits (1) by reductions in price and other contract revisions; (2) by withholding from amounts otherwise due the contractor or subcontractor; (3) by directing a contractor to withhold from amounts otherwise due to a subcontractor; (4) by recovery from the contractor by repayment, credit or suit; or (5) by any combination of these methods. In eliminating such excessive profits there is allowed a credit for Federal income and excess profits taxes in accordance with section 3806 of the Internal Revenue Code (subsection (c) (2)). [RR 108.6]

§ 1601.109 Delegation and review—(a) Delegation. The War Contracts Board may delegate in whole or in part any of its powers, functions or duties to the Secretary of a Department and such Secretary may, in turn, redelegate such powers, functions or duties to such officers or agencies of the United States as he may designate. He may authorize successive redelegations (subsection (d) (4)). [RR 109.1]

(b) Review by the War Contracts Board. The determination by any person or agency exercising the delegated powers of the War Contracts Board may be reviewed by the Board either upon its own motion, or, in its discretion, at the request of the contractor or subcontractor. The Board's determination may be less than, equal to, or greater than the determination reviewed. Unless the War Contracts Board upon its own motion initiates a review of the prior determination within sixty days from the date of such determination, or at the request of the contractor or subcontractor made within sixty days from the date of such determination initiates a review of such determination within sixty days from the date of such request, such determination becomes the determination of the War Contracts Board (subsection (d) (5)). [RR 109.2]

§ 1601.110 Redetermination of excessive profits by The Tax Court of the United States. The Renegotiation Act provides that any contractor or subcontractor aggrieved by a unilateral determination of excessive profits by the War Contracts Board (under the Renegotiation Act of 1943), or by the Secretary of a Department (under the Renegotiation Act of 1942), may petition The Tax Court of the United States for a redetermination of such excessive profits. Proceedings before The Tax Court are de novo. The Court may find an amount of excessive profits less than, equal to, or greater than the amount found by the Board. The petition for a redetermination must be made to The Tax Court within ninety days after the entry of the order or the date of the enactment of the Revenue Act of 1943 (February 25, 1944), whichever is the later (subsection (e)). [RR 110]

§ 1601.111 Applicability—(a) Applicability of the 1943 act in general. In general, the provisions of the 1943 act apply to all fiscal years ending after June 30, 1943. Prior fiscal years are covered by the Renegotiation Act of 1942 (section 701 (d) of the Revenue Act of 1943 cited in § 1608.801 and § 1601.122 (j) and (k)). [RR 111.1]

(b) Applicability in special cases. There are several exceptions to the general rule set forth in § 1601.111 (a).

(1) Provisions of the 1943 act made retroactive:

(i) Subsections (a) (4) (C) and (a) (4) (D) relating to the adjustment of excessive profits for any year on account of the recomputation of the amortization deduction;

(ii) Subsection (i) (3) which provides for a fair cost allowance in the exempted state for certain raw materials and agricultural commodities in the case of integrated producers and which excludes from renegotiation the profits realized because of the increment in value of excess inventories of raw materials and agricultural products acquired in the exempted state;

(iii) Subsection (i) (1) (C) which exempts from renegotiation contracts or subcontracts for certain agricultural commodities;

(iv) Subsection (i) (1) (D) which exempts contracts or subcontracts with tax exempt charitable, religious or educational organizations;

(v) Subsection (i) (1) (F) which exempts subcontracts under prime contracts or other subcontracts exempted by subsection (i) (1); and

(vi) Subsection (l) which provides a short title (see § 1601.122 (l)).

(2) Provisions of the 1943 act made effective from the date of the enactment of the Revenue Act of 1943, February 25, 1944:

(i) Subsection (d) which creates the War Contracts Price Adjustment Board and sets out its organization, powers, and duties (discussed in § 1601.131); and

(ii) Subsection (e) (2) which provides for the redetermination of excessive profits by the Tax Court in the case of unilateral determinations by the Secretaries under the provisions of the Renegotiation Act of 1942. [RR 111.2]

(c) Termination of renegotiation. The 1943 act provides that amounts received or accrued after December 31, 1944, will not be subject to renegotiation unless the President finds and proclaims before December 1, 1944, that competitive conditions have not been restored; in which case renegotiation would extend to amounts received or accrued up to any date specified in such proclamation which is not later than June 30, 1945. The 1943 act also provides that in case the President finds and proclaims on or before June 30, 1945, that competitive conditions have been restored as of any date within 6 months prior to such proclamation, renegotiation will not apply to amounts received or accrued after such termination of the statute. A special provision is made in the case of long term contracts which are begun before and completed after the termination date (subsection (h)). [RR 111.3]

§ 1601.112 Applicable and related statutes—(a) Renegotiation Act of 1943. The Renegotiation Act of 1943 is cited in full in § 1608.801 of these regulations. [RR 112.1]

(b) Section 3806 of the Internal Revenue Code. Section 3806 of the Internal Revenue Code, referred to in subsection (a) (4) (D) and subsection (c) (2) of the Renegotiation Act of 1943, is cited in § 1608.802. Under that section the amount of Federal income and excess profits taxes assessed with respect to any excessive profits for a prior taxable year is credited against the amount of such profits in computing the amount to be refunded by the contractor or otherwise recovered. [RR 112.2]

(c) Title XIII of Second War Powers Act. Under subsection (c) (5) (B), the War Contracts Board is given the powers of inspection and audit of an agency designated by the President to exercise powers under Title XIII of the Second War Powers Act, 1942. For convenience, Title XIII is cited in § 1608.803. [RR 112.3]

(d) Repricing of War Contracts. Title VIII of the Revenue Act of 1943 provides that in cases in which the Secretary of a Department considers the price of any article or service required by his Department to be unreasonable or unfair he may fix by agreement, if possible, a fair and reasonable price therefor. If no agreement can be reached, the Secretary is authorized to fix, by order, a fair and reasonable price for deliveries after the date of such order and to prescribe the period during which such price shall be effective and such other terms and conditions as he deems appropriate. Contractors or subcontractors aggrieved by such an order may sue the United States for fair and just compensation. Repricing under Title VIII applies to both prime and subcontractors and applies without exemption or restriction until the end of the war. The statutory provisions relating to repricing are cited in § 1608.804. [RR 112.4]

§ 1601.123 Arrangement of Renegotiation Regulations[1]—(a) Organization. For convenience these regulations are divided into chapters, each of which deals with a specified topic. Each chapter is divided into several sections, each of which contains a series of numbered paragraphs dealing with the same subject. [RR 123.1]

(b) Numbering. The numbering of individual paragraphs is not consecutive, and is designed to permit additional paragraphs to be inserted later within the appropriate chapter and section. The number of a particular paragraph shows the chapter and section where it is found and also whether it is subordinate to a preceding paragraph. The first digit of the number indicates the chapter and the second digit the section in which the paragraph is found. Thus, paragraphs in Chapter I run from 100 to 199; those from 101 to 119 are under section 1, those from 120 to 129 are under section 2, etc. Where the number of a paragraph ends with a digit preceded by a decimal point (as 123.2), this indicates that it is part of the general subject covered by the basic paragraph (as 123). [RR 123.2]

(c) Citations. Since the number of any paragraph indicates its place in these regulations, a paragraph may be referred to by citing its number only, and it is not necessary to refer to the chapter or section or page in these regulations where it appears. These regulations will be called the Renegotiation Regulations, which may be abbreviated as RR in referring to paragraphs; thus this paragraph may be cited as RR 123.3. [RR 123.3]

§ 1601.124 Amendments and additions. (a) When amendments or supplements to these regulations are adopted by the War Contracts Board, they will become effective at once unless otherwise specified, but will not affect the validity of any determination theretofore made in accordance with prior regulations. [RR 124]

§ 1601.125 Changes in interpretations. The regulations and interpretations of the statute in this document reflect the present judgment of the War Contracts Board and are subject to such revision as from time to time may appear desirable. [RR 125]

§ 1601.126 Federal Register. These regulations are being published in the Federal Register. In the discretion of the War Contracts Board, changes and additions will be so published periodically. From time to time there will be published in this paragraph or in supplements hereto references to the copies of the Federal Register in which the Renegotiation Regulations and any changes and additions thereto may have been published. [RR 126]

§ 1601.127 Official copies. Official copies of the statutes referred to herein may be obtained from the Superintendent of Documents, Government Printing Office, Washington, D. C. Official copies of Executive orders cited herein are set out in the Federal Register, which may also be procured from the Superintendent of Documents. [RR 127]

SUBPART C—ORGANIZATION AND FUNCTIONS OF THE PRICE ADJUSTMENT BOARDS AND SECTIONS

§ 1601.130 Statutory authority. The authority and discretion to administer the Renegotiation Act of 1943 is conferred upon the War Contracts Board with power of delegation (see subsection (d) of the 1943 act. [RR 130]

§ 1601.131 War Contracts Price Adjustment Board—(a) Functions. The War Contracts Price Adjustment Board has authority to administer the Renegotiation Act of 1943, including authority over agreements, unilateral determinations of excessive profits and exemptions. The Board has 6 members, of whom 4 constitute a quorum, and the Board may act by a majority of a quorum. [RR 131.1]

(b) Seal. The seal of the Board shall be judicially noticed. [RR 131.2]

(c) Delegations. The Board has power to delegate any of its authority to the Secretary of a Department, who may redelegate to such officers or agencies of the United States as he may designate, with right of redelegation. There is set forth below the organization for renegotiation in the various Departments having renegotiation authority. Delegations by the War Contracts Board to the Secretaries of the various Departments are set forth in § 1608.821 (a). [RR 131.3]

(d) Jurisdiction. The Board may, by regulation, or otherwise determine the character of cases to be conducted initially by the Board itself, those to be conducted by its officers or the officers utilized by it, and those to be conducted by the various officers and agencies to which the Board's powers have been delegated. (Subsection (d) (5) of the 1943 act.) Renegotiation will initially be conducted by the Departments in all cases, except for instances, if any, in which the Board may determine otherwise. (See § 1602.200 and following.) (The powers, duties and discretion of the Board to conduct renegotiation were delegated to the Secretaries of the Departments on February 26, 1944. (See § 1608.821 (a) [RR 131.4]

(e) Review by the Board. The Board may, in its discretion, either upon its own motion or at the request of the contractor or subcontractor, review any determination by order made by any officer or agency to which its powers have been delegated. The Board's determination may be less than, equal to, or greater than the determination reviewed. (Subsection (d) (5) of the 1943 Act.) [RR 131.5]

§ 1601.132 War Department organization—(a) Organization and functions of War Department Price Adjustment Board. The Renegotiation Division has been established by the Commanding General, Army Service Forces, as a Staff Division under the supervision of the Director of Matériel. The War Department Price Adjustment Board has been organized within the Division. The Chairman and members of the Board are appointed by the Commanding General, Army Service Forces, with the approval of the Under Secretary of War. The Chairman serves also as Director of the Renegotiation Division. [RR 132.1]

(b) Organization and functions of War Department Price Adjustment Sections. There has been established a Price Adjustment Section in each of the Technical Services of the Army Service Forces and in the Army Air Forces. The Army Service Forces have sections in the Technical Services of Chemical Warfare, Engineers, Ordnance, Quartermaster, Signal Corps, Surgeon General, and Transportation. With the exception of the Price Adjustment Section of Chemical Warfare, located in Baltimore, the main sections of the other Technical Services are located in Washington. Headquarters for renegotiation in the Army Air Forces are shared by Washington and Wright Field, Dayton, Ohio. District Price Adjustment Sections have been established by the Technical Services and the Army Air Forces at various procurement centers, and this decentralization allows renegotiation to be conducted close to the location of the company involved. [RR 132.2]

§ 1601.133 Navy Department Price Adjustment Board. The Navy has established a Price Adjustment Board with divisions at New York and Washington, and Regional Price Adjustment Boards at Chicago and San Francisco to conduct the renegotiation of contracts. In the Procurement Legal Division of the Navy Department in Washington, there has been set up a Services and Sales Renegotiation Section which specializes in the renegotiation of brokers. This section has divisional offices in Washington, New York, Chicago and Los Angeles. [RR 133]

§ 1601.134 Treasury Department Price Adjustment Board. The Treasury Department has established the Treasury Department Price Adjustment Board in the Procurement Division. The office of the Board is located in Washington. [RR 134]

§ 1601.135 Maritime Commission Price Adjustment Board. The Maritime Commission has established the Price Adjustment Board of the Maritime Commission. The office of the Board is located in Washington. [RR 135]

§ 1601.136 War Shipping Administration Price Adjustment Board. The Administrator of the War Shipping Administration created a Price Adjustment Board within the War Shipping Administration and charged the Board with responsibility of conducting renegotiations. The office of the Board has been established in New York City, since this location is in close proximity to the great majority of the contractors of the War Shipping Administration. [RR 136]

§ 1601.137 RFC Price Adjustment Board. The boards of directors of Defense Plant Corporation, Metals Reserve Company, Defense Supplies Corporation and Rubber Reserve Company have established the RFC Price Adjustment Board. [RR 137]

§ 1601.138 Joint Price Adjustment Board. The Joint Price Adjustment Board has authority, delegated by the Secretaries, to adopt statements of purposes, principles, policies, and interpretations, under the Renegotiation Act of 1942. The Joint Price Adjustment Board has no authority with respect to renegotiation for fiscal years ending after June 30, 1943. [RR 138]

§ 1601.139 Addresses. Addresses of the various Price Adjustment Boards and Sections dealing with renegotiation under the Renegotiation Act of 1943 are set forth in § 1607.791 and following. [RR 139]

SUBPART D—RELATION OF RENEGOTIATION ACT AND ROYALTY ADJUSTMENT ACT CONCERNING PATENTS

§ 1601.140 Scope of subpart. This subpart deals briefly with the Royalty Adjustment Act (Public Law 768, 77th Congress, approved October 31, 1942). [RR 140]

§ 1601.141 Royalty Adjustment Act. (a) Under Public Law 768, 77th Congress, approved October 31, 1942, whenever an invention, patented or unpatented, is manufactured or used for the United States, with license from the owner, and such license provides for the payment of royalties at rates or amounts "believed to be unreasonable or excessive by the head of the Department or agency of the Government which has ordered such manufacture, use," etc., the head of the Department concerned shall so notify the licensor and licensee. Within a reasonable time thereafter he shall "fix and specify such rates or amounts of royalties, if any, as he shall determine are fair and just, taking into account the conditions of wartime production" and shall authorize the payment thereof by the licensee to the licensor. Under the statute the licensee must not thereafter pay to the licensor or charge to the United States a royalty in excess of that specified in the order, and the licensor's sole and exclusive remedy for royalties in excess thereof is by suit in the Court of Claims or in such district courts as have concurrent jurisdiction.

(b) The statute further provides that: "Nothing herein contained shall be deemed to preclude the applicability of section 403 of Public Law 528, 77th Congress (the Renegotiation Act of 1942), as the same may be heretofore or hereafter amended so far as the same may be applicable." [RR 141]

§ 1601.142 Patent licenses subject to renegotiation. Patent licenses granted to the United States and those granted to Departmental contractors or subcontractors are subject to renegotiation. [RR 142]

SUBPART A—ASSIGNMENTS FOR RENEGOTIATION AND CANCELLATIONS

§ 1602.201 In general—(a) Necessity for assignment. No Department or Service will conduct renegotiation proceedings with any contractor or subcontractor unless and until an assignment for that purpose has been issued on behalf of or is confirmed by the War Contracts Board. This provision is designed to promote orderly procedure through avoidance of duplication of activities as well as by assuring to the extent possible that renegotiation proceedings are conducted by the appropriate Department or Service. Notwithstanding the foregoing, in the absence of specific action by way of disaffirmance by the War Contracts Board, a renegotiation proceeding, conducted by a Department to which a general delegation of authority has been issued by the War Contracts Board, shall not be invalidated by reason of the fact that an assignment of the particular case had not been duly or properly issued. Assignments issued after the conclusion of a renegotiation proceeding shall be of the same force and effect as if issued at any time prior thereto. [RR 201.1]

(b) Effect of assignment. The issuance of an assignment shall evidence the authority and duty of the Department or Service to which the assignment is issued to conduct statutory renegotiation with the contractor thereby assigned on an overall basis with respect to the aggregate of the amounts received or accured during the fiscal year to which the assignment relates: Provided, however, That, upon request of the contractor, pursuant to subsection (c) (1) of the 1943 act, the Department or Service to which the assignment is issued may, in its discretion, agree to renegotiate with respect to amounts received or accrued under one or more contracts or subcontracts. In such event, the Department or Service will so report to the Assignments and Statistics Branch, Renegotiation Division, A. S. F., which will confirm the assignment upon such basis unless compelling reasons dictate otherwise. [RR 201.2]

(c) Effect of assignments issued on behalf of the Joint Board. All assignments for renegotiation heretofore or hereafter issued in the name of the Joint Price Adjustment Board, through the Assignments and Statistics Branch of the Renegotiation Division, A. S. F., are hereby ratified, approved and confirmed with the same force and effect as if they had been originally issued by the War Contracts Board. [RR 201.3]

(d) Authority in assignment matters. The Assignments and Statistics Branch, Renegotiation Division, A. S. F., has been authorized by the War Contracts Board to act on its behalf in the issuance of assignments, reassignments, and cancellations of assignments. The Assignments and Statistics Branch will discharge its functions subject to such policies as may be established and directions given from time to time by the War Contracts Board but no assignment, reassignment or cancellation of assignment issued by the Assignments and Statistics Branch shall be deemed unauthorized or invalid unless specifically revoked by action of the War Contracts Board. The authority mentioned herein as conferred upon the Assignments and Statistics Branch is deemed to extend not only to the permanent staff of said Branch but also to persons who may from time to time be detailed by any Departmental Board to work with the staff of the Branch. [RR 201.4]

(e) Control of assignments. A system for the recording and control of assignments will be maintained by the Assignments and Statistics Branch. It will operate with relation to the number of individual contractors assigned, each company whether or not a subsidiary or affiliate of another being represented by a separate assignment and assignment number. Joint ventures will be represented by a single assignment; separate assignments will not be issued for the individual members of a joint venture unless they hold, independently of the joint venture, other contracts subject to renegotiation. Statistical reports of the final results of renegotiation will, however, be based on the number of completed agreements regardless of how many assignments may be represented thereby. As a part of the system established for the recording and control of assignments, the Departments and Services will use the forms appearing in §§ 1607.705 and 1607.706. [RR 201.5]

(f) Communications. Communications relating to administrative matters in connection with assignments, reassignments and cancellation of assignments should be addressed to War Contracts Price Adjustment Board, Assignments and Statistics Branch, Room 3D 573, The Pentagon, Washington 25, D. C. [RR 201.6]

§ 1602.202 Basis of assignment—(a) In general. Assignments will ordinarily be made to the Department or Service believed to have the predominant interest in the assigned contractor's renegotiable business, but assignments will be made on the basis of industry or product classification in those cases where it is believed that such action will promote efficiency of renegotiation procedure. Assignments may also be determined by the existence of intercompany affiliations or transactions and, in exceptional instances, by considerations of geographic convenience. [RR 202.1]

(b) Product classification. The War Contracts Board recognizes that in many cases it is advantageous to assign concerns which produce the same or similar products to the same Department or Service. Assignments on the basis of product classification are authorized particularly with respect to concerns producing products as to which one or more of the Departments or Services have the principal overall procurement interest or have acquired specialized experience in renegotiation. Departments and Services should suggest reassignment of contractors when, because of the nature of their products, it appears that efficiency of renegotiation procedure would be promoted thereby. Such reassignments should be suggested notwithstanding the fact that the predominant interest in the particular contractor's business may lie with the Department or Service suggesting the reassignment (see § 1602.205 (a) and form in § 1607.703 (c)). [RR 202.2]

(c) Brokers and agents. Brokers and agents subject to renegotiation by virtue of subsection (a) (5) (B) of the 1943 act and machine tool dealers will ordinarily be assigned to the Services and Sales Renegotiation Section, Procurement Legal Division, Office of the Under Secretary of the Navy, with the exception of those engaged in the sale of textiles and food stuffs, who will ordinarily be assigned to the Price Adjustment Section of The Quartermaster General. [RR 202.3]

§ 1602.203 Selection of contractors for assignment—(a) Contractors previously assigned. Generally contractors who were assigned for 1942 fiscal years have been assigned for 1943 fiscal years to the same Department or Service which held the 1942 assignment. Those assignments which were issued prior to the effective date of the 1943 act on behalf of the Joint Board have been confirmed by the War Contracts Board. Such assignments are subject to reassignment on the basis of industry or product classification or because of substantial change in predominant interest. [RR 203.1]

(b) Contractors not previously assigned. In order that unnecessary assignments may be avoided, initial assignments will not ordinarily be made without the prior receipt and consideration by the Assignments and Statistics Branch on behalf of the War Contracts Board of the information required in the "Standard Form of Contractor's Report" (see § 1607.701). Exceptions to this rule will be made at the request of any Agency authorized to conduct renegotiation upon an indication of urgency in point of time, lack of necessity for preliminary review, or other considerations deemed appropriate. Unless the required preliminary information is available through mandatory filing or otherwise, it will be obtained by the Assignments and Statistics Branch on behalf of the War Contracts Board by causing to be sent to the contractor a "Letter of Preliminary Inquiry" together with the "Standard Form of Contractor's Report" (see §§ 1607.702 (a) and 1607.701). In the event that the contractor fails to make satisfactory response within a reasonable time to the "Letter of Preliminary Inquiry," the case may be assigned for renegotiation to the Department or Service believed appropriate. Should the information required by the "Standard Form of Contractor's Report" be received by the War Contracts Board subsequent to the issuance of the assignment, the assignment may be reassigned or cancelled if such action be found by the War Contracts Board to be appropriate; otherwise, the information will be transmitted to the assignee Department or Service. [RR 203.2]

(c) Identification of contractors not previously assigned. The identification of contractors not previously assigned will be accomplished principally through their filing mandatory financial statements in conformity with the requirements of the first sentence of subsection (c) (5) (A) of the 1943 act (see § 1602.222). The War Contracts Board may use other sources of information. The Departments and Services may suggest to the War Contracts Board, by means of Form 101 (see § 1607.703 (a)), names of contractors to be considered for assignment at a time earlier than that at which the mandatory financial statements may be received. Such suggestions should be limited to cases as to which there is substantial reason to believe that early institution of renegotiation proceedings is advisable or required. [RR 203.3]

(d) Reports as to brokers and agents. Information coming to the attention of a Department or Service indicating that commissions or other compensation may have been or might be paid or accrued to a broker or agent subject to renegotiation under subsection (a) (5) (B) of the 1943 act or (a) (5) (ii) of the 1942 act will be reported to the Services and Sales Renegotiation Section, Procurement Legal Division, Navy Department, Washington 25, D. C., and to the War Contracts Price Adjustment Board, Assignments and Statistics Branch, Room 3D 573, The Pentagon, Washington 25, D. C. (see § 1602.202 (c)). [RR 203.4]

§ 1602.204 Form of assignments. Assignments will be issued on Form 102 (shown in § 1607.703 (b)) or by endorsements on Form 101 (see § 1607.703 (a)) or by other written notification to the assignee Department or service. [RR 204]

§ 1602.205 Reassignment of cases—(a) When cases reassigned. The War Contracts Board will reassign a case to another Department or Service if it appears that efficiency of renegotiation procedure will be promoted thereby. Such reassignments may be based upon inter-company affiliations or transactions, substantial predominance of interest or the principle of assignment by product classification. Reassignments may be suggested by the Departments, Services, or other Agencies. The use of the form set forth at § 1607.703 (c) is recommended for this purpose. Reassignments may also be initiated by the War Contracts Board or by the Assignments and Statistics Branch of its own motion. A case will not be withdrawn from any Department without that Department's approval except by express direction of the War Contracts Board, nor will a reassignment become effective if objection to such reassignment is filed in writing by a Department with the Assignments and Statistics Branch within 10 days following receipt of such reassignment unless such objection is overruled by action of the War Contracts Board. The Assignments and Statistics Branch may withdraw an assignment from a War Department Service without its approval. [RR 205.1]

(b) Transfer of information on reassignments. Upon notice that a case has been reassigned, there will be transmitted directly to the Department or Service holding the reassignment all information obtained from the contractor relating to the fiscal period subject to renegotiation. [RR 205.2]

§ 1602.206 Cancellation of assignment—(a) General. (1) The War Contracts Board will cancel the assignment of any contractor on the ground that the contractor is not subject to renegotiation or on the ground that it clearly appears that the profits realized by the contractor were not excessive or when clearly appropriate under other circumstances disclosed. Ordinarily, assignment will not be cancelled except upon the recommendation or concurrence of the Department or Service to which the assignment was issued.

(2) Cancellations will not be issued in doubtful cases or in the absence of sufficient information in writing upon which an intelligent determination can be based. Representations of fact by contractors, however, will be accepted at full value in the absence of contradictory evidence, and if not obviously subject to question or doubt.

(3) Unless and until a cancellation is issued by the War Contracts Board, the assignee Department or Service is charged with the responsibility of the assignment. Accordingly, pending action upon an application for cancellation, the assignee Department or Service should take any action which may be necessary to preserve the Government's rights against the contractor.

(4) Cancellation of assignment does not constitute a formal clearance of a contractor's responsibilities under the Act. If a contractor desires such a clearance, renegotiation must be completed and a clearance issued in the manner hereinafter provided. [RR 206.1]

(b) Form for submission of request. The Department or Service submitting to the War Contracts Board a request for cancellation will accompany such request with a statement in substantially the following form:

The information submitted herewith has been obtained from the subject contractor. It has been considered and it is believed by this office to be substantially representative of the operations of the contractor for the fiscal period referred to. This office is of the opinion that [1] (excessive profits within the sense of the Renegotiation Act and the principles applicable thereto have not been realized by the contractor during the said period)[1] (aggregate sales by the contractor, and by all persons under the control of or controlling or under common control with the contractor, under contracts with the Departments (as defined in the Renegotiation Act) and subcontracts thereunder, did not exceed the statutory minimum).[1] (Other Reason:) Cancellation of the assignment of the contractor for renegotiation is recommended and requested. The Contractor's fiscal year ended.....

[RR 206.2]

(c) When not subject to act; evidence required. When cancellation of assignment is sought on the ground that the aggregate sales of the contractor for the fiscal year did not exceed the statutory minimum prescribed by subsection (c) (6) of the 1943 act, the Department or Service requesting the cancellation may:

(1) Submit a statement to that effect on its own responsibility, or

(2) Submit a statement by the contractor in the form appearing in § 1607.704 (a), or

(3) Submit a statement of the fact that the contractor has not filed a mandatory financial statement in conformity with subsection (c) (5) (A) of the 1943 act, and a statement of the Department or Service to the effect that the requirements of subsection (c) (5) (A) were called to the attention of the contractor preceding the application for the cancellation. [RR 206.3]

(d) When no excessive profits; evidence required. When the cancellation of assignment is sought on the ground that no excessive profits have been realized on renegotiable business, the minimum information required for consideration by the War Contracts Board will ordinarily be that called for by the "Standard Form of Contractor's Report" (see § 1607.701 (a)) including section B thereof. When necessary, information will be required as to the proper allocation of costs and expenses applicable to renegotiable and other sales. [RR 206.4]

(e) Notification. If the Assignments and Statistics Branch, acting for the War Contracts Board, finds that the evidence submitted is sufficient, notice of cancellation of the assignment will be sent to the Department or Service to which the case is assigned. If there is any difference of opinion concerning the sufficiency of the evidence submitted in connection with an application for cancellation the matter shall be referred to the War Contracts Board for decision. Use of the form set forth at § 1607.704 (b) is authorized for the purpose of advising the contractor of the cancellation of his assignment. [RR 206.5]

(f) Reinstatement. Any case, the assignment of which has been cancelled, may be reinstated if at any later time such action appears appropriate. Such reinstatement may be made by the War Contracts Board on its own motion or at the suggestion of any Department or Service. [RR 206.6]

SUBPART B—PRELIMINARY INFORMATION REQUIRED OF CONTRACTORS

§ 1602.220 Scope of subpart. This subpart deals with mandatory filing of financial statements required of the contractor and other preliminary information. [RR 220]

§ 1602.221 Statutory provision. Subsection (c) (5) (A) of the 1943 act provides as follows:

(5) (A) Every contractor and subcontractor who holds contracts or subcontracts, to which the provisions of this subsection are applicable, shall, in such form and detail as the Board may by regulation prescribe, file with the Board on or before the first day of the fourth month following the close of the fiscal year (or if such fiscal year has closed on the date of the enactment of the Revenue Act of 1943, on or before the first day of the fourth month following the month in which such date of enactment falls) a financial statement setting forth such information as the Board may by regulations prescribe as necessary to carry out this section. In addition to the statement required under the preceding sentence, every such contractor or subcontractor shall, at such time or times and in such form and detail as the Board may by regulations prescribe, furnish the Board any information, records, or data which is determined by the Board to be necessary to carry out this section. Any person who willfully fails or refuses to furnish any statement, information, record, or data required of them under this subsection, or who knowingly furnishes any such statement, information, records, or data containing information which is false or misleading in any material respect, shall, upon conviction thereof, be punished by a fine of not more than $10,000 or imprisonment for not more than two years, or both.

§ 1602.222. Filing of mandatory financial statement. In accordance with the requirements of the first sentence of subsection (c) (5) (A) of the Renegotiation Act of 1943:

(1) The "Standard Form of Contractor's Report" (as set forth in § 1607.701 (a)) is hereby prescribed as the form of mandatory financial statement generally required to be filed by contractors and subcontractors.

(2) The "Standard Form of Contractor's Report (For Construction Contractors, Architects and Engineers)" (as set forth in § 1607.701 (c)) is hereby prescribed as the form of mandatory financial statement required to be filed by contractors and subcontractors principally engaged in the construction business.

(3) The "Standard Form of Contractor's Report (For Agents, Brokers and Sales Engineers)" (as set forth in § 1607.701 (e)) is hereby prescribed as the mandatory form of financial statement required to be filed by sales agents and others whose principal business falls within the definition of subcontracts as set forth in subsection (a) (5) (B) of the 1943 act.

(a) Sufficiency of contents. Except as hereinafter stated, the forms of "Standard Form of Contractor's Report" are required to be prepared in duplicate in accordance with the instructions which relate to them respectively and which appear in § 1607.701 (b), (d) and (f). The reports are required to comprise all the information and exhibits specified by the forms and the instructions. However, if all the information called for by the appropriate "Standard Form of Contractor's Report" has been furnished by the contractor to an Agency authorized to conduct renegotiation proceedings under the 1943 act, the contractor may complete the "Standard Form of Contractor's Report" by incorporating by reference the information so furnished and making a specific statement of the time and place of such filing. In such case, the fact that the information has been received will be certified to by the renegotiating Agency on the copy of the "Standard Form of Contractor's Report" which it will forward to the War Contracts Board within sixty days after the date of receipt of the report by such Agency. A "Standard Form of Contractor's Report" so prepared and filed will be deemed to constitute a sufficient compliance with the mandatory filing requirements of this section in the absence of a notice of insufficiency sent to the contractor within 90 days after the report has been filed. [RR 222.1]

(b) Time for filing. The mandatory financial statements hereby prescribed shall be filed on or before the first day of the fourth month following the close of the fiscal year of the contractor (or if such fiscal year had been closed on February 25, 1944, on or before the first day of June, 1944), whether or not any demand has been made by the War Contracts Board or by any person on its behalf. [RR 222.2]

(c) Place for filing. Except as stated herein, the mandatory financial statements hereby prescribed shall be filed in duplicate with the War Contracts Price Adjustment Board, Assignments and Statistics Branch, Room 3D 573, The Pentagon, Washington 25, D. C. Where the contractor has received a "Letter of Preliminary Inquiry" (see § 1602.223) and the "Standard Form of Contractor's Report" from a renegotiating Agency, the mandatory financial statements hereby prescribed shall be filed in duplicate with that Agency. The renegotiating Agency will forward one copy to the War Contracts Board within sixty days after receipt of the report by the Renegotiating Agency. [RR 222.3]

(d) Availability of forms. Copies of the forms above mentioned may be obtained upon request to the Assignments and Statistics Branch. Efforts will be made to have the forms available for distribution through various channels in addition to the Price Adjustment Boards and Sections of the several Departments authorized to conduct renegotiation proceedings. [RR 222.4]

(e) Effect of filing mandatory financial statements. The filing of a mandatory financial statement in accordance with the provisions of this section will not relieve any contractor or subcontractor of the duty to furnish such other information, records or data which are determined by the War Contracts Board or its representatives to be necessary to carry out its responsibilities under the act. [RR 222.5]

§ 1602.223 Letter of preliminary inquiry—(a) Unassigned contractors. The War Contracts Board, through the Assignments and Statistics Branch, may send to contractors and subcontractors who are identified by it as probably subject to renegotiation proceedings (excepting those who have been previously assigned) a "Letter of Preliminary Inquiry" (see § 1607.702 (a)). Such "Letter of Preliminary Inquiry" will require the recipient to file the appropriate "Standard Form of Contractor's Report" within 30 days from the date of the letter. The "Letter of Preliminary Inquiry" sent by the Assignments and Statistics Branch, will be to determine whether or not the contractor should be assigned for renegotiation and to what Department or Service, if any, such assignment should be made. The filing of the "Standard Form of Contractor's Report" will constitute compliance with the requirement for mandatory filing under § 1602.222, if filed within the time prescribed by the 1943 act. [RR 223.1]

(b) Assigned contractors. The Departments and Services may send to contractors who have been assigned to them for 1943 renegotiation the "Letter of Preliminary Inquiry" and the appropriate Standard Form of Contractor's Report. In such cases, the filing of the Standard Form of Contractor's Report will constitute compliance with the requirements of mandatory filing under § 1602.222 if filed within the time prescribed by the 1943 act and, with respect to assigned cases, will enable a determination to be made as to whether further renegotiation proceedings will be necessary. [RR 223.2]

§ 1602.224 Contractor's information and work sheet for renegotiation. The War Contracts Board, through the Department or Service to which any contractor or subcontractor is assigned, may send to such contractor or subcontractor the form "Contractor's Information and Work Sheet for Renegotiation". (See § 1607.722). The contractor's work sheet will ordinarily be used to assist the contractor in preparing information where it is contemplated that formal renegotiation proceedings will be carried to conclusion. [RR 224]

SUBPART C—PREPARATION FOR RENEGOTIATION

§ 1602.230 Scope of subpart. This subpart contains instructions relating to preparation for renegotiation. [RR 230]

§ 1602.231 Negotiators—(a) Disqualification of negotiator. Renegotiation will not be carried on by a negotiator on behalf of the Government, who is, or within the preceding five years has been, an officer, director, partner, employee or in control of the contractor being renegotiated. A member of a price adjustment board who is, or within the preceding five years has been, an officer, director, partner, employee or in control of the contractor being renegotiated, will not sit as a member of such board while it is passing on the case of such contractor. Each negotiator, or member of a price adjustment board, will determine whether these provisions bar him from acting in a case. Other circumstances may exist which would make it inadvisable for a negotiator or member of a price adjustment board to act in a case and such situations can best be determined by the negotiator or member involved. Accordingly, a negotiator or member of a price adjustment board has the responsibility of determining whether he should refrain from acting in a particular case under the circumstances. [RR 231]

SUBPART D—CONDUCT OF RENEGOTIATION

§ 1602.240 Scope of subpart. This subpart includes instructions on the conduct of renegotiation. [RR 240]

§ 1602.241 Commencement of renegotiation. Renegotiation proceedings are commenced by mailing by registered mail reasonable notice of the time and place of a conference to be held with respect to the renegotiation. A form which may be used for such purpose is set forth in § 1607.721. Such notice shall be given in all cases of renegotiations with respect to fiscal years ending after June 30, 1943. In any case where a further conference is unnecessary by reason of the progress which has been made in renegotiation prior to the sending out of the formal notice, the notice should be sent, but the conference can be waived by agreement with the contractor. [RR 241]

§ 1602.242 Data presented by contractor. The contractor should be prepared to present all the factual data pertinent to the consideration of his case. In this connection, reference is made to the information required in the mandatory financial statement (§ 1602.220 and following) and to other parts hereof. A Contractor's Information and Work Sheet for Renegotiation is set forth at § 1607.722 and the use of such form is not mandatory but should prove helpful to the contractor in assembling data pertinent to his case. (See § 1602.224.) [RR 242]

(b) Instructions for Preparation of Standard Form of Contractor's Report.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR PREPARATION OF STANDARD FORM OF CONTRACTOR'S REPORT

Be sure to use the correct form of report

Three separate Standard Forms of Contractor's Report have been prescribed by the War Contracts Price Adjustment Board, for the following types of business covered by the Renegotiation Act:

1. Persons principally engaged in manufacturing and general business other than (2) and (3) below. (Form entitled "Standard Form of Contractor's Report.")

2. Persons principally engaged on construction projects, including those operating under architect-engineer contracts. (Form entitled "Standard Form of Contractor's Report (For Construction Contractors, Architects, and Engineers).")

3. Brokers, sales agents, etc., as defined in subsection (a) (5) of the Renegotiation Act. (Form entitled "Standard Form of Contractor's Report (For Agents, Brokers, and Sales Engineers).")

Filing of the Appropriate "Standard Form of Contractor's Report" in satisfactory form is required to comply with the statutory filing provision in subsection (c) (5) (A) of the 1943 Renegotiation Act. If the attached is not the appropriate form, copies of the proper form can be obtained by writing to War Contracts Price Adjustment Board, Assignments and Statistics Branch, Renegotiation Division, Room 3D 573, The Pentagon, Washington 25, D. C., or the office from which this document was received.

1. Item I. Copies of audit reports by independent public accountants should be submitted if available. If such audit reports have not been prepared, in lieu thereof there should be submitted in duplicate financial statements for the latest closed fiscal year, consisting of (A) a balance sheet, as of the close of such fiscal year, and (B) a statement of income and surplus for such fiscal year. These statements must be in reasonable detail; the balance sheet must show the gross plant account and related allowance for depreciation; each reserve must be stated separately; and the income statement must show sales and cost of sales. Unaudited statements may be filed if they are in accord with the contractor's records and if the contractor certifies that the statements are correct to the best of his knowledge and belief. All deviations from the contractor's records should be noted and explained.

2. Item II. For the purpose of this report, a careful estimate by the contractor as to the segregation of his renegotiable and non-renegotiable business will be accepted and received without prejudice. Attention is directed to Instruction No. 5, relative to the inclusion of renegotiable subcontracts.

3. Item II–A–1. Direct sales subject to renegotiation should include the total amount of contractor's net billings for his latest complete fiscal year on direct sales (under prime contracts and purchase orders except those based on cost-plus-fixed-fee contracts) to the War, Navy and Treasury Departments, Maritime Commission, War Shipping Administration and the following subsidiaries of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation, Defense Plant Corporation, Metals Reserve Company, Defense Supplies Corporation, and Rubber Reserve Company; sales under lend-lease contracts may be classified according to the Agency through which the contracts were negotiated.

4. Item II–A–2. Indirect sales for war end use should include the total amount of contractor's net billings for his latest complete fiscal year on indirect sales (under subcontracts of any tier, as interpreted below) except those to be entered as II–A–3 and –4, and those based on cost-plus-fixed-fee contracts.

5. Interpretation of subcontract: Under the statutory definition of "subcontract" (Sec. 403 (a) (5)), profits on the production and sale, or the sale, of articles required for the performance of another contract or subcontract are subject to renegotiation, as well as profits on the production or sale of all materials, down to and including raw materials, except certain specified products exempted under subsection (1) of the Act. This definition is interpreted to include contracts not only with prime contractors but also with other subcontractors, if such contracts are—

a. for the sale or processing of an end product or of an article incorporated therein,

b. for the sale, furnishing or installation of machinery, equipment or materials used in the processing of an end product or of an article incorporated therein,

c. for the sale, furnishing or installation of machinery used in the processing of other machinery to be used in the processing of an end product or of an article incorporated therein,

d. for the sale, furnishing or installation of component parts of or subassemblies for machinery included in (c) above and machinery, equipment and materials included in (b) above, and

e. for the performance of services directly required for the performance of contracts or subcontracts included in (a), (b), (c), and (d) above.

The term "component part" shall be deemed to include materials and ingredients.

With respect to machinery, equipment or materials "used in processing",

(1) In general it is intended to include as subject to statutory renegotiation the sale of all machinery, equipment, materials and other articles which contribute directly to the actual production of an end item or an article incorporated therein, in connection with the physical handling of the item from the time of entry of the component materials to departure of the item from the plant in question and to include all machinery which similarly contributed directly to the actual production of other machinery so used.

(2) It is intended to exclude the sale of articles which contribute only indirectly to the actual manufacturing process, such as (a) products used for general plant maintenance, including fuel and equipment to produce light, heat and power, (b) equipment needed for general office maintenance, including all types of office machinery and supplies, (c) safety equipment and clothing.

(3) It is not intended, however, to exclude from renegotiation any articles otherwise subject to renegotiations which are sold directly to a Department, or to a contractor when the items are to be ultimately resold to a Department either as end products or as component parts included therein.

The term "articles" in the statutory definition of subcontract is interpreted to include commercial products as well as equipment fabricated for particular uses or purposes.

The fact that commercial products are sold for industrial uses, either directly or through jobbers or other commercial channels, does not exclude such articles from this definition. The same tests are applied to both ordinary commercial products and equipment fabricated for special uses and purposes.

The fact that articles are sold under price ceilings fixed by OPA or as the result of competitive bidding does not exclude the sale of such articles from renegotiation.

6. Contracts subject to profit limitations: If the contractor made deliveries under contracts or subcontracts subject to profit limitations, the total billings under such contracts should be included as part of renegotiable sales, but should also be shown in a separate schedule, in duplicate, in which should be stated the amount so included.

7. ITEM II–A–3. "Commissions and other income, within the meaning of Sec. 403 (a) (5) of the Renegotiation Act" refers to income as recorded on the contractor's books, from the execution of any contract or arrangement (a) to procure one or more contracts with a Department or one or more war end use subcontracts when the amount of such income was contingent upon such procurement, or was determined with reference to the amount of such contracts or subcontracts or (b) under which any part of the services performed or to be performed, consisted of the soliciting, attempting to procure or procuring one or more contracts with a Department or one or more war end use subcontracts.

A contract or arrangement for this purpose does not exist when one of the contracting parties is a bona fide executive officer, partner, or full-time employee of the other contracting party.

8. Item II–A–4. Other renegotiable business. Any income, receipts, or accruals, such as royalties, management fees, etc.; (except from cost-plus-fixed-fee contracts), not included in II–A–1, –2, or –3, which are subject to renegotiation, should be entered on this line.

9. Item II–B. Business not subject to renegotiation. Certain direct and indirect sales exempted from renegotiation by subsection (i) of the Act and administrative rulings thereunder, should be entered at II–B–1. Other sales, excluded because they were not made, directly or indirectly, to Departments and Agencies named in the Act, should be entered as II–B–2.

Since the difficulty of making an accurate segregation between sales "Subject to Renegotiation" and those "Not Subject to Renegotiation", is recognized, contractors should take care to report as "Subject to Renegotiation" all business except that which is clearly not renegotiable as a matter of law or of administrative ruling. Such a report will be received without prejudice.

10. Item III. Cost-plus-fixed-fee (CPFF) contracts. If the contractor performed under one or more cost-plus-fixed-fee direct contracts or subcontracts subject to the Renegotiation Act, during his latest closed fiscal year, he should report in a separate statement in duplicate, the total of his billings, costs, and net fees thereunder. If he is unable to report costs, an explanation of the reasons therefor should be submitted.

11. Item IV. The percentages to be entered in IV relate to the cost of manufacturing products sold under fixed price contracts or in the regular course of business, but not to cost-plus-fixed-fee contracts. The percentages should be based on manufacturing costs only, and should not relate to amounts which include selling and administrative expenses. If the information requested cannot be readily obtained or estimated, a statement outlining the difficulties involved must be submitted.

12. Item V. There should be entered on the first blank line the names of the renegotiating Department or Agency (e. g. Navy, Reconstruction Finance Corporation) and on the second blank line the name of the related Service, Bureau or R. F. C. subsidiary (e. g. Bureau of Ordnance, Defense Supplies Corporation) which the contractor believes (without detailed analysis) purchased the largest proportion of his war end use output during the latest complete fiscal year, both under direct contracts and as components of products acquired from other contractors.

The Governmental Agencies which conduct renegotiation proceedings are:

1. War Department.
2. Navy Department.
3. Maritime Commission.
4. War Shipping Administration.
5. Treasury Department.
6. Reconstruction Finance Corporation, on behalf of its subsidiaries: Defense Plant Corporation; Defense Supplies Corporation; Metals Reserve Company; Rubber Reserve Company.

The interested Services included in the War Department are:

Army Air Forces.
Chemical Warfare Service.
Corps of Engineers.
Ordnance Department.
Quartermaster Corps.
Signal Corps.
Surgeon General.
Transportation Corps.

The interested Bureaus included in the Navy Department are:

Bureau of Aeronautics.
Bureau of Ordnance.
Bureau of Ships.
Bureau of Supplies and Accounts.
Bureau of Yards and Docks.

13. Section B. Items XIII, XIV and XV, comprising Section B of this report are not required to be filled out by contractors or subcontractors who have entered into formal agreements, or received authorized clearance notices under the Renegotiation Act with respect to any past fiscal years. However, the data, if furnished, will expedite the disposition of the case and should be presented if readily available.

14. Item XIII–B. By "affiliated companies or organizations" is meant all persons under the control of or controlling or under common control with the contractor or subcontractor.

15. Item XIV. The information as to operations of the contractor for the indicated taxable years is necessary for the proper consideration of the effect of war business on the volume of sales and amount of profits. If the profits for any of the fiscal years relate to operations under cost-plus-fixed-fee contracts, the amount of the net fees on such contracts should be shown on line (3) of Item XIV as a memorandum, and should also be included in "Taxable net income per Federal tax return" (line 2). Gross billings and costs under such contracts should not be included.

16. If information previously filed. If all of the information called for by this form has been furnished the Price Adjustment Agency to which the contractor has been assigned, this Standard Form of Contractor's Report can be completed by reference, stating specifically the place and date of filing. When certified by the appropriate Price Adjustment Agency that it has received such information, this report will be accepted by the War Contracts Price Adjustment Board as having complied with mandatory filing under the first sentence of subsection (c) (5) (A) of the 1943 Act.

(d) Instructions for Preparation of Standard Form of Contractor's Report (For Construction Contractors, Architects and Engineers).

(For Construction Contractors, Architects, and Engineers)

BE SURE TO USE THE CORRECT FORM OF REPORT

Three separate Standard Forms of Contractor's Report have been prescribed by the War Contracts Price Adjustment Board, for the following types of business covered by the Renegotiation Act:

1. Persons principally engaged in manufacturing and general business other than (2) and (3) below. (Form entitled "Standard Form of Contractor's Report.")

2. Persons principally engaged in construction projects, including those operating under architect-engineer contracts. (Form entitled "Standard Form of Contractor's Report (For Construction Contractors, Architects, and Engineers).")

3. Brokers, sales agents, etc., as defined in subsection (a) (5) of the Renegotiation Act. (Form entitled "Standard Form of Contractor's Report (For Agents, Brokers, and Sales Engineers).")

Filing of the Appropriate "Standard Form of Contractor's Report" in satisfactory form is required to comply with the statutory filing provision in subsection (c) (5) (A) of the 1943 Renegotiation Act. If the attached is not the appropriate form, copies of the proper form can be obtained by writing to War Contracts Price Adjustment Board, Assignments and Statistics Branch, Renegotiation Division, Room 3D 573, The Pentagon, Washington 25, D. C., or the office from which this document was received.

1. Item II. Total business should include the aggregate of the amounts received or accrued in the latest completed fiscal year (according to the method of accounting employed by the contractor or subcontractor in keeping his books) from construction contracts, equipment rentals, sales and other business. The method of accounting employed for book purposes should be stated.

For the purpose of this report, it is not necessary to have an exact segregation of business as to renegotiable and non-renegotiable, if such would require detailed accounting analysis. For the present, if necessary, the contractor's best estimate will be accepted and received without prejudice. However, a more accurate analysis may have to be made if the contractor's representation of renegotiable business approaches the statutory minimum. Also, if renegotiation proceedings are to be continued, a request for more accurate segregation and allocation may be made.

2. Item II–A–1. In reporting contractor's porportionate share of joint venture business, gross contract and other earnings of each joint venture, including reimbursements in the case of cost-plus-a-fixed-fee joint venture contracts, should be taken into account.

3. Item II–B. Sales not subject to renegotiation. Certain direct and indirect sales have been exempted from renegotiation by subsection (i) of the Act and administrative rulings thereunder. Since the difficulty of making an accurate segregation between sales "Subject to Renegotiation" and those "Not Subject to Renegotiation", is recognized, contractors should report as "Subject to Renegotiation" all business except that which is clearly not renegotiable as a matter of law or of administrative ruling. Should a continuance of renegotiation proceedings be required, necessary corrections in the segregation on the Standard Form of Contractor's Report (for Construction Contractors, Architects and Engineers) will be made.

4. Item II–B. Construction contracts awarded as a result of competitive bidding. The War Contracts Price Adjustment Board has adopted the following interpretation of the exemption under the Renegotiation Act of construction contracts awarded as a result of competitive bidding: The exclusion from renegotiation of construction contracts with a Department awarded as a result of competitive bidding applies only to contracts for the construction of buildings, structures, improvements and other similar facilities let to the lowest qualified bidder and which were entered into after advertisement and for which bids have been received from two or more independent, responsible and qualified contractors in actual competition with each other. This section of the Act is applicable only to amounts received or accrued under such contracts for fiscal years ending after June 30, 1943, and applies regardless of the date when the contracts were made. Contracts for the furnishing of materials or supplies or for the lease or sale of machinery or equipment are not deemed to be within the scope of this provision of the Act.

The Board has found that competitive conditions affecting the making of construction contracts and subcontracts entered into subsequent to June 30, 1943, were such as to result in effective competition with respect to the contract or subcontract price where all of the following conditions exist:

(1) The contract or subcontract is one for the construction of buildings, structures, improvements or other similar facilities. Contracts and subcontracts for the furnishing of materials or supplies or for the lease or sale of machinery or equipment are not within the scope of this exemption.

(2) The contract was entered into subsequent to June 30, 1943, and did not constitute a substitute for or a revision or extension of an existing contract entered into on or before June 30, 1943.

(3) The work covered by the contract was substantially the same as the work for which the bids were requested.

(4) Bids were received from two or more responsible and qualified contractors, who were independent of each other and were in actual competition with each other for the work for which bids were requested.

(5) The contract price was not in excess of the low bid received.

5. Item IV. There should be entered on the first blank line the name of the renegotiating Department or Agency (e. g. Navy, Reconstruction Finance Corporation) which during the contractor's latest completed fiscal year had the largest proportionate interest in his war end use business both under direct contracts and as components of products acquired from other contractors.

The Governmental Agencies which conduct renegotiation proceedings are as follows:

1. War Department
2. Navy Department
3. Maritime Commission
4. War Shipping Administration
5. Treasury Department
6. Reconstruction Finance Corporation, on behalf of its subsidiaries:
   - Defense Plant Corporation.
   - Defense Supplies Corporation.
   - Metals Reserve Company.
   - Rubber Reserve Company.

6. Item V. "Commissions within the meaning of Sec. 403 (a) (5) of the Renegotiation Act" refers to income as recorded on the contractor's books, from the execution of any contract or arrangement (a) to procure one or more contracts with a Department or one or more war end use subcontracts when the amount of such income was contingent upon such procurement, or was determined with reference to the amount of such contracts or subcontracts, or (b) under which any part of the services performed or to be performed, consists of the soliciting, attempting to procure or procuring one or more contracts with a Department or one or more war end use subcontracts.

A contract or arrangement for this purpose does not exist when one of the contracting parties is a bona fide executive officer, partner, or full-time employee of the other contracting party.

7. Item VII. If a Corporation, give date of incorporation and state in which incorporated. Also give names, addresses of officers together with their respective percentages of stock ownership.

If a Partnership, state the date of formation, and give names and addresses of all partners and their respective percentages of interest in its income.

If a Joint Venture, give date of formation, and names and addresses of all participants together with their respective percentages of interest in its income.

Where two or more parties enter into an arrangement for the performance jointly of one or more projects the combination resulting from such arrangement is commonly referred to as a "Joint Venture". Such a Joint Venture is regarded as an entity which, with respect to its contracts or subcontracts within the scope of the Renegotiation Act of 1943, is a "contractor" or "subcontractor" within the meaning of the Act. Therefore, each Joint Venture is renegotiated separately with respect to its renegotiable contracts and subcontracts.

8. Item XI. Submit the following information for each contract and subcontract in excess of $50,000 as reported in Item II–A. No detail is required for contracts of less than $50,000. The total sum of all such contracts may be reported as one amount.

A. Contract number of each contract or subcontract. Show under this Item the Government or other prime contract number and, if a subcontract the Government or other number assigned to the related prime contract.

B. Type of contract advertised or negotiated; lump sum unit price or cost-plus-a-fixed-fee; prime contract or subcontract; architect-engineer, construction or combination).

C. If a prime contract, with what Department made (War, Navy, Treasury Departments, Maritime Commission, War Shipping Administration, Defense Plant Corporation, Metals Reserve Company, Defense Supplies Corporation, Rubber Reserve Company).

D. If a subcontract, name and address of prime contractor, and Department with which he made contract, if available.

E. Total contract price, including amendments. In the case of cost-plus-a-fixed-fee contracts, show separately the estimated cost, final cost, and fee.

F. Brief description of work.

G. Location of work.

H. Amounts and percentages completed at beginning and end respectively of fiscal year.

I. Approximate percent and types of work subcontracted to others. List each subcontract let in excess of $50,000, showing the name and address of the subcontractor, type and amount of work subcontracted.

J. Date work was commenced and completed, or estimated completion date.

K. State year or years in which income was reported for tax purposes and, if reported in more than one year, the amount reported in each year.

L. If a joint venture contract, list the names and addresses of all joint venturers.

9. Item XII. Submit information showing for each contract and subcontract in excess of $50,000 as reported in Item II–B the details as shown in A through G of Item XI above. No detail is required for contracts of less than $50,000. The total sum of all such contracts may be reported as one amount.

10. If information previously filed. If all of the information called for by this form has been furnished the Price Adjustment Agency to which the contractor has been assigned, this Standard Form of Contractor's Report can be completed by reference, stating specifically the place and date of filing. When certified by the appropriate Price Adjustment Agency that it has received such information, this report will be accepted by the War Contracts Price Adjustment Board as having complied with mandatory filing under the first sentence of subsection (c) (5) (A) of the 1943 Act.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR PREPARATION OF STANDARD FORM OF CONTRACTOR'S REPORT

BE SURE TO USE THE CORRECT FORM OF REPORT

Three separate Standard Forms of Contractor's Report have been prescribed by the War Contracts Price Adjustment Board, for the following types of business covered by the Renegotiation Act:

1. Persons principally engaged in manufacturing and general business other than (2) and (3) below. (Form entitled "Standard Form of Contractor's Report.")

2. Persons principally engaged on construction projects, including those operating under architect-engineer contracts. (Form entitled "Standard Form of Contractor's Report (For Construction Contractor's Architects, and Engineers).")

3. Brokers, sales agents, etc., as defined in subsection (a) (5) of the Renegotiation Act. (Form entitled "Standard Form of Contractor's Report (For Agents, Brokers, and Sales Engineers).")

Filing of the appropriate "Standard Form of Contractor's Report" in satisfactory form is required to comply with the statutory filing provision in subsection (c) (5) (A) of the 1943 Renegotiation Act. If the attached is not the appropriate form, copies of the proper form can be obtained by writing to War Contracts Price Adjustment Board, Assignments and Statistics Branch, Renegotiation Division, Room 3D 573, The Pentagon, Washington 25, D. C., or the office from which this document was received.

1. If a financial statement or stockholders' report has not already been prepared, it need not be especially prepared for this purpose.

2. Contracts and Subcontracts within the Scope of the Act:

Subject to certain specific exemptions, the Renegotiation Act applies to contracts involving articles or services acquired by, or having an end-use with the War Department, the Navy Department, the Treasury Department, the Maritime Commission, War Shipping Administration, and the following subsidiaries of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation: Defense Plant Corporation, Metals Reserve Company, Defense Supplies Corporation, and Rubber Reserve Company. Lend-Lease contracts negotiated with the above Agencies are also included.

The income of agents, manufacturers' representatives and sales engineers is subject to renegotiation if derived from a "subcontract", as the term is defined in subsection (a) (5) of the Act.

Subsection (a) (5) defines as a "subcontract" any contract or arrangement (other than a contract or arrangement between two contracting parties, one of which parties is found to be a bona fide executive officer, partner or fulltime employee of the other contracting party),

(a) any amount payable under which is contingent upon the procurement of a contract with a Department, or a subcontract thereunder, or determined with reference to such a contract or subcontract, or

(b) under which any part of the services performed or to be performed consists of the soliciting, attempting to procure, or procuring a contract with a Department, or a subcontract thereunder.

Subsection (a) (5) of the Act also defines a subcontract as "—any purchase order or agreement to perform all or any part of the work, or to make or furnish any article, required for the performance of any other contract or subcontract—"

In general, the Act covers not only sales and engineering services rendered in connection with the sale of an end product purchased by one of the agencies covered by the Act, and any article incorporated therein, but also the sale or installation of machinery, equipment or materials used in processing an end product.

3. Segregation of Renegotiable and Non-renegotiable Income:

Although the Act prescribes the type of contract subject to renegotiation, as a matter of practice, it is often difficult to trace the source of a contractor's income with exactness, especially when the ultimate Departmental end-use results from a remote subcontract.

No single method of determining a proper segregation can be prescribed. Any method of segregation adapted to produce a reasonably accurate result may be used.

Any of your income referable to sales made in your name as contractor to the Government, or made directly by your principal to the Government, should be included as income derived from prime contracts (direct business). Income referable to other sales under Government subcontracts (indirect business) is also renegotiable, and should be included as such. Income referable to all other types of sales is non-renegotiable, and should be so stated. State in each case the rate of commission or other basis on which income in each of these classes was calculated. If several rates prevailed, state all of them, and show the volume of sales affected by each rate.

Whenever the end-use of the articles with respect to which the services were rendered is known or can be determined with reasonable effort, a specific segregation of individual sales should be made and compensation referable to such articles as are found to have a Departmental end-use should be included under income "Subject to Renegotiation."

In many instances, the number of separate sales or contracts will be so large that it will be impracticable to consider each one separately, and some arbitrary method of segregation of income must be used. Ordinarily this will also be true, where the contractor's services are rendered in connection with articles initially sold to wholesalers, jobbers or others engaged in both war and commercial business.

In such cases, it may be necessary to classify sales and contracts by principal, customer or customer group, end-use classification of articles as shown on War Production Board reports, or some other suitable classification. Segregation may then be made, depending on,

(a) the proportionate part of the business of the principal or principals represented which is found to have a Departmental end-use, or

(b) the proportionate part of the customer business found to have a Departmental end-use or

(c) a percentage developed by spot check of the end-use of the articles during a given period.

4. Principals Represented and Products Handled:

Under Section III (b), merely indicate the nature of the chief products handled for each principal and the type of services rendered (e. g., sales and solicitation, sales engineering, factoring, expediting servicing). If any income was derived from a factoring service, describe the nature of the service and the rates charged.

5. Condensed Income Data for Prior Years:

Depending upon whether your books for the respective period were kept on a cash or accrual basis, report either income received or income accrued during each period. This data should be in agreement with Federal tax returns.

6. Salaries and Other Compensation Paid:

The names of officers, salesmen and employees who, during the latest completed fiscal year received from the contractor, aggregate payments in excess of $5,000 should be listed, together with the positions held, and the amounts paid each in 1943, 1942, 1941 and 1940. If more than ten (10) persons have received over $5,000, list the ten (10) who have received the largest amounts during the latest completed fiscal year.

7. If Information Previously Filed:

If all of the information called for by this form has been furnished the Price Adjustment agency to which the contractor has been assigned, this Standard Form of Contractor's Report can be completed by reference, stating specifically the place and date or filing. When certified by the appropriate Price Adjustment agency that it has received such information, this report will be accepted by the War Contracts Price Adjustment Board as having complied with mandatory filing under the first sentence of subsection (c) (5) (A) of the 1943 Act.

§ 1607.704 Forms for cancellation of assignment—(a) Statement by Contractor of Non-applicability.

To the War Contracts Price Adjustment Board:

We acknowledge receipt of a copy of the pamphlet entitled "Renegotiation" containing the text of the Renegotiation Act of 1943 and have noted particularly the provisions of subsections (a) (5), (c) (5) (A) and (e) (6) of that Act.

We certify that the aggregate receipts or accruals of the undersigned and of all persons, firms or corporations under the control of or controlling or under common control with the undersigned under contracts with the War Department, Navy Department, Treasury Department, Maritime Commission, War Shipping Administration, Defense Plant Corporation, Defense Supplies Corporation, Metals Reserve Company and Rubber Reserve Company and under subcontracts as defined in the Act, including those which are exempted under subsection (1) of the Act or which expressly provide that they are not subject to renegotiation pursuant to the authority granted by said subsection (1) (but not including commissions and other income within the meaning of subsection (a) (5) (B) of the Act), did not exceed $500,000 for the fiscal year ended _____ 194..; and we further certify that commissions and other income within the meaning of subsection (a) (5) (B) of the Renegotiation Act of 1943 received or accrued by the undersigned and by all persons, firms or corporations under the control of or controlling or under common control with the undersigned under contracts and subcontracts above referred to did not exceed $25,000 for the same fiscal year.

In making this certification recognition is given to the fact that in order to qualify for exemption it is necessary that both of the above conditions should be met; i. e., that the total of receipts and accruals under contracts with the above-named Departments or agencies and subcontracts as defined in the Act (excluding commissions and other income below mentioned) does not exceed $500,000 and that the total of commissions and other income within the meaning of subsection (a) (5) (B) of the Act does not exceed $25,000. Accordingly, we do not intend to file a financial statement in conformity with the provisions of the first sentense of subsection (c) (5) (A) of the Act. If we have been assigned for statutory renegotiation, we request that such assignment be cancelled.

§ 1607.722 Contractor's Information and Work Sheet for Renegotiation.

CONTRACTOR'S INFORMATION AND WORK SHEET FOR RENEGOTIATION

NOTE: Construction contractors, architects, engineers, agents and brokers should not use this form, but should obtain the forms designed for their specific use by writing to:

(Name)

(Address) (City and State)

Information indicated in Sections A to K, inclusive, and the Exhibits attached thereto, is required for renegotiation under the Renegotiation Act, as amended. Any part of this information which the contractor has submitted, either in the "Standard Form of Contractor's Report" or in connection with a previous renegotiation, may be omitted, provided reference is made to the manner, time and place of its submission. If any statements or information designated are inapplicable in a particular case, the contractor should so state and give the reason therefor. If the preparation of the data specified would impose an unreasonable burden or expense, the contractor may supply such information as is available in his regularly prepared financial and operating reports, provided he explains the reason for the substitution. In financial statements all cents may be omitted. The contractor should so indicate if he prefers to discuss with the renegotiation authorities the methods of segregation of sales and allocation of costs and expenses (Section E). In such case, the contractor should submit the Contractor's Information and Work Sheet for Renegotiation, completed in all other respects.

At the end of each section are specific instructions or comments pertinent thereto.

The contractor should certify that all information and data (subject to qualifications, if any, specifically set forth) are true and correct to the best of his knowledge and belief.

SECTION A

One copy each of the following for the year under review:

1. Published annual report
2. Detailed or long form audit report
3. Federal income and excess profit tax returns filed
4. Latest brochure, catalog or other material setting forth the company's business and products
5. Form 10–k (or 1–MD) if such is filed with Securities and Exchange Commission

Instructions: If annual reports to stockholders or audit reports by independent public accountants are not prepared, the contractor should so state and, in lieu thereof, furnish financial statements, consisting of (a) a balance sheet as of the close of the year under review and (b) a statement of income and surplus for such year. Those statements must be in reasonable detail. The balance sheet must show, in addition to the usual analysis of current assets and current liabilities, the gross plant account and related allowance for depreciation and amortization and all major reserves stated as separate amounts. The income statement must show sales, an analysis of cost of sales, and a classified list of expenses and miscellaneous items. It is essential that a reconciliation between income per books and income for Federal Tax purposes be provided.

SECTION B

1. A statement showing the names and addresses of the contractor's parent, subsidiary and affiliated companies and organizations, with a brief description of the character of their business, the nature and extent of their affiliation, and an expression of the contractor's opinion as to whether or not, during the year under review, they had business subject to the Renegotiation Act.
2. A list of the companies and organizations which, in the opinion of the contractor, should be consolidated for purposes of renegotiation.
3. If the financial statements are submitted on a consolidated basis, similar financial statements for each major subsidiary included in such consolidation.

Instructions: The terms "affiliates" and "affiliated companies and organizations" mean all persons under the control of or controlling or under common control with the contractor. Indicate any changes during the year under review, in the form or control of his organization (including reorganizations, dissolutions, acquisitions and/or disposal of subsidiaries, etc.)

SECTION C

1. A statement showing Government assistance received, including:
a. approximate value of machinery loaned;
b. approximate value of plants provided;
c. approximate value of materials received;
d. loans under Regulation V of Federal Reserve Board;
e. approximate advances on contracts;
f. description and approximate amount of other financial assistance.
2. A statement showing the type and approximate cost of privately financed facilities for which Certificates of Necessity have been issued or for which applications were pending at the end of the year under review.
3. Character, cost and method of acquisition of any other major additions to plant and equipment during the year under review.

Instructions: Significant changes in any of the above during the year under review should be described. Detailed lists need not be prepared. It will be sufficient to show only classifications, such as buildings, machinery, etc. If the annual rate of amortization allowed under Certificates of Necessity varies from the standard annual rate of 20%, the reasons therefor should be fully explained.

SECTION D

Income statement of the contractor for the year under review, separated as to renegotiable and non-renegotiable business as defined under the Renegotiation Act, as amended.

Instructions: The attached Exhibits 1 and 1a are provided for the contractor's use in this connection. Should he submit in some other form his income data separated as between renegotiable and non-renegotiable business, Exhibits 1 and 1a should be used as guides, in order that proper consideration to the items thereon will be given.

Sales and cost of sales should be stated net of discounts and other pertinent allowances. Supporting schedules of items requiring further analysis should be provided.

For an interpretation of items entering into renegotiable and non-renegotiable business refer to Standard Form of Contractor's Report, Instructions 3 to 10, both inclusive.

Specific instructions relative to the preparation of Exhibits 1 and 1a are set forth on page 4158.

SECTION E

1. Description of the method followed in segregating renegotiable and non-renegotiable sales, as shown in Exhibits 1 and 1a.
2. Description of the method followed (direct labor hours, cost of goods sold, etc.) in allocating costs, expenses and other income and deductions applicable to renegotiable and non-renegotiable business, as shown in Exhibits 1 and 1a.
3. A statement or schedule with respect to each of the following:
a. the effect of raw material exemptions and "excess inventory" calculations provided for in subsection (i) of the Act;
b. the nature and approximate dollar amount of "free issue" materials (those provided without cost to the contractor by the Government or others);
c. sales to subcontractors, of materials entering into repurchases from them;
d. sales to and purchases from subsidiaries and affiliates, if not eliminated in a consolidated statement;
e. interdepartmental sales not eliminated;
f. any basic changes during the year under review in accounting methods, depreciation rates, and/or methods of inventory valuation;
g. list of contracts and subcontracts (including identification number) subject to specific profit limitations other than cost-plus-fixed-fee contracts;
h. volume of direct renegotiable sales to the subsidiaries of Reconstruction Finance Corporation, and the amount of profits therefrom. If profits on such sales are not segregated on the books, best estimate should be given.

Instructions: Adequate explanations are essential.

SECTION F

1. List for the year under review of the principal products sold or the principal services rendered and the approximate amount of sales, both in quantity and dollars, of each principal type of product (or group of products) included in renegotiable business, and the functions performed with respect to each of the above (such as manufacturing, assembling, distributing, etc.)
2. List of the approximate dollar unit prices of important products and services included in renegotiable business, together with any recent (1943 or later) unit price reductions; with identification of those resulting from specific prior renegotiation agreements.
3. List of the principal products prior to 1941.
4. List of the principal commercial products during the year under review.

Instructions: In the case of contractors making a large number of different products, only the principal product of each major type should be listed. The term "quantity" refers to the customarily used unit of measurement.

SECTION G

1. Statement of salaries and all other compensation (including commissions, bonuses, royalties and other forms of extra compensation) paid or accrued to the ten highest officers and employees, or to those who received in excess of $10,000 per annum (whichever is the lesser in number) for the year under review.
2. A brief description of any bonus, pension trust, or other employee compensation plans now in effect or contemplated, with comment as to how they are applicable to personnel listed under item 1 preceding, and showing the dates that such plans were adopted.
3. Statement of compensation (fees, commissions, etc.) paid or accrued to other individuals or organizations, for services aggregating $10,000 or more during the year under review.

Instructions. The statements of compensation should show for each individual or organization: name, title or relationship and total compensation. If any portion of the compensation to any of the individuals listed has been disallowed by the Bureau of Internal Revenue as a taxable deduction, in any year, the facts should be stated.

SECTION H

A statement of provisions for reserves (other than shown on line 17 of Exhibit 1) for inventory losses, post-war reserves or other contingencies (of a nature not allowed as a deduction for Federal income tax purposes) included in costs and expenses, except as specifically set forth.

Instructions. The statement should contain a list of the purposes of the provisions, and the amounts not deductible in computing net income for Federal taxes, but provided for various contingencies and which are not specifically set forth on Exhibits 1, 1a or related schedules. If the contractor made no such provisions, he should so state.

SECTION J

A statement relating to contracts terminated or settled during the year under review and in process of termination or settlement at its close.

Instructions. It is suggested that reasonably full information be furnished with regard to terminated contracts. This information should include: (a) an adequate description of the method of pricing work in process and finished goods inventories at the year end, with particular regard to the classes of overhead expenses included therein and the consistency of method with that used at the beginning of the year; (b) the total number and approximate dollar amount of contracts terminated and termination settlements closed during the year under review and terminations in process of settlement at its close, classified as to year in which terminated, prime and subcontracts, those with or without claims, and the interested Department and Service; (c) a brief description of the five largest contracts referred to in (b); (d) the total amount of the cost of terminated contracts for the year under review.

SECTION K

A statement relative to each of the following:

1. The latest taxable year examined by the Bureau of Internal Revenue and any significant changes made in taxable income or invested capital as a result of examinations made by the Bureau since January 1, 1942.
2. Any changes in excess profits tax credit claimed or to be claimed under Section 721 or 722 of the Internal Revenue Code.

9. List of states to which taxes (including franchise taxes) measured by income, and the amounts for the year under review.

4. If royalties in excess of $25,000 were paid or accrued during the year under review, the names of significant payees and amounts of payments. Similarly, if the company received royalties in excess of $25,000, the names of licensees and amounts paid by each.

5. A brief description of technical assistance received (such as use of patents owned by others; instruction in technical procedures; aid in accounting methods, etc.).

6. Any revaluation of assets or recapitalization during the year under review.

7. Stockholders owning over 10% of voting stock and stockholdings of officers and key executives.

8. The types of escalator clauses in contracts subject to renegotiation.

9. An estimate of the dollar value of production from government furnished facilities.

10. The basis of setting inter-company prices where affiliates or subsidiaries are not consolidated.

11. If a subcontractor, a list of major customers for renegotiable business and types of products or services furnished to them.

12. A list of principal subcontractors, including suppliers of significant raw materials and subassemblies, and nature and approximate dollar value of items or services (management, engineering, etc.) purchased from each, with comments as to handling, with reference to materials furnished, supervision, inspection and financing.

13. Average number of shifts run; approximate average number of employees; wage increases; labor relations insofar as they may affect costs.

14. Any other matters, with particular reference to those factors set forth in section (a) (4) (A) of the 1943 Act.

Instructions. Since each of the subjects listed above requires developments in some detail for purposes of renegotiation, in order that full value can be given to the contractor's contribution to the conduct of the war, the contractor should give careful consideration to the preparation of his statements relative thereto. While such statements may be amplified at a meeting with representatives of the War Contracts Price Adjustment Board, it is desirable that they be presented in writing before such meeting.

Instructions For Preparation of Exhibits

Exhibit 1

Line 1. Enter as renegotiable business (Column A) the total amount of contractor's net billings on sales directly or indirectly to the War, Navy and Treasury Departments, Maritime Commission, War Shipping Administration, Defense Plant Corporation, Metals Reserve Company, Defense Supplies Corporation and Rubber Reserve Company. All sales, whether subject to OPA regulations, or obtained on competitive bids, or otherwise, should be included as renegotiable if they were under prime (i. e., direct) contracts and purchase orders with one of the above-named Departments or Agencies, with the exception of exempted materials and articles. The term "sales", as noted herein, includes compensation for services rendered as well as for material provided. Sales under subcontracts of any tier, or purchase orders falling within the definition of "subcontracts" should likewise be included in renegotiable business. (See Section D.).

Lines 2, 4, 5 and 6. In allocating costs and expenses between renegotiable and non-renegotiable business, the contractor's cost system, if adequate, should be employed. Otherwise, percentages or other formulae may have to be used, either on individual products or groups of products, or by departments, divisions, etc. Each major item of selling and general expenses should be allocated in accordance with the most equitable method in view of the particular situation. The types of items generally excluded from costs and expenses in renegotiation are:

a. Provision for reserves for contingencies.

b. Provision for reserves for post-war adjustments.

c. Life-insurance premiums not deductible under the Internal Revenue Code.

d. Refundable bond deposits.

e. Discount or premiums on bonds retired.

f. Profit or loss on disposal of capital assets.

g. Provision for future inventory shrinkage.

h. Profit or loss on sale of investments.

i. Depreciation on appreciation of capital assets.

j. Accelerated depreciation, unless entered on company's books and claimed as a deduction for income tax purposes.

k. Any other expenditures which are clearly unwarranted in connection with war business.

l. As fines and penalties are considered to represent a reduction in sales, they are not includable in costs.

Lines 8b, 8c, 11b, and 12b. Amounts representing non-operating expenses and income, which in the light of circumstances are wholly or partially applicable to renegotiable business, should be entered on lines 8b and 8c, respectively. Nonoperating items not applicable to renegotiable business should be entered on lines 11b and 12b. Examples of these are profit and loss on disposal of fixed assets, adjustments applicable to prior years, interest and dividends received, write-off of intangibles, etc.

Line 11a. Enter on this line only the net fees applicable to cost-plus-fixed-fee contracts, and in the space for the Analysis of Cost-Plus-Fixed-Fee Contracts at the bottom of Exhibit 1, the pertinent costs and profit as indicated. These contracts are considered separately for renegotiation purposes. The contractor should also provide any further data in connection with such contracts that may be considered pertinent. The gross sales or billings under contracts of this nature should not be included in Net Sales (line 1).

Other applicable deductions and income (line 20, a to f, inclusive). Significant items should be inserted in the spaces provided. Care should be taken that the allocation of each item between renegotiable and non-renegotiable business be properly made, as the nature of these items may be such that allocation should be made on a basis different from that used for other classes of expense.

Depreciation (line 22, a to d, inclusive). The total amount of depreciation expense (including depletion) should be accumulated under this caption, regardless of the accounts to which it may be charged on the contractor's books.

Other charges (line 29, a, b). The total amount of amortization may be entered on line 29a. Any amortization in excess of the standard 20% rate should be explained. (See Section C.)

TREASURY DEPARTMENT,
WASHINGTON, April 17, 1943.

CHIEF OF ORDNANCE,
War Department,
Washington, D. C.

Attention: Major ROBERT P. DOOLITTLE,
Room 5-D-384,
Pentagon Building.

SIR: Advice has been requested as to the application of I. T. 3577 (IRB 1942 No. 37) in a case where a taxpayer has been granted an extension of time for filing his return; has filed a "tentative return"; and thereafter is preparing to file a complete return on the date due under the extension of time.

A "tentative return" is a procedural device which enables a taxpayer who has secured an extension of time for filing his return, to file on the original due date, an incomplete return which enables the payment on an estimated basis of the installment of tax which is due on such date. Thereafter on or before the date to which the extension is granted the taxpayer is required to file a complete return.

The particular paragraph of I. T. 3577 which is involved in this consideration provides as follows:

"In cases of renegotiation agreements with respect to years for which income and excess profits tax returns have not been filed and income and excess profits taxes not assessed and paid, the reduction in gross income may be made, or the deduction may be taken in computing net income, as the case may be, although the renegotiating agreement has not been completed, provided at the time of filing the return the negotiations have progressed to such a stage that the amount of the reduction in gross income, or the amount of the repayment in lieu thereof, is certain, and in filing the income and excess profits tax return such reduction is made or such deduction is taken."

The complete return is the return referred to in I. T. 3577 and the provisions of I. T. 3577 are unaffected by the fact that a tentative return has previously been filed for the purpose and under the circumstances indicated.

Respectfully,

T. MOONEY,
Deputy Commissioner.

(b) I. T. 3577—Statement of policy of the Bureau of Internal Revenue as to the tax effect in cases in which Government war contracts are renegotiated, or in cases where, pursuant to action by the Comptroller General, an item for which a taxpayer has been reimbursed is disallowed as an item of cost chargeable to a cost-plus-a-fixed-fee contract.

Advice is requested as to the policy of the Bureau of Internal Revenue with respect to the adjustment of income and excess profits taxes in cases in which Government war contracts are renegotiated and it is determined by the renegotiating department or agency that excessive profits have been, or are likely to be, paid to the contractor or subcontractor, and in cases where, pursuant to action by the Comptroller General, an item for which a taxpayer has been reimbursed is disallowed as an item of cost chargeable to a cost-plus-a-fixed-fee contract, the taxpayer being required to repay to the Government the amount of such disallowance.

Under Title IV of the Sixth Supplemental National Defense Appropriation Act, 1942 (Public Law 528, Seventy-seventh Congress, second session), certain Government departments or agencies are authorized and directed to require contractors or subcontractors to renegotiate the contract price with respect to designated contracts and subcontracts in case any amounts of excessive profits have been, or are likely to be, realized therefrom and to recover such excessive profits paid, or to withhold payment if the profits have not been paid.

The determination of the amount of the excessive profits and the making of an agreement with the contractor or subcontractor in regard to the method by which repayment to the Government of the excessive profits is to be effected are matters within the jurisdiction of the particular renegotiating department or agency. The Bureau of Internal Revenue has no authority to function in the determination or collection of these excessive profits. The Bureau, however, upon request of the parties to the renegotiation will advise them of the manner in which the renegotiation will affect the contractor's Federal income and excess profits taxes.

The determination of tax liabilities and the collection thereof are under the administration of the Bureau, together with the making of rulings and closing agreements, under Section 3760 of the Internal Revenue Code, with the taxpayer with respect to either actual tax liability for any taxable year or prospectively with respect to proposed transactions.

In case the renegotiating agreement provides for reduced contract prices to be retroactively applied to prior taxable years for which returns have been filed and the income and excess profits taxes paid or assessed, repayment to the Government of the excessive profits on which such taxes have been paid or assessed will be involved in the settlement. This raises the question, "If the contractor or subcontractor repays the entire amount of such excessive profits to the Government, should the Bureau be required to refund the income and excess profits taxes paid on such excessive profits?" The position of the Bureau is that only the amount of such profits in excess of the Federal income and excess profits taxes paid or assessed thereon should be repaid by the contractor or subcontractor, and no refund or abatement of such taxes should be made, since the taxes should be considered as a recapture of a portion of the excessive profits and as such a proper offset against the total excessive profits. The remainder of the excessive profits would be recaptured through repayment thereof to the Government by the contractor or subcontractor. The repayment should not be allowed as a deduction in the income and excess profits tax returns of the taxpayer for any taxable year. To do so would result in a double tax benefit where the income and excess profits taxes have been offset against the excessive profits. Even though the right to such offset is foregone by the taxpayer and the offset is not made, the repayment should not be allowed as a deduction in the taxpayer's returns, since the taxpayer should not be permitted to forego the right to the offset for the sake of obtaining a deduction for a year for which the deduction will result in a greater tax benefit. This may be illustrated by the following example:

Example. The M Corporation filed a return for the calendar year 1941 on March 15, 1942, reporting therein an amount of $1,000,000, which was subsequently in the year 1942 held by one of the designated renegotiating agencies to be excessive profits realized in performance of a contract, on which excessive profits income and excess profits taxes aggregating $400,000 were paid. The $400,000 taxes should not be refunded and the remainder of the excessive profits, or $600,000, should be repaid by the corporation to the Government. The amount of $600,000 repaid to the Government will not constitute an allowable deduction from gross income for any taxable year. This produces the correct result. Excessive profits, before Federal taxes, of $1,000,000 would have been recaptured by the Government, $400,000 through the medium of taxes and $600,000 by direct repayment to the Government, with no aftermath affecting Federal taxes. To hold otherwise, for instance, to hold that the $1,000,000 should be repaid to the Government and allow such repayment as a deduction for income tax purposes for the year 1942, when the effective rate of tax, for example, is 75 per cent, would produce the following incorrect result: The tax benefit in 1942 would be $750,000. The taxpayer would have paid $1,400,000 to the Government and derived a tax benefit of $750,000. The taxpayer, therefore, would have paid only $650,000 net to the Government, whereas the excessive profits admittedly were $1,000,000. Different results would be obtained in other cases depending upon the factors of income and effective rates of taxes being different from those in this example.

In case the renegotiating agreement determines reduced contract prices to be charged during the year of the agreement or subsequent thereto, or a repayment is to be made in lieu thereof which is not applicable to profits for a year for which an income tax return has been filed, and on which profits income and excess profits taxes have not been assessed or paid, gross income to be reported in the returns for such years should be reduced to conform with the reduced prices, or in case of repayment, a deduction may be taken in computing net income: Provided, Excessive profits determined to have been realized and received by the taxpayer are repaid to the Government. Likewise, in case the reduced contract prices are determined for the immediately preceding taxable year or a repayment is to be made in lieu thereof, and the income and excess profits tax returns for such year have not been filed at the time of such determination, the gross income for such preceding year may be reported to conform with the reduced prices agreed upon, or a deduction may be taken in computing net income, as the case may be: Provided, The taxpayer repays to the Government the excessive profits determined to have been realized. No deduction from gross income will be allowed for any other taxable year for the amount of such excessive profits so repaid. This may be illustrated by the following example:

Example. The X Corporation filed a return for the calendar year 1942 on March 15, 1943. In February, 1943, it was determined that the taxpayer had realized during 1942 excessive profits in the amount of $1,000,000 and the parties agree that during 1943 repayment of such excessive profits will be made to the Government in designated amounts per month until the entire amount of $1,000,000 excessive profits is repaid. The gross income to be reported by the corporation in its return for 1942 should not include the $1,000,000, and no tax attributable to excessive profits will thus be assessed or paid. No deduction from gross income will be allowed for any year for the amount of the excessive profits excluded from gross income and repaid to the Government.

In cases of renegotiation agreements with respect to years for which income and excess profits tax returns have not been filed and income and excess profits taxes not assessed and paid, the reduction in gross income may be made, or the deduction may be taken in computing net income, as the case may be, although the renegotiating agreement has not been completed: Provided, At the time of filing the return the negotiations have progressed to such a stage that the amount of the reduction in gross income, or the amount of the repayment in lieu thereof, is certain, and in filing the income and excess profits tax return such reduction is made or such deduction is taken.

The Bureau, upon request of the parties to the renegotiation, in any case will advise them relative to the amount of excessive profits previously recaptured through the medium of income and excess profits taxes paid thereon.

In addition to the above stated considerations for the basis of the position of the Bureau that refunds of income and excess profits taxes should not be allowed in such cases, it may be stated that if the Bureau should be required to make refunds of the taxes paid on excessive profits repaid to the Government because such excessive profits have been determined before the taxes, instead of after the taxes, entirely ignoring the previous recapture of a portion of the excessive profits through the medium of such taxes, an appropriation from Congress to provide funds for such refunds would be necessary. The estimate of the sum necessary for such purpose logically would be based upon information from the negotiating agencies relative to the income and excess profits taxes paid on the excessive profits recaptured by such agencies without reducing the excessive profits by the amount of such taxes previously paid thereon.

What has been said above applies with equal force to cases involving a cost-plus-a-fixed-fee contract where an item for which the taxpayer has been reimbursed is disallowed as an item of cost chargeable to such contract and the taxpayer is required to repay to the United States the amount disallowed.

(c) I. T. 3611—Section 3806.—Mitigation of Effect of Renegotiation of War Contracts or Disallowance of Reimbursement

INTERNAL REVENUE CODE

Effect for Federal income and excess profits tax purposes of the renegotiation of Government contracts or subcontracts thereunder to eliminate excessive profits for a particular year, and the allowance, in mitigation of the effect of such renegotiation, of a credit against the excessive profits, under section 3806 of the Internal Revenue Code, as added by section 506 of the Revenue Act of 1942, for Federal income and excess profits taxes attributable to such excessive profits. Practice of Bureau (I. T. 3577, C. B. 1942-2, 163) restated.

Advice is requested as to the effect for Federal income and excess profits tax purposes of the renegotiation of Government contracts or subcontracts thereunder to eliminate excessive profits for a particular year, and the allowance, in mitigation of the effect of such renegotiation of a credit against the excessive profits, under section 3806 of the Internal Revenue Code, as added by section 506 of the Revenue Act of 1942, for Federal income and excess profits taxes attributable to such excessive profits.

Under Title IV of the Sixth Supplemental National Defense Appropriation Act of 1942 (Public law 528, Seventy-seventh Congress, second session), as amended by section 801 of the Revenue Act of 1942 (Public law 753, Seventy-seventh Congress, second session), certain Government departments or agencies are authorized and directed to require contractors or subcontractors to renegotiate the contract price with respect to designated contracts and subcontracts in case any amounts of excessive profits have been or are likely to be realized therefrom and recover such excessive profits paid, or to withhold payment if the profits have not been paid.

In case the renegotiating agreement provides that excessive profits have been realized under contracts in effect during prior taxable years for which returns have been filed and the income and excess profits taxes paid or assessed, elimination of the excessive profits on which such taxes have been paid or assessed is involved in the settlement. The question was raised whether the contractor or subcontractor should repay the entire amount of such excessive profits to the Government and the Bureau of Internal Revenue be required to refund the income and excess profits taxes paid on such excessive profits, or whether only the amount of such profits in excess of the Federal income and excess profits taxes paid or assessed thereon should be repaid by the contractor or subcontractor and no refund or abatement of such taxes be made, the taxes being considered as a recapture of a portion of the excessive profits, and as such a proper offset against the total excessive profits, and the remainder of the excessive profits being recaptured through payment thereof to the Government by the contractor or subcontractor. The question was also raised whether the excessive profits eliminated give rise to a deduction in the income and excess profits tax returns of the taxpayer for any other taxable year, since to do so would result in a double tax benefit where the income and excess profits taxes have been offset against the excessive profits. These questions have now been resolved by section 3806 of the Code, as indicated below.

Section 3806 (a) 1 of the Code requires that a payment or repayment within a taxable year ending after December 31, 1941, of excessive profits pursuant to a renegotiation, shall be treated as a reduction of the price of the contracts or subcontracts for the taxable year for which such price was received or accrued. Section 3806 (b) of the Code requires that the decrease in Federal income and excess profits taxes resulting from such contract price reductions be credited against the amount of the excessive profits eliminated through renegotiation. Consequently the taxpayer will, on account of the renegotiation, pay or repay to the United States only the net amount of excessive profits of a prior taxable year which remain after there has been credited against the excessive profits the amount of Federal income and excess profits taxes attributable to such excessive profits. If the amount allowed as such credit against the excessive profits is less than the amount allowable, the difference is to be treated as an overpayment of the tax to be refunded or credited to the taxpayer as provided in section 3806 (c) of the Code. Also, the credit allowed against the amount of excessive profits, for Federal income tax purposes, including computation of post-war refund of excess profits taxes under section 780 of the Code, is treated the same as if such credit were a refund of the taxes forming the basis of the credit.

In view of the provisions of section 3806, it is the opinion of this office that the taxpayer's net income for Federal income and excess profits tax purposes is required to be, in effect, determined upon the basis of, and by giving effect to, the renegotiation. No refund of tax for any taxable year shall include any amount of tax which, pursuant to section 3806 (b), is credited against excessive profits eliminated for such year. However, for the purpose of determining the correct amount of the tax after a renegotiation has been made for a taxable year, the amount credited against the excessive profits eliminated is to be treated as an amount previously credited to the taxpayer in respect of the tax for such year. Also, the amount of the post-war refund, under sections 780 and 781 of the Code, of excess profits tax shall be reduced to reflect the amount of such tax which is credited against the excessive profits eliminated. Furthermore, where excessive profits eliminated and repaid to the Government are treated as a reduction of gross income, the amount of such excessive profits is not an allowable deduction from the gross income of the taxpayer for any taxable year. (See section 3806 (a) (3) of the Code.) This may be illustrated by the following example:

Example. The A Corporation, which makes its income and excess profits tax returns on the calendar year basis, filed its returns for 1942 on March 15, 1943. As a result of a renegotiation consummated on May 1, 1943, it was determined that in 1942 the A Corporation realized excessive profits of $1,000,000 in the performance of its Government contracts. On such amount of $1,000,000, the A Corporation was assessed Federal income and excess profits taxes aggregating $700,000, of which $10,000 represented declared value excess-profits taxes and $270,000 represented excess profits taxes imposed by Subchapter E of Chapter 2 of the Code. Such taxes were credited against the $1,000,000 of excessive profits eliminated for 1942, and on May 1, 1943, the A Corporation paid to the United States the net amount of $300,000 ($1,000,000 less $700,000). The gross income of the A Corporation for 1942 is to be reduced by the $1,000,000 in excessive profits eliminated. The A Corporation is not entitled in computing its net income for 1942 or any subsequent taxable year to deduct any portion of such $1,000,000 excessive profits. No part of the $700,000 Federal income and excess profits taxes shall be refunded or credited to the taxpayer under sections 321 and 322 of the Code. However, for the purpose of determining the correct tax for 1942, the amount of tax shown by the A Corporation on its return for such year shall be decreased by the $700,000 credit allowed against excessive profits. The post-war refund of excess profits tax is reduced by $27,000 (10 percent of $270,000).

In giving effect to the principles applied by section 3806 of the Code in case the renegotiating agreement determines reduced contract prices to be charged during the year of the agreement or subsequent thereto, or a repayment is to be made in lieu thereof which is not applicable to profits for a year for which an income tax return has been filed, and on which profits income and excess profits taxes have not been assessed or paid, the practice of the Bureau has been to permit the taxpayer to reduce the gross income to be reported in the returns for such years to conform with the reduced price or, in case of repayment, to permit a deduction to be taken in computing net income, provided, excessive profits determined to have been realized and received by the taxpayer are repaid to the Government. Likewise, in case the reduced contract prices are determined for the immediately preceding taxable year or a repayment is to be made in lieu thereof, and the completed income and excess profits tax returns for such year have not been filed at the time of such determination, the taxpayer has been permitted to report the gross income for such preceding year to conform with the reduced prices agreed upon or to take a deduction in computing net income, as the case may be, provided the taxpayer repays to the Government the excessive profits determined to have been realized. No deduction from gross income is allowed for any other taxable year for the amount of such excessive profits so repaid. This method of treatment will continue to be followed, subject to the condition that the excessive profits be paid or repaid to the United States or credited against amounts due and payable from the United States, and no deduction from gross income will be allowed for any other taxable year for the amount of such excessive profits so repaid. (See I. T. 3577, C. B. 1942-2, 163.)

The above statements apply with equal force to (1) disallowance of items of cost for which a contractor has been previously reimbursed under a cost-plus-a-fixed-fee contract (see section 3806 (a) 2 of the Code), and (2) contracts involving any renegotiation within the meaning of that term as it is defined in section 3806 (a) 1 (A) of the Code, including, but not limited to, (a) any modification of one or more contracts with the United States or any agency thereof when such modification effects a voluntary elimination of excessive profits (as defined in section 3806 (a) 1 (B) of the Code) for a prior year, or a price reduction made retroactive for a prior year pursuant to express provision for price adjustment contained in the contract, and (b) any agreement with the United States or any agency thereof in respect of one or more such contracts or subcontracts thereunder.

NOTUS AND PAYETTE DIVISIONS, BOISE PROJECT, IDAHO

PUBLIC NOTICE OF ANNUAL WATER RENTAL CHARGES[1]

APRIL 6, 1944.

1. Announcement is hereby made that water will be furnished during the irrigation season of 1944 (April to October, both inclusive), and thereafter until further notice, for the irrigation of project lands hereinafter described, upon a water rental basis at rates and upon terms following:

(a) For the 300 acres of land, or any part thereof, referred to in article 24 of the contract of October 3, 1927, between the United States and the Black Canyon Irrigation District and being in the Notus division of the Boise project the minimum water rental charge for the irrigation season of 1944 and for each irrigation season thereafter until further notice, for water delivered to or for the farms by Government forces, will be four hundred and eighty dollars ($480) per irrigation season, which amount will permit the delivery of not to exceed 900 acre-feet of water. Such amount will be payable by the District in advance of the delivery of water. Additional water for the said part of the Notus division will be furnished during each irrigation season at the rate of seventy cents ($0.70) per acre-foot, and shall be payable by the District to the United States on or before December 31st of each year. Water for these lands of the Notus division will be delivered and measured into the Notus Canal through feeders in Conway Gulch and near Sand Hollow.

(b) For lands served by gravity canals in the Payette division of the Boise project the minimum rental charge for the irrigation season of 1944 and for each season thereafter until further notice, for water delivered to or for the farms by Government forces, will be one dollar and sixty cents ($1.60) per irrigable acre, payable by all landowners to the District and by the District to the United States in advance of the delivery of water, said payment to be made by each landowner for his total irrigable area. The said minimum charge of one dollar and sixty cents ($1.60) per irrigable acre shall be payable whether water is used or not and will entitle the water user to three (3) acre-feet of water per irrigable acre for each irrigation season. Additional water will be furnished during each irrigation season at the rate of seventy cents ($0.70) per acre-foot, and shall be payable by each landowner to the Black Canyon Irrigation District on or before December 30th of each year. Charges for such excess water shall be payable by the District to the United States on or before December 31st of each year: Provided, That, for lands which do not receive water and the owners of which do not pay the minimum charge of one dollar and sixty cents ($1.60) per irrigable acre during the irrigation season 1944 and thereafter, the District shall assess the amount of said minimum charge against such lands during the year for which said charge is made and the amount thereof shall be paid by the District to the United States on or before December 31st of the year following the year during which such assessment is made.

2. Water for Payette division lands will be delivered and measured by Government forces at the nearest available measuring device to the individual farm.

3. If the charges or any part thereof are not paid on or before the due date, there shall be added on the following day a penalty of one-half of one per centum of the amount unpaid, and a like penalty of one-half of one per centum of the amount unpaid on the first day of each calendar month thereafter, so long as such default shall continue.

4. Individual landowners in the Payette division will make their applications for water and the payments required by this public notice direct to their irrigation district office. Applications by the Irrigation District for water and payments by the District to the United States on the basis of this public notice will be received at the office of the Assistant Regional Director, Bureau of Reclamation, Boise, Idaho.

FEDERAL COMMUNICATIONS COMMISSION.

[Docket No. 6586]

GOVERNMENT TELEGRAPH COMMUNICATIONS BETWEEN U. S. AND TURKEY

ORDER OF SUSPENSION AND INVESTIGATION

In the matter of increased charges for Government telegraph communications between the United States and Turkey.

At a session of the Federal Communications Commission held at its offices in Washington, D. C., on the 11th day of April 1944;

It appearing that The Commercial Cable Company, Mackay Radio and Telegraph Company, Inc., and The Western Union Telegraph Company have filed with the Commission tariff schedules, to become effective April 15, 1944, stating new increased charges for United States, British, and Turkish Government telegraph messages from the United States to Turkey via the so-called London-Eastern and London-Wireless routes; said tariff schedules being designated as follows:

The Commercial Cable Company: F. C. C. No. 2; 7th Revised Page 70.

The Western Union Telegraph Company: F. C. C. No. 180; 8th Revised Page 45.

It further appearing that said tariff schedules state increased charges for United States, British, and Turkish Government communications in interstate and foreign commerce; that the rights and interests of the public may be injuriously affected thereby; and it being the opinion of the Commission that the effective date of said schedules, insofar as they relate to increased charges for telegraph communications from the United States to Turkey should be postponed pending hearing and decision on the lawfulness of such increased charges;

It is ordered, That the Commission, upon its own motion, without formal pleading, shall enter upon a hearing concerning the lawfulness of the charges set forth in the above-cited tariff schedules, insofar as such charges relate to United States, British, and Turkish Government telegraph communications from the United States to Turkey;

It is further ordered, That the operation of the above-cited tariff schedules, insofar as they provide for increased charges for and in connection with United States, British, and Turkish Government telegraph communications from the United States to Turkey, be suspended; that the use of the charges therein stated as applicable to such communications be deferred until July 15, 1944, unless otherwise ordered by the Commission; and that during said period of suspension no changes shall be made in such charges or in the charges sought to be altered, unless authorized by special permission of the Commission;

It is further ordered, That an investigation be, and the same is hereby, instituted into the lawfulness of the rates, charges, classifications, regulations, practices, and services of all the United States carriers furnishing telegraph communication service between the United States and Turkey, for and in connection with United States, British, and Turkish Government telegraph communication service between the United States and Turkey;

It is further ordered, That in the event a decision as to the lawfulness of the charges herein suspended has not been made during the suspension period, and said charges shall go into effect, The Commercial Cable Company, Mackay Radio and Telegraph Company, Inc., and The Western Union Telegraph Company, and all other carriers subject to the Commission's jurisdiction participating in the service provided under the tariff provisions herein suspended, shall, until further order of the Commission, each keep accurate account of all amounts charged, collected, or received by reason of any increase in charges effected thereby; that each such carrier shall specify in such accounts by whom and in whose behalf such amounts are paid; and The Commercial Cable Company, Mackay Radio and Telegraph Company, Inc., and The Western Union Telegraph Company, and each of the other participating carriers referred to above shall file with this Commission a report, under oath, on or before the 10th day of each calendar month, commencing August 10, 1944, showing the amounts accounting for as aforesaid during the previous calendar month;

It is further ordered, That a copy of this order shall be filed in the office of the Federal Communications Commission with said tariff schedules herein suspended in part; that The Commercial Cable Company, Mackay Radio and Telegraph Company, Inc., The Western Union Telegraph Company, R. C. A. Communications, Inc., and the said carrier parties to such tariff schedules be, and they are hereby, each made a party respondent to this proceeding; and that copies hereof be served upon each such party respondent, and upon the Office of Price Administration;

It is further ordered, That this proceeding be, and the same is hereby, assigned for hearing beginning at 10:00 a. m. on the 18th day of May, 1944 at the offices of the Federal Communications Commission, in Washington, D. C.

ORDER OF SUSPENSION AND INVESTIGATION

In the matter of increased charges for Government telegraph communications between the United States and Turkey.

At a session of the Federal Communications Commission held at its offices in Washington, D. C., on the 11th day of April 1944;

It appearing that The Commercial Cable Company, Mackay Radio and Telegraph Company, Inc., and The Western Union Telegraph Company have filed with the Commission tariff schedules, to become effective April 15, 1944, stating new increased charges for United States, British, and Turkish Government telegraph messages from the United States to Turkey via the so-called London-Eastern and London-Wireless routes; said tariff schedules being designated as follows:

The Commercial Cable Company: F. C. C. No. 2: 7th Revised Page 70.

The Western Union Telegraph Company: F. C. C. No. 180: 8th Revised Page 45.

It further appearing that said tariff schedules state increased charges for United States, British, and Turkish Government communications in interstate and foreign commerce; that the rights and interests of the public may be injuriously affected thereby; and it being the opinion of the Commission that the effective date of said schedules, insofar as they relate to increased charges for telegraph communications from the United States to Turkey should be postponed pending hearing and decision on the lawfulness of such increased charges;

It is further ordered, That the operation of the above-cited tariff schedules, insofar as they provide for increased charges for and in connection with United States, British, and Turkish Government telegraph communications from the United States to Turkey, be suspended; that the use of the charges therein stated as applicable to such communications be deferred until July 15, 1944, unless otherwise ordered by the Commission; and that during said period of suspension no changes shall be made in such charges or in the charges sought to be altered, unless authorized by special permission of the Commission;

It is further ordered, That an investigation be, and the same is hereby, instituted into the lawfulness of the rates, charges, classifications, regulations, practices, and services of all the United States carriers furnishing telegraph communication service between the United States and Turkey, for and in connection with United States, British, and Turkish Government telegraph communication service between the United States and Turkey;

It is further ordered, That in the event a decision as to the lawfulness of the charges herein suspended has not been made during the suspension period, and said charges shall go into effect, The Commercial Cable Company, Mackay Radio and Telegraph Company, Inc., and The Western Union Telegraph Company, and all other carriers subject to the Commission's jurisdiction participating in the service provided under the tariff provisions herein suspended, shall, until further order of the Commission, each keep accurate account of all amounts charged, collected, or received by reason of any increase in charges effected thereby; that each such carrier shall specify in such accounts by whom and in whose behalf such amounts are paid; and The Commercial Cable Company, Mackay Radio and Telegraph Company, Inc., and The Western Union Telegraph Company, and each of the other participating carriers referred to above shall file with this Commission a report, under oath, on or before the 10th day of each calendar month, commencing August 10, 1944, showing the amounts accounting for as aforesaid during the previous calendar month;

It is further ordered, That a copy of this order shall be filed in the office of the Federal Communications Commission with said tariff schedules herein suspended in part; that The Commercial Cable Company, Mackay Radio and Telegraph Company, Inc., The Western Union Telegraph Company, R. C. A. Communications, Inc., and the said carrier parties to such tariff schedules be, and they are hereby, each made a party respondent to this proceeding; and that copies hereof be served upon each such party respondent, and upon the Office of Price Administration;

It is further ordered, That this proceeding be, and the same is hereby, assigned for hearing beginning at 10:00 a. m. on the 16th day of May, 1944 at the offices of the Federal Communications Commission, in Washington, D. C.

[MPR 193, Order 6]

AMERICAN DISTILLING CO.

ESTABLISHMENT OF CEILING PRICES FOR DOMESTIC DISTILLED SPIRITS

For the reasons set forth in an opinion issued simultaneously herewith and in accordance with § 1430.13 (c) of Maximum Price Regulation 193 and § 1499.3 (b) (3) of the General Maximum Price Regulation, it is ordered that:

SECTION 1. Explanation of this order—(a) Purpose. This order is issued to establish (where necessary) and to gather into a single document the most important provisions relative to ceiling prices of sellers of certain packaged whiskey to be sold under the brand names "Privilege" and "Prerogative" as the result of a transfer of whiskey by The American Distilling Company (a Maryland corporation) to Gilbert B. Geiger, Trustee under Trust Indenture dated December 11, 1943; to establish ceiling prices for "clearing" that whiskey ("clearing" being defined in section 10 of this order); to require certain sellers of that whiskey to make reports to the Office of Price Administration, and to afford a convenient means of directing attention to and giving notice of those ceiling prices and requirements.

(b) Certain definitions. "Trustee" as used in this order means Gilbert B. Geiger as Trustee under Trust Indenture made and executed December 11, 1943 by The American Distilling Company (a Maryland corporation) and includes his successors in trust.

"Privilege Whiskey" as used in this order means a blend of straight whiskeys 80.6° proof, 25% straight whiskey four years old, 27% straight whiskey three years old, and 48% straight whiskey two years old, in packages each containing 4/5 quart thereof, bearing the brand name "Privilege" on their front labels. A case of that whiskey means twelve of such packages in an individual shipping container.

"Prerogative Whiskey" as used in this order means rye or bourbon whiskey 100° proof, bottled in bond, in packages each containing one quart thereof and bearing the brand name "Prerogative" on their front labels. A case of that whiskey means twelve of such packages in an individual shipping container.

"Price" as used in this order means the consideration requested or received in connection with the sale of merchandise or supplying of a service.

"Ceiling price" as used in this order means the highest price that may be charged, demanded, paid or received.

(c) April 1, 1944 increase in Federal excise taxes. The ceiling prices provided in sections 2 through 6 of this order include Federal excise taxes at rates in effect prior to April 1, 1944. On that date the Federal excise tax applicable to "Privilege" whiskey increases $5.83 per case and the tax applicable to "Prerogative" increases $9.00 per case. By the use of footnotes provision is made in this order for adding the April 1, 1944 Federal excise tax increase to ceiling prices on all whiskey with respect to which the seller pays the increase. A seller may add only the exact amount of that tax increase applicable without markup thereon or other addition thereto. On and after April 1, 1944 every seller must state on each invoice to any customer that the prices in the invoice include the increase effective April 1, 1944 in United States excise taxes and that no markup may be applied to the amount thereof. A statement in substantially the following language upon the face of the invoice shall be deemed compliance with this provision:

> Our invoice prices include the increase effective April 1, 1944 in United States excise taxes. OPA regulations prohibit a markup on the amount thereof.

SEC. 2. Ceiling prices for sales of "Privilege" and "Prerogative" whiskey by special sellers. "Special seller" means a person (regardless of whether a stockholder of The American Distilling Company) not customarily engaged in the business of buying and selling distilled spirits as a wholesaler, retailer, primary distributing agent or monopoly state, who sells or offers for sale "Privilege" or "Prerogative" whiskey in accordance with a special license or permit authorizing him to receive and dispose of that whiskey issued under applicable state laws or regulations. It also includes a person who sells or offers to sell such whiskey without license or permit.

(a) Prices. The ceiling prices of a special seller for a sale of "Privilege" or "Prerogative" whiskey shall be as follows:

(1) Sales to wholesalers and monopoly states. Ceiling prices per case f. o. b. special seller's shipping point are the total of the following:

(i) $15.17 [1] per case of "Privilege" or $23.25 [2] per case of "Prerogative" whiskey; plus

(ii) Freight per case from the bottling plant to the special seller's receiving point paid by him with respect to the whiskey being priced; plus

(iii) Applicable state and local excise taxes imposed on and paid by the special seller with respect to the whiskey being priced.

(2) Sales to retailers and to all other persons except wholesalers and monopoly states. Ceiling prices per case f. o. b. special seller's shipping point are the total of the following:

(i) $15.17 per case of "Privilege" or $23.25 per case of "Prerogative" whiskey; plus

(ii) Freight per case from the bottling plant to the special seller's receiving point paid by him with respect to the whiskey being priced; plus

(iii) Applicable state and local excise taxes at rates in effect on November 2, 1942 imposed on and paid by the special seller with respect to the whiskey being priced; plus

(iv) 15% of the total of (i), (ii) and (iii) immediately above; [3] plus

(v) The applicable amount of any new state or local excise tax first imposed by statute effective after November 2, 1942 and the applicable amount of any increase effective after November 2, 1942 in state or local excise taxes on that date, imposed on and paid by the special seller with respect to the whiskey being priced.

(3) Sales of individual packages. A special seller's ceiling price for sales of one or more individual packages of "Privilege" or "Prerogative" whiskey to a purchaser of any class shall be one-twelfth of his ceiling price per case to a purchaser of that class, multiplied by the number of individual packages being priced.

(b) Reports. A special seller selling or transferring (by gift or otherwise) any "Privilege" or "Prerogative" whiskey shall file a report of the sale or transfer with the District Office of the Office of Price Administration having jurisdiction over the territory in which he resides. The report shall be in writing, signed by the special seller, shall be filed within five days after the sale or transfer has been made and shall contain statements showing:

(1) The name and address of the special seller filing the report.

(2) The name and address of the buyer or transferee.

(3) The date of the sale or transfer.

(4) The quantity (in terms of cases) of each brand of the whiskey sold or transferred in the transaction reported.

(5) The special seller's ceiling price for the sale or transfer of the whiskey described in the report and his computation thereof.

(6) The total price which the buyer paid or contracted to pay for each brand of the whiskey sold or transferred, or if the transfer was made as a gift, a statement to that effect.

(7) The amount of all clearance charges which the special seller has paid with respect to the quantity of whiskey described in the report and the name and address of the persons to whom they were paid.

(8) Whether to the knowledge of the special seller, the buyer or transferee has paid or contracted to pay any commission, brokerage or fee in connection with the sale or transfer reported, and if known to the special seller, the amount thereof and the name and address of each person to whom payment thereof is to be or has been made. If the special seller has no knowledge of such commission, brokerage or fee which the buyer paid or contracted to pay, the report shall so state.

[1] $5.83 may be added to this amount if the April 1, 1944 increase in Federal excise tax is paid with respect to the whiskey being priced.

[2] $9.00 may be added to this amount if the April 1, 1944 increase in Federal excise tax is paid with respect to the whiskey being priced.

[3] For "Privilege" $5.83, and for "Prerogative" $9.00 may be added to this resulting amount if the April 1, 1944 increase in Federal excise tax is paid with respect to the whiskey being priced.

The report required by this paragraph need not be filed if the quantity of such whiskey sold or transferred by the special seller to the buyer or transferee (in all transactions with that buyer or transferee) totals less than one case.

SEC. 3. Ceiling prices for sales of "Privilege" and "Prerogative" whiskey by wholesalers—(a) Initial ceiling prices. The ceiling prices of a wholesaler for sales of "Privilege" or "Prerogative" whiskey to customers of a particular class shall be the appropriate amounts [4] determined in accordance with section 5.4 (b) of Maximum Price Regulation 445 using $15.17 per case for "Privilege" and $23.25 per case for "Prerogative" whiskey, respectively, as his supplier's selling price (exclusive of state or local excise taxes) for purposes of determining his net cost for such whiskey he purchases from the trustee.

(b) Changes in ceiling prices. Wholesalers who receive purchases of either "Privilege" or "Prerogative" whiskey after receipt of their first purchase thereof from any seller shall refigure their ceiling prices for the particular brand, and such refigured ceiling prices [4] shall become their ceiling prices therefor, all as provided in section 5.4 (c) of Maximum Price Regulation 445. For purposes of refiguring ceiling prices, any purchase of "Privilege" or "Prerogative" whiskey, but no purchase of any whiskey of a different brand name shall be deemed a "base purchase" thereof within the meaning of that section.

SEC. 4. Ceiling prices for sales of "Privilege" and "Prerogative" whiskey by monopoly states—(a) Initial ceiling prices. The initial ceiling prices of a monopoly state for sales of "Privilege" or "Prerogative" whiskey to customers of a particular class shall be the appropriate amounts [4] determined in accordance with section 5.6 (b) of Maximum Price Regulation 445, using $15.17 per case for "Privilege" and $23.25 per case for "Prerogative" whiskey, respectively, as its supplier's selling price (exclusive of state excise taxes) for purposes of determining its net cost for such whiskey it purchases from the Trustee.

(b) Changes in ceiling prices. Monopoly states who receive purchases of either "Privilege" or "Prerogative" whiskey after receipt of their first purchases thereof from any seller shall refigure their ceiling prices for the particular brand, and such refigured ceiling prices [4] shall become their ceiling prices therefor, all as provided in section 5.6 (c) of Maximum Price Regulation 445. For purposes of refiguring ceiling prices, any purchase of "Privilege" or "Prerogative" whiskey, but no purchase of any whiskey of a different brand name, shall be deemed a "base purchase" thereof within the meaning of that section.

SEC. 5. Ceiling prices for sales of "Privilege" and "Prerogative" whiskey by retailers—(a) Prices. The ceiling prices of a retailer for sales of "Privilege" or "Prerogative" whiskey per case shall be as follows:

(1) Sales to consumers—(i) Initial ceiling prices. The initial ceiling prices of a retailer for sales of "Privilege" or "Prerogative" whiskey to customers of a particular class shall be the appropriate amounts [4] determined in accordance with section 5.5 (b) of Maximum Price Regulation 445 using $15.17 per case for "Privilege" and $23.25 per case for "Prerogative" whiskey, respectively, as his supplier's selling price (exclusive of state and local excise taxes) for purposes of determining his net cost for such whiskey he purchases from the Trustee.

(ii) Changes in ceiling prices. Retailers who receive a purchase of either "Privilege" or "Prerogative" whiskey after receipt of their first purchase thereof from any seller shall refigure their ceiling prices for the particular brand, and such refigured ceiling prices [4] shall become their ceiling prices for "Privilege" or "Prerogative" whiskey, respectively, all as provided in section 5.5 (c) of Maximum Price Regulation 445, except that a retailer shall use his "running weighted average net cost" instead of his "net cost for his most recent purchase" in determining his refigured ceiling prices for that whiskey. For purposes of refiguring ceiling prices, any purchase of "Privilege" or "Prerogative" whiskey, but no purchase of any whiskey of a different brand name, shall be deemed a "base purchase" thereof within the meaning of that section.

A retailer's "running weighted average net cost" means the amount obtained by:

(a) Determining his net cost exclusive of the April 1, 1944 increase in Federal excise tax for each case of "Privilege" or "Prerogative" whiskey, respectively, in his stock on the date of his computation. If the retailer has received two or more shipments of the whiskey to be priced (exclusive of his most recent shipment) he shall use as his net cost for any of that whiskey remaining in his stock on the date of computation, his most recent running average weighted net cost for that whiskey.

(b) Adding together the resulting figures obtained at (a); and

(c) Dividing the sum obtained at (b) by the total number of cases of "Privilege" or "Prerogative" whiskey, respectively, he has in his stock.

(2) Sales to wholesalers, monopoly states and other retailers. The ceiling price of a retailer for sales of "Privilege" or "Prerogative" whiskey to wholesalers, monopoly states and other retailers shall be his "running weighted average net cost" [4] for "Privilege" or "Prerogative" whiskey, respectively, at the date of sale.

(b) Records. Any retailer selling "Privilege" or "Prerogative" whiskey shall, for so long as the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942 remains in effect, keep available for inspection by the Office of Price Administration, records of the same kind as he customarily keeps and in addition thereto (unless his customary records so show) records showing separately for "Privilege" and "Prerogative" whiskey the date of each of his purchases of such whiskey, the name and address of the seller, the number of cases purchased, his net cost for the purchase and his computations of his running weighted average net cost for that whiskey.

SEC. 6. Ceiling prices for sales of packaged domestic whiskey by the Trustee. The appropriate ceiling prices [4] provided by Appendix E, Article III, Maximum Price Regulation 445, are and shall be applicable to all sales of "Privilege" or "Prerogative" whiskey by the Trustee.

SEC. 7. Persons unable to determine ceiling prices. A person who cannot determine his ceiling price for a particular sale of "Privilege" or "Prerogative" whiskey under other provisions of this order shall apply by letter to the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., requesting that a ceiling price be established for that sale. The letter shall contain statements setting forth:

(1) The name and address of the person making application.

(2) The quantity and brand name of the whiskey to be sold.

(3) The reason why a ceiling price for the sale cannot be determined under other provisions of this order.

After receipt of the application, the Office of Price Administration will by order authorize a ceiling price for the applicant or for sellers of the whiskey generally including purchasers for resale, or for a class of such sellers. Until a ceiling price is authorized, the applicant may make the sale and deliver the whiskey but he may not receive any payment for it.

SEC. 8. Reports by the Trustee—Trustee's report of sales of "Privilege" and "Prerogative" whiskey. Within 15 days after his first shipment of "Privilege" or "Prerogative" whiskey pursuant to any purchase, and bi-monthly thereafter, until 15 days after his last shipment, the Trustee shall report all his shipments of "Privilege" and "Prerogative" whiskey during the preceding period to the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C. Such reports shall be in writing, signed by the Trustee and shall contain statements showing, with respect to each shipment:

(1) The name and address of the purchaser.

(2) The name and address of the consignee.

(3) The date on which shipment was made.

(4) The quantity (in cases) of each brand of whiskey.

SEC. 9. Notice of this order to be given by the Trustee. At or prior to his first shipment of any "Privilege" or "Prerogative" whiskey pursuant to a particular purchase order, and to a particular consignee, the Trustee shall notify the purchaser (and the consignee if he be a person other than the purchaser) of the provisions of this order, by delivering or mailing a copy thereof to such persons. Only one such notice need be given to a particular purchaser or consignee.

SEC. 10. Ceiling prices for clearing—(a) Prices. Ceiling prices for clearing "Privilege" and "Prerogative" whiskey shall be as follows:

(1) Clearing by wholesalers or retailers. A wholesaler's or retailer's ceiling price for clearing "Privilege" or "Prerogative" whiskey shall be $1.00 per case.

shall be the amount produced by subtracting from $15.17 per case for "Privilege" or $22.25 per case for "Prerogative" whiskey the sums of $3.91 or $6.00 respectively, and multiplying the resulting figure by the highest percentage in use during March 1942 for the monopoly state's sales of domestic whiskey to a customer of the same class as the purchaser, according to the statute, ordinance or regulation then prescribing its markup.

(2) Prohibition. No consideration or markup in excess of the appropriate amounts stated in subparagraphs (1) and (2) of this paragraph may be charged, received or paid for clearing.

(b) No charge for clearing in certain instances. No wholesaler, retailer or monopoly state purchasing "Privilege" or "Prerogative" whiskey which he has cleared shall charge, or retain a payment previously received for clearing the whiskey so purchased. If a clearing charge has been made or received by the purchasing wholesaler, retailer or monopoly state with respect to the whiskey so purchased, such charge shall be cancelled, or if paid, shall be refunded to the seller or his nominee.

"Clearing" means the service performed by a wholesaler, retailer or monopoly state in receiving "Privilege" or "Prerogative" whiskey sold by the Trustee to a person exercising an option to purchase that whiskey under the Trust Indenture under which the Trustee acts, and delivering the whiskey to or for the account of that person, his nominee or his successor in interest. The term also includes handling incident to receipt and delivery. Receiving and delivering such whiskey as a nominal purchaser, for accommodation of another, shall be deemed "clearing."

SEC. 11. License, brokerage and other fees. No person may add to or increase his ceiling prices for "Privilege" or "Prerogative" whiskey provided in this order, because of any sum paid for licenses, permits, clearing service, brokerage, finder's fees, shares of stock, stock transfer taxes, assignments of purchase privileges or orders or for other expense not specifically provided for under sections 2 through 6 of this order.

SEC. 12. Terms of sale. If a seller directly or indirectly requires a purchaser to make or furnish any payment in advance of delivery of "Privilege" or "Prerogative" whiskey, or the rendition of a service for which a ceiling price is established by this order, whether to the seller or to another person, the seller's ceiling price for that whiskey or service shall be reduced by an amount equal to interest at the rate of 6% per annum on the amount of the advance payment from the date the payment is made to the date on which the item is delivered or the service supplied, or the payment is refunded to the purchaser.

SEC. 13. Miscellaneous. (a) To the extent consistent with this order, the appropriate provisions of Maximum Price Regulation 445 are incorporated herein and shall apply to sales of "Privilege" and "Prerogative" whiskey by the sellers described herein.

(b) The provisions of this order shall not operate to make lawful or to permit any sale or transfer, or handling or dealing in "Privilege" or "Prerogative" whiskey otherwise prohibited or controlled by Federal, state or local laws, ordinances or regulations, and shall not be deemed a recognition of the validity of the Trust Indenture under which the Trustee acts, or a determination of his relationship to The American Distilling Company.

(c) This order may be revoked or amended by the Price Administrator at any time.

This order shall become effective April 17, 1944.

NOTE: All reporting and record-keeping requirements of this order have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget, in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

TITLE 10—ARMY: WAR DEPARTMENT

Chapter III—Claims and Accounts

PART 36—CLAIMS AGAINST THE UNITED STATES

MUSTERING-OUT PAYMENTS

Section 36.75 is added as follows:

§ 36.75 Claims of surviving spouse, child or children, or parents for mustering-out payment—(a) General. (1) The Mustering-Out Payment Act of 1944, Public Law 225—78th Congress, provides for payment of a mustering-out payment to each member of the armed forces who shall have been engaged in active service in the present war, and who is discharged or relieved from active service under honorable conditions on or after 7 December 1941, with certain exceptions stated in the Act.

(2) If any member of the armed forces, after his discharge or relief from active service, dies before receiving any portion or the full amount of his mustering-out payment, the balance of the amount due him will be payable, on appropriate application therefor, to the surviving spouse, if any; and if there is no surviving spouse, then in equal shares to his child or children, if any; and if there is no surviving spouse, child or children, then in equal shares to the surviving parents, if any. Mustering-out payment will not be made to any person other than the surviving spouse, child or children, or parents in the order stated. The term "spouse" means a lawful wife or husband. The term "child" includes a legitimate child; a child legally adopted; and a stepchild, if, at the time of death of the member of the armed forces, such stepchild was a member of the deceased's household. The term "parent" includes father and mother, stepfather and stepmother, and father and mother through adoption.

(b) Payments to survivors—(1) General—(i) By whom made. All mustering-out payments to survivors will be made by the Finance Officer, U. S. Army, Washington 25, D. C.

(ii) Necessity for application. No mustering-out payment shall be made to any survivor without an appropriate written application therefor.

(iii) Definition of "balance of amount due". The words, "balance of amount due," contained in section 4 of the above-mentioned act shall be construed to mean the full sum remaining unpaid to the veteran at the time of his death, and such sum shall be payable to a qualified survivor in a lump sum and not on an installment basis. For example, if a veteran entitled to a mustering-out payment of $300 shall die after receipt of the initial installment of $100, the sum of $200 shall be payable immediately to the qualified survivor.

(iv) Payments to personal representatives not authorized. No mustering-out payment shall be made to the executor, administrator, or other person representing the veteran or any survivor, except as provided in subdivision (v) of this subparagraph.

(v) Payments to guardians and committees of survivors. Where a survivor otherwise entitled to mustering-out payment is prevented from applying for and/or receiving such payment because of minority or mental incompetency, an application may be received from and payment made to the guardian or committee of such survivor. In such case, the check covering the payment will name the payee thereof as follows: "Richard Roe, Guardian for John Doe," or "Richard Roe, Committee for John Doe," as appropriate. All mustering-out payments to the guardians and committees of survivors will be made by the Finance Officer, U. S. Army, Washington 25, D. C.

(2) Payments to a spouse. Mustering-out payment shall be made to the spouse of a deceased veteran who is otherwise entitled thereto only if such spouse shall have survived the veteran, and have submitted an appropriate application therefor.

(3) Payments to a child or children. Mustering-out payment shall be made to the child (or children) of a deceased veteran who is otherwise entitled thereto, only if such child (or children) shall have survived the veteran, have submitted an appropriate application therefor, and the veteran shall not have been survived by a spouse.

(4) Payment to a parent or parents. (i) The word "parents" as used in section 4 of the act shall be construed to mean either the sole surviving parent or the surviving parents of the deceased veteran. Mustering-out payment shall be made to the parent (or parents) of a deceased veteran who is otherwise entitled thereto, only if such parent (or parents) shall have survived the veteran, have submitted an appropriate application therefor, the veteran shall not have been survived by a spouse, and the veteran shall not have been survived by a child (or children).

(ii) Natural parents of the veteran are not entitled to mustering-out payments where the veteran had been legally adopted to his death. Payments may be made by the designated disbursing officer to natural parents, step-parents where natural parents are deceased, and to adoptive parents even though natural parents may be living, if otherwise entitled thereto. Where payments to two parents are to be made, separate checks will be drawn in favor of each parent, or the guardian or committee of such parent, if appropriate.

(iii) Persons who stood in loco parentis to the deceased veteran are not entitled to mustering-out payment. (Act of 3 February 1944, Public Law 225—78th Congress) [Pars. 1 and 6, W. D. Cir. 50, 4 February 1944, and Par. 4, W.D. Cir. 138, 11 April 1944]

Chapter VIII—Foreign Economic Administration

Subchapter B—Export Control

[Amdt. 161]

PART 811—BLANKET LICENSE "BLT"

Subchapter B—Export Control is hereby amended by adding thereto Part 811 as follows:

§ 811.1 Definitions. When used in this part:

(a) "Blanket license" shall mean a document issued by the Requirements and Supply Branch authorizing the exportation by the licensee of the commodities described in such document to two or more consignees or purchasers in a single country.

§ 811.2 General provisions. (a) Applications for blanket licenses shall be made on the form or forms and in the manner prescribed by the Requirements and Supply Branch. Each application for such a license shall bear the following legend:

Application is hereby made to permit the applicant named above to export from the United States to the purchasers and consignees designated on the attached list the articles and materials described, in the quantity given: Provided That the aggregate quantity of all such exports to the purchasers and consignees named therein does not exceed the total quantity for which the license is granted. This will certify that we have firm orders on hand from the purchasers listed at least equal to the quantity applied for on this license.

(b) When an application for blanket license is submitted, permission to export to one or more of the consignees and purchasers named may be refused by blocking out the name of the consignee and purchaser with respect to whom the application has been denied. In such case the license shall be valid only for shipments to the remaining approved consignees and purchasers.

(c) When duly validated or approved by the Requirements and Supply Branch, a blanket license authorizes the exportation to any of the consignees and purchasers named therein, or in a list attached and made a part thereof, the commodity or commodities therein described, provided that the aggregate quantity of all exports under such license to the consignees and purchasers named therein, or in a list made a part thereof, does not exceed the total quantity for which the license has been granted. Such exportation shall be permitted notwithstanding any conflicting provisions in the terms, conditions or provisions of the form on which the application for a blanket license has been made.

(d) Insofar as consistent with the provisions of this part, all of the provisions of Part 804—Individual Licenses, shall apply equally to applications filed for blanket licenses and blanket licenses issued under the provisions of this Part.

(e) A person exporting any commodity pursuant to any blanket license shall enter the symbol "BLT" and the number of the license on each Shipper's Export Declaration filed with the United States Collector of Customs at the port of exit or with the United States Postmaster at the place of mailing at the time of each exportation under such license.

(f) The blanket license procedure shall apply only to the following commodities for export to destinations in general license country group V, as set forth in § 802.3 (a) of this Subchapter.

PART 1010—SUSPENSION ORDERS

[Suspension Order S-487, Amdt. 1]

SUGARMAN-MOORE CO., INC.

Sugarman-Moore Company, Inc. has appealed from the suspension order upon the grounds of hardship. The Chief Compliance Commissioner has reviewed the case, and has concluded that undue hardship will result unless the suspension order is modified. He therefore, on April 11, 1944, directed that the suspension order be amended to expire on April 17, 1944, instead of May 17, 1944.

In view of the foregoing, it is hereby ordered, that § 1010.487 Suspension Order S-487, issued February 10, 1944, be, and hereby is, amended by the substitution of the following paragraph (d) for the present paragraph (d):

(d) This order shall take effect on February 17, 1944, and shall expire on April 17, 1944.

PART 1075—CONSTRUCTION

[Conservation Order L-41 as Amended Apr. 19, 1944]

§ 1075.1 Conservation Order L-41—(a) What this order does. This order limits construction. It is necessary in order to conserve materials, construction equipment, labor and transportation. In most cases, except where the construction is of a special kind, you must get permission from the War Production Board for construction. This permission (sometimes called "authorization to begin construction") must not be confused with preference ratings or priorities. If a construction job is allowed, either because it is not of the kind restricted by this order or because permission has been obtained, it may still be necessary to get preference ratings for the materials and fixtures which are needed. On the other hand, if you have ratings for materials, or materials on hand, you may still have to get permission to use them for a particular construction job.

(b) What is meant by construction. Construction covered by this order includes putting up or altering any sort of a structure, including a building, road, bridge, dam, sewer, and similar jobs; also the installing of equipment or fixtures. Certain special kinds of construction are excepted, as explained in paragraphs (c) and (d) below.

(c) How much construction is allowed without getting permission. You need not get permission under this order for construction which does not total more than the limits shown in the following list for all jobs begun in the same year. For an explanation of how to figure "cost," see paragraph (i). If a utility connection will be required (electricity, gas, water, steam or telephone), it may be necessary to get War Production Board approval for the connection. If so, approval for the connection must be obtained before beginning construction, even if the cost of construction comes within the limits. The limits for all jobs begun in the same year are as follows:

(1) $200 for a house, including the entire residential property.

(2) $1,000 for a farm including the farm houses. However not more than $200 of this sum may be spent on any farm house on the farm. A "farm" means a place used primarily for raising crops, livestock, dairy products, poultry, etc., for the market.

(3) $1,000 for a hotel, apartment building or other residence for six or more families. Any residence for five or less families is considered a house under (1) above.

(4) $200 for an office, bank, store, laundry, garage, restaurant, or other retail service establishment, except that the limit is $1,000 for a unit containing more than five establishments of this kind.

(5) $1,000 for a church, hospital, school, college, public playground for children, or for a publicly owned building or group of buildings used for public purposes.

(6) $1,000 for a bridge, overpass, underpass, tunnel, dock, pier, airport, bus terminal or for a railroad or street railway building or group of buildings.

(7) $1,000 for an irrigation or drainage system serving more than one farm.

(8) $1,000 for a building or group of buildings which will be used for warehouse or for off-farm storage purposes.

(9) $1,000 for all monuments and structures on the same cemetery lot or for all cemetery buildings or structures in the same cemetery.

(10) $1,000 for a military exchange situated on a reservation of the Army or Navy.

(11) $1,000 for a building or group of buildings which will be used directly in furnishing any of the electric, gas, water or heating utility services listed in paragraph (a) (1) of Order U-1, and which will be owned by a utility producer as defined in that paragraph, or which will be used directly in furnishing communication services and which will be owned by an operator as defined in paragraph (a) (1) of Order U-2, or in paragraph (a) (1) of Order U-6, or which will be used directly for a sewage system and owned by a sewage system operator as defined in Order P-141.

(12) $5,000 for a factory, plant or other industrial unit which is used for the manufacture, processing or assembling of any goods, except that the limit is $200 if the goods are listed on Schedule A at the end of this order or if the productive floor area of the unit upon completion of construction is less than 10,000 square feet.

(13) $200 for any other kind of construction.

(d) Special kinds of construction which do not require permission. It is not necessary to get War Production Board permission under this order for the following kinds of construction, and the cost of such construction need not be charged against the cost limits stated in paragraph (c).

(1) Maintenance and repair; that is, work necessary to keep a building or structure in sound working condition or fix it when it has become unsafe or unfit for service because of wear and tear; also the minimum work necessary to prevent more damage to a building or structure (or its contents) which has been damaged by fire, flood, tornado, earthquake, acts of war, or the like. Changes in material are permitted in doing maintenance and repair work. Additions, structural alterations, or the completion of unfinished parts of buildings are not considered maintenance and repair. Rebuilding or restoring after damage caused by fire, flood, tornado, earthquake, acts of war, or the like, is not permitted as maintenance and repair, but is permitted in some cases as explained below.

(2) The rebuilding or restoring of a house (including a farm house) or other residential building damaged or destroyed after July 1, 1943, by fire, flood, tornado, earthquake, acts of war, or the like, if the cost of rebuilding or restoring is less than $5,000.

(3) The rebuilding or restoring of farm buildings damaged or destroyed by fire, flood, tornado, earthquake, acts of war, or the like, if the cost of rebuilding or restoring is less than $5,000, where the immediate reconstruction is determined by the United States Department of Agriculture to be essential to the agricultural program.

(4) The rebuilding or restoring of a building or structure damaged or destroyed by disaster, where the Red Cross has been given priority assistance to restore the disaster area, and where the rebuilding or restoring has been determined by the Red Cross to be essential.

(5) Construction necessary to prevent threatened loss of farm products, where immediate construction is determined by the United States Department of Agriculture to be essential to the agricultural program.

(6) Construction owned by the United States Army, Navy, Maritime Commission, War Shipping Administration, Coast Guard, Marine Corps, Civil Aeronautics Authority, Coast and Geodetic Survey, or Panama Canal.

(7) Insulating buildings with materials such as storm windows and doors, pipe covering, loose fill, blanket or bat insulation, plain or granule surfaced rigid insulation, and weather stripping.

(8) [Deleted Mar. 7, 1944]

(9) Grading, ditch-digging or similar earth-moving operations, if no cement, lumber or other building materials are used, except clay tile and non-reinforced concrete pipe.

(10) Various kinds of construction connected with farms, public roads, railroad tracks, utilities, mines, smelters, wells, the petroleum industry, the lumber industry, the chemical industry, steel mills, broadcasting facilities and laboratories, as described in Schedule B.

(11) A construction job which began before this order originally became effective (April 9, 1942), or at a time when the job was not limited by this order, and has gone on without interruption.

(12) Construction jobs which are classed as minor capital additions under CMP Regulation No. 5 or under CMP Regulation No. 5A. This exception applies only to:

(i) Additions to factories, plants and other industrial units which will have a productive floor area of 10,000 square feet or more, and which are for the manufacturing, processing or assembling of goods which are not listed in Schedule A.

(ii) Hospitals.

(e) All other construction forbidden without WPB permission. No person shall do any construction which has not been permitted by the War Production Board, unless it is of a kind described in paragraph (c) or (d) above. This prohibition applies to a person who does his own construction work, to one who gets a contractor to do it for him, and to any contractor or subcontractor who works on the job or gets others to work on it. It also applies to any supplier who furnishes material for the job if he knows or has reason to know that the construction has not been permitted.

(f) How to apply for permission. (1) Schedule C at the end of this order shows the various types of application forms, and where they should be filed.

(2) In case of emergency, application may be made by wire or in person instead of on a printed form. It must be made to the office in which a written application for the same construction should be filed. The following information must be given:

(i) Cause of the emergency (fire, flood, etc.).

(ii) What the building or structure is used for.

(iii) Type of construction.

(iv) Why immediate construction is necessary.

(v) Estimated cost of construction.

(g) Preference rating includes permission in some cases only. There are some forms of preference rating orders and certificates which are issued or have been issued for special kinds of construction and which include permission for construction although they do not say so. These are listed in Schedule D at the end of this order. In all other cases, a preference rating is not enough, unless the instrument which assigns the rating also states that construction is permitted under this order.

(h) Other restrictions on use of some items. Permission for construction or the exception of any construction from this order does not relieve any one from complying with the various WPB orders or directives which restrict the use of copper and other scarce materials or fixtures. If you do not know about these restrictions, consult the nearest War Production Board District Office.

(i) How to figure cost. (1) For the purpose of determining whether a construction job may be started without getting permission from the War Production Board, "cost" means the cost of the whole construction job as estimated at the time of beginning construction, except that the cost of used material or used fixtures may be disregarded.

(2) If any materials or fixtures which have not been used are obtained without buying them, their value must be included as part of the cost.

(3) The cost of processing machinery or equipment need not be included but the cost of installing it and the cost of plumbing, heating, and air conditioning equipment and of all other equipment not used directly in the processing of materials must be included.

(4) The cost of labor must be included, but if labor is unpaid its value need not be included. Contractors' fees also must be included but architects' and engineers' fees need not be.

(5) All construction on the same unit must be included. The word "unit" means any group of buildings or structures (including roadways, pipelines, etc.) which are situated near to each other, and which serve the same general purpose, or closely related purposes. For example, each of the following is a unit: a house, together with a detached garage, tennis court, swimming pool, etc.; a farm, including the farm house, barn, hen house, dairy, etc.; a manufacturing plant with a number of buildings used for the same or different processes, together with administration buildings, cafeterias, etc. In no case may a single building or structure be treated as more than one unit.

(6) The cost per year must be determined on a calendar year basis, beginning with January 1, 1943, except that a company which regularly keeps its books on a fiscal year basis may use the fiscal year.

(j) Penalties for violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order or who, in connection with this order, wilfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information to any Department or Agency of the United States is guilty of a crime and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining any further deliveries of, or from processing or using, material under priority control and may be deprived of priorities assistance.

Issued this 19th day of April 1944.

Water, gas, steam, electricity, telegraph or telephone facilities for use by public.	WPB-2774	WPB, Washington, D. C.
All other construction restricted under L-41	WPB-617 (formerly PD-200).	Consult instruction form WPB-617.

In cases where Tax Amortization privileges or Defense Plant Corporation financing are requested the application to begin construction, together with the application for Certificate of Necessity, should be filed with the War Production Board, Washington, D. C., rather than as designated above. "Total cost" as used in Schedule C includes the cost or value of used materials and fixtures, processing machinery and equipment and architects' and engineers' fees, although these are not included in "cost" for the purpose of determining how much construction may be done under paragraphs (c) and (d) of L-41 without getting permission under that order.

NOTE: The application forms specified in Schedule C have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

SCHEDULE D

NOTE: Schedule D amended Apr. 19, 1944.

The following preference rating orders or certificates are referred to in paragraph (g). If you have received or are entitled to use one of these orders or certificates for your construction, the construction is permitted by the WPB:

P-19-h, CMPL-224, CA-1456	Relating to projects important to the war effort or essential civilian needs.
P-55-c	Housing.
WPB-2774	Relating to utility facilities.
WPB-542, PD-3A	Relating to command construction and certain other construction carried on under the supervision of the Armed Services.
P-14-a, P-14-b, P-19, P-19-a, P-19-d, P-19-e, P-19-g, P-19-i, P-41, P-55-b, P-55-amended, P-110, PD-8, CMPL-127	These orders and certificates are no longer used, but jobs which were authorized by them may go on.

[Superseded by L-41, as amended November 1, 1943, which incorporates the substance of the interpretation.]

INTERPRETATION 2

Conservation Order L-41 (§ 1075.1) does not apply to the construction or erection of temporary motion picture sets of a kind which may be stored between the taking of pictures, nor to the incorporation of such temporary sets into permanent sets for the taking of a single motion picture. However it does apply to the construction of permanent outdoor motion picture sets and foundations for sets of a kind which are designed for use in more than a single picture at one location. (Issued Nov. 13, 1943)

INTERPRETATION 3

EARTH-MOVING OPERATIONS

Under the provisions of paragraph (d) § 1075.1 Conservation Order L-41 it is not necessary to get War Production Board permission for construction of a kind consisting of "grading, ditch-digging or similar earth-moving operations if no cement, lumber or other building materials are used except clay tile and non-reinforced concrete pipe." This applies only to projects which can be completed without the use of any other materials. It does not apply to earth-moving operations which are part of a construction job in which other materials will be incorporated before completion. (Issued Nov. 23, 1943)

INTERPRETATION 4

PORTABLE STRUCTURES ON SKIDS

The erection of a portable or pre-fabricated building is construction and, consequently, is limited by Order L-41 whenever the building is either placed on a foundation constructed on the site or is placed on skids in a spot where it is intended to remain for an undetermined time. The only case in which the erection of a portable or pre-fabricated building is not "construction", is when it is placed on what is intended to be a temporary site with the purpose of moving it from time to time and without affixing it to the land by plumbing, public utilities connection, or in any other way. For example, the erection of a portable structure for use as a garage on a house lot is generally construction, but the erection of a shelter to be moved around for use on different parts of a farm from time to time is not construction. (Issued Mar. 24, 1944.)

INTERPRETATION 5

MAINTENANCE AND REPAIR OF SIDINGS

Paragraph (d) (1) of L-41 excepts maintenance and repair work necessary to keep a building or structure in sound working condition. If an existing siding or roof needs repair, the minimum amount of repair work may be done to put the siding or roof in suitable condition. Thus if a siding can be put in proper condition by putting on paint it should be done in this way. If, on the other hand, the siding has so deteriorated that a paint job will not provide adequate protection a new siding may be put on the building. The new siding need not be of the same material as the old siding. This interpretation is not applicable where asbestos materials are used for re-siding or re-roofing as the use of these materials is governed by Order L-41-d. (Issued Apr. 4, 1944.)

PART 1075—CONSTRUCTION

[Conservation Order L-41, Direction 2, as Amended Apr. 19, 1944]

INSTALLATION OR RELOCATION OF MACHINERY AND EQUIPMENT

The following direction is issued pursuant to Conservation Order L-41:

(a) Installing processing machinery or equipment. It is not necessary to get War Production Board permission under Order L-41 to install any piece of processing machinery or equipment, if the materials needed to install it cost less than $500 and it is to be installed in a factory, plant or other industrial unit having a productive floor area of 10,000 square feet or more and the processing machinery or equipment is to be used for manufacturing, processing, or assembling goods which are not listed in Schedule A of the order. It does not make any difference how much the processing machinery or equipment costs. The term "processing machinery or equipment" as used in this paragraph means machinery or equipment which is directly used in the manufacture, processing or assembling of a product. It does not include such equipment as plumbing, heating or air conditioning equipment, which is not used directly in the manufacture, processing or assembling of the product.

(b) Relocating machinery or equipment. It is not necessary to get War Production Board permission under Order L-41 to relocate any piece of machinery or equipment (whether used for processing or not) in a factory, plant or other industrial unit which does not manufacture, process or assemble goods listed in Schedule A of the order and which has a productive floor area of 10,000 square feet or more, if the machinery or equipment has previously been used in the same plant, and the materials needed to relocate it cost less than $500. It does not make any difference what the value of the machinery or equipment is. This paragraph does not give a person the right to install a piece of machinery or equipment (whether new or second-hand) which he is installing in his plant for the first time as distinct from relocating machinery or equipment previously used in the same plant.

(c) Applications. Where permission to install or relocate machinery is required by Order L-41, application for such permission should be made on the appropriate form indicated on Schedule C of Order L-41. Also, such form should be used in applying for priorities assistance to buy installation materials where they cannot be bought under this direction, even if permission to install or relocate is not required by Order L-41.

(d) This direction does not apply to the installation or relocation of machinery or equipment:

(1) For use in the future manufacture of items which at the time of installation is prohibited by an outstanding order of the War Production Board.

(2) In connection with construction of a kind which is limited by Order L-41. If permission under Order L-41 is required for the job the materials to install any equipment to be installed as part of the job must be obtained under the project authorization and not under this direction.

PART 1075—CONSTRUCTION

[Conservation Order L-41, Direction 3, as Amended Apr. 19, 1944]

BLANKET PERMISSION FOR MISCELLANEOUS CONSTRUCTION

The following direction is issued pursuant to Conservation Order L-41:

(a) The War Production Board has been issuing blanket authorizations to applicants permitting them to carry on miscellaneous construction over a fixed period. Instructions as to how to apply for blanket authorizations have been described in WPBI-43 (formerly PDL-362). The need for blanket authorizations has been largely eliminated by the recent transfer of processing of small construction applications to the Field offices, by the simplification of War Production Board procedures under Direction 1 to CMP 6, and by the exception of certain types of minor capital additions under paragraph (d) (12) of L-41. For this reason blanket authorizations will no longer be issued generally but only in cases where it appears that the filing of individual project applications will interfere with the war effort or cause extreme hardship.

(b) In these circumstances applications for blanket authorization may be made on form WPB-617. Separate applications must be made for each "unit" as defined in paragraph (i) (5) of L-41. The applicant will prepare his application in the same way he would prepare an application to do a single job and in accordance with the instructions to form WPB-617. The need for a blanket authorization must be firmly established.

(c) Blanket authorizations will permit the builder to do miscellaneous routine construction but no materials may be acquired or used contrary to the Limitations which will be made a part of the authorization. In the case of equipment items which must be listed on the application, the builder may use only those which are specifically approved. The use of such items or deviations from the Construction Limitations will be approved only in exceptional cases. The applicant will be permitted to use the allotment symbol P-6 and the rating assigned for the procurement of material. While the blanket authorization will cover a number of jobs, no one job costing more than $10,000 will be authorized, and in certain cases a lower cost limit per job may be fixed. No reports of materials used will be required. No job for which tax amortization privileges will be requested may be included in a blanket application. A separate application should be filed for each such job at the time the request for tax amortization is made.

(d) This direction supersedes WPBI-43 (formerly PDL-362).

PART 1075—CONSTRUCTION

[Conservation Order L-41, Interpretation 5, as Amended Apr. 19, 1944]

DISTINCTION BETWEEN RESIDENTIAL AND FARM CONSTRUCTION

The following interpretation is issued with respect to Conservation Order L-41:

Under the terms of paragraph (c) (1) of L-41 not more than $200 may be spent on a house, including the entire residential property, over a year's period. Under paragraph (c) (2) of that order not more than $1,000 may be spent on a farm, "including the farm houses," and no more than $200 on any farm house on the farm. A property is not necessarily a "farm" because farm products are produced on it but only if it is used primarily for the raising of crops, livestock, dairy products, poultry, etc., for the market.

PART 1075—CONSTRUCTION

[Conservation Order L-41-e]

PUBLIC HIGHWAYS AND STREET CONSTRUCTION

§ 1075.16 Conservation Order L-41-e—(a) What this order does. The basic order, Conservation Order L-41, limits all types of construction work. This order, L-41-e, is a special adaptation written to apply specifically to public highway and street construction in attaining the objective of the basic order L-41; namely, the conservation of materials, construction equipment, labor and transportation. The governmental agency responsible for the proposed construction must get permission from the War Production Board to begin the work, unless it is of a kind which does not require permission, as described below in paragraphs (c) and (d). This permission, generally known as an "authorization to begin construction", should not be confused with preference ratings or priorities. If a road project is allowed, either because it is not of the kind restricted by this order or because permission has been obtained, it may still be necessary to get preference ratings and allotments for certain materials which will be required. On the other hand, if preference ratings have been obtained or if materials are on hand, it may still be necessary to get permission to begin construction of the project.

(b) What is meant by the construction of a public highway or street. A public highway or street is one which is open to the public and which is constructed and maintained by any Federal, State, territorial, county, city, district or other governmental agency. Construction of a highway or street includes the grading, draining and surfacing of the highway or street; erecting of bridges, grade separation structures, culverts, storm drains and similar structures; installing safety and control devices; and constructing curbs, gutters, sidewalks and other appurtenances.

(c) Maintenance or repair of highways or streets does not require authorization. It is not necessary to get permission from the War Production Board to perform maintenance and repair work on highways and streets. The kind of work which may be classed as maintenance and repair is as follows:

(1) Maintenance includes only the usual operations necessary from time to time to keep surfaces, shoulders, embankments, slopes, structures, rights-of-way and all appurtenances of a public highway or street in a safe and serviceable condition, such as blading and shaping surfaces and shoulders, cleaning ditches and waterways, patching, and the like.

(2) Repair consists of work necessary to make serviceable a damaged or deteriorated portion of a highway or structure or to restore it to its original condition or the equivalent. It does not mean reconstruction or even replacement. Repair does not include work which represents an improvement or departure from original types of construction. Examples of work which may be classed as repair include the replacement of damaged members or parts of highway bridges or grade separation structures; rehabilitation of deteriorated surfaces on graveled or earth roads, on existing line and grade, by the application of dust palliatives and bituminous preservative treatments; the rehabilitation of deteriorated surfaces on bituminous-surfaced roads, on existing line and grade, to restore such surfaces to their original condition or equivalent, including resurfacing not over 1½ inches in thickness; the rehabilitation of deteriorated surfaces on concrete or brick roads, on existing line and grade, by the application of wearing courses not to exceed 4" in nominal thickness for non-rigid types, or 5" in nominal thickness for rigid types; widening of surfaces where necessary to reduce serious traffic hazard or excessive shoulder maintenance when such widening does not provide additional traffic lanes, or require increase in the width of roadbed. Examples of work which may not be classed as repair include changes in line or grade; reconstruction of foundation, base and surface, except as may be incidental to patching preliminary to resurfacing; widening for the purpose of providing additional traffic lanes, reconstruction or replacement of bridges destroyed by fire or flood or other cause. Maintenance and repair are to be considered in terms of the kind of work to be done and not in terms of the method of doing it or of financing it. For example, the repair of a bridge floor is a repair operation even though it is done by a contractor and financed from the construction budget. On the other hand, the replacement of an old bridge with a new one is construction, not repair, even though the work is done with repair maintenance forces and is financed with maintenance funds.

(d) Size and kind of highway and street construction which does not require authorization. Highway and street construction may be started without specific War Production Board project authorization if the work consists of one or more of the following classes:

(1) A project costing $5,000 per mile or less providing the aggregate cost of the project does not exceed $25,000.

(2) A project costing $10,000 or less.

(3) A project providing access to sources of raw materials as provided for in section 6 of the Defense Highway Act of 1941 (55 Stat. 765, as amended) when such project is certified as essential to the war effort by the War Production Board.

(4) Highway construction owned by the United States Army, Navy, Maritime Commission, War Shipping Administration, Coast Guard, Marine Corps, Civilian Aeronautics Authority, Coast and Geodetic Survey, or Panama Canal.

(e) All other public highway and street construction forbidden without War Production Board permission. No person shall do any construction on a public highway or street which has not been permitted by the War Production Board, unless it is of a kind described in paragraphs (c) or (d) above. This prohibition applies to a Governmental Agency which does its own construction work, to one who gets others to do the work for it, and to any contractor or subcontractor who works on the job or gets others to work on it. It also applies to any supplier who furnishes material for the job if he knows or has reason to know that the construction has not been permitted.

(f) How to apply for authorization. The governmental agency responsible for the construction should file an application through the State Highway Department. This application also covers the matter of preference ratings and controlled materials allotments if these are required for the construction. The form is called "Application for Authority to Construct Public Highway or Street, Form PR.1-PA", and copies are obtainable from the State Highway Department or the U. S. Public Roads Administration. Authorizations for road construction will be made on Form GA-1456.

(g) How to figure cost. (1) For the purpose of determining whether construction may be started on a highway or street without permission of the War Production Board, cost means the cost of the whole job as estimated at the time of beginning construction, except that the cost of used materials or used fixtures may be disregarded.

(2) If any materials or fixtures which have not been used are obtained without buying them their value must be included as part of the cost.

(3) The cost of labor must be included, but if labor is unpaid its value need not be included. Contractors' fees also must be included, but architects' and engineers' fees need not be, nor need the cost of administration.

(4) The cost of the right-of-way, that is, the amount paid for the land, whether by purchase or condemnation, need not be included.

(5) All construction on the same project must be included. The word "project" includes all contiguous construction. It also includes all jobs on a street or highway between principal intersecting highways or streets. No project may be split into a number of projects to avoid the provisions of this order.

PART 1242—TANTALUM

[General Preference Order M-156, as Amended Apr. 19, 1944]

The fulfillment of requirements for the defense of the United States has created a shortage in the supply of tantalum for defense, for private account and for export; and the following order is deemed necessary and appropriate in the public interest and to promote the national defense:

§ 1242.1 General Preference Order M-156—(a) Definition. For the purpose of this order:

(1) "Tantalum" means and includes: (i) Ores and concentrates containing tantalum (commercially recognized), and tantalum compounds for further purification or refining; (ii) The element tantalum in pure form, ferro-tantalum, potassium tantalum fluoride, tantalum oxide, and tantalum carbide; (iii) All scrap or secondary material containing commercially recoverable tantalum as defined in (i) and (ii) above, excluding tantalum—and columbium-bearing iron and steel scrap.

(b) Restrictions on deliveries. No person, other than Metals Reserve Company or any other corporation organized under section 5 (d) of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation Act, as amended, or any duly authorized agent of such corporation, shall deliver or accept delivery of tantalum unless specifically authorized by the War Production Board.

(c) Exceptions. Any person may, without authorization from the War Production Board:

(1) Deliver tantalum to the Metals Reserve Company or to any other corporation organized under section 5 (d) of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation Act, as amended, or to any duly authorized agent of such corporation.

(2) Deliver during any calendar month not more than 3 kilograms of contained tantalum per person, and any person may accept delivery of such amount. However, the aggregate quantity which any person may deliver in any calendar month without War Production Board authorization shall not exceed 125 kilograms. No person may accept delivery during any calendar month of more than 3 kilograms of contained tantalum from all sources without authorization from the War Production Board.

(d) Special directives. The War Production Board may, notwithstanding the other provisions of this order, issue special directives from time to time, as to the quantities of tantalum which may be delivered and the manner in which such deliveries may be made or accepted, as well as special directives as to the quantities of tantalum which may be processed for particular purposes or end uses and the manner in which such processing may be done. The War Production Board may also issue special directives requiring any person seeking to place a purchase order for tantalum to place that order with one or more particular suppliers.

(e) Applications for authorization for delivery of tantalum. On or before April 20, 1944, each person desiring to accept delivery of tantalum during May, 1944, shall file application for authorization to do so with the War Production Board on Forms WPB-1097 and 1102 (formerly PD-487 and 486 respectively). Applications for delivery during the months of June and July, 1944, shall be filed on the same forms (WPB-1097 and 1102) on or before May 7, 1944. Applications for delivery during any month after July, 1944, shall be made on or before the 7th day of the second month before the month in which delivery is requested. The War Production Board will return one copy of Form WPB-1097 to the applicant and forward another to the applicant's supplier, on which will be indicated the quantity of tantalum authorized for delivery.

(f) Reports for processors. Each person who processes tantalum ores or concentrates shall, on or before the 15th day of May, 1944, and thereafter on the 15th day of each succeeding month, file with the War Production Board, Washington, D. C., a report on Form WPB-1098 (formerly PD-489) stating separately:

(1) His past production, receipts, consumption and shipments of materials and ores or concentrates during the previous calendar month, and

(2) His expected production, receipts, consumption and shipments of materials and ores or concentrates during the second month following the month in which the report is filed.

(g) Applicability of regulations. This order and all transactions affected thereby are subject to all applicable regulations of the War Production Board, as amended from time to time.

(h) Bureau of the Budget approval. The reporting provisions of this order have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

(i) General Imports Order M-63 unaffected. The provisions of General Imports Order M-63 applicable to tantalum are in no way affected by this Order M-156.

(j) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order or who, in connection with this order, wilfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States, is guilty of a crime, and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment or both. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries of, or from processing or using material under priority control and may be deprived of priorities assistance.

(k) Communications. All communications concerning this order shall be addressed to the Mica-Graphite Division, War Production Board, Washington 25, D. C., Reference M-156.

Issued this 19th day of April 1944.

PART 3208—SCHEDULED PRODUCTS

[Table 11 to General Scheduling Order M-293, Direction 1]

RESCHEDULING OF ORDERS FOR VALVES AND PIPE FITTINGS FOR DESTROYER ESCORT PROGRAM

The following direction is issued pursuant to table 11 to General Scheduling Order M-293:

Shipments of valves and pipe fittings in advance of the required delivery dates have resulted in delays in filling orders for other equally urgent or more urgent programs. In order to effect a more balanced distribution of valves and pipe fittings to the various war programs, this direction is issued.

(1) Manufacturers of valves and pipe fittings are directed to reschedule shipments under all purchase orders for valves and pipe fittings which are identifiable as intended for use in destroyer escort vessels in accordance with the "Schedules of Required Shipping Dates for Ship Piping Systems" issued by the Bureau of Ships, Navy Department, through the Office of the Inspector of Naval Material, now in effect or as they may be revised. These schedules will be made available by the cognizant resident Inspector of Naval Material.

(2) The directions for scheduling given under paragraph (1) above are subject to the following conditions:

(a) This direction does not apply to manufacturers whose schedules are now frozen under General Scheduling Order M-293. Regional scheduling officers who are administering the frozen schedules will be instructed to issue official schedule changes following the terms of this direction so as to change officially the frozen schedules to correspond to the "Schedules of Required Shipping Dates for Ship Piping Systems", in effect from time to time.

(b) In rearranging his schedules according to the "Schedules of Required Shipping Dates for Ship Piping Systems" a manufacturer whose schedules have not been frozen under M-293 shall be governed by the provisions of Priorities Regulation No. 1. Nothing shall be done which will interfere with the schedule of shipments on other purchase orders not identified with the Destroyer Escort Program which bear equal or higher preference ratings.

Issued this 19th day of April 1944.

PART 3216—MATERIAL ENTERING INTO THE OPERATION OF TRANSPORTATION SYSTEMS

[Preference Rating Order P-142, as Amended Apr. 19, 1944]

§ 3216.1 Preference rating order P-142. This order explains how "operators" of transportation systems, as defined below, get materials to carry on their operations, and it must be used by them in place of CMP Regulation 5. With a few exceptions, this order gives preference ratings for up to 110% per quarter of each item or group of items specifically authorized for the operator for the first quarter of 1944. Controlled materials (except aluminum and rail and track accessories) are allotted on the same basis. This means that, in most cases, quarterly applications on Form WPB-2585 are no longer necessary, but material may be scheduled for delivery on the new basis only three quarters in advance. Use of the ratings and allotments is explained in the order.

Definitions

(a) Definitions. For the purpose of this order:

(1) "Transportation system" means a steam railroad, an electric railroad, a terminal railroad, a switching railroad, a private car line company, a rapid transit system, an electric street railway system, a trolley coach system, or a common carrier passenger motor bus system.

(2) "Operator" means any person to the extent that he is engaged in the business of transporting passengers or property over a transportation system. The term does not include any person who can obtain all of his controlled material requirements at retail, or from warehouses or distributors under the provisions of CMP Regulation 4, and who has not elected to operate under this Order P-142 pursuant to paragraph (k) (1); such person must continue to operate under the provisions of CMP Regulation 5 and all other applicable regulations.

(3) "Material" means any commodity, equipment, accessory, part, assembly, or product of any kind.

(4) "Controlled material" means steel, copper and aluminum in the forms and shapes indicated in Schedule I of CMP Regulation 1.

(5) "Maintenance and repair" means the upkeep or restoration of any unit of the operator's property or equipment by using the minimum amount of material necessary (i) to keep the unit usable for the purpose intended in its existing design, (ii) to restore parts of the unit to their original usefulness, or (iii) to renew parts to restore the unit to its usefulness for the purpose intended in its existing design. The term also includes "heavy repair of locomotives" and "heavy repair of railroad cars," as those terms are defined in paragraphs (a) (8) and (a) (9) below.

(6) "Operating supplies" means those materials and supplies which are essential to the operations of the operator's transportation system, the rendering of services, and the collection of revenues in connection therewith.

(7) "Construction" means the use of material to provide additional facilities or to rehabilitate existing facilities for a purpose not intended in the existing design.

(8) "Heavy repair of locomotives" includes only:

(i) Such repair to boiler, machinery and tender as is necessary to put the unit in thorough order and in condition to run out a new term of assigned mileare (sometimes known as class 1, 2 and 3 repair), and also such intermediate repair thereto as is necessary to enable the unit to run out its full mileage assignment (sometimes known as class 4 and 5 repair); or

(ii) Conversion, which means any change in the general machinery or wheel arrangement of the locomotive; or

(iii) Modernization, which means the addition of accessories and/or specialties to the locomotive.

(9) "Heavy repair of railroad cars" includes only:

(i) Program repair for any group of cars, or, if the operator does not program such repairs, repair of any car requiring 50 or more man hours per car for freight cars, or 100 or more man hours per car for passenger cars; or

(ii) Conversion, which means the modification of the structure of an existing car to such an extent as to change the type of the car.

Ratings and Allotment Symbol

(b) Preference ratings for materials other than controlled materials. Subject to the provisions of this order, preference ratings are hereby assigned to deliveries of material to be made to an operator after March 31, 1944, as follows:

(1) Quotas. Each operator may use the rating assigned for the purchase of each item or group of items under sections D and E of his authorization on Form WPB-2585 (original and supplements) for the first calendar quarter of 1944, to order for delivery to him during any calendar quarter not more than his quota for that item or group of items for uses permitted under paragraphs (f) and (g) of this order. This quota is in each case 110% of the amount authorized for him in column (k) of the above form, with the exception of the items listed in paragraph (b) (2) below, which are handled on a special basis. If this 110% quota is not enough in any quarter to provide for permitted uses under this order, application for additional amounts may be made as explained in paragraph (k) (2). Also, if an operator has received authorization on Form WPB–2585 for the second calendar quarter of 1944 or later quarters for any item or group of items in excess of the above 110% quota, he may use this authorization for the particular quarter instead of his quota unless otherwise directed by the War Production Board.

(2) Special items and track material. The ratings assigned above in paragraph (b) (1) may not be used to order the following items:

Steam injectors.
Mechanical lubricators.
Roller bearings (driving box, tender truck, and engine truck).
Stokers.
Superheaters and headers.
Air brakes—AB.
Hand brakes—power.
Brake beams.
Car bolster springs.
Couplers and coupler bodies.

Track material of the following kinds:

Frogs.
Crossings.
Switches.
Switch stands.
Rail anchors.
Rail braces.
Guard rails.
Guard rail clamps.
Gauge rods.
Clip bolts.
Rail clips.
Nut locks.

The amounts of these items which an operator can get for permitted uses and the proper ratings will be authorized from time to time on Form WPB–2585. Application for such authorization should be made by the operator as explained under paragraph (k) (3) of this order.

(3) Emergency repairs. The War Production Board may also assign in writing preference ratings to deliveries of specific materials essential for emergency repairs, application for which should be made as explained in paragraph (k) (2) of this order.

(4) Use of the ratings for advance quarters is subject to paragraph (e).

(c) Assignment of allotment symbol for controlled materials. Each operator may use the CMP allotment symbol T–7 to order controlled material for delivery to him after March 31, 1944, for a use authorized by paragraph (f) or (g) of this order, in amounts per quarter as follows:

(1) Aluminum to the extent required for maintenance, repair and operating supplies, excluding heavy repairs of locomotives and cars as defined in paragraphs (a) (8) and (a) (9). Any amounts of aluminum required for such heavy repairs or any other purpose may be applied for as explained in paragraph (k) (4).

(2) Steel and copper (except rail and track accessories) up to 110% per quarter of the respective amounts authorized for the operator for each item or group of items under section C of Form WPB–2585 (original and supplements) for the first calendar quarter of 1944. If this 110% quota is not enough in any quarter to provide for permitted uses under this order, application for additional amounts may be made as explained in paragraph (k) (2). Also, if an operator has received authorization on Form WPB–2585 for the second calendar quarter of 1944 or later quarters for any such item or group of items in excess of the above 110% quota, he may use this authorization for the particular quarter instead of his quota unless otherwise directed by the War Production Board.

(3) Rail and track accessories (Code No. 2026) in amounts authorized for each quarter by the War Production Board upon Form WPB–2585. Application should be made by the operator only as required under paragraph (k) (3). (Note that the items of track material listed in paragraph (b) (2) are no longer controlled materials).

Use of these authorizations for advance quarters is subject to paragraph (e).

(d) How to use the ratings and allotment symbol—(1) Certification. An operator may use the above ratings and allotment symbol T–7 to get materials under this order by placing on his purchase orders a certification in substantially the following form, signed manually or as provided in Priorities Regulation 7:

Preference rating—(specify rating if necessary); CMP allotment symbol T–7; P–142, serial No. _____

The undersigned operator certifies, subject to the penalties of section 35 (A) of the United States Criminal Code, to the seller and to the War Production Board that, to the best of his knowledge and belief, the undersigned is authorized under applicable War Production Board regulations or orders to place this delivery order; to receive, for transportation MRO under P–142, the item(s) ordered; and to use any preference rating or allotment symbol which the undersigned has placed on this order.

However, the certifications provided in CMP Regulation 7 and Priorities Regulation 7 may be used instead of the above, if they include the following identification:

Preference rating—(specify rating if necessary); CMP allotment symbol T–7; P–142, serial No. _____

(2) An order for controlled materials which bears the above certification and allotment symbol is an authorized controlled material order, except that, when placed with a producer, the order must conform to paragraph (s) (4) of CMP Regulation 1 relating to content of the order and time for placing it. On orders for controlled materials, no preference rating should be shown.

(3) The ratings applied by operators under paragraph (d) (1) may be extended in the manner provided in Priorities Regulation 3.

(4) The ratings assigned under this order may not be used to get items shown on List A or B of Priorities Regulation 3.

(e) Advance authorizations. Neither the preference ratings nor the allotment symbol assigned by this order may be used by an operator to place orders for delivery farther ahead than the three calendar quarters following the quarter during which the order is placed, unless otherwise indicated with respect to any authorization issued on Form WPB–2585. For example, during the second quarter of 1944, orders may be placed for delivery during that quarter and in each of the last two quarters of 1944 and the first quarter of 1945 to the full extent authorized per quarter under the above paragraphs; during the third quarter of 1944, orders may be placed in corresponding amounts for delivery in the second quarter of 1945, and so on. Any special authorization, unless otherwise indicated, is valid only for the quarter for which issued.

Permitted Uses of Materials and Inventories

(f) Maintenance, repair, etc. No operator shall acquire any material under the provisions of this order, nor make withdrawals from inventory of any material acquired with priorities assistance of any kind, except for the following purposes:

(1) Maintenance, repair and operating supplies (including materials required for MRO by the operator for its own use in carrying out authorized construction projects and in manufacturing transportation equipment);

(2) Heavy repair of locomotives;

(3) Heavy repair of railroad cars;

(4) Minor items of productive capital equipment not exceeding $500 per unit (excluding cost of labor);

(5) Replacement of rail with the weight of rail and type of fastenings conforming to the operator's standard practice;

(6) Construction to the extent permitted by paragraph (g) below; or

(7) For any other use when specifically authorized in writing by the War Production Board.

(g) Construction. Any operator may acquire materials under this order, or make withdrawals from inventory of materials acquired with priorities assistance, for the following kinds of construction:

(1) Laying of railroad tracks or the construction of necessary operating facilities (including tunnels, overpasses, underpasses or bridges), but only to the extent that the total cost of such materials for anyone project is $2,500 or less (excluding cost of labor). If the total cost of such material is over $2,500, the project is covered by Conservation Order L–41 in the case of tunnels, overpasses, underpasses or bridges, and the operator must get permission to construct under that order. Even in the case of projects exempted by L–41, the operator must apply to the Transportation Equipment Division on Form WPB–617 for specific authorization if he needs priorities assistance to get any materials over the above $2,500 limit, or if he wants to withdraw more than this amount from his inventory of materials acquired with priorities assistance.

(2) Construction of railroad stations, warehouses, loading platforms and similar structures, where the construction is within the annual cost limits set forth in Order L–41.

With respect to any project costing over the above limits, after the operator gets specific authorization in writing from the War Production Board (under L–41 or otherwise as indicated above), he may withdraw amounts over those limits from his inventory of materials acquired with priorities assistance. However, replacement in inventory of any additional materials so withdrawn may be made only by using the ratings and allotments assigned by the specific authorization (CMPL–224, GA–1456, or other applicable form). Furthermore, with respect to any project specifically authorized by the War Production Board (under L–41 or otherwise), acquisition or withdrawal from inventory of materials by the operator is limited to those which may be permitted by the authorization.

Inventory Control; Resales

(h) Inventory control. Notwithstanding the provisions of any other order or regulation of the War Production Board (including CMP Regulation 2), an operator's inventory of material for uses permitted under this order shall be subject to the following restriction only:

No operator shall receive any delivery of material which will increase his inventory of such material to an amount greater than the minimum necessary to sustain his current level of operations.

However, this does not prevent the operator from maintaining minimum stocks of material for emergency use, nor from acquiring reasonable stocks of ties and lumber for seasoning. The foregoing inventory control also does not apply to printed matter.

(i) Permitted resale of materials. An operator may resell material (whether or not obtained with the assistance of this order):

(1) To any other operator;

(2) To another person when such material is to be physically incorporated in repairs of equipment that is used in the maintenance, repair, or operations of the operator's own property: Provided, That such material could have been used by the operator itself in making its own repairs without violation of any of the provisions of this order;

(3) To the operator's own transportation system subsidiaries, or for the maintenance of track or equipment not owned but customarily maintained by the operator or its subsidiaries; or

(4) For the repair of equipment of another carrier in accordance with the Code of Rules for the Interchange of Traffic as adopted by the Association of American Railroads.

Any such sale shall be expressly permitted within the provisions of paragraph (c) (3) of Priorities Regulation 13: Provided, That nothing in this paragraph (i) shall be deemed to authorize receipt or use of any material by any person in violation of any inventory or use restriction imposed by this order or any other order or regulation of the War Production Board, and no operator shall make any sale of material authorized above if he knows or has reason to believe that receipt or use thereof by the buyer will be in violation of any such restriction.

(j) Other resales. Any other resale of materials by an operator is subject to Priorities Regulation 13.

Procedure

(k) How to make application under this order—(1) Serial numbers. No operator shall be entitled to any assistance under the provisions of this order until he has been assigned an authorized serial number, which may be obtained upon application by letter to the War Production Board, stating that the applicant will be unable to obtain all of his controlled material requirements at retail or under the provisions of CMP Regulation 4. In addition, any person who can obtain all such requirements at retail or under that regulation may elect to apply as above for an authorized serial number. When such serial number is assigned to him, he shall be deemed an "operator" under all the provisions of this Order P–142.

(2) Application for special or additional authorizations. In order to get authorization or exemption under paragraph (b) (1), (b) (3), (c) (2) or (f) (7) of this order, an operator must communicate with the War Production Board, describing the nature of the emergency or the reason why specific authorization is necessary, and the amount and type of material involved. The War Production Board will thereupon notify the operator in writing whether, and to what extent, his application is approved.

Requests for additional authorizations for any quarter under paragraph (b) (1) or (c) (2) must be made by letter, giving the above information. In acting upon such a request, the War Production Board may at the same time authorize all or part of the additional amount for future quarters. For example, if it was shown that the operator's authorizations on Form WPB–2585 for the first quarter of 1944 were not a reasonable indication of his quarterly needs of any item or group of items, his "base" (against which to apply the 110% quota) might be increased. The War Production Board may also direct in writing that the "base" be reduced.

(3) Application for special items and track material. Application for track material under paragraph (b) (2) and for rail and track accessories under paragraph (c) (3) should be made by an operator only if called for by specific instructions of the War Production Board. Application for special items (other than track material) listed in paragraph (b) (2) should be made on Form WPB–2585 at least 45 days before the beginning of each calendar quarter, in accordance with the instructions on the form and any supplemental instructions that may be issued.

(4) Aluminum. Any operator requiring aluminum in the form of controlled material for heavy repairs, as defined in paragrsphs (a) (8) and (a) (9), must apply by letter for an allotment for the required amounts to the War Production Board, Aluminum and Magnesium Division, Ref.: M–1–i, giving substantially the information described in paragraph (d) of Supplementary Order M–1–i.

NOTE: The reporting requirements in this paragraph (k) have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget pursuant to the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

Miscellaneous Provisions

(l) Appeals. Any appeal from the provisions of this order shall be made by filing a letter in triplicate, referring to the particular provision appealed from and stating fully the grounds for the appeal.

(m) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order, or who in connection with this order, wilfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States is guilty of a crime, and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries of, or from processing or using, material under priority control and may be deprived of priorities assistance.

(n) Applicability of regulations. (1) This order and all transactions affected by it are subject to all applicable regulations of the War Production Board, as amended from time to time, unless this order states otherwise.

(2) None of the provisions of CMP Regulations 5 or 5A shall apply to operators as defined in paragraph (a) (2) of this order, and no operator shall obtain any material under the provisions of either of those regulations. However, privileges under other orders and regulations of the War Production Board granted to persons on Schedule I or II of CMP Regulation 5 shall be considered as applicable to operators under this order. For example, Order E–5–a on gauges and precision measuring hand tools classifies a person on Schedules I and II of CMP Regulation 5 as an "approved user". Operators under this order P–142 are in the same position providing that certification clauses and all other provisions of those other orders are complied with.

(o) Communications. All communications concerning this order, unless otherwise directed, shall be addressed to: War Production Board, Transportation Equipment Division, Washington 25, D. C., Ref.: PF–142.

In authorizing the manufacture of domestic cooking appliances and domestic heating stoves the War Production Board, will in general, authorize Class C producers to produce the types they normally fabricate up to 100% of their base period unit production before authorizing the manufacture of any of the same types by Class A and Class B producers; Provided, however, That during the period from July 1, 1943 to June 30, 1944 the total number of units of each type authorized for production by all producers will not exceed the percentages of total unit production specified in Schedule A attached.

(3) No producer shall manufacture, fabricate or assemble any domestic cooking appliances (other than combination ranges) or domestic heating stoves, except in those fuel types which he manufactured, fabricated or assembled during the base period; but this provision shall not apply to such appliances or stoves manufactured, fabricated or assembled for delivery to or for the account of the Army, Navy, Maritime Commission, or War Shipping Administration of the United States, or for use in a building or project authorized under Preference Rating Order P-55-b or rated under Preference Rating Order P-55 or any Order in the P-19 series.

Chapter XI—Office of Price Administration

PART 1364—PRESH, CURED AND CANNED MEAT AND FISH PRODUCTS

[MPR 364,[1] Amdt. 16]

FROZEN FISH AND SEAFOOD

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this amendment has been issued simultaneously herewith and filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Maximum Price Regulation No. 364 is amended in the following respects:

1. Section 2 is amended to read as follows:

SEC. 2. How processors' maximum prices are fixed. Section 14 lists the various species of frozen fish and seafood for which maximum prices are fixed by this regulation. The base price, in cents per pound, is listed for each species according to the style of processing and the size. The listed base prices in section 14 are base prices per pound for frozen fish and seafood as packed in the container size and kind customary for the species and for the industry. Section 13 sets out the amount which may be added to, or which must be subtracted from, the listed base price when the frozen fish or seafood is packed in other kinds or sizes of containers. The listed base price, with any adjustment for kind of package, and transportation allowance for freezing at a point which is not a port of entry, is the processor's maximum price f. o. b. the shipping point nearest the freezer. If the processor freezes the fish or seafood in any place other than that port where the species is landed ex-vessel or shipped in by a producer, he may add as transportation allowance to the listed base price the actual per pound transportation cost, not to exceed the carload rail freight rate per pound for fresh fish, where such rate is available, from the port of entry to the freezing point, excluding any charges for local trucking, hauling and handling. A processor who performs the functions of a primary wholesaler and employs two or more full-time employees who are stationed at and engaged in making sales and performing services solely for the processor at a warehouse other than and remote from the original freezer shall establish his maximum price for sales from such warehouse by adding the mark-up provided for a primary wholesale sale to the base price, plus or minus any package differential as listed in section 13, plus the allowable transportation to the warehouse from which the sale is made. Sales to wholesalers by persons not qualifying as primary wholesalers as defined in section 3 (d) (1) shall be at prices no higher than those fixed for sales by processors. A processor who performs the function of a cash-and-carry or service-and-delivery wholesaler, as specified in section 3, shall establish his maximum price by adding the mark-up provided for the particular class of sale to the base price, plus or minus any package differential as listed in section 13, plus allowable transportation cost.

2. Section 3 (b) is amended to read as follows:

(b) Net cost. The wholesaler's "net cost" is the amount he paid for the particular item of frozen fish or seafood delivered at his established place of doing business, plus or minus any package differentials listed in section 13, less all discounts allowed him except the discount for prompt payment, and excluding any charges for local trucking, hauling and handling. Except that for sales of halibut, the wholesaler's "net cost" shall not exceed the lowest amount determined by the application of section 3 (b) and 3 (b) (1). After April 30, 1944, the wholesaler's "net cost" must not exceed the sum of the following: (1) the base price listed for the species in the table of base prices in section 14 on April 22, 1944, plus or minus (2) any package differentials listed in Section 13 added or subtracted by previous handlers of the fish or seafood, plus (3) allowable transportation costs added by previous handlers of the fish or seafood, plus (4) the appropriate mark-up allowed his supplier in section 3 (d) (1) if his supplier is a primary wholesaler, plus or minus (5) any package differentials listed in section 13 for packaging changes, if any, made by the wholesaler, plus (6) allowable transportations costs for delivery of the frozen fish or seafood to the established place of doing business of the wholesaler from his supplier's place of business, exclusive of local trucking, hauling and handling. Any wholesaler who buys frozen fish or seafood and processes it by a style of processing for which a price is listed in the table of base prices in section 14 may include as part of his "net cost" the difference between the price listed in the table for the frozen fish or seafood in the condition in which it is purchased by the wholesaler and the price listed in the table for the fish or seafood in the condition it is after processing by the wholesaler.

3. Subparagraph (1) is added to section 3 (b) to read as follows:

(1) Net cost on sales of halibut. The wholesaler's "net cost" in sales of frozen halibut shall not exceed the lowest amount determined by the application of (i), (ii) and section 3 (b). (i) The appropriate base price for frozen halibut landed or frozen on the Pacific Coast of the United States, plus or minus any package differentials listed in section 13 added or subtracted by previous handlers of the fish, plus the rail rate for the type of shipment used for frozen fish from Seattle to the established place of doing business of the primary wholesaler of that fish, if there is a primary wholesaler involved, plus the primary wholesaler's mark-up, if a primary wholesaler is involved, plus or minus any package differentials listed in section 13 for packaging changes made by the wholesaler, if any, plus transportation costs for delivery of the fish to the wholesaler from his supplier, not to exceed the rail rate for the type of shipment used for frozen fish from Seattle to his established place of doing business; or (ii) the appropriate base price for frozen halibut landed or frozen on the Pacific Coast of Canada, plus or minus any package differentials listed in section 13 added or subtracted by previous handlers of the fish, plus the rail rate for the type of shipment used for frozen fish from Prince Rupert, British Columbia, to the established place of doing business of the primary wholesaler of that fish, if there is a primary wholesaler involved, plus the primary wholesaler's mark-up, if a primary wholesaler is involved, plus or minus any package differentials listed in section 13 for packaging changes made by the wholesaler, if any, plus transportation costs for delivery of the fish to the wholesaler from his supplier, not to exceed the rail rate for the type of shipment used for frozen fish from Prince Rupert, British Columbia, to his established place of doing business.

4. Section 3 (d) (1) is amended to read as follows:

(1) Primary wholesalers. Primary wholesalers with respect to any species of fish or seafood listed in the table of base prices in Section 14 are wholesalers who buy frozen fish or seafood from processors in carload lots and distribute it for resale to other wholesalers, government agencies, retailer-owned cooperatives or chain store warehouses in less-than-carload lots, and who, during the greater part of the year preceding April 13, 1943, bought the greater portion of the frozen fish or seafood they sold in carload lots and distributed the greater portion of such fish or seafood in less-than-carload lots. In the sale of frozen fish or seafood which has been unloaded, stored and warehoused in the regular course of his business, the primary wholesaler's mark-up is 12 percent. In the case of sales of fish or seafood which has not been stored and warehoused, the primary wholesaler's mark-up is 7 percent. In the case of sales involving delivery from the processor's cold storage warehouse to the primary wholesaler's customer, there is no mark-up.

5. Section 3 (e) is amended to read as follows:

(e) Imported frozen fish and seafood. (1) The maximum price at which a wholesaler, including any agent of a foreign shipper, may sell any imported frozen fish or seafood listed in section 14 shall be the base price listed in the table of base prices in section 14 for the species in the style of processing and size sold, plus or minus the differential for packaging provided in Section 13, plus transportation allowance as provided in section 3 (e) (1) (i). To this amount may be added the mark-up provided for the class of sale in paragraphs (c) and (d) of section 3.

(i) Transportation allowance for imported fish. Any importer or agent of a foreign consignor of any frozen fish or seafood except frozen Atlantic Coast smelts and frozen Canadian lake fish covered in Schedules Nos. 70–77, inclusive, in the table of base prices in section 14 may add as a transportation allowance to the appropriate table price in section 14 the lowest amount determined on the following three bases:

(a) The actual cost of transportation (exclusive of local trucking, hauling and handling charges) from the seller's shipping point to the importer's receiving point;

(b) The actual cost of transportation (exclusive of local trucking, hauling and handling charges) to the importer's receiving point from the point at which the frozen fish or seafood entered the United States or the carload rail rate for frozen fish or seafood from the point in the United States nearest the foreign shipper's shipping point, whichever is designated on the invoice by the seller.

(c) The actual cost of transportation (exclusive of local trucking, hauling and handling charges) to the importer's receiving point from the nearest domestic port from which a substantial volume of that species is shipped. However, with respect to the species listed hereinafter, the cost of transportation shall not exceed the cost for the type of shipment used from the ports listed for that species.

Species: Cod, haddock, pollack, hake, cusk, yellowtail, blackback, lemon sole, gray sole, sea dab, mackerel, rosefish. Port: Boston, Mass.

Where frozen Atlantic Coast smelts are imported for resale in the United States, the freight from the point of shipment to the wholesaler's warehouse, not to exceed the carload rail freight rate, if such rate is available, may be added.

Where frozen Canadian lake fish covered in Schedules Nos. 70–77, inclusive, in the table of base prices in section 14 are imported for resale in the United States, there may be added the actual transportation cost (excluding local trucking, hauling and handling charges) from the point of shipment in Canada to the destination point in the United States, but in no event more than the carload rail rate for frozen fish from the City of Winnipeg in the Province of Manitoba, Canada, to the destination point in the United States.

A buyer of imported frozen fish or seafood from an importer-wholesaler, including any agent of a foreign shipper, may add the transportation from the shipper to his established place of doing business, exclusive of local trucking, hauling and handling charges.

In determining the transportation allowance, common carrier rates shall be used. The importer may add the allowance only when he records it on an invoice to the customer purchasing the fish or seafood, designating which of the three bases he is using. A purchasing wholesaler or subsequent wholesalers of that fish or seafood may pass on such transportation allowance, but only if they in turn record it on an invoice to their customers.

6. Section 7 (e) is amended to read as follows:

(e) Every person making a sale of any frozen fish or seafood subject to this regulation shall furnish to the purchaser at the time of delivery a written statement setting forth the date of the sale; the name and address of the buyer and seller; the species sold; a notation that the fish or seafood is frozen; the quantity, sizes, grades and styles of processing of frozen fish or seafood where price differences exist in the table of base prices in section 14 because of these factors, and the prices charged therefor, including a separate statement of the container differentials, if any, as provided in section 13, and allowable transportation cost, if any. If the statement furnished a purchaser at the time of delivery does not identify the size, grade and style of processing, where price differences exist in the table of base prices in section 14 because of these factors, the maximum price which may be charged for the frozen fish and seafood involved in the sale is the maximum price for the lowest priced size, grade and style of processing of the species of frozen fish and seafood sold. If the seller fails to note on the statement that the fish or seafood is frozen, and if a price is listed in Maximum Price Regulation No. 418 for the species in the particular style of processing or dressing sold, the maximum price which may be charged for the fish or seafood involved in the sale is the lower of the prices listed in Maximum Price Regulation No. 418 and this Maximum Price Regulation No. 364.

7. In section 12, after the definition of "Government agency" the following definition is inserted:

"Grade" means any qualification of the name of the fish or seafood listed in the table of base prices in section 14.

8. In section 12, after the definition of "Round" the following definition is inserted:

"Saddles" means the pectoral fins and the connecting cartilaginous strip of a rajafish.

9. In section 12, after the definition of "Tail cut" the following definition is inserted:

"Wings" means the pectoral fins of a rajafish.

10. In the table of base prices in section 14, Schedule Nos. 5, 7, 11 (a), 11 (b), 11 (c), 11 (e), 11 (f), 13, 14, 27, 39 and 48 are amended, reference to footnote 10 is added to the name of Schedule No. 15 and reference to footnote 11 is added to Item No. 2 of Schedule Nos. 11 (e) and 11 (f) and Item Nos. 6 and 7 are added to Schedule No. 15 to read as follows:

ARTICLE I—PROHIBITION AND SCOPE OF REGULATION

SECTION 1. Over-ceiling prices prohibited. (a) On and after April 21, 1943, regardless of any contract or other obligations, no person shall sell or deliver, and no person shall buy in the course of trade or business, any Northeastern hardwood lumber for direct mill shipment at prices higher than the maximum prices fixed by this regulation, and no person shall agree, offer, or attempt to do any of these things.

(b) [Deleted]

[Paragraph (b) deleted by Am. 7; effective 4–22–44]

SEC. 2. Less than maximum prices. Prices lower than the maximum prices may, of course, be charged and paid.

SEC. 3. Lumber in transit. If lumber has been received before April 21, 1943, by a carrier, other than one owned or controlled by the seller, for shipment to a buyer, that shipment is not subject to this regulation. It remains subject to the terms of the General Maximum Price Regulation.[3]

SEC. 4. What transactions are covered—(a) Direct-mill shipments. This ceiling applies to all shipments originating at a mill, no matter who the seller is, and no matter whether he usually is known as a mill, concentrator, wholesaler, retailer or anything else. It does not apply to sales out of distribution yard stock. A shipment is regarded as originating at a mill if the lumber reaches the purchaser without ever becoming an integral part of the stock of a distribution yard. A sale is considered a sale out of distribution yard stock only if the lumber was a part of regular yard stock at the time the sale was made.

(b) How to tell a mill from a distribution yard—(1) General tests. The term "mill", as used here, covers what are known in the trade as sawmills, planing mills and concentration yards. Three types of establishments are described below: the first, (i), a typical sawmill or planing mill; the second, (ii), a typical concentration yard; and the third, (iii), a typical distribution yard. An establishment which resembles a typical sawmill or planing mill or a typical concentration yard more than it does a typical distribution yard is considered a mill; and one which resembles a typical distribution yard more than it does a typical sawmill or planing mill or a typical concentration yard is considered a distribution yard.

(i) A "typical sawmill or planing mill" is an establishment which is chiefly engaged in manufacturing lumber from logs or rough lumber by sawing or planing; which is located in or near a lumber producing area; which makes and sells Northeastern hardwood lumber.

(ii) A "typical concentration yard" is an establishment which concentrates and prepares lumber for commercial shipment; which keeps in stock mostly Northeastern hardwood lumber; which has its lumber brought in chiefly in rough green form by truck from small local sawmills and sells chiefly for rail shipment; and which has been located at its particular site to be near the lumber producing area.

(iii) A "typical distribution yard" is a wholesale or retail lumber yard which gets lumber from mills or other yards; unloads, sorts, stores, and resells or redistributes it; which regularly maintains a varied stock of lumber from different regions; which gets its lumber mostly by rail and sells mostly for truck shipment; which is equipped to make quick deliveries of many different items of lumber; and which has been located at its particular site in order to be near a lumber consuming area.

(2) New yards. In order to prevent violation of this regulation by unnecessarily routing through yards, the Office of Price Administration will not recognize distribution yards set up after April 21, 1943, unless the new yard writes to the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., and proves that it satisfies the requirements of the definition and that the purpose is not to get around this regulation by means of unnecessary yard business. Until approval is received, the new yard cannot consider itself a distribution yard for the purpose of this regulation.

SEC. 5. What products are covered. (a) This regulation covers all Northeastern hardwood lumber, whether the grades, sizes and specifications are specifically named in the price tables or not. All grade terms have the meaning given in the "Rules for the Measurement and Inspection of Hardwood Lumber" issued by the National Hardwood Lumber Association, effective January, 1943.

(b) This regulation covers, under the name of "Northeastern hardwood lumber", all lumber produced from the following botanical species, and processed into lumber at mills located in the Northeastern hardwood area: tough white ash (Fraxinus americana), beech (Fagus americana), hard maple (Acer saccharum), yellow poplar (Liriodendron tulipifera), and the commercial species of the genera basswood (Tilia), birch (Betula), soft elm (Ulmus), soft maple (Acer), chestnut (Castanea dentata), hickory (Hicoria), cherry (Prunus), oak (Quercus), and all other hardwood species.

[Paragraph (b) as amended by Am. 1, 8 F.R. 8541, effective 6–24–43]

(c) The "Northeastern hardwood area" includes the States of Maine, New Hampshire, Vermont, Massachusetts, Rhode Island, Connecticut, New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Delaware, all of the state of Maryland except the counties of Garrett, Allegany, Washington, and Frederick, and the Dominion of Canada east of the 85th meridian.

SEC. 6. What persons are covered. Any person who makes the kind of sale or purchase described above, for himself or others, is subject to this regulation. The term "person" includes an individual, corporation, partnership, association, or any other organized group; their legal successors or representatives; the United States, or any Government, or any of their political subdivisions, or any agencies of the foregoing.

SEC. 7. Relation to other regulations—(a) General Maximum Price Regulation. Any sale or delivery covered by Maximum Price Regulation No. 368 is not subject to the General Maximum Price Regulation.

(b) Revised Maximum Export Price Regulation.[4] The maximum price for export sales of Northeastern hardwood lumber is governed by the Revised Maximum Export Price Regulation.

ARTICLE II—HOW TO FIGURE MAXIMUM F. O. B. MILL AND DELIVERED PRICES

SEC. 8. Basic prices. The maximum f. o. b. mill prices for domestic Northeastern hardwood lumber are set forth in Appendices A and B and for imported Northeastern hardwood lumber, in Appendix C.

SEC. 9. Deductions for cash. If cash is paid, the maximum price must be reduced by the seller's October, 1941, cash discount. For example, if this discount was 2% and the maximum price without cash discount is $30, the maximum price when cash is paid is $29.40. Exception: on specific written allocations issued by the Office of the Chief of Engineers, War Department, the terms 30 days net may be used by the seller regardless of his established practice.

SEC. 10. Retail type sales excepted. A "retail type" direct-mill sale is not subject to this regulation. A "retail type" direct-mill sale means a sale of not more than 2,000 feet of lumber in which the purchaser requests delivery to a point not more than 20 miles from the mill at which the shipment originates. It includes only sales of lumber to contractors or consumers for use in construction, remodeling, repair, maintenance, fabrication, or remanufacture, and it does not include sales for resale in substantially the same form. "Retail type" direct-mill sales remain subject to the General Maximum Price Regulation.

SEC. 11. Transportation additions: Domestic and imported—(a) Private truck. Where a domestic shipment is exclusively by motor vehicle owned or controlled by the seller, the addition to the f. o. b. mill prices for transportation may be no greater than the actual cost to the seller of delivery by motor vehicle; and in no event shall the charge exceed the rail carload rate for the most nearly comparable haul applied to the quantity actually shipped.

[Section heading as amended by Am. 2, 8 F.R. 10660, effective 8–4–43]

(b) Common or contract carrier. For common or contract carrier shipments, the maximum transportation addition shall be either the rate times the estimated weights in Appendix D, or the actual amount paid to the carrier. When estimated weights are used, the delivered price shall be evened out to the nearest quarter-dollar per 1,000 feet.

(c) Truck delivery after rail haul. Where the shipment is by rail followed by truck delivery, the amount added for transportation may include, in addition to the amount added for rail transportation, the actual cost of truck delivery.

(d) Trucking to rails. Where a truck haul precedes a rail shipment as where a mill located away from a railhead hauls lumber by truck to the railhead, no addition may be made for the truck haul. However, in the following two cases, a mill may apply to the Lumber Branch of the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C. for special permission to make an addition:

(1) Where the mill was located away from rail connections because it specialized in water-borne lumber, and where shortage of shipping has forced it to operate by rail;

(2) Where a mill's rail connection has been abandoned since September 5, 1941.

[Paragraph (d) as amended by Am. 5, 8 F.R. 17414, effective 1–3–44]

(e) Transportation to planing mill. Where the lumber is shipped by rail from a mill having milling-in-transit arrangements with a carrier to a planing mill, owned by the same person, for further processing before delivery to the purchaser, that person may apply for permission to figure transportation charges on the basis of the through rail freight rate from the first mill to final destination in the following case:

(1) Where the hurricane of September, 1938, damaged and destroyed a substantial portion of the timber near which the joint sawmill and planing mill operation had been located, so that the operator has been compelled to rely primarily on more distant sources of timber and has moved the sawmill near the source of supply; and

(2) Where it has not been practicable to move the planing mill because of excessive moving costs, shortages of mill labor and insufficient standing timber in any single location.

The application should be made by letter to the Lumber Branch, of the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., and may be acted upon by letter. The addition may not be made on quotations or sales until permission has been received.

ARTICLE III—SPECIFIC DUTIES AND PROHIBITED PRACTICES

SEC. 14. What the invoice must contain—(a) General. Because of the large number of possible additions to the basic maximum prices, it is necessary that some of them be separately shown on the invoice. Otherwise the purchaser and the Office of Price Administration could not tell in many cases whether a price which appeared to be above the ceiling was legal or not. Failure to invoice properly is just as much a violation of this regulation as charging an excessive price.

(b) Basic price. All invoices must contain a complete description of the lumber to show whether the price is proper or not. Any working, specification, or extra which affects the maximum price must be mentioned in the description. The amount added for these does not have to be separately shown.

(c) Transportation charges. In delivered sales, the invoice must contain the:

(1) Point of origin of shipment;

(2) Destination;

(3) Rail rate, (if estimated weights are used; otherwise the actual amount added for transportation); and in the case of the sales of imported lumber, the method of calculation of the freight addition;

(4) The words "direct-mill shipment".

(d) Delivery and custom milling or kiln drying charges. Any separate charge which the seller is permitted to make for the following must be separately shown on the invoice:

(1) Truck delivery after rail haul, or trucking to railhead.

(2) Custom milling or kiln drying. The invoice of the custom mill or kiln must be attached to the lumber invoice of the seller.

(e) Different freight rates. When a single order, for which a single flat delivered price was quoted and accepted, is shipped from two or more mills to a single destination on varying freight rates, the seller may average-out the transportation charges. For example, if a wholesaler bids $33.00 per MBM on a single order of a hundred thousand feet of lumber, the ceiling price being $30.00 per MBM and the estimated freight $3.00, he can ship half of it on a rate resulting in a $2.00 freight charge and half on a rate resulting in a $4.00 freight charge. Where this practice is adopted, the seller must observe all of the following conditions:

(1) Each invoice must state that the particular shipment is part of a larger order and identify the order. It must also show the individual rates for each shipment or delivery.

(2) The transportation charges which may be made and collected for each shipment or delivery, on account, must not exceed the average transportation charge figured on the entire order or the actual transportation charge for the particular shipment based upon the permitted estimated weights, whichever is lower.

(3) Upon completion of the order the seller must render a final invoice showing the individual f. o. b. mill prices separately, the amount shipped from each mill, the freight charge for each shipment, and a reconciliation of the total amount so computed with the agreed delivered selling prices and also with the maximum prices permitted by this regulation. Final payment and all necessary adjustments between buyer and seller are to be made upon the final reconciliation.

SEC. 15. Records. All sellers of Northeastern hardwood lumber must keep records which show a complete description of items of lumber sold, the name and address of the buyer, the date of the sale and the price. Buyers must keep similar records, including the name and address of the seller. These records must be kept for any month in which the seller or buyer sold or bought 5,000 feet board measure or more of Northeastern hardwood lumber. They must be kept for two years for inspection by the Office of Price Administration.

SEC. 16. Prohibited practices—(a) General. Any practice which is a device to get the effect of a higher than ceiling price without actually raising the dollars-and-cents price is as much a violation of this regulation as an outright over-ceiling price.

(b) Specific practices. The following are some of the specific practices prohibited.

(1) Getting the effect of a higher price by changing credit practices from what they were in October 1941. This includes decreasing credit periods or making greater charges for extension of credit. In any case, on sales made through the Office of the Chief of Engineers, War Department, terms of 30 days net may be used.

(2) Refusing, without good reason, to ship lumber in standard grades and on grade-rule range widths and lengths.

(3) Breaking up a transaction into small orders or small deliveries in an attempt to take it out of this regulation.

(4) Grading as a special grade lumber which can be graded as a standard grade; wrongly or falsely grading or invoicing lumber in any way.

(5) Making additions for special specifications, services, or other extras which are not specifically permitted.

(6) Unnecessarily routing lumber through a distribution yard.

(7) Quoting a gross price above the maximum price, even if accompanied by a discount the effect of which is to bring the net price below the maximum.

(8) Making the buyer take something he does not want in order to get what he does want; for example, making a buyer who orders No. 2 Common take all the upper grades that develop.

(9) Getting a higher price by charging the buyer for ripping or resawing, or charging on the basis of an original size larger than the item actually delivered except where the items ordered and delivered are non-standard sizes not specifically priced in the tables.

(c) It is unlawful for any person to charge, receive or pay a commission for the service of procuring (including buying, selling, or locating lumber, or for any related service such as "expediting") which does not involve actual physical handling of lumber, if the commission plus the purchase price results in a total payment by the buyer of lumber which is higher than the maximum price of the lumber. For purposes of this regulation, a commission is any compensation, however designated, which is paid for the procurement of lumber. This prohibition has no application to the case of a bona fide employer-employee relationship where the employee serves only one employer, insofar as lumber procurement is concerned, and where the compensation paid by the employer is a fixed salary and is not based directly or indirectly on the quantity, price or value of the lumber in connection with which the service is rendered.

[Paragraph (c) as amended by Supplementary Order 77, 8 F.R. 14310, effective 10-26-43]

SEC. 17. Adjustable pricing. Any person may agree to sell at a price which can be increased up to the maximum price in effect at the time of shipment; but no person may, unless authorized by the Office of Price Administration, deliver or agree to deliver at prices to be adjusted upward in accordance with action taken by the Office of Price Administration after shipment. Such authorization may be given when a request for a change in the applicable maximum price is pending, but only if the authorization is necessary to promote distribution or production and if it will not interfere with the purposes of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended. The authorization may be given by the Administrator or by any official of the Office of Price Administration having authority to act upon the pending request for a change in price or to give the authorization.

The authorization will be given by order, except that it may be given by letter or telegram when the contemplated revision will be the granting of an individual application for adjustment.

[Sec. 17 as amended by Supplementary Order 80, 8 F.R. 10568, 14310, effective 7-27-43]

ARTICLE IV—MISCELLANEOUS

SEC. 18. Petitions for adjustment or amendment—(a) Government contracts. See Procedural Regulation No. 6[9] for adjustment provisions on certain government contracts or subcontracts.

[Paragraph (a) as amended by Supplementary Order 83, 9 F.R. 973, effective 2-1-44]

(b) Petitions for amendment. Any person seeking an amendment of any provision of this regulation may file a petition for amendment in accordance with the provisions of Revised Procedural Regulation 1,[4] issued by the Office of Price Administration.

(c) In treating with petitions for amendment or adjustment, consideration will not be given to log and bolt costs which are higher than the applicable maximum purchase prices for logs and bolts established in Revised Maximum Price Regulation 161 (West Coast Logs),[7] or Maximum Price Regulations 313 (Prime Grade Hardwood Logs) [8] and 348 (Logs and Bolts),[9] or any revision or amendment of these regulations. This rule shall be followed regardless of whether the petitioner gets logs and bolts by purchasing them, logging his own standing timber, contracting for the logging of his own standing timber, or any other means. All petitions in any way based on the cost of logs or bolts must show the actual cost to the petitioner of logs and bolts received at his plant during the three months immediately prior to filing the petition, and the cost which would have been incurred by the petitioner if all of these logs and bolts had been purchased by him at ceiling prices. To figure these ceiling prices the petitioner should refer to the regulation which fixes the maximum prices for purchases and sales of the kinds of logs and bolts received at his plant.

[Paragraph (c) added by Supplementary Order 47, 8 F.R. 5808, effective 5-8-43]

[NOTE: Supplementary Order No. 26 (7 F.R. 9619) provides for the filing of applications for adjustment or petitions for amendment based on a pending wage or salary increase requiring the approval of the National War Labor Board.]

SEC. 19. Enforcement. (a) Persons violating any provision of this regulation are subject to the criminal penalties, civil enforcement actions, suits for treble damages, and proceedings for suspension of licenses provided for by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended.

(b) War procurement agencies and their contracting or paying finance officers are not subject to any liability, civil or criminal, imposed by this regulation. Persons who make sales covered by this regulation to war procurement agencies, however, are subject to all the liabilities imposed by this regulation. "War procurement agencies" include the War Department, the Navy Department, the United States Maritime Commission and the Lend-Lease Section in the Procurement Division of the Treasury Department, or any of their agencies.

SEC. 20. Licensing. The provisions of Licensing Order No. 1,[10] licensing all persons who make sales under price control, are applicable to all sellers subject to this regulation or schedule. A seller's license may be suspended for violations of the license or of one or more applicable price schedules or regulations. A person whose license is suspended may not, during the period of suspension, make any sale for which his license has been suspended.

[Sec. 20 as amended by Supplementary Order 72, 8 F.R. 13244, effective 10-1-43]

SEC. 21. Grades, specifications, and extras not specifically priced. (a) Northeastern hardwood lumber in grades, specifications, and extras not specifically priced in Appendices A, B, and C is nevertheless subject to this regulation. The maximum price shall be a price which bears the October 1941 relation to the most comparable standard item. The seller should find his price difference between the special item and this most comparable standard item in October 1941 or the first month before that in which he had sales of both items, or if this is impossible, the price differential he would have used. This difference is then added to or subtracted from the maximum price of the comparable standard grade, and the result is the maximum price for the special grade. This price must be reported to the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C. on OPA Form 675-1 given in paragraph (d) below. It may be ordered reduced, if it is found excessive. But if the price is not disapproved within 30 days of the receipt of the report it is approved.

Applications for approval of maximum prices for special grades and items under this section will be considered only when accompanied by (1) a true copy of the order or of customer's inquiry on the basis of which the application has been submitted; and (2) a statement certified to be true by the purchaser or prospective purchaser to the effect that none of the grades specifically priced in the regulation will serve the purpose for which the stock is intended to be used, which purpose is to be stated; that it has been his custom to purchase lumber on such special specifications. Approval of the price will be conditional on a finding that the purpose for which the special grade item is to be used is classified by the War Production Board as essential to the war effort. Prices, when approved, for such special grades or items will be based on the price differential previously established between the particular special item requirement and the related grade rule specification.

[Paragraph (a) as amended by Am. 5, 8 F.R. 17414, effective 1-8-44]

(b) A seller using this pricing section can go ahead with delivery of the lumber and collection of the price he has computed or requested. But he must tell the buyer that the price is subject to revision within the thirty-day period, and, if the price is ordered reduced, must refund any excess over the final approved price.

(c) For the purposes of this section the term Northeastern hardwood lumber shall include all items of lumber in the species set forth in paragraph (b) of section 5, but shall not include the following items: (The term "items" includes specifications, workings, services, and/or extras.)

(1) Glued stock.
(2) Moulding.
(3) Shiplap.
(4) Risers, step treads, thresholds, handrails.
(5) Bevel drop siding.
(6) Flooring.
(7) Switch, cross, and mine ties.
(8) Mine material.
(9) Small dimension stock.
(10) Lath.
(11) Navy oak ship stock (see Maximum Price Regulation 281).

NOTES ON WHITE OAK OR RED OAK—STRUCTURAL STOCK OR SOUND SQUARE EDGE

Random widths; in 2", 3" and 4" thicknesses—$43.00.

Free of heart; in 2", 3" and 4" thicknesses—add $6.00 to maximum price for same thickness, width and length in above schedule.

Prices for specific sizes not in schedule. The maximum price for material of a length not included in this schedule shall be determined by adding to the maximum price for the next shorter length the proportionate amount of the difference between the maximum price of such next shorter length and the maximum price of the next longer length.

In the case of any item for which the thickness or the width is not included in the schedule, the maximum price shall be the maximum price for the material of the next greater thickness or width.

The maximum prices set forth above supersede the maximum prices for like material authorized for individual sellers under the special pricing provisions of this regulation.

Deduction for mixed hardwoods. For mixed hardwoods—structural stock or sound square edge, deduct $4.00 from the maximum price for white oak or red oak—structural stock or sound square edge in the same size as shown in above table.

NOTES ON 1" ROUND EDGE HARDWOODS

These maximum prices for "log run" and "mill run" shall be applicable only in case the seller guarantees to the buyer that the shipment shall meet the following requirements:

Log run: Not more than 40% No. 2 Common and not less than 15% FAS.

Mill run: Not more than 40% No. 2 Common, not more than 20% No. 2 Common, and not less than 10% FAS.

The maximum price of round-edge mixed hardwoods sold on a "log run" or "mill run" basis shall be the "log run" or "mill run" price of the lowest-priced species included.

For items thicker than 1" in each species, add to the above prices the same amounts by which the prices for those thicknesses, in square-edge lumber grades, exceed the prices for 1" stock in the same square-edge lumber grades.

[Table 19, formerly Table 20, redesignated and amended by Am. 7, effective 4–22–44; former Table 19 revoked by Am. 4, 8 F.R. 16791, effective 12–18–43]

Where the item is of a thickness for which no prices are listed in the square edge lumber tables for the same species, for example, 2¼ inches or 2¾ inches, the amount of addition shall be proportioned, according to the thickness of the item, between the amount of addition for the next lower thickness and the amount of addition for the next greater thickness over the one inch price in the same square edge lumber species and grade.

Example: F. A. S. Hard Maple 2¾ inch thick.

Maximum price for 1" F. A. S. Hard Maple (square edge)	$107.00
Maximum price for 2½" F. A. S. Hard Maple (square edge)	139.00
Maximum price for 3" F. A. S. Hard Maple (square edge)	150.00
Addition for 2½" stock	32.00
Addition for 3" stock	43.00
Proportionate addition for 2¾" stock	37.50

(d) For inspecting, grading and measuring after kiln drying. Where, at the request of the purchaser, the seller inspects, grades and measures the lumber after kiln drying, an addition may be made of 5 percent of the f. o. b. mill rough air dried price of the lumber.

(e) Custom kiln drying. Where Northeastern hardwood lumber is kiln dried for the seller through a custom kiln and such custom kiln is not owned or operated by, or connected with, the saw mill, the seller may add the actual cost of this custom kiln drying. The amount added may not be higher than the custom kiln's maximum price established by Maximum Price Regulation No. 165, as amended [11]—Services—for such kiln drying.

SEC. 26. Anti-stain treatment. An addition of 50 cents per MBM may be made when lumber is anti-stain treated.

SEC. 27. National Hardwood Lumber Association inspection certificate. Where the purchaser requests an inspection by, and an inspection certificate issued by, the National Hardwood Lumber Association, the seller may make an added charge which does not exceed the inspection fees and expenses charged by the Association to the seller and shown on the certificate.

SEC. 28. Green lumber. For lumber shipped in a "green" condition, deduct from the maximum prices for air-dried lumber established in this Appendix A, 10 per cent of the maximum price for rough, air-dried material in the same specifications.

This deduction shall not apply to special sawn timbers, tough ash lumber, or to lumber customarily used without air seasoning, but it shall apply to any lumber which requires further air seasoning by the purchaser before being placed in the kiln for kiln-drying, or before fabrication if not kiln-dried.

The mere fact that the lumber is not used immediately, but is stored on the purchaser's yard, does not necessarily mean that green lumber has been shipped, but in case of dispute any lumber which weighs 25% or more in excess of the air-dried weight as published in the Rules for the Measurement and Inspection of Hardwood Lumber, issued by the National Hardwood Lumber Association January 1, 1943, or for weights filed with the Office of Price Administration by the individual shippers, shall be considered to be "green".

Any purchaser who accepts "green" lumber at prices applicable to "dry" lumber is guilty of violation of the regulation to the same extent as the seller.

[Sec. 28 amended by Am. 1, 8 F.R. 8541, effective 6-24-43; and Am. 5, 8 F.R. 17414, effective 1-3-44]

SEC. 29. Combination grades or species—(a) General. For Northeastern hardwood lumber sold on "Log run", "Mill run", or "No. 1 Common and better" grade for which no specific maximum price has been established in the price tables, the maximum price shall be the maximum price established in the table for the lowest grade of lumber contained in the stock that is sold on the special inspection grade. The seller, however, may grade and ship the lumber on the standard grades included in the special inspection grade and invoice the footage in each of the standard grades at a price not to exceed the maximum price established in this regulation for the respective standard grades.

(b) No. 1 Common and selects. If lumber subject to this regulation is sold on a grade of No. 1 Common and selects, and if no specific maximum price has been established for this grade in the tables, $2.00 may be added to the maximum price for No. 1 Common.

(c) Mixed hardwoods. The maximum price for mixed hardwoods in a specified grade and thickness shall be the price of the same grade and thickness for the lowest-priced species included.

The maximum prices shall include commissions and all other charges. Lower prices than the maximum prices established by this Maximum Price Regulation No. 53 may be charged, demanded, paid, or offered.

[NOTE: Revised Supplementary Order No. 34 (8 F.R. 12404) permits, under certain conditions, the addition of extra packing expenses to maximum prices on sales to procurement agencies of the United States.]

[NOTE: Supplementary Order No. 31 (7 F.R. 9894, 8 F.R. 1212, 2782) provides that: "Notwithstanding the provisions of any price regulation, the tax on transportation of all property (excepting coal) imposed by section 620 of the Revenue Act of 1942 shall, for purposes of determining the applicable maximum price of any commodity or service, be treated as though it were an increase of 3% in the amount charged by every person engaged in the business of transporting property for hire. It shall not be treated, under any provision of any price regulation or any interpretation thereof, as a tax for which a charge may be made in addition to the maximum price."]

SEC. 1.2 Exempt sales. Sales of fats and oils products in the finished form, sales of refined fats and oils (except coconut oil) destined for use or consumption without further processing or packing by the buyer, and sales of lard destined for human consumption without further processing are exempt from the operation of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 53, unless a maximum price for such fats or oils product, or refined fat or oil, or lard, is enumerated in terms of dollars and cents, or a method for computing a maximum price for such fats or oils product, or refined fat or oil, or lard, is set forth in Article III or any subsequent article of this regulation.

[NOTE: Supplementary Order No. 42 (8 F.R. 4968) provides that no price regulation of the Office of Price Administration shall apply to sales or deliveries of any commodity or service made to Government agencies pursuant to secret contracts or subcontracts.]

SEC. 1.3 Exempt Governmental purchases of foreign fats and oils. All purchases of fats and oils so purchased to the United States Government or any agency thereof, or by an agent, broker or other representative purchasing for the account of the United States Government or any agency thereof, shall be exempt from the operation of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 53, whether the purchase is made directly in the foreign country or through an agent, broker or other representative of the foreign seller located in the United States. Where fats and oils located in a foreign country are purchased by an agent, broker or other representative of the United States Government or any agency thereof who has a contract to resell the fats and oils so purchased to the United States or any agency thereof, such resale shall be exempt from the operation of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 53. This provision shall have no application to purchases by the United States Government or any agency thereof of fats and oils located in the United States which have been imported into this country without a contract to resell the fats and oils so imported to the United States Government or any agency thereof.

SEC. 1.4 Application for determination of a maximum price. If the maximum price on a particular fat or oil covered by this Maximum Price Regulation No. 53 cannot be determined under the provisions of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 53, the affected party shall file an application with the Office of Price Administration in Washington, D. C., containing:

(a) A description of the fat or oil and showing wherein it is impossible to determine a maximum price therefor;

(b) A statement of the facts of all transactions since January 1, 1941, of the applicant and all information he may have obtained concerning transactions of others from said date in the fat or oil in question in any form or state of processing including transactions in the oil bearing material, raw product, and crude oil.

(c) (1) An itemized statement of the applicant's total cost of said fat or oil (including any manufacturing or processing costs), (2) the applicant's maximum price for that commodity presently sold by the applicant that has a maximum price presently determinable and that is most nearly similar to the fat or oil for which a maximum price is sought and (3) an itemized statement of the applicant's total cost of such most nearly similar commodity (including any manufacturing or processing costs).

Upon receipt of such application the Office of Price Administration will proceed to fix a maximum price or instruct the applicant as to the method of determining the same and for reporting the price he may determine. Any price fixed or determined under this paragraph shall be subject to adjustment at any time by the Office of Price Administration.

SEC. 1.5 Imports and exports: Adjustment of maximum prices caused by variances in freight and insurance charges. The maximum prices hereinafter established by this Maximum Price Regulation No. 53 for fats and oils shipped into or out of the United States by ocean transportation shall include the charges prevailing on October 1, 1941, for freight, war risk insurance, and marine insurance connected with such transportation.

Increases in such charges may be added only if such charges have been actually incurred by the seller on such sale. Decreases in such charges shall be subtracted from the maximum prices hereinafter established by this Maximum Price Regulation No. 53.

SEC. 1.6 Brokers' commissions paid by buyers. (a) Where the buyer pays a broker or other person a commission or other contingent compensation for services in bringing about, or otherwise connected with, any purchase, sale, delivery, acquisition, or other transfer of any fats or oils for which a maximum price is established by this Maximum Price Regulation No. 53, (1) the maximum total price that the buyer may pay for the fats or oils and as such commission or other contingent compensation, shall be the maximum prices for such fats or oils specified in this Maximum Price Regulation No. 53, and (2) the maximum price that the seller may receive for the fats or oils sold shall be that sum which, when added to such commission or other contingent compensation paid by the buyer, equals the maximum prices for such fats or oils specified in this Maximum Price Regulation No. 53.

(b) Exception. The provisions of paragraph (a) of this section 1.6 shall not apply to purchases made from the United States Government, or any state, municipal or other governmental unit, or any agencies of any of them, where the buyer customarily has paid broker's commissions or fees during the two years preceding the month of March 1942; in such case the buyer, in addition to paying the broker's commissions or fees, may pay the seller, and the seller may receive, the maximum prices specified in this Maximum Price Regulation No. 53.

SEC. 1.7 Adjustable pricing. Any person may agree to sell at a price which can be increased up to the maximum price in effect at the time of delivery; but no person may, unless authorized by the Office of Price Administration, deliver or agree to deliver at prices to be adjusted upward in accordance with action taken by the Office of Price Administration after delivery. Such authorization may be given when a request for a change in the applicable maximum price is pending, but only if the authorization is necessary to promote distribution or production and if it will not interfere with the purposes of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended. The authorization may be given by the Administrator or by any official of the Office of Price Administration to whom the authority to grant such authorization has been delegated. The authorization will be given by order, except that it may be given by letter or telegram when the contemplated revision will be the granting of an individual application for adjustment.

SEC. 1.8 Petitions for amendment. Any person seeking an amendment of any provision of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 53 may file a petition for amendment in accordance with the provisions of Revised Procedural Regulation No. 1.[3]

[NOTE: Procedural Regulation No. 6 (7 F.R. 5087, 5665; 8 F.R. 6173, 6174) provides for the filing of applications for adjustment of maximum prices for commodities or services under Government contracts or subcontracts. Revised Supplementary Order No. 9 (8 F.R. 6175) makes the provisions of Procedural Regulation No. 6 applicable to all price regulations, excepting those which expressly prohibit such applications, and certain specific regulations listed in Revised Supplementary Order No. 9.]

[NOTE: Supplementary Order No. 28 (7 F.R. 9619) provides for the filing of applications for adjustment or petitions for amendment based on a pending wage or salary increase requiring the approval of the National War Labor Board.]

SEC. 1.9 Evasion—(a) General. The price limitations set forth in this Maximum Price Regulation No. 53 shall not be evaded whether by direct or indirect methods in connection with a purchase, sale, delivery, or transfer of fats or oils, or by way of premium, commission, service, transportation or other charge, or by any other trade understanding or by any other means.

(b) By purchasing oil-bearing materials and paying for processing. The purchase of oil-bearing materials from a processor who is to process the oil-bearing materials for the purchaser is forbidden, if the combined cost of (1) the oil-bearing materials and (2) the processing toll exceeds the maximum price established by this Maximum Price Regulation No. 53 for the type and quantity of oil produced from the oil-bearing materials. If the meal or other by-products produced from the oil-bearing materials are to be retained by the processor, the value of the meal or other by-product retained must be considered in determining the cost of the processing toll.

SEC. 1.10 Enforcement. Persons violating any provision of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 53 are subject to the criminal penalties, civil enforcement actions, and suits for treble damages provided for by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942.

[NOTE: Supplementary Order No. 7 (7 F.R. 5176) provides that war procurement agencies and governments whose defense is vital to the defense of the United States shall be relieved of liability, civil or criminal, imposed by price regulations issued by the Office of Price Administration.]

SEC. 1.11 Records and reports. Every person making any sale of fats or oils, except sales exempted under sections 1.2 and 1.3 shall keep for inspection by the Office of Price Administration for a period of not less than one year complete and accurate records of each such sale, including the date thereof, the name of the purchaser, the price paid or received, and the grade, quality and amount sold.

Every person affected by this Maximum Price Regulation No. 53 shall submit such reports to the Office of Price Administration as it may from time to time require, subject to the approval of the Bureau of the Budget.

SEC. 1.12 Geographic applicability of the regulation. This Maximum Price Regulation No. 53 shall apply in, and only in, the District of Columbia and the forty-eight states of the United States.

SEC. 1.13 Definitions. When used in this Maximum Price Regulation No. 53, the term:

(a) "Person" includes an individual, corporation, partnership, association, or any other organized group of persons, legal successor or representative of any of the foregoing, and includes the United States, any agency thereof, any other government, or any of its political subdivisions, and any agency of the foregoing.

(b) "Fats and oils" means all of the raw, crude, and refined fats and oils, their by-products and derivatives, and greases, except "essential oils", mineral oils, butter, cocoa butter, and poultry fat.

[Paragraph (b) amended by Am. 18, 9 F.R. 2067, effective 2-15-44.]

(c) "Fats and oils products in the finished form" means those products the whole or substantial part of which are manufactured from fats or oils, which are sold for use or consumption without further processing and the manufacturing process of which includes more than filtering, refining, or deodorizing, or splitting, or dividing into component parts, for example, shortening, soap, paint, margarine, salad dressing, and mayonnaise.

(d) "Refined fats and oils" means those fats and oils which have been cleaned, deodorized, or purified by settling, straining, filtering, distilling, treating with chemicals, or by any other means, and which at the conclusion of the refining process do not contain any added substance other than is necessary as a preservative, for example, margarine oil, salad oil, prime summer yellow, and/or bleachable cottonseed oil, oleo oil, and oils used for the technical and protective coating trades.

(e) In the phrase, "similar amount to a similar purchaser," the word "similar" means that amount and that type of purchaser with respect to which the same price did apply or would have applied under the seller's trade practices on October 1, 1941.

SEC. 1.14 Licensing. The provisions of Licensing Order No. 1[4] licensing all persons who make sales under price control, are applicable to all sellers subject to this regulation or schedule. A seller's license may be suspended for violations of the license or of one or more applicable price schedules or regulations. A person whose license is suspended may not, during the period of suspension, make any sale for which his license has been suspended.

[Sec. 1.14 added by Supplementary Order 72, 8 F.R. 13244, effective 10-1-43.]

ARTICLE II—MAXIMUM PRICES FOR FATS AND OILS FOR WHICH NO MAXIMUM PRICES IN TERMS OF DOLLARS AND CENTS ARE PROVIDED

SEC. 2.1 Maximum prices. (a) The maximum price for any kind, grade or quality of fat or oil for which a maximum price is not specifically provided in any of the following articles of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 53, shall be the highest price at which the seller sold such kind of fat or oil of the same grade and quality in a similar amount to a similar purchaser on October 1, 1941, for delivery within sixty days.

(b) If the maximum price of such fat or oil cannot be determined under paragraph (a) of this section 2.1, the maximum price shall be the highest price at which the seller sold the same kind of fat or oil of a different grade or quality or in a different amount or to a different type of purchaser on October 1, 1941, for delivery within sixty days, making the necessary adjustments for differences in grade, quality, amount or type of purchaser in accordance with the seller's practice for determining price differentials existing on October 1, 1941.

(c) If the maximum price cannot be determined under either paragraphs (a) or (b) of this section 2.1, the maximum price shall be the price at which such kind of fat or oil of the same grade and quality in a similar amount to a similar purchaser was sold in the locality of the seller's shipping point on October 1, 1941, for delivery within sixty days.

(d) If the maximum price cannot be determined under paragraphs (a), (b) or (c) of this section 2.1, the maximum price shall be the price at which such kind of fat or oil of the same grade and quality in a similar amount to a similar purchaser was sold in the nearest market in which such sale was made on October 1, 1941, making adjustments for the customary differential between the price in such markets and the price in the locality of the seller's shipping point.

(e) If the maximum price determined under the above paragraphs of this section 2.1 is less than 111 percent of the price at which the same kind of fat or oil of the same grade and quality was sold by the seller, or was sold in the locality of the seller's shipping point, or in the nearest market, as the case may be, in a similar amount and to a similar purchaser on November 26, 1941, for delivery within sixty days, the maximum price shall be 111 percent of such November 26 price.

SEC. 2.2 Inclusion of transportation and other charges in maximum prices. The maximum prices for both domestic and imported fats and oils determined under section 2.1 hereof, shall include at least the same absorption of transportation and other charges as were or would have been absorbed by the seller on comparable shipments to the same place of destination on October 1, 1941.

SEC. 2.3 Evasion. The price limitations set forth in section 2.1 hereof, shall not be evaded by making the discounts given or other terms and conditions of sale more onerous to the purchaser than those available or in effect on October 1, 1941, or by any other direct or indirect means.

PART 1351—FOOD AND FOOD PRODUCTS

[MPR 422,[1] Amdt. 15]

CEILING PRICES OF CERTAIN FOODS SOLD AT RETAIL IN GROUP 3 AND GROUP 4 STORES

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this amendment, issued simultaneously herewith, has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Maximum Price Regulation No. 422 is amended in the following respects:

1. Section 2 (a) is amended to read as follows:

(a) What stores are covered. Your store is covered by this regulation if it is a Group 3 or 4 store as defined below and if you are a retailer who buys and resells food products, generally without materially changing their form, for the most part to ultimate consumers who are not commercial, industrial or institutional users. The provisions of this regulation apply to "retail route sellers" only with respect to fresh fruits and vegetables. However, this regulation does not apply to "health food stores", or to automatic vending machines or farmers selling produce grown on their own farms.

2. Section 8 (b) is amended to read as follows:

(b) Mark-up. Turn to Table B to find the mark-up for the item given for your group of store. Table B lists all the "perishables" covered by this regulation by commodity groups. Note that some mark-ups are percentage mark-ups, while others are dollars-and-cents additions per "selling unit" which you make to your net cost.

3. Section 8 (c) is amended to read as follows:

(c) Ceiling price. — (1) Percentage mark-ups. If the item has been given a percentage mark-up in Table B, turn to Table C. Using the directions given there, you will get your ceiling price for the item.

(2) Dollars-and-cents mark-ups. If the item has been given a dollars-and-cents mark-up in Table B, instead of a percentage mark-up, do not use Table C to get your ceiling price. You will get your ceiling price for the item by adding the named dollars-and-cents mark-up in Table B to your "net cost". If your ceiling price so figured results in a fraction of a cent, you may, in making sales of the "selling unit", charge the next higher cent.

(3) Sales in other quantities. You may sell an item in a quantity other than the "selling unit" given in Table B. If you sell an item in a quantity other than the "selling unit" given in Table B, you must reduce or increase your ceiling price proportionately. If figuring a price for a quantity different from the "selling unit" results in a fraction of a cent, you may charge the next higher cent.

4. Section 20 (a) is amended to read as follows:

(a) Fresh bananas bought from importers f. o. b. port of entry, or imported directly by retailers. If you import bananas directly, or if you buy fresh bananas directly from an importer f. o. b. port of entry, figure your "net cost" by the following procedure.

First, increase the importer's maximum price per hundredweight f. o. b. port of entry (as fixed by Maximum Price Regulation No. 285[2]) by either $1.25 or by 29 percent, whichever is greater. To the resulting figure add the cost of getting the bananas to your usual receiving point, which may include costs you have to pay for freight, icing, heating and messenger service, but which may not include costs for local trucking or local unloading (figure your freight costs at the lowest available common carrier rates, and if you import directly, these freight costs are to be figured from the United States port of entry). Divide this total by 100 and you will get your net cost per "selling unit" (1 pound). This is the net cost you will use in figuring your ceiling prices and to which you add the mark-up in Table B for your group of stores.

5. A new section 20 (k) is added to read as follows:

(k) Coconuts imported by you. If you import coconuts, your "net cost" per pound may not exceed the ceiling price per pound ex dock any United States port of entry duty paid, as fixed by Maximum Price Regulation No. 505[3] for sales by importers, plus transportation charges paid by you (except local trucking or local unloading) from the United States port of entry to your usual receiving point.

6. Section 22 is amended to read as follows:

SEC. 22. Additions for delivery from your warehouse to your store. If your store is located at a distance of 125 miles or more from your warehouse which is your usual receiving point, you may, in determining your ceiling price for an item delivered from the warehouse to your store, use whichever of the following provisions applies:

(a) In the case of percentage mark-ups. Where a percentage mark-up is given for the item:

(1) If the store is located at a distance of from 125 through 199 miles from such warehouse, you may add 1 to your mark-up figure. (Example: If your mark-up figure on sugar in Table A is 7 percent, you change it to 8 percent.)

(2) If the store is located at a distance of from 200 through 299 miles from such warehouse, you may add 2 to your mark-up figure.

(3) If the store is located at a distance of from 300 through 399 miles from such warehouse, you may add 3 to your mark-up figure.

(4) If the store is located at a distance of 400 miles or more from such warehouse, you may add 4 to your mark-up figure.

(b) In the case of dollars-and-cents mark-ups. Where a dollars-and-cents mark-up is given for the item:

(1) If the store is located at a distance of from 125 through 199 miles from such warehouse, you may add 1 percent to the cost of the delivery or deliveries on which your net cost per "selling unit" is based. You must then figure the "net cost" on the basis of the "selling unit", in accordance with the rules in section 8. (Example: If you are figuring your ceiling price for green peas and your largest delivery during the preceding week was of 5 bushel baskets at $3.00 per basket, you may add 1 percent, that is, $0.15, to the $15.00 cost, and then reduce the resulting figure to the "net cost" of one pound, the "selling unit" for green peas.)

(2) If the store is located at a distance of from 200 through 299 miles from such warehouse, you may add 2 percent and figure your ceiling price in accordance with (1) above.

(3) If the store is located at a distance of from 300 through 399 miles from such warehouse, you may add 3 percent and figure your ceiling price in accordance with (1) above.

(4) If the store is located at a distance of 400 miles or more from such warehouse, you may add 4 percent and figure your ceiling price in accordance with (1) above.

(2) Fresh fruits. "Fresh fruits" means all the fresh fruits listed, packed or in bulk, which have not been frozen, dried, canned or otherwise processed. Wrapping, dipping, washing, or crating, shall not be considered processing.

"Apples" means all varieties of fresh apples including, but not limited to, Baldwin, Delicious, Grimes Golden, Winesap, Northern Spy, York Imperial, McIntosh, and Rome Beauty. Each variety shall be considered a separate item and priced separately.

"Bananas." Bananas, from different countries of origin such as, but not limited to, Costa Rica, Honduras, Guatemala, and Mexico, shall be considered different "kinds" of bananas, and must be priced separately. "Bananas, bought in hands", means those which have been sold after being cut away from the stem.

"Berries" means blackberries, boysenberries, gooseberries, loganberries, black raspberries, red raspberries, and youngberries. Each of these seven kinds of berries shall be treated as a separate item and priced separately. Whenever fresh berries are sold in quarts or pints, they must have a minimum net weight of 20 ounces per quart or 10 ounces per pint. If you purchase berries on the basis of a price per pound and sell them in pints or quarts, you must multiply your cost per pound by 20/16 to figure your "net cost" per quart, and by 10/16 to figure your "net cost" per pint.

"Citrus fruits" means all fresh citrus fruits including, but not limited to, oranges, lemons, limes, grapefruit and tangerines. Separate ceiling prices shall be figured for each variety, each size, and for fruit from different areas. Varieties shall be oranges, lemons, limes, temple oranges, tangerines (including tangelos), white seeded grapefruit, pink seeded grapefruit, white seedless grapefruit, pink seedless grapefruit, and ruby red grapefruit. Different areas are California, Arizona, Texas, Indian River Citrus Area of Florida, and the rest of the State of Florida.

"Coconuts" means all fresh whole coconuts, imported and domestic. Coconuts in husks and coconuts in shells shall be considered separate items and priced separately. Coconuts in husks means the fruit of the coco palm enclosed in thick, fibrous outer coats commonly called husks. Coconuts in shells means the fruit of the coco palm with the outer husks removed.

When you purchase red sour cherries on the basis of a price per pound and sell them in quarts, you must multiply your cost per pound by 20/16 to figure your "net cost" per quart.

9. Section 39 (b) (3) and (4) are redesignated section 39 (b) (4) and (5) respectively, and a new section 39 (b) (3) is added to read as follows:

(3) Fresh vegetables. "Fresh vegetables" means all the fresh vegetables listed, packed or in bulk, which have not been frozen, dried, canned or otherwise processed. Wrapping, dipping, washing, shelling, shall not be considered processing.

"Beans, green and wax" means all varieties of green and wax beans, but shall not include limas and English, Fava, and Italian broad beans. Green beans and wax beans shall be considered separate items and priced separately.

"Carrots, bunched" means all fresh carrots with tops, bought and sold in bunches weighing not less than one pound. California and similar quality bunched carrots shall be considered as a separate item.

"Carrots, other than bunched" means clipped carrots (carrots with tops not more than 4 inches long), topped carrots (carrots without tops), and all other carrots including bunches weighing less than one pound. Separate ceiling prices shall be figured for each kind. Kinds of "carrots, other than bunched" shall be clipped carrots, topped carrots and all other carrots.

"Cucumbers" means all types and varieties of cucumbers. Field-grown cucumbers and gherkins shall be considered separate items and priced separately. Excluded are hothouse cucumbers.

"Eggplants" means all varieties of eggplants. All eggplants shall be considered a single item and priced as such.

"Lettuce" means all head or leaf lettuce, including, but not limited to Iceberg, Big Boston and Romaine. Excluded are escarole, chicory, and endive. Head lettuce and leaf lettuce shall be considered separate items and priced separately. California and similar quality Iceberg shall also be considered a separate item.

"Onions, dry" means all dry onions used for human consumption. Each grade and variety shall be considered separate items and priced separately.

"Peas, green" shall not include Chinese peas. California and similar quality peas shall be considered a separate item and shall be priced as such.

"Potatoes, sweet" means all varieties of sweet potatoes. All dry flesh sweet potatoes shall be considered one item, and moist flesh sweet potatoes shall be considered a separate item, and priced separately. Dry flesh sweet potatoes include varieties such as Big Stem Jersey, Little Stem Jersey, and Triumph. Moist flesh sweet potatoes (sometimes called yams) include varieties such as Porto Rico and Nancy Hall.

"Potatoes, white" means all white potatoes used for human consumption or for seed (except foundation stock, certified and war approved seed potatoes). Each grade and variety of white potatoes shall be considered a separate item and priced separately.

"Tomatoes." Hothouse, field-run and packaged tomatoes shall be considered separate items and priced separately.

10. Section 40 (b) is amended to read as follows:

(b) Instructions for use of Table A, Table B, and Table C. Tables A and B contain the mark-ups for all commodities in this regulation. Note that some mark-ups are percentage mark-ups and some are dollars-and-cents mark-ups. Table C is included to assist you in determining ceiling prices without burdensome calculations, where the mark-up given is a percentage mark-up.

Table A lists by commodity groups the "dry groceries" covered by this regulation and the mark-ups to be used by Group 3 and Group 4 retailers in figuring their ceiling prices. Table B gives the same information for "perishables". However, in addition, Table B also lists the selling units, on the basis of which retailers must figure their net costs and ceiling prices for "perishables". For a detailed list of the items in each commodity group, see "Commodity definitions of dry groceries" printed immediately after Table A, and "Commodity definitions of perishables" printed immediately after Table B. After you have determined your "net cost" for an item in accordance with the method set up in this regulation, find your proper mark-up in the commodity group which includes the item you are pricing. Commodity groups are listed at the left of Table A and Table B. Directly opposite each commodity group you will find either a percentage mark-up or a dollars-and-cents mark-up for your group of retailers.

If a percentage mark-up is shown, you get your ceiling price for the item by turning to Table C, which shows the ceiling price for all items with per unit net costs ranging from ½¢ to 50¢. Percentage mark-ups over net cost are listed in the column at the extreme left of Table C, and "net cost" across the top of the table. "Net cost per unit" means, in the case of dry groceries, the "net cost" of a single unit (one can, one jar, etc.). For perishables, it means the "net cost" of the selling unit listed in the last column of Table B.

To determine your ceiling price from Table C, find your net cost at the top of the table. Go down that column until you come to the figure (in that column) on the same line as your mark-up. The figure at that point is your ceiling price for the item.

If your net cost per unit is more than 50¢, you cannot use Table C to get your ceiling price. In those cases, you must (1) multiply your net cost by your percentage mark-up, (2) add the result to your net cost, and (3) round the sum to the nearest whole cent. For perishables, your net cost must be in terms of the selling unit specified in Table B.

If the mark-up specified for an item is a dollars-and-cents mark-up, you cannot use Table C to get your ceiling price. In those cases, you simply add the stated amount of mark-up to your "net cost". If your ceiling price so figured results in a fraction of a cent, you may, in making sales of the "selling unit", charge the next higher cent.

Example (1). A Group 3 retailer wishes to figure a new ceiling price for "XX" Brand, No. 2 can tomatoes, 1942 pack, which he must put into effect by August 5, 1943, in accordance with section 3. His most recent purchase of a customary quantity of this item from a customary type of supplier delivered to his usual receiving point was a carload purchased from a packer and delivered at a cost of $2.00 a case (24 cans) on July 30, 1943. He must first figure, to the nearest half-cent, his "net cost" on a single unit basis (sec. 4 (a) (2)), that is, for a single can. He therefore divides the cost for the case, $2.00, by the number of single units in the case, 24, and gets a result of $0.0833, before rounding. Rounding to the nearest half-cent, this becomes $0.085. (If the figure had been $0.0821 before rounding, he would have rounded to $0.080.) He then turns to Table A to find the mark-up to be applied to his net cost. Going down the column at the left of Table A he will find a listing of the commodity group which includes the item he is pricing. For canned tomatoes this group is "Corn, green and wax beans, peas, tomatoes, and tomato juice, canned". Going across the page on that line, he will find his mark-up for the item in the column for Group 3 retailers. In this case, his mark-up is 21 percent. Having his mark-up and net cost, Table C will give him his ceiling price without further computations. Checking across the top of Table C, he will find a column headed by his net cost, $0.085. Going down this $0.085 column until he comes to the figure on the same line as his percentage mark-up of 21 percent listed in the column at the extreme left of Table C he will find his ceiling price for the item to be 10 cents per can.

Example (2). A Group 3 retailer wishes to figure a ceiling price for California yellow globe dry onions, U. S. #1, which he must use during the period, August 19, 1943, (Thursday) to August 26, 1943 (Wednesday), inclusive. He must first find the net cost of his selling unit based on his largest purchase during the seven days preceding Thursday, August 19. During the preceding week he made a purchase of 250 bags of 50 pounds each of California yellow globe dry onions, U. S. #1, at a delivered cost of $2.98 per bag, a purchase of 150 bags of the same grade and variety of onions at a delivered cost of $3.02 a bag, and another purchase of the same item of 200 bags at a delivered cost of $2.97 a bag. His largest purchase, therefore, was the purchase of the 250 bags. He must figure his net cost on the basis of the selling unit listed in Table B, which for onions is 3 pounds. He divides his cost per 50-pound bag in his largest purchase, $2.98, by 50, to get a result of $0.0596, which would be his cost per pound. Multiplying this by 3 he gets, before rounding, a figure of $0.1788, his cost for 3 pounds. Since net cost is to be figured to the nearest half-cent, he would then round this figure to $0.180. Having his net cost and his mark-up (obtained from Table B) he finds his ceiling price in Table C in the same way as he did in Example (1) above. Going to Table C, he will find that 25 cents is the ceiling price for an item with a net cost of $0.180 and a mark-up of 40 percent.

Example (3). A Group 3 retailer wishes to figure his ceiling price for California green peas for the period May 4th through May 10th. His largest purchase during the preceding week was a purchase of ten bushel baskets at $4.05 per basket. His selling unit for green peas, given in Table B, is 1 pound. He therefore divides his cost per basket ($4.05) in his largest purchase during the preceding week, by 28 (the minimum net weight of a bushel basket of green peas). This results in $0.144, which is rounded to 14½ cents. He then looks in Table B for the mark-up for green peas, which is $0.050. This mark-up, 5 cents, added to the net cost per selling unit of 1 pound, 14½ cents, gives him 19½ cents. Therefore his ceiling price per pound of California green peas for the period May 4th through May 10th is 19½ cents. In selling 1 pound, he may charge 20 cents. However, if he sells 2 pounds, he may charge no more than 39 cents (2×19½¢).

This amendment shall become effective April 27, 1944.

PART 1351—FOOD AND FOOD PRODUCTS

[MPR 423,[1] Amdt. 16]

CEILING PRICES OF CERTAIN FOODS SOLD AT RETAIL IN GROUP 1 AND GROUP 2 STORES

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this amendment, issued simultaneously herewith, has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Maximum Price Regulation No. 423 is amended in the following respects:

1. Section 2 (a) is amended to read as follows:

(a) What stores are covered. Your store is covered by this regulation if it is a Group 1 or 2 store as defined below and if you are a retailer who buys and resells food products, generally without materially changing their form, for the most part to ultimate consumers who are not commercial, industrial or institutional users. The provisions of this regulation apply to "retail route sellers" only with respect to fresh fruits and vegetables. However, this regulation does not apply to "health food stores", or to automatic vending machines or farmers selling produce grown on their own farms.

2. Section 8 (b) is amended to read as follows:

(b) Mark-up. Turn to Table B to find the mark-up for the item given for your group of store. Table B lists all the "perishables" covered by this regulation by commodity groups. Note that some mark-ups are percentage mark-ups, while others are dollars-and-cents additions per "selling unit" which you make to your net cost.

3. Section 8 (c) is amended to read as follows:

(c) Ceiling price—(1) Percentage mark-ups. If the item has been given a percentage mark-up in Table B, turn to Table C. Using the directions given there, you will get your ceiling price for the item.

(2) Dollars-and-cents mark-ups. If the item has been given a dollars-and-cents mark-up in Table B, instead of a percentage mark-up, do not use Table C to get your ceiling price. You will get your ceiling price for the item by adding the named dollars-and-cents mark-up in Table B to your "net cost". If your ceiling price so figured results in a fraction of a cent, you may, in making sales of the "selling unit", charge the next higher cent.

(3) Sales in other quantities. You may sell an item in a quantity other than the "selling unit" given in Table B. If you sell an item in a quantity other than the "selling unit" given in Table B, you must reduce or increase your ceiling price proportionately. (For example, if your ceiling price for an item of potatoes is 20 cents for 5 pounds, the "selling unit", and you make a sale of 3 pounds of these potatoes, take three-fifths of your ceiling price for 5 pounds, 20 cents, and the resulting figure of 12 cents would be your ceiling price for the 3-pound sale. If you make a sale of 10 pounds, multiply 20 cents by 2, and the resulting figure of 40 cents would be your ceiling price for the 10-pound sale.) If figuring a price for a quantity different from the "selling unit" results in a fraction of a cent, you may charge the next higher cent.

4. Section 18 (c) is amended to read as follows:

(c) Section 20 How to figure your "net cost" in certain cases. (Applies to you if you import fresh bananas or purchase fresh bananas from importers f. o. b. port of entry or at auction; if you package and print butter; if you candle and grade eggs; if you sell "ungraded eggs"; if you purchase white potatoes or dry onions ungraded and unsacked; if you purchase ungraded, unsized and unpacked citrus fruits and you grade, size and pack such citrus fruits; if you buy poultry live or dressed, and you sell it drawn; if you buy poultry live, dressed or drawn and sell it cut-up or in parts; or if you import coconuts.)

5. In section 28 (a), Table B is amended to read as follows:

(2) Fresh fruits. "Fresh fruits" means all the fresh fruits listed, packed or in bulk, which have not been frozen, dried, canned or otherwise processed. Wrapping, dipping, washing, or crating, shall not be considered processing.

"Apples" means all varieties of fresh apples including, but not limited to, Baldwin, Delicious, Grimes Golden, Winesap, Northern Spy, York Imperial, McIntosh, and Rome Beauty. Each variety shall be considered a separate item and priced separately.

"Bananas." Bananas, from different countries of origin such as, but not limited to, Costa Rica, Honduras, Guatemala, and Mexico, shall be considered different "kinds" of bananas, and must be priced separately. "Bananas, bought in hands," means those which have been sold after being cut away from the stem.

"Berries" means blackberries, boysenberries, gooseberries, loganberries, black raspberries, red raspberries, and youngberries. Each of these seven kinds of berries shall be treated as a separate item and priced separately. Whenever fresh berries are sold in quarts or pints, they must have a minimum net weight of 20 ounces per quart or 10 ounces per pint. If you purchase berries on the basis of a price per pound and sell them in pints or quarts, you must multiply your cost per pound by 20/16 to figure your "net cost" per quart, and by 10/16 to figure your "net cost" per pint.

"Citrus fruits" means all fresh citrus fruits including, but not limited to, oranges, lemons, limes, grapefruit and tangerines. Separate ceiling prices shall be figured for each variety, each size, and for fruit from different areas. Varieties shall be oranges, lemons, limes, temple oranges, tangerines (including tangelos), white seeded grapefruit, pink seeded grapefruit, white seedless grapefruit, pink seedless grapefruit, and ruby red grapefruit. Different areas are California, Arizona, Texas, Indian River Citrus Area of Florida, and the rest of the State of Florida.

"Coconuts" means all fresh whole coconuts, imported and domestic. Coconuts in husks and coconuts in shells shall be considered separate items and priced separately. "Coconuts in husks" mean the fruit of the coco palm enclosed in thick, fibrous outer coats commonly called husks. "Coconuts in shells" means the fruit of the coco palm with the outer husks removed.

"Grapes" means all varieties of fresh grapes including, but not limited to, Alicante, Almeria, Concord, Emperor, Red Malaga, White Malaga, Ribier, Thompson Seedless, Tokay and Zinfandel. Each variety shall be considered a separate item and priced separately.

"Red sour cherries." All red sour cherries shall be considered one item. When you sell red sour cherries by the quart, they must have a minimum net weight of 20 ounces per quart. When you purchase red sour cherries on the basis of a price per pound and sell them in quarts, you must multiply your cost per pound by 20/16 to figure your "net cost" per quart.

7. Section 28 (b) (3) and (4) are redesignated section 28 (b) (4) and (5) respectively, and a new section 28 (b) (3) is added to read as follows:

(3) Fresh vegetables. "Fresh vegetables" means all the fresh vegetables listed, packed or in bulk, which have not been frozen, dried, canned or otherwise processed. Wrapping, dipping, washing, shelling, shall not be considered processing.

"Beans, green and wax" means all varieties of green and wax beans, but shall not include limas and English, Fava, and Italian broad beans. Green beans and wax beans shall be considered separate items and priced separately.

"Cabbage" means all solid headed cabbage, including Red and Savoy. Excluded are Chinese cabbage, collards, cauliflower, and brussels sprouts. Red cabbage shall be considered as a separate item and priced separately.

"Carrots, bunched" means all fresh carrots with tops, bought and sold in bunches weighing not less than one pound. California and similar quality bunched carrots shall be considered a separate item.

"Carrots, other than bunched" means clipped carrots (carrots with tops not more than 4 inches long), topped carrots (carrots without tops), and all other carrots including bunches weighing less than one pound. Separate ceiling prices shall be figured for each kind. Kinds of "carrots, other than bunched" shall be clipped carrots, topped carrots and all other carrots.

"Cucumbers" means all types and varieties of cucumbers. Field-grown cucumbers and gherkins shall be considered separate items and priced separately. Excluded are hothouse cucumbers.

"Eggplants" means all varieties of eggplants. All eggplants shall be considered a single item and priced as such.

"Lettuce" means all head or leaf lettuce, including, but not limited to, Iceberg, Big Boston and Romaine. Excluded are escarole, chicory, and endive. Head lettuce and leaf lettuce shall be considered separate items and priced separately. California and similar quality Iceberg shall also be considered a separate item.

"Onions, dry" means all dry onions used for human consumption. Each grade and variety shall be considered separate items and priced separately.

"Peas, green" shall not include Chinese peas. California and similar quality peas shall be considered a separate item and shall be priced as such.

"Potatoes, sweet" means all varieties of sweet potatoes. All dry flesh sweet potatoes shall be considered one item, and moist flesh sweet potatoes shall be considered a separate item, and priced separately. Dry flesh sweet potatoes include varieties such as Big Stem Jersey, Little Stem Jersey, and Triumph. Moist flesh sweet potatoes (sometimes called yams) include varieties such as Porto Rico and Nancy Hall.

"Potatoes, white" means all white potatoes used for human consumption or for seed (except foundation stock, certified and war approved seed potatoes). Each grade and variety of white potatoes shall be considered a separate item and priced separately.

"Spinach" means all flat and curly leaf spinach, excluding New Zealand, or other greens. Separate items shall be "washed and packaged" spinach, and all other spinach, and must be priced separately.

"Tomatoes." Hothouse, field-run and packaged tomatoes shall be considered separate items and priced separately.

8. Section 29 (b) is amended to read as follows:

(b) Instructions for use of Table A, Table B, and Table C. Tables A and B contain the mark-ups for all commodities in this regulation. Note that some mark-ups are percentage mark-ups and some are dollars-and-cents mark-ups. Table C is included to assist you in determining ceiling prices without burdensome calculations, where the mark-up given is a percentage mark-up.

Table A lists by commodity groups the "dry groceries" covered by this regulation and the mark-ups to be used by Group 1 and Group 2 retailers in figuring their ceiling prices. Table B gives the same information for "perishables." However, in addition, Table B also lists the selling units, on the basis of which retailers must figure their net costs and ceiling prices for "perishables". For a detailed list of the items in each commodity group, see "Commodity definitions of dry groceries" printed immediately after Table A, and "Commodity definitions of perishables" printed immediately after Table B. After you have determined your "net cost" for an item in accordance with the method set up in this regulation, find your proper mark-up in the commodity group which includes the item you are pricing. Commodity groups are listed at the left of Table A and Table B. Directly opposite each commodity group you will find either a percentage mark-up or a dollars-and-cents mark-up for your group of retailers.

If a percentage mark-up is shown, you get your ceiling price for the item by turning to Table C, which shows the ceiling price for all items with per unit net costs ranging from ½¢ to 50¢. Percentage mark-ups over net costs are listed in the column at the extreme left of Table C, and "net cost" across the top of the table. "Net cost per unit" means, in the case of dry groceries, the "net cost" of a single unit (one can, one jar, etc.). For perishables, it means the "net cost" of the selling unit listed in the last column of Table B.

To determine your ceiling price from Table C, find your net cost at the top of the table. Go down that column until you come to the figure (in that column) on the same line as your mark-up. The figure at that point is your ceiling price for the item.

If your net cost per unit is more than 50¢, you cannot use Table C to get your ceiling price. In those cases, you must (1) multiply your net cost by your percentage mark-up, (2) add the result to your net cost, and (3) round the sum to the nearest whole cent. For perishables, your net cost must be in terms of the selling unit specified in Table B.

If the mark-up specified for an item is a dollars-and-cents mark-up, you cannot use Table C to get your ceiling price. In those cases, you simply add the stated amount of mark-up to your "net cost". If your ceiling price so figured results in a fraction of a cent, you may, in making sales of the "selling unit", charge the next higher cent.

Example 1. A Group 1 retailer wishes to figure a new ceiling price for "XX" Brand, No. 2 can, golden bantam cream style corn, 1942 pack. Section 2 requires a Group 1 or 2 retailer to keep his present ceiling price for a "dry grocery" item until he puts into effect a new ceiling price for the item based on the first delivery of the item to him after August 5, 1943. This new ceiling price must be put into effect not later than 5 days after receiving such delivery. In figuring this new ceiling price, his "net cost" must be based on a purchase of a customary quantity from a customary type of supplier delivered to his "usual receiving point" by a customary means of delivery. Therefore, if on August 7, 1943, a Group 1 retailer receives at his usual receiving point 5 cases of "XX" Brand, No. 2 can, golden bantam cream style corn, 1942 pack, which he has purchased from a wholesaler (his customary type of supplier), at a delivered cost of $2.37 a case (24 cans) he must under Sections 3 and 4 figure and put into effect a new ceiling price for the item by August 12, 1943. This is the first delivery of a customary quantity of the item he has received since August 5, 1943 (from his customary type of supplier delivered to his usual receiving point by a customary means of delivery). He must first figure, to the nearest half-cent, his "net cost" on a single unit basis, Sec. 4 (b) (2), that is, for a single can. He therefore divides the cost for the case, $2.37, by the number of single units in the case, 24, and gets a result of $0.0987, before rounding. Rounding to the nearest half-cent, this becomes $0.10. (If the figure had been $0.0967 before rounding, he would have rounded to $0.095.)

He then turns to Table A to find the mark-up to be applied to his net cost. Going down the column at the left of Table A he will find a listing of the commodity group which includes the item he is pricing. For canned corn, this group is "Corn, green and wax beans, peas, tomatoes, and tomato juice, canned". Going across the page on that line, he will find his mark-up for the item in the column for Group 1 retailers. In this case his mark-up is 25%. Having his mark-up and net cost, Table C will give him his ceiling price without further computations. Checking across the top of Table C, he will find a column headed by his net cost, $0.10. Going down this $0.10 column until he comes to the figure on the same line as the 25% mark-up listed in the column at the extreme left of Table C, he will find his ceiling price for the item to be 13¢ per can.

Example 2. A Group 1 retailer wishes to figure a ceiling price for round white potatoes to use during the period August 19, 1943, (Thursday) to August 26, 1943, (Wednesday) inclusive. He must first find the net cost of his selling unit based on his largest purchase during the seven days preceding Thursday, August 19. During the preceding week he made a purchase of 3 bags of 100 pounds each of white round U. S. No. 1 potatoes at a delivered cost of $4.12 per bag, and another purchase of the same item of 1 bag at a delivered cost of $4.33 per bag. His largest purchase, therefore, was the purchase of the 3 bags. He must figure his net cost on the basis of the selling unit listed in Table B, which for potatoes is 5 pounds. He divides his net cost per 100 pound bag in his largest purchase, $4.12, by 100 to get a result of $0.0412, which would be his net cost per pound. Multiplying this by 5 he gets, before rounding, a figure of $0.2060, his cost for 5 pounds. Since net cost is to be figured to the nearest half-cent, he would then round this figure to $.205. Having his net cost and his mark-up (obtained from Table B) he finds his ceiling price in Table C the same way as he did in example (1) above. Going to Table C, he will find that 27 cents is the ceiling price for an item with a net cost of $.205 and a mark-up of 33 percent.

Example 3. A Group 1 retailer wishes to figure his ceiling price for California green peas for the period May 4th through May 10th. His largest purchase during the preceding week was a purchase of ten bushel baskets at $4.45 per basket. His selling unit for peas, given in Table B, is 1 pound. He therefore divides his cost per basket ($4.45) in his largest purchase during the preceding week, by 28 (the minimum net weight of a bushel basket of green peas). This results in $0.158, which is rounded to 16 cents. He then looks in Table B for the mark-up for green peas, which is $0.05½. This mark-up, 5½ cents, added to the net cost per selling unit of 1 pound, 16 cents, gives him 21½ cents. Therefore, his ceiling price per pound of California green peas for the period May 4th through May 10th is 21½ cents. In selling 1 pound, he may charge 22 cents. However, if he sells 2 pounds, he may charge no more than 43 cents (2 x 21½¢).

This amendment shall become effective April 27, 1944.

PART 1448—EATING AND DRINKING ESTABLISHMENTS

[Rev. Restaurant MPR 5–4]

FOOD AND DRINK SOLD FOR IMMEDIATE CONSUMPTION IN DALLAS DISTRICT

In the judgment of the District Director of the Dallas District Office, the prices of food and beverages sold for immediate consumption in the counties of Anderson, Bowie, Camp, Cass, Cherokee, Collin, Dallas, Delta, Ellis, Fannin, Franklin, Freestone, Grayson, Gregg, Harrison, Henderson, Hopkins, Hunt, Kaufman, Lamar, Limestone, Marion, Morris, Navarro, Panola, Rains, Red River, Rockwall, Rusk, Smith, Titus, Upshur, Van Zandt and Wood, Texas, have risen and are threatening further to rise to an extent and in a manner inconsistent with the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, and Executive Orders 9250 and 9328.

In the judgment of the District Director, the maximum prices established by this regulation are generally fair and equitable and are necessary to check inflation and to effectuate the purposes of the act. So far as practicable, the District Director of the Dallas District gave due consideration to prices prevailing between October 1 and 15, 1941, and consulted with the representatives of those affected by this regulation.

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this regulation is issued simultaneously herewith.

Therefore, in accordance with the direction of the President to take action which will stabilize prices affecting the cost of living, and under the authority of Executive Order 9250, Executive Order 9328, and the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, the District Director of the Dallas District Office hereby redesignates and amends Restaurant Maximum Price Regulation No. 5–4 as Revised Restaurant Maximum Price Regulation 504, which revised regulation, as amended, establishes maximum prices for food and drink sold for immediate consumption in the counties mentioned above.

§ 1448.404 Maximum prices for food and drink sold for immediate consumption. Under the authority vested in the District Director of the Dallas District Office by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, Executive Order No. 9250, Executive Order No. 9328, and General Order No. 50 issued by the Office of Price Administration, Revised Restaurant Maximum Price Regulation No. 5–4 (Food and Drink Sold for Immediate Consumption) which is annexed hereto and made part hereof, is issued.

AUTHORITY: § 1448.404 issued under 56 Stat. 23, 765; Pub. Law 151, 78th Cong.; E.O. 9250, 7 F.R. 7871; E.O. 9328, 8 F.R. 4681; Gen. Order 50, 8 F.R. 4808.

SECTION 1. Sales at higher than ceiling prices prohibited. If you own or operate a restaurant, hotel, cafe, bar, delicatessen, soda fountain, boarding house, or any other eating or drinking place, you must not offer or sell any "food items" (including any beverage) or "meal" at a price higher than the ceiling price which you figure according to the directions in the next two sections (sections 2 and 3). You may, of course, sell at lower than ceiling prices.

SEC. 2. How you figure ceiling prices for food items and meals you offered in the seven-day period from April 4, 1943 to April 10, 1943. Your ceiling price for any food item or meal which you offered in the seven-day period beginning Sunday, April 4, 1943, and ending Saturday, April 10, 1943, is the highest price at which you offered the same food item or meal in that seven-day period.

SEC. 3. How you figure ceiling prices for food items and meals you did not offer in the seven-day period. You must figure your ceiling price for a food item or meal which you did not offer during the seven-day period as follows:

(a) If you offered the same food item or meal at any time during the four weeks from March 7 to April 3, 1943, inclusive, and if you have adequate records of the prices you then charged, take as your ceiling price the highest price at which you offered that food item or meal during that four-week period.

(b) If you did not offer the food item or meal during the five-week period from March 7 to April 10, 1943, inclusive, or if you do not have adequate records of prices charged prior to the seven-day period you must proceed as follows:

(1) Determine the cost of the raw food which you use in preparing the new food item or meal.

(2) From the food items and meals for which you have already established ceiling prices, choose a food item or meal which currently has a raw food cost equal to or less than the raw food cost of the new food item or meal.

(3) Take as your ceiling price for the new food item or meal your ceiling price for the food item or meal chosen for comparison. The food item or meal chosen for such comparison should be of the same class as the new food item or meal. If, however, you can find no food item or meal of the same class, you may use for comparison the most similar food item or meal of another class having a food cost equal to or less than your food cost for the new food item or meal.

"Currently" as used herein means current on the day you figure your price.

(c) Once your ceiling price for a food item or meal has been fixed, it may not be changed except as provided in section 4.

SEC. 4. How you figure your prices for seasonal items. First, determine your ceiling price for a "seasonal food item" (defined in section 20 (e)) in accordance with the appropriate rule of sections 2 and 3 of this regulation. Thereafter, this price must be varied in proportion to any seasonal change in the raw food cost of the item: Provided, That in no event shall the price be higher than the ceiling price as originally determined. If in the past it has been your practice to maintain one price throughout the season, you need not vary your ceiling price according to this rule provided the ceiling price was based upon estimated average raw food cost of the item for the entire season.

SEC. 5. No ceiling price for any food item or meal to be higher than the highest ceiling price for a food item or meal of the same class in the base period. Under no circumstances are you permitted to charge a higher price for a food item or meal than:

(a) Your highest ceiling price for food items or meals of the same class offered in the seven-day period; or

(b) The highest price at which you offered the same food item or meal prior to April 4, 1943, provided you first file with the appropriate War Price and Rationing Board a menu or certified copy of a record showing the last price charged.

The provisions of this section shall not apply to seasonal dessert specialties specified in section 21A Class 24a.

Example 1. If your highest ceiling price for any soup offered by you during the seven-day period is 15 cents, you may not offer any other soup at a higher price than 15 cents.

Example 2. You served sirloin steak in March at $1.50. You did not serve sirloin steak during the base period. The highest price at which you can now serve sirloin steak is $1.50.

SEC. 6. Substitution of food items in meals. If you have already determined your ceiling price for a meal, you may substitute for any food item other than the entree (or main dish) in that meal any other food item of the same class without re-figuring your ceiling price provided the new food item costs you approximately as much and offers customers about the same value as the food item which it replaces. A meal becomes a "new" meal whenever the entree (or main dish) is changed or a new food item is substituted which costs you less or offers your customers lower value than the food item which it replaces, and you must therefore determine its ceiling price in accordance with the rules established by section 3.

SEC. 7. Prohibition against manipulation of meal offering. You must not manipulate your meal offerings in a manner which will force your customers to pay more than they did during the seven-day period. Among other things you must not:

(a) Reduce the number of meals offered at prices equal to or below your "middle price" for meals of the same class without making a corresponding reduction in the number of meals offered at prices above that middle price. By "middle price" is meant the price most nearly at the mid-point of your price range for meals of the same class.

(b) Cease to offer at least as many different meals at or below the lowest price charged by you for meals of the same class on any day you select in the seven-day period, as you did on that day.

Example: If you select Friday, April 9, 1943, to determine the lowest price and the number of week-day meals offered at that price, and if on that day you offered six week-day dinners, of which two were priced at 85¢, and one each at 90¢, $1.00, $1.10, $1.15, you must continue to offer two week-day dinners at 85¢. Note that Sunday meals and week-day meals are meals of a different class.

SEC. 8. Evasion. (a) You must not evade or avoid the provisions of this regulation by an scheme or device whatsoever. Some, but not all practices which will be regarded as evasive are:

(1) Dropping food items from meals, deteriorating quality or reducing quantity without making sufficient reduction in price;

(2) Withdrawing the offer, or increasing the price, of any meal ticket, weekly rate, or other arrangement by which customers may buy food items or meals at less than the prices they must pay when purchasing by item or meal;

(3) Increasing any cover, minimum, bread-and-butter, service, corkage, entertainment, check-room, parking or other special charges, or making such charges when they were not in effect in the seven-day period except that a cover charge or minimum charge in effect during the base period may be increased in accordance with customary practice, where it was the practice to vary the charge in accordance with the type of entertainment offered and the increase does not cause the charge to go above the highest charge made during the last twelve month period;

(4) Requiring as a condition of sale of an item or meal the purchase of other items or meals when such condition was not in effect during the base period, except that you may refuse to sell coffee unless a customer also purchases another food item;

(5) Reducing the selection of meals offered at table d'hote prices when the food items which you customarily offered in such meals are being offered at a la carte prices which when added together total more than the table d'hote price for the complete meal or give your customers less value for their money.

Example 1. If you customarily offered fish on table d'hote dinners at $1.10, you may not now offer fish a la carte and refuse to offer it on a table d'hote dinner priced at $1.10.

Example 2. If you offered table d'hote dinners during the base period at 85¢ to $1.25 which included dessert and beverage, you may now offer the same food item excluding dessert and beverage at 65¢ to $1.05, providing you also offer dessert and beverage to be served with the meals at prices which do not total more than 20¢.

(b) You will not be considered evading the provisions of this regulation, however, if you do any of the following things, even though you did not do any of these things during the seven-day period:

(1) You may limit your customers to one cup of coffee per meal.

(2) You may limit your customers to one pat of butter per meal.

(3) You may reduce the quantity, or eliminate altogether, condiments (such as catchup, chili sauce, etc.) which you may have customarily placed at the disposal of your customers and which now are, or may hereafter be, subject to any rationing order or rationing regulation of the Office of Price Administration.

(4) You may reduce the amount of sugar served with each cup of coffee or tea, or each bowl of cereal, fruit, or other similar food items with which sugar is served, to, but not less than, one teaspoonful except that less may be given if required by your available supply.

You may not however, make the curtailment authorized in the foregoing subparagraphs and furnish these curtailed items at an additional charge. For example, if during the seven-day period you furnished catchup, you may not now discontinue furnishing this item free, and at the same time offer to furnish it for an additional charge.

SEC. 9. Rules for new proprietors. (a) If you acquire another's business subsequent to the seven-day period and continue the business in the same place, you are subject to the same ceiling prices and duties as the previous proprietor would have been had he continued to operate the business.

(1) If your acquisition was subsequent to the seven-day period but prior to the effective date of this regulation, you may apply to the Office of Price Administration for permission to price under paragraph (b) of this section. You may not, however, make such application after April 15, 1944.

(2) Prior to acquiring another's business after the effective date of this regulation, you may apply to the Office of Price Administration for permission to price under paragraph (b) of this section.

If you are granted permission to price under paragraph (b) of this section, it will be subject to such conditions as the Office of Price Administration deems necessary.

(b) If you open an eating or drinking place after the seven-day period, you must fix ceiling prices in line with the ceiling prices of the nearest eating or drinking place of the same type as yours. If the ceiling prices so fixed as too high and threaten to have an inflationary effect on the price of food and drink, the Office of Price Administration may issue an order requiring you to reduce your ceiling prices. You are subject to the record requirements of section 12 and the posting requirements of section 13 immediately upon the opening of your place.

SEC. 10. Seasonal eating and drinking places.—(a) Exempt places. If you are the proprietor of a seasonal eating or drinking place that:

(1) Was not open during the base period from April 4 to 10, 1943;

(2) Receives 90 per cent or more of its total annual revenue during four calendar months of the year;

(3) Is located in an area for which no maximum rent regulation has been issued;

the prices for food items and meals offered by you in that place are exempt from control.

You must not regard this exemption as relieving you from the obligations imposed upon you by General Order No. 50, and you are still subject to the provisions of section 22 of this regulation. Pursuant to this latter section the District Director will by special order establish maximum prices for any seasonal eating or drinking place which takes undue advantage of the exemption.

(b) Non-exempt places. If you are the proprietor of a seasonal eating or drinking place which is not exempt under the terms of paragraph (a), you must figure your ceiling prices as follows:

(1) If the place was in operation during the base period from April 4 to April 10, 1943, use the rules set forth in sections 2, 3, and 4.

(2) If the place was not in operation during the base period from April 4 to 10, 1943, but another place of the same type and within a reasonable distance was in operation during that period, fix your ceiling prices as a new proprietor under the terms of section 9 (b).

(3) If you cannot price under subparagraphs (1) or (2) above, you must apply for a price to the Office of Price Administration District Office for the area in which your place is located. Your application must be filed ten days prior to the date you plan to commence operations and present the following information:

(i) Your name and address.

(ii) A brief description of your business and the manner of operation.

(iii) A list showing the prices you charged during the previous season as well as the prices you propose to charge during the coming season.

(iv) The date when you plan to commence operations.

(v) The names of two establishments similar to yours. You may charge the prices listed if they are not disapproved by the Office of Price Administration prior to the date specified for the commencement of operations. That Office may at any time, after proper investigation and hearing, establish such maximum prices for your business as it deems proper.

SEC. 11. Taxes. If in the seven-day period you stated and collected the amount of any tax separately from the price you charged, you may continue to do so. You may also separately state and collect the amount of any new tax or of any increase in the amount of a previous tax on the sale of food or drink or on the business of selling food or drink, if the tax is measured by the number or prices of items or meals.

SEC. 12. Records. (a) You must observe all the record-keeping and filing requirements of General Order No. 50 which are hereby made a part of this regulation by reference.

(b) Customary records. You must preserve all your existing records relating to your prices, costs and sales. You must also continue to maintain such records as you ordinarily kept. All such records shall be subject to examination by the Office of Price Administration.

(c) Records of the seven-day period. You must make available for examination by any person during ordinary business hours a copy of each menu used by you in the seven-day period. If you did not use menus, you must make available for such examination a list of the highest prices you charged in the seven-day period.

(d) Filing by new proprietors. The proprietor of an eating or drinking place which was not open during the seven-days period (including newly-opened places) shall file menus or a price list in accordance with paragraph (a), (of General Order No. 50) except that (1) the filing shall be for the seven-day period beginning with the first Sunday that place is open after April 4, 1943, and (2) the filing shall be made within three weeks of such first Sunday.

(e) Future records. Beginning with the effective date of this regulation, you must keep, for examination by the Office of Price Administration, two each of the menus used by you each day. If you do not use menus you must prepare in duplicate, and preserve for such examination, a record of the prices charged by you each day, except that you need not record prices which are the same as, or less than, prices you previously recorded for the same items or meals. Proprietors who operate a number of eating or drinking places in the same city which have customarily been subject to central control may keep the records required by this paragraph for those places at a central office or the principal place of business within the city.

SEC. 13. Posting. (a) Beginning September 25, 1943, each menu must have clearly written on or attached to it the following statement:

All prices listed are our ceiling prices or below.

By Office of Price Administration Order, our ceiling prices are based on our highest prices from April 4, 1943 to April 10, 1943. Records of these prices are available for your inspection.

(b) If you made menus available in the seven-day period, you shall continue to make them available.

(c) In addition to the requirements in (a) and (b), you must post in a conspicuous place, preferably at or near the cash register, a sign or poster when furnished by the Office of Price Administration. You must enter after each meal or food item on this list your ceiling price for such meal or food item.

SEC. 14. Operation of several places. If you own or operate more than one eating or drinking place, you must do everything required by this regulation for each place separately.

SEC. 15. Relation to other maximum price regulations. Except as to Maximum Price Regulation No. 259, Domestic Malt Beverages, the provisions of this regulation shall not supersede other regulations, including the General Maximum Price Regulation, now or hereafter issued by the Office of Price Administration, insofar as they establish maximum prices for meals and food items sold by eating and drinking places.

SEC. 16. Geographical application. This Revised Restaurant Maximum Price Regulation No. 5–4 applies to the counties of Anderson, Bowie, Camp, Cass, Cherokee, Collin, Dallas, Delta, Ellis, Fannin, Franklin, Freestone, Grayson, Gregg, Harrison, Henderson, Hopkins, Hunt, Kaufman, Lamar, Limestone, Marion, Morris, Navarro, Panola, Rains, Red River, Rockwall, Rusk, Titus, Smith, Upshur, Van Zandt and Wood, Texas.

SEC. 17. Enforcement. Persons violating any provisions of this regulation are subject to the criminal penalties, civil enforcement actions, suits for treble damages and proceedings for suspension of licenses, provided for by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended.

SEC. 18. Exempt sales. Sales by the following eating or drinking places are specifically exempt from the provisions of this regulation.

(a) Eating and drinking places located on church premises and operated in connection with special church, Sunday school and other religious occasions.

(b) Hospitals, except for food items and meals served to persons other than the patients when a separate charge is made for such food items and meals.

(c) Eating and drinking places located on board common carriers (when operated as such), including railroad dining cars, club, bar and buffet cars, peddlers aboard railroad cars traveling from station to station, and newstand located on the premises of a railroad station.

(d) Bona fide private clubs insofar as such clubs sell only to members and bona fide guests of members. Whenever such clubs sell to persons other than members or bona fide guests of members, such clubs shall be considered for all sales an eating and drinking place within the meaning of this regulation. No club shall be considered to be exempt as a private club within the meaning of this paragraph unless its members pay dues (more than merely nominal in amount) are elected to membership by a governing board, membership committee or other body, and otherwise is operated as a private club.

No club organized after the effective date of this regulation shall be exempt unless and until it has filed a request for exemption with the nearest State or District Office of the Office of Price Administration, furnishing such information as may be required, and has received communications from such office authorizing exemption as a private club.

(e) Eating and drinking places operated by any school, college or university which is a non-profit institution, that is, where no part of the net earnings inures to the benefit of any private individual, which sells food items or meals on a non-profit or cost basis or as near thereto as reasonable accounting methods will permit, and substantially all sales of which are made to students, faculty members and employees of such institutions. For the purpose of this section, persons receiving instruction on the premises of such institution by arrangement with the War Department or Department of the Navy shall be considered as students.

SEC. 19. Adjustments. (a) The Office of Price Administration may adjust the maximum prices for any eating establishment under the following circumstances:

(1) The establishment is operating under such hardship as to cause a substantial threat to the continuance of its operation.

(2) It is determined with reasonable certainty that such discontinuance will result in serious inconvenience to consumers in that they will either be deprived of all restaurant services or will have to turn to other establishments that present substantial difficulties as to distance, hours of service, selection of meals or food items offered, capacity, or transportation.

(3) By reason of such discontinuance, the same meals or food items will cost the customers of the eating establishment as much or more than the proposed adjusted prices.

(b) If you are the proprietor of an eating establishment which satisfies the requirements specified above, you may apply for an adjustment of your maximum prices by submitting to your Office of Price Administration District Office a statement setting forth:

(1) Your name and address.

(2) A description of your eating establishment including: type of service rendered (such as cafeteria, table service, etc.) classes of meals offered (such as breakfast, lunch and dinner), number of persons served per day during the most recent thirty-day period,[1] and such other information that may be useful in classifying your establishment.

(3) The reasons why your customers will be seriously inconvenienced if you discontinue operations.

(4) The names and addresses of the three nearest eating places of the same type as yours.

(5) A list showing your present maximum prices and your requested, adjusted prices.

(6) A profit and loss statement for your restaurant business for the most recent three-month accounting period, and a copy of your income tax (last) return if one was filed separately for your restaurant business.

(7) Any other information requested by the Dallas District Office.

Applications for adjustment under this section shall be acted upon by the District Director of the Dallas District Office.

PART 1381—SOFTWOOD LUMBER

[MPR 164,[1] Amdt. 8]

RED CEDAR SHINGLES

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this amendment, issued simultaneously herewith, has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Maximum Price Regulation No. 164 is amended in the following respects:

1. In § 1381.9 (a), subparagraphs (2), (4) and (5) are amended and subparagraphs (6), (7) and (8) are added, to read as follows:

(2) "Red cedar shingles" means all types of shingles and accessory items made from Western red cedar (Thuya plicata). For purposes of this regulation, the term includes all products (other than wastes) resulting from further refinement or processing of red cedar shingles. Thus, all red cedar shingles, shakes, hip and ridge units, et cetera, are covered whether or not those products are stained, grooved, or otherwise specially processed.

(4) "Mill" means a manufacturing plant which produces red cedar shingles directly from logs or bolts, by sawing or other methods.

(5) "Distribution yard" means a wholesale or retail lumber yard which gets lumber and shingles from mills or other yards; unloads, sorts, and resells or redistributes it; which regularly maintains a varied stock of lumber from different regions; which gets its lumber, except for local species, mostly by rail and sells mostly for truck shipment; which is equipped to make quick deliveries of shingles and many different items of lumber; and which has been located at its particular site in order to be near a lumber and shingle consuming area.

(6) "Jobber" means any seller at wholesale who is not a "mill" nor a "distribution yard" and who continuously since March 1943 has maintained a stock of red cedar shingles and other building materials, and been engaged in selling less-than-carload quantities of red cedar shingles from stock to distribution yards or other retail outlets.

(7) "Manufacturing jobber" means one whose operation is confined to the further processing of red cedar shingles.

(8) "Direct-mill retail sale" means a sale by a mill of 35 squares or less directly to a buyer who purchases for his own use and not for resale in any form, and which is loaded on trucks at the mill for delivery direct to job-site.

2. In § 1381.11, paragraphs (f), (g), (h), and (j) are added, to read as follows:

(f) Jobbers' sales. The jobber's maximum price f. o. b. his yard on less-than-carload sales of red cedar shingles is (1) the price set out in paragraph (a), or approved under this regulation, plus (2) transportation additions figured on the Seattle, Washington carload freight rate to jobber's yard, at estimated weights given in, or approved under, this regulation, plus (3) a mark-up of 10 percent on the total of (1) and (2). Sales in carload quantities carry no mark-up.

(g) Manufacturing jobbers' sales. The manufacturing jobber's maximum price f. o. b. his plant on less-than-carload sales of "red cedar shingles" processed by him is the carload price approved for him by the Office of Price Administration plus 10 percent.

(h) Weights. The following estimated weights may be used in figuring permitted transportation additions:

	Pounds
Stained shingles, carton or bundle pack:
5/2—16" per square of 5" exposure	152
5/2—18" per square of 5½" exposure	152
5/2¼—18" per square of 5½" exposure	168
4/2—24" per square of 7½" exposure	200
Stained machine processed shakes: 5/2¼—18" per square of 14" exposure	60
Unstained machine processed shakes: 5/2¼—18" per square of 14" exposure	60
Hip and ridge units:
Dry per bundle of 40 units	15
Green per bundle of 40 units	22

(j) Direct-mill retail sales. On direct retail sales [See § 1381.9 (a) (3)], a mark-up of 15 percent over the prices set out in paragraph (a) is permitted, but only if the buyer, at the time of loading-out at the mill, furnishes the seller a written statement, in duplicate, that the shingles are for the buyer's use and not for resale and showing also (1) the date, (2) the quantity of shingles, and (3) the location and nature of the job or use for which the shingles are intended.

The mill may make up its own form of this statement so long as it contains the information required.

The mill must keep one copy of each such statement, and it must send the duplicates to the Portland, Oregon, office of the Office of Price Administration.

Unless the mill complies with these requirements it may not charge or receive more than the prices set out in paragraph (a) even though the sale may be a "direct-mill retail sale".

This amendment shall become effective April 22 1944.

PART 1396—FINE CHEMICALS, DRUGS AND COSMETICS

[MPR 393,[1] Amdt. 4]

PACKAGED COSMETICS

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this amendment, issued simultaneously herewith, has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Maximum Price Regulation No. 393 is amended in the following respect:

Section 24 is amended to read as follows:

SEC. 24. Gift sets—(a) Definitions. When used in this section the term:

(1) "Gift set" means a package containing one or more packaged cosmetics, with or without one or more accessories, in a container such as is customarily used for gift merchandise; which is to be sold under the brand name of the manufacturer of one or more of the packaged cosmetics contained therein; and for which the sum of the retail prices of the packaged cosmetics contained therein is at least equal to 80 per cent of the sum of the packager's acquisition costs for the accessories and gift set container. A package containing only a single packaged cosmetic and no accessories will not, however, be considered a gift set unless the gift set container is of a type which has an independent and substantial use of its own and the packager continues to give purchasers an opportunity to buy the packaged cosmetic separately at prices at or below the maximum prices established therefor according to the applicable one of sections 5 through 10 of this regulation.

(2) "Gift set container" means the container or packaging used to enclose the contents of a gift set.

(3) "Packager" means a person who markets a gift set under his brand name and is the manufacturer of one or more of the packaged cosmetics contained therein.

(4) "Acquisition cost" means the net delivered cost to the packager of an accessory or gift set container, but not in excess of its maximum price delivered to him. Where the gift set consists only of a single packaged cosmetic, the acquisition cost of the gift container means its net delivered cost to the packager less the net delivered cost to him of any containers, closures, cartons, or other packing customarily used by him for such packaged cosmetic and which is not used in preparing the gift set.

*Copies may be obtained from the Office of Price Administration.
[1] 8 F.R. 6268, 12478, 13661; 9 F.R. 2440.

(5) "Accessory" means any merchandise other than packaged cosmetics included in a gift set, such as scissors, nailfile, comb, mirror, powder puff, face tissues, and the like.

(6) "The retail price for a packaged cosmetic" means:

(i) The uniform maximum retail price established under Maximum Price Regulation No. 393 or, if none,

(ii) The manufacturer's suggested retail price in effect on May 12, 1943, or, if none,

(iii) The retail price generally charged.

(7) "The price for sales of a packaged cosmetic by wholesalers to retailers in the smallest quantity" means:

(i) The uniform maximum price for such sales established under Maximum Price Regulation No. 393 or, if none,

(ii) The manufacturer's suggested price for such sales in effect on May 12, 1943, or, if none,

(iii) The price generally charged by wholesalers on such sales.

(8) Unless the context otherwise requires, the definitions set forth in section 1 of this regulation shall apply to other terms used in this section.

(b) Old gift sets. (1) Where a packager, prior to April 22, 1944, has established maximum prices for a gift set including uniform maximum prices for sales by resellers, under the provisions of this regulation, the packager's maximum prices shall be those so established, and resellers' maximum prices shall be determined under paragraph (d) using the uniform maximum prices for resellers established by the packager.

(2) Where a packager, prior to April 22, 1944, has established maximum prices for his own sales of a gift set, but has not established uniform maximum prices for resellers under this regulation, all sellers' maximum prices for the gift set shall be determined under the maximum price regulation which would be applicable in the absence of this section 24.

(c) New gift sets. The maximum prices for a gift set which is not identical with one sold under the same name as a gift set for which the packager established maximum prices prior to April 22, 1944 shall be established as follows:

(1) Maximum retail price. The packager of such a gift set shall determine a uniform maximum retail price therefor, subject to the approval of the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C. Such uniform maximum retail price shall be determined as follows: *

(i) Multiply the cost of the accessories by 1.33.

(ii) Add thereto the cost of the gift container and the direct labor cost of assembling the gift set.

(iii) Multiply the resulting sum by a mark-up factor computed as follows:

(a) Determine the trade discount the manufacturer would have applied to the retail prices of the packaged cosmetics of his manufacture contained in the gift set to arrive at his maximum prices therefor to that class of purchasers to whom he gives the largest trade discount. If different trade discounts are applicable on sales to a purchaser of that class for the different packaged cosmetics of his manufacture contained in the gift set, the average of such discounts, weighted by the retail price of the packaged cosmetics to which they apply, shall be used as the trade discount applicable to a purchaser of that class.

(b) Subtract that trade discount from 100 and divide into 100,

$$\text{Mark-up factor} = \frac{100}{100 - \text{trade discount}}$$

Example: trade discount is 40%

$$\text{Mark-up factor} = \frac{100}{100-40} = 1.667$$

(iv) Add to the resulting product the sum of the retail prices of the packaged cosmetics contained in the gift set. The resulting sum, or any lower figure which the packager may select, is the uniform maximum retail price.

(2) Wholesalers' maximum price for sales to retailers. The packager of such a gift set shall determine, subject to the approval of the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., a uniform maximum price for sales thereof by wholesalers to retailers where the gift set is to be distributed through wholesalers. Such maximum price shall be the price obtained by applying to the uniform maximum retail price determined under subparagraph (1) the same trade discount as the packager would apply to the retail prices for the packaged cosmetics of his manufacture contained in the gift set to arrive at the prices for sales of such packaged cosmetics by wholesalers to retailers in the smallest quantity. If different trade discounts are applicable to the different packaged cosmetics of his manufacture contained in the gift set, the average of such trade discounts, weighted by the retail price of the packaged cosmetics to which they apply, shall be used.

(3) Packager's maximum prices. The maximum prices for sales of such a gift set by the packager to any class of purchasers shall be the price obtained by applying the same trade discount to the uniform maximum retail price determined in subparagraph (1) above as he would apply to the retail prices for the packaged cosmetics of his manufacture contained therein to arrive at his maximum prices for sales thereof to a purchaser of the same class, or any lower price selected by the packager. If different trade discounts are applicable on sales to a purchaser of the same class for the different packaged cosmetics of his manufacture contained in the gift set, the average of such discounts, weighted by the retail price of the packaged cosmetics to which they apply, shall be used as the trade discount applicable to a purchaser of that class.

The above maximum prices shall be subject to the customary discounts other than trade discounts, allowances and trade practices which the packager applied on his sales of gift sets to a purchaser of the same class during November 1943.

(4) Packager's adjustment to lower maximum prices. The packager of a gift set for which a uniform maximum retail price has been established under paragraph (c) (1) may at any time establish a lower uniform maximum retail price if at the same time proportionately lower maximum prices are established for all prior sellers in the chain of distribution. The new maximum prices shall apply to all sales by resellers of gift sets marked with the new uniform maximum retail price and to the packagers' sales after mailing the report required by paragraph (g) (2).

(d) Resellers' maximum prices for new gift sets—(1) Wholesalers. The maximum price for sales by a wholesaler to any class of purchasers of a gift set for which a uniform maximum price for sales by wholesalers to retailers has been established under paragraph (c) above shall be the price obtained by applying to such uniform maximum price for sales by wholesalers to retailers the customary discounts, allowances and trade practices which the wholesaler applied on his sales of gift sets to a purchaser of the same class during November 1943.

(2) Retailers. The maximum price for sales by a retailer to any class of purchasers of a gift set for which a uniform maximum retail price has been established under paragraph (c) above shall be such uniform maximum retail price.

(e) Notification. (1) The packager of a gift set for which a uniform maximum retail price has been established under the provisions of paragraphs (c) (1) or (c) (4) and which is to be distributed through wholesalers shall, with or prior to the first delivery of any such gift set to a wholesaler, furnish such wholesaler with a notice containing the following information:

(i) The packager's maximum price for sales to the wholesaler.

(ii) Wholesalers' uniform maximum price to retailers.

(iii) Uniform maximum retail price.

(iv) A statement that the wholesaler's uniform maximum price to retailers is subject to the customary discounts, allowances and trade practices in effect on the seller's sales of gift sets to a purchaser of the same class during November 1943.

(v) A statement that the Office of Price Administration requires the notice of the maximum prices for sales by the purchaser to be kept for inspection by any buyer during ordinary business hours.

(2) The provisions of section 13 (b) and (c) shall apply to gift sets.

(f) Marking. The packager of a gift set for which a uniform maximum retail price has been established under paragraph (c) above shall mark such uniform maximum retail price on the package in accordance with the provisions of section 14.

(g) Reports. (1) A packager of a gift set who has determined maximum prices therefor under subparagraphs (1), (2) and (3) of paragraph (c) above shall, before offering the gift set for sale or making any delivery thereof, submit by registered mail to the Office of Price Administration in Washington, D. C., a report required by OPA Form No. 692–419.

The packager may offer such gift set for sale at prices not in excess of those proposed in the report subsequent to mailing the report to the Office of Price Administration. If at the expiration of twenty days from the date of mailing the report, the packager has not received from the Office of Price Administration written disapproval of the proposed maximum prices, the proposed maximum prices may be considered as approved. No deliveries of the gift set may be made prior to the expiration of said twenty days unless the packager earlier receives specific notice from the Office of Price Administration that he may consider the proposed prices as approved.

(2) A packager of a gift set who has determined maximum prices therefor under paragraph (c) (4) shall submit by registered mail to the Office of Price Administration in Washington, D. C., a report showing the original and lower maximum prices for sales by all sellers of such gift set.

If, at the expiration of twenty days from the date of mailing the report, the packager has not received from the Office of Price Administration written disapproval of the proposed maximum prices, the proposed maximum prices shall be considered as approved.

(3) The Price Administrator may by letter or otherwise adjust (but not retroactively) any such reported prices which he finds are not in conformity with the provisions of this regulation or which he determines to be excessively high. Unless a written disapproval of the reported prices is mailed to the packager not more than twenty days after the mailing of the report by him, any such adjustment may only be made after giving the packager notice and a reasonable opportunity to present additional evidence.

(h) Applicability of other sections of this regulation. The provisions of Maximum Price Regulation No. 393 (other than the pricing provisions of sections 5 through 10, and 15; the reporting provisions of sections 11 and 23, and the notification provision of section 13 (a)) shall apply to gift sets, and for the purposes of such provisions the gift set shall be considered a packaged cosmetic and the packager the manufacturer.

This amendment shall become effective April 22, 1944.

NOTE: The reporting requirements of this amendment have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

PART 1499—COMMODITIES AND SERVICES

[MPR 165, Supp. Service Reg. 27]

CUSTOM MILLING AND KILN DRYING OF WESTERN SOFTWOODS

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this Supplementary Service Regulation, issued simultaneously herewith, has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.* For the reasons set forth in that statement, and under the authority vested in the Price Administrator by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, and Executive Orders 9250 and 9328, Supplementary Service Regulation No. 27 is hereby issued.

§ 1499.2258 Custom milling of Western softwood lumber. On and after May 3, 1944, all sales of "custom milling services" performed by "custom mills" on western softwood lumber shall be subject exclusively to the provisions of this Supplementary Service Regulation 27; and neither Maximum Price Regulation 165, nor any other maximum price regulation shall apply to these services.

AUTHORITY: § 1499.2258 issued under 56 Stat. 23, 765; Pub. Law 151, 78th Cong.; E.O. 9250, 7 F.R. 7871; E.O. 9328, 8 F.R. 4681.

SUPPLEMENTARY SERVICE REGULATION No. 27—CUSTOM MILLING AND KILN DRYING OF WESTERN SOFTWOODS

CONTENTS

Sec.
1. What is Western softwood lumber.
2. What is "custom milling service".
3. What is a custom mill.
4. Invoicing and records.
5. Services not listed.
6. No quantity limitations.
7. Transportation and demurrage charges.
8. Enforcement.
9. Licensing.
10. Geographical applicability.
11. Maximum prices.

SEC. 1. What is Western softwood lumber. "Western softwood lumber" under this regulation means any lumber which on sales by the sawmill is subject to RMPR 26[1] (Douglas Fir and other West Coast Lumber), MPR 94[2] (Western Pine and Associated Species of Lumber), MPR 253[3] (Redwood Lumber), MPR 290[4] (Sitka Spruce Lumber), or MPR 402[5] (Western Red Cedar Lumber).

SEC. 2. What is "custom milling service." Under this regulation "custom milling" means only the operations specifically included under section 11 performed, as a service for others, upon lumber in which the person performing these services has no financial interest.

SEC. 3. What is a custom mill. Even though the services you perform may meet the definition of "custom milling" above, this regulation does not apply to you unless you qualify as a custom mill under this section.

(a) General. A custom mill is one which performs custom milling services upon lumber subject at mill level to RMPR 26, MPR 94, MPR 253, MPR 290, or MPR 402, and which:

(1) Does not operate as a "mill" under the definitions contained in RMPR 26, MPR 94, MPR 253, MPR 290, or MPR 402.

(2) Does not own or control, is not owned or controlled by and is not under common control with a "mill" producing the species covered by RMPR 26, MPR 94, MPR 253, MPR 290, or MPR 402, wherever located.

(b) Operation not qualifying under paragraph (a) may get special permission. If you do not qualify as a "custom mill" under paragraph (a) above, you may under certain special conditions get authority to operate under this regulation. The rules covering this are as follows:

(1) An application must be filed with the OPA Regional Office nearest the operation. This application must show:

(i) The location of the plant, with a description of the physical lay-out of operations in relation to any other activities relating to forest products carried on by the applicant wherever located.

(ii) The extent of ownership or control of or by any other operations relating to forest products, or of common ownership or control, giving name, location, and nature of the other operations.

(iii) Applicant's milling facilities, and the capacity thereof in MBM per day, together with a statement of total footage in rough boards and dimension and rough or surfaced plank and timbers, and green or partially dry lumber in these sizes, sold during the 30 day period preceding date of application.

(iv) Any other information the applicant may wish to submit.

(2) Special authorization under this paragraph (b) will be granted only where the application enables the Regional Office to make findings that the authorization:

(i) Will result in a greater production of surfaced boards or dimension or kiln dried lumber.

(ii) Will not encourage producing sawmills having remanufacturing and kiln drying facilities to ship their lumber green, partially dry, rough, or in thicknesses over 2".

(iii) Will provide necessary milling services which cannot reasonably be supplied by producing mills, or by custom mills qualifying under paragraph (a).

(iv) Will not result in unnecessarily increasing the cost of finished lumber to the ultimate consumer.

In granting the authority, the Regional Office may make such limitations and conditions as to duration of the authority, quantity or lumber to be milled, etc., as may be appropriate and consistent with the above findings. The authorization may be granted, or the application denied, by letter or telegram.

(c) Unless the operation qualifies, or is specially authorized, as a "custom mill" under paragraphs (a) or (b) above, its maximum prices for custom milling of western softwood lumber are the charges set forth as additions for workings in the appropriate lumber price regulation.

SEC. 4. Invoicing and records. Invoices must show the species, size, condition, and workings of the lumber before and after milling, with a detailed description of all services performed thereon for which a charge is made. Copies of invoices, or similar records, must be kept at the place where the custom milling is performed, available for examination by the Office of Price Administration. These records must be kept for two years.

SEC. 5. Services not listed. If a custom mill is required to perform a service for which prices are not specifically provided, these services are still under Maximum Price Regulation 165.

SEC. 6. No quantity limitations. The maximum prices set forth in this regulation apply to all transactions regardless of the quantity of lumber involved.

SEC. 7. Transportation and demurrage charges. No charge may be made by a custom mill for demurrage on railroad cars at its plant, nor for the arrangement of transportation of lumber or advancement of freight charges thereon.

SEC. 8. Enforcement. Persons violating any provision of this regulation are subject to the criminal penalties, civil enforcement actions, suits for treble damages, and proceedings for suspension of licenses provided by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended.

SEC. 9. Licensing. The provisions of Licensing Order No. 1, licensing all persons who make sales under price control, are applicable to all sellers subject to this regulation. A seller's license may be suspended for violations of the license or of one or more applicable price schedules or regulations. A person whose license is suspended may not, during the period of suspension, make any sale for which his license has been suspended.

SEC. 10. Geographical applicability. This supplementary service regulation applies in the 48 states and the District of Columbia.

SEC. 11. Maximum prices. The maximum prices per one thousand feet board measure for "custom milling" of lumber which on mill sales is subject to RMPR 26, MPR 94, MPR 253, MPR 290, or MPR 402 shall be as follows:

PART 1301—MACHINE TOOLS

[MPR 1,[1] Amdt. 4]

SECOND-HAND MACHINE TOOLS

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this amendment, issued simultaneously herewith, has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Maximum Price Regulation 1 is amended in the following respects:

1. In section 1 (a) the second sentence thereof is revoked.

2. In section 3 (a) a sentence is added to the text preceding the table to read as follows: "Where the seller can demonstrate that a second-hand machine tool or extra was purchased new after March 1, 1941, the price at which the machine tool or extra was purchased new may be substituted for the March 1, 1941, price of that machine tool or extra."

3. Section 6 is amended to read as follows:

SEC. 6. Maximum prices for rentals and leases—(a) Price. The maximum price for the lease or rental of any new machine tool, attachment or extra shall be determined as follows:

(1) Annual rental. The maximum annual rental shall be determined by multiplying the maximum price established by this regulation, as of the date of the rental contract, for the sale of the second-hand machine tool, attachment or extra by the applicable percentage rate set forth below:

	8-hour day	16-hour day	24-hour day
	Percent	Percent	Percent
General use	25	30	35
Outdoor use of tools designed for indoor use	35	45	55

(2) Monthly, weekly and daily rental. The maximum rental shall be the amount determined by multiplying the maximum annual rental by the applicable factor set forth below;

Period of time:	Factor
Month	0.10
Week	.025
Day or fractional part thereof	.005

However, where the machine tool or attachment is rented for a specific period of time which results in a maximum total rental of less than $5.00, the maximum total rental for that period of time shall be $5.00.

(b) Rates most favorable to the lessee. Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph (a) of this section, the maximum price for any lease or rental shall be computed on the basis of that period of time which will yield the lowest total rental. For example, if the machine tool is rented on a daily basis but the maximum rental figured on a weekly basis is lower than the maximum rental computed on any other basis, the maximum rental must be computed on a weekly basis.

(c) Additional charges. Charges for installation, dismantling, loading, transportation, maintenance and power supplied by the lessor may be made in addition to the maximum rental but must be invoiced separately. Such charges must not exceed any maximum price established therefor.

4. In section 9 (c) (1) a sentence is added to read as follows: "Selling prices need be reported only on the forms that are filed with the Office of Price Administration".

5. In section 10 the definition of "portable machine tool" is amended to read as follows:

"Portable machine tool" means a machine tool which in normal use is held or guided by hand and not customarily attached to a permanent support.

6. In the list of trade names appearing in Appendix A the manufacturer of the Index Mills machine is changed from "Blank and Buxton Machinery Co., Jackson, Mich.," to "Index Machine and Tool Co., Jackson, Mich."

25. In Appendix A the instructions under the heading "Planers" are amended to read as follows:

For double housing type use prices of Cincinnati Planer Co. and for open-side type use prices of Cleveland Planer Co. in order to arrive at the base price, with the exception of those planers shown on the list below which have an asterisk * placed before them.

The base price of planers (shown with an asterisk *, as well as any others of obsolete type not listed here) is determined by taking 50% of the sum obtained in using the equivalent given above. For example, an American 24 x 24 x 6 double housing planer would have as a base price $3,770, while the base price of an Ames of similar size would be $1,885.

On obsolete double housing planers, the dimensions of which are smaller than 24 x 24 x 6, the following base prices are to be used:

Up to and including 14"	$1,000
15" to 17", inclusive	1,600
18" to 23", inclusive	2,000

On obsolete open-side planers, the dimensions of which are smaller than 26 x 26 x 6, 50% of the base price of the Cleveland 26 x 26 x 6 open-side planer is to be used (regardless of whether an asterisk * is shown or not).

26. In Appendix A under the heading "Slotters" the equivalents for Garvin and Hanson-Whitney are amended to read "to Stevens base price $2,400."

27. In Appendix A the serial numbers of the Landis Tool Co. for the years 1929 and 1935 are amended to read 16000 and 17000, respectively, and serial numbers are added for the following companies:

[RO 1A,[1] Amdt. 75]

TIRES, TUBES, RECAPPING AND CAMELBACK

A rationale for this amendment has been issued simultaneously herewith and has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Ration Order No. 1A is amended in the following respects:

1. Section 1315.502 (b) is amended to read as follows:

(b) Tire inspection record. That he has a tire inspection record for the automobile and that either the serial numbers of the tires mounted on the automobile have been entered upon the record or he has Parts D of certificates authorizing acquisition of such tires for the automobile. The provisions of this paragraph shall not apply to motorcycles, passenger automobiles operating only on special rations, passenger automobiles not propelled by gasoline, passenger automobiles not registered for use on the highway or passenger automobiles operating on official rations.

2. Section 1315.601 (c) is amended to read as follows:

(c) Presentation of tire inspection record. Any applicant for a tire who is required to have a tire inspection record under Ration Order No. 5C shall present it to the Board at the time of filing his application. If the serial number of any tire listed in the OPA Inspector's Report on OPA Form R-1 is different from that entered on the record, the applicant shall produce the Part D of a certificate authorizing the acquisition of such tire. However, the presentation of a tire inspection record is not required of applicants for tires for motorcycles, passenger automobiles not registered for use on the highway or passenger automobiles operating on official rations.

3. The proviso in § 1315.603 (a) (1) is amended to read as follows:

Provided, however, That if an application is made for a tire for a passenger automobile, other than a passenger automobile operating on a non-highway ration, all the tires mounted on the automobile shall be inspected and their condition certified to by an authorized inspector.

4. Preceding § 1315.701 the undesignated headnote "Inspection of Passenger Automobile Tires" is deleted.

5. Sections 1315.701, 1315.702, 1315.703, 1315.704 and 1315.705 are revoked.

6. Section 1315.801 (b) is amended to read as follows:

(b) Removal of tires by automobile dealer. (1) No automobile dealer shall remove a tire or new tube mounted on a passenger automobile which he holds for sale, except for repair or recapping or unless it is being removed:

(i) As part of the process of scrapping the passenger automobile; or

(ii) Pursuant to a certificate issued under § 1315.516 or an authorization granted under § 1315.802 (a) (4); or

(iii) From a passenger automobile which he has contracted to sell without tires.

(2) A tire or new tube which an automobile dealer has removed for repair or recapping from a passenger automobile which he holds for sale must be remounted on such automobile.

7. Section 1315.802 (a) (6) is amended to read as follows:

(6) A person mounting a tire upon a passenger automobile under subparagraph (3) or (4) must surrender the tire inspection record issued for the passenger automobile to the Board having jurisdiction over it, except in the case of motorcycles, passenger automobiles not registered for use on the highway or passenger automobiles operating on official rations. The Board shall issue a new tire inspection record for the passenger automobile upon being satisfied that the conditions of subparagraphs (3) or (4) have been complied with.

8. Section 1315.901 (h) is amended to read as follows:

(h) Inspection of tires on commercial motor vehicles. No person shall use or permit the use of tires or tubes on a commercial motor vehicle unless he has had the tires mounted on the vehicle inspected, and has kept records of such inspections as required by the Office of Defense Transportation.

9. Section 1315.1101 is amended by deleting the phrase "§ 1315.704" and substituting for it the phrase "§ 1315.802 (a) (3) or (4)".

PART 1394—RATIONING OF FUEL AND FUEL PRODUCTS

[RO 5C,[1] Amdt. 119]

MILEAGE RATIONING: GASOLINE REGULATIONS

A rationale accompanying this amendment, issued simultaneously herewith, has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Ration Order 5C is amended in the following respects:

1. Section 1394.7851 (d) is amended to read as follows:

(d) If application is made for a special ration for use with a motorcycle or a passenger automobile for which a basic, supplemental, fleet or official ration or ration issued pursuant to § 1394.7757 or § 1394.7758 is currently outstanding, the applicant shall present to the Board the tire inspection record for the vehicle for which the ration is sought.

2. Section 1394.8004 (d) (2) (i) is revoked.

3. In § 1394.8007 the headnote preceding paragraph (a) is amended to read, "Restoration of coupon books, coupons, folders or tire inspection records: Replenishment of gasoline by bulk consumers," and paragraph (d) is added to read as follows:

(d) Tire inspection records. Any person who has lost a tire inspection record issued for use with a passenger automobile shall apply to a Board for a new record. If the Board is satisfied that the serial numbers of the tires shown on such new record are those which were entered on the lost record or that discrepancies are accounted for by Parts D of tire certificates issued in accordance with Ration Order No. 1A, it shall issue to the applicant a new record,

4. Section 1394.8010 is amended to read as follows:

§ 1394.8010 Presentation and maintenance of tire inspection records. (a) After December 12, 1942, no supplemental, official or fleet ration or ration issued pursuant to the provisions of § 1394.7757 or § 1394.7758 shall be issued or renewed and no Basic A ration shall be renewed unless the applicant presents to the Board a tire inspection record for each vehicle for which the ration is sought. Such record must be kept with the vehicle when in operation, unless its removal is permitted by order or authorization of the Office of Price Administration.

(b) In the case of a renewal application for a fleet or official ration the Board may renew such ration without the presentation of the tire inspection records if the applicant submits to the Board his signed statement setting forth that it would impose undue hardship upon him to present tire inspection records because of the number or location of the vehicles involved or for other good reasons.

(c) Any person who transfers a passenger automobile shall deliver to the transferee the tire inspection record issued for use with such vehicle, and Parts D of tire certificates issued in accordance with Ration Order No. 1A, for any tires that have been mounted on such vehicle since the issuance of the tire inspection record.

(d) When application for a new ration is necessary as a result of a change in ownership of a passenger automobile, the transferee of such vehicle must submit to the Board the existing tire inspection record together with Parts D of tire certificates issued in accordance with Ration Order No. 1A and the Board shall issue a new record for the vehicle. When the transferee is unable to present the tire inspection record, the Board, before issuing a new record, shall be satisfied that no tire inspection record has been issued for the vehicle, or that the transferee has made a diligent effort to obtain the tire inspection record.

5. In § 1394.8102 (f) (1) the period at the end of the last sentence is deleted and the following phrase is added: "and, in addition, when the vehicle transferred is a passenger automobile, the transferee shall present the existing tire inspection record in accordance with § 1394.8010 (d)."

This amendment shall become effective April 20, 1944.

NOTE: The reporting and record-keeping requirements of this amendment have been approved by the Bureau of Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

PART 1418—TERRITORIES AND POSSESSIONS

[MPR 378,[1] Amdt. 49]

GROCERY ITEMS IN THE TERRITORY OF HAWAII

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this amendment, issued simultaneously herewith, has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Section 21 (e) is amended to read as follows:

(e) Maximum prices for sales in the Territory of Hawaii of island-grown produce. (1) All grades shall conform to the specifications therefor established by the Agricultural Extension Service of the University of Hawaii and contained in Agricultural Extension Circular No. 156 as amended November 15, 1943. These specifications may be obtained at the University or at the Office of Price Administration, Honolulu, Hawaii, or at the District Offices of the Office of Price Administration, or from the County Agents on each island. "Commercial quality" (CQ) means that stock is of generally good quality and condition, and that size and appearance are acceptable to consumers. Generally good quality means that approximately 85% is desirable quality. Stock must not contain more than 10% serious damage nor more than 2% soft rot. "Merchantable quality" (MQ) means produce having not more than 15% serious damage and not more than ½ of this, or 5%, shall be soft rot. Size and appearance are not considered as important factors in this classification.

(2) Where the total price for the aggregate quantity of any item of produce sold results in a fraction of a cent, such total price shall be reduced to the nearest lower cent if the fraction is less than one-half cent, and shall be increased to the nearest higher cent if the fraction is one-half cent or more.

(3) "Sale at wholesale" means a sale by a person who customarily distributes island-grown produce to any person other than the ultimate consumers, and shall include sales to the United States, any other government or any of its political subdivisions, any religious, educational or charitable institution, any institution for the sick, deaf, blind, disabled, aged or insane or any school, hospital, library, an industrial or commercial user, or any agency of any of the foregoing: Provided, That any religious, educational or charitable institution, any institution for the sick, deaf, blind, disabled, aged or insane, or any school, hospital, library, an industrial or commercial user, or any agency of any of the foregoing, which during the period September 23, 1942, to December 23, 1942, purchased island-grown produce in an average gross amount not in excess of $100.00 per week, may purchase island-grown produce from licensed retailers at prices not in excess of the maximum prices for sales at retail. Any such purchaser exercising this permission shall file with the Office of Price Administration, Hawaii Territorial Office, Iolani Palace, Honolulu, T. H., not later than ten days after the first purchase from a licensed retailer, a statement setting forth the average weekly gross amount paid for island-grown produce during the period September 23, 1942, and December 23, 1942. Any licensed retailer shall be entitled to rely on a purchaser's statement that such purchaser has complied with this paragraph.

(4) "Sale at retail" means a sale or selling to an ultimate consumer.

UPHOLSTERED SOFA BEDS, ETC.

ESTABLISHMENT OF MAXIMUM PRICES

Order No. 1509 under § 1499.159b of Maximum Price Regulation No. 188. Manufacturers' maximum prices for specified building materials and consumers' goods other than apparel. Manufacturers' and jobbers' maximum prices for sales of upholstered sofa beds, studio couches, and other upholstered dual purpose sleeping equipment.

For the reasons set forth in the opinion issued simultaneously herewith and filed with the Division of the Federal Register, and pursuant to the authority vested in the Price Administrator by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, and Executive Order No. 9250, It is ordered:

(a) Purpose of this order. The purpose of this order is to establish maximum prices for all sales by manufacturers and jobbers of upholstered sofa beds, studio couches, and all other upholstered dual purpose sleeping equipment.

(b) What articles are covered by this order. This order covers all upholstered dual purpose sleeping equipment and includes any article of furniture built up with filling materials and a steel spring inner construction, upholstered with a woven fabric and which can be opened (as on hinges or slides) into a bed; as for example, studio couches, sofa beds, bed lounges, and chair beds. This order covers articles made of new materials and articles made in whole or in part of used materials.

(c) What articles this order does not cover. This order does not cover any mattress-bedspring combination which does not open into a bed, such as single divans, boxsprings on legs, or metal bedsprings on legs.

(d) Relationship of this order to Maximum Price Regulation No. 188. This order replaces the pricing provisions (§§ 1499.153, .154, .155, .156, .157, .158, and .159a) of Maximum Price Regulation No. 188 as to manufacturers and the pricing provisions (§§ 1499.2 and 1499.3) of the General Maximum Price Regulation for all sales and deliveries other than at retail of upholstered sofa beds, studio couches and all other upholstered dual purpose sleeping equipment with steel spring construction after the effective date of this order. All other sections of Maximum Price Regulation No. 188 and the General Maximum Price Regulation remain applicable to sales and deliveries of articles covered by this order.

(e) How to determine manufacturers' maximum prices for sales of articles covered by this order. (1) The following paragraphs list the minimum specifications and the manufacturers' f. o. b. factory l. c. l. maximum prices for certain basic models of upholstered dual purpose sleeping equipment with steel spring construction when made with all new materials. These prices shall be subject to the discounts, allowances, and other price differentials which the manufacturer made from his regularly quoted f. o. b. factory l. c. l. prices to retailers on sales of the most comparable article during March 1942. The "most comparable" article means that article of upholstered dual purpose sleeping equipment with steel spring construction for which the manufacturer's regularly quoted f. o. b. factory l. c. l. price to retailers in March 1942 is nearest in amount to the manufacturers' f. o. b. factory l. c. l. maximum price to retailers for the article to which the discounts, allowances or other price differentials will apply. "Regularly quoted price to retailers" is the highest price at which a manufacturer made a substantial number of sales or deliveries to retailers of an article of upholstered dual purpose sleeping equipment with steel spring construction.

(2) Maximum prices for manufacturers who were not in the business of manufacturing and selling articles covered by this order during March 1942 shall be established under paragraph (p) of this order. Maximum prices for models for which specific dollar-and-cents prices are not listed below and maximum prices for sales or deliveries by manufacturers of articles covered by this order to classes of purchasers to whom they did not make sales during March 1942 shall also be established under paragraph (p) of this order.

(3) Maximum prices for articles made in whole or in part of used materials shall be established under paragraph (p) of this order.

(f) General specifications for articles made with new materials. All specifications set forth in this order are for new materials only. (p) Manufacturers' maximum prices which cannot be determined under another paragraph of this order (such as other models and other classes of purchasers). The maximum price for any sale or delivery of an article covered by this order which cannot be determined under any other paragraph of this order shall be a price fixed by order of the Price Administrator, in line with the level of maximum prices established by this order. No person may sell, offer to sell or deliver an article for which a maximum price must be established under this paragraph until a price has been specifically authorized by order of the Office of Price Administration. If in violation of the preceding sentence, a sale, offer to sell, or delivery of an article is made before the issuance of an order by the Price Administrator specifically authorizing a maximum price for the article, the maximum price applicable to the sale, offer to sell or delivery shall be such maximum price as the Price Administrator may establish for the article by subsequent order. An application by a manufacturer for the establishment of a maximum price under this paragraph shall be made to the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., and shall contain the following information:

1. Identifying number or trade name of article to be priced.
2. The reasons why the article to be priced cannot be priced under any other paragraph of this order.
3. Detailed specifications and an illustration of the article to be priced.
4. An itemized breakdown of the manufacturer's current unit direct cost of the article to be priced, showing separately according to his own system of accounts or regularly prepared operating statements all major component unit direct cost factors. For the purpose of this order, unit direct costs include direct labor and direct material costs but do not include factory burden (sometimes called factory overhead or indirect manufacturing expenses), packaging and crating costs, royalties and patterns, tool and die cost and items of administrative, general and selling expenses. Also, the number of units of production upon which the unit direct costs were based.
5. An itemized breakdown of the manufacturer's (4) above) of the basic model, specifically turers' current unit direct cost (as described priced in this order, which is most nearly comparable to the article being priced.
6. Price lists in effect during March 1942 showing:

   the article most nearly comparable to the article being priced, with illustrations;
   the article most nearly comparable to the basic model mentioned in (4), with illustrations; all price differentials covering variations in these constructions.

If the manufacturer was not making and selling upholstered dual purpose sleeping equipment in March 1942, send the first price list which was in effect after March 1942, together with illustrations.

7. A statement of the manufacturer's customary discounts, allowances and other price differentials to different classes of purchasers in effect for sales of upholstered dual purpose sleeping equipment during March 1942, or if the manufacturer was not making and selling upholstered dual purpose sleeping equipment during March 1942, the same information for the first period after March 1942 during which the manufacturer was engaged in this business.
8. Requested maximum price of the article to be priced and reasons for same.

(q) Differentials for sales in the Far West Zone. F. o. b. factory l. c. l. maximum prices in the Far West zone shall be determined by adding $0.50 to the prices set forth in paragraphs (h) and (k) and $0.75 to the prices in paragraph (n) above. Far West zone for purposes of this order means the states of Arizona, California, Colorado, Idaho, Montana, Nevada, New Mexico, Oregon, Utah, Washington, Wyoming, and the following counties in Texas: El Paso, Hudspeth, Culberson, Jeff Davis, Presidio, Brewster, Terrell, Pecos and Reeves.

(r) Definition of "cost of upholstery fabric". This paragraph defines the amount you may include as your "cost of upholstery fabric" for the purpose of determining your maximum prices as a manufacturer of an article covered by this order. Maximum Price Regulation No. 39—Woven Decorative Fabrics, fixes maximum prices for sales by manufacturers and jobbers of upholstery fabrics. Within the limits of Maximum Price Regulation No. 39, you determine your "cost of upholstery fabric" in accordance with the following rules:

1. If you have a single supplier of a particular fabric, your "cost of upholstery fabric" is your supplier's (i. e., mill, converter, or jobber) maximum price for the fabric to your class of customer which he has filed with the Office of Price Administration in Washington, D. C., as required by Maximum Price Regulation No. 39.

2. If you purchase the same fabric from more than one supplier, or if you change your source of supply for a fabric, your cost of that fabric is the properly established and filed maximum price of the original supplier or any subsequent supplier whichever is lower.

3. If you purchase your upholstery fabric from a seller whose maximum price to you was not properly established and filed under Maximum Price Regulation No. 39, (or is not covered by Maximum Price Regulation No. 39) then your cost of upholstery fabric may not exceed the highest properly established maximum price for sales of that fabric by your supplier or by a jobber in the same market area to your class of purchaser, whichever is lower. If you cannot ascertain what this price is, write to the Consumer Durable Goods Branch of the Office of Price Administration in Washington, D. C., who will supply you with that information.

4. If you use covers other than 54" width, your "cost of upholstery fabric" shall be determined by converting the cost per yard of the fabric to a 54" width basis in the direct ratio between 54" and the width of the fabric you are using. For example, if you use a 36" fabric with a properly determined cost of $0.50 per yard you convert it to a 54" basis by dividing 54 by 36 which gives you 1.5 and multiplying that figure by $0.50 which gives you a cost of upholstery fabric on a 54" basis of $0.75 per yard.

5. You may not include in your "cost of upholstery fabric" any freight charges which you incur on shipments from your supplier to your plant. Allowance for freight has been made in the maximum prices established in this order.

(s) Upholstery fabric reports. If you are a manufacturer, you may not sell any article governed by this order in any upholstery fabric until you have first filed with the Consumer Durable Goods Price Branch, Office of Price Administration in Washington, D. C., a list of all the upholstery fabrics which you will use. This report shall give the supplier's name, the supplier's fabric identification, a sample swatch 3" x 3" in size, the approved maximum price to you, and your own grade designation for that fabric. You must keep this report up to date by filing the same data on additional fabrics before selling or delivering any article with such fabric. Furthermore, if your "cost of upholstery fabric" already reported by you is reduced as a result of a change in your supplier, you must report the change. You must retain for inspection by the Office of Price Administration all purchase invoices for upholstery fabrics used in the manufacture of articles covered by this order with a notation on each purchase invoice of your own grade number or letter for each fabric on the invoice.

(t) Maximum prices for sales by jobbers. Subparagraph (1) below sets maximum prices for jobbers who sold upholstered studio couches, sofa beds, and other dual purpose sleeping equipment in March 1942. Subparagraph (2) below sets maximum prices for sales by jobbers who cannot determine their maximum prices under subparagraph (1) below. A jobber is a person who purchases an article covered by this order and resells it to a person other than the ultimate consumer without substantially changing its form.

(1) The maximum price for a jobber who sold upholstered studio couches, sofa beds and other dual purpose sleeping equipment in March 1942, shall be determined by adding to the manufacturer's f. o. b. factory l. c. l. maximum price established under this order the amount by which the jobber's March 1942 selling price exceeded the manufacturer's March 1942 regularly quoted f. o. b. factory l. c. l. price to retailers, for sales of the most comparable article to the same class of customer and on the same terms and conditions of sale. The "most comparable" article means that article of upholstered dual purpose sleeping equipment with steel spring construction for which the manufacturer's regularly quoted f. o. b. factory l. c. l. price to retailers in March 1942 is nearest in amount to the manufacturer's f. o. b. factory l. c. l. maximum price established under this order for the article being priced. "Regularly quoted price to retailers" is the highest price at which a manufacturer made a substantial number of sales or deliveries of the most comparable article during March 1942.

(2) The maximum price for a jobber for any sale or delivery of an article covered by this order which cannot be determined under subparagraph (1) above shall be a price fixed by order of the Price Administrator, in line with the level of prices established by this order. No person may sell, offer to sell or deliver an article for which a price must be established under this paragraph until a price has been specifically authorized by order of the Office of Price Administration. If in violation of the preceding sentence, a sale, offer to sell, or delivery of an article is made before the issuance of an order by the Price Administrator specifically authorizing a maximum price for the article, the maximum price applicable to the sale, offer to sell or delivery shall be such maximum price as the Price Administrator may establish for the article by subsequent order. An application for a maximum price under this paragraph shall be made to the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., and contain the following information:

1. Reason why the article cannot be priced under subparagraph (1) above.
2. Identification and the manufacturer's ceiling price of the article to be sold.
3. Name and address of supplier.
4. Discount allowed by supplier and your net cost.
5. A statement from your supplier setting forth his discounts to jobbers during March 1942.
6. Names of nearest competitive jobbers.
7. Suggested maximum price and reasons.

(u) Sales slips, receipts and invoices. After the effective date of this order, every seller (other than at retail) making a sale of an article covered by this order shall furnish the purchaser with a sales slip, receipt, invoice or other similar written evidence of purchase showing the name and address of the seller and purchaser, the date of sale, the manufacturer's or seller's style name or number, type of article, type of arm (e. g., upholstered or wood), the manufacturer's own fabric grade number or letter, type or trim (e. g., self welt, cord trim, or french seam) and the price charged. This sales slip, receipt or invoice or other written evidence of purchase shall be kept by the purchaser and a carbon copy of it kept by the seller for inspection by the Office of Price Administration.

This Order No. 1509 may be revoked or amended by the Price Administrator at any time.

This order shall become effective on the 18th day of April 1944.

NOTE: The reporting and record-keeping provisions in this order have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

Issued this 17th day of April 1944.

Administrator.

(iii) The maximum prices fixed herein shall be subject to at least the same extension of cash, quantity, and other discounts, transportation allowances, and the same rendition of transportation and other services as the seller extended or rendered on comparable sales to purchasers of the same class during the month of March 1942.

(iv) Any adjustments granted by the Office of Price Administration subsequent to June 14, 1943, and prior to March 20, 1944, adjusting maximum prices for any manufacturer located in the State of Ohio, except Cuyahoga County, producing shale and clay building brick, are hereby revoked insofar as such orders are applicable to shale and clay building brick.

[Region II Order G-38 Under RMPR 122]

PENNSYLVANIA ANTHRACITE IN DESIGNATED NEW YORK AREA

Order No. G-38 under §§ 1340.260 and 1340.259 (a) (1) of Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 122. Solid fuels sold and delivered by dealers. Pennsylvania anthracite delivered by dealers in all of Broome County except the Towns of Barker, Lisle, Nanticoke and Triangle, State of New York, Coal Area VII.

For the reasons set forth in an opinion issued simultaneously herewith and under the authority vested in the Regional Administrator of the Office of Price Administration by §§ 1340.260 and 1340.259 (a) (1) of Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 122, it is ordered:

(a) What this order does—(1) Dealers' maximum prices, area covered. If you are a dealer in "Pennsylvania anthracite", this order fixes the maximum prices which you may charge, and if you are a purchaser in the course of trade or business, this order fixes the maximum prices which you may pay, for certain sizes and quantities of "Pennsylvania anthracite" (hereinafter called simply "anthracite") delivered to or at any point in State of New York—Coal Area VII. Coal Area VII includes all of Broome County except the towns of Barker, Lisle, Nanticoke, and Triangle.

(2) Schedules of prices, charges and discounts. The applicable prices, authorized charges, and required discounts, from which you shall determine the maximum prices for designated sizes and quantities of anthracite delivered within Coal Area VII are set forth in Schedule I hereafter.

(3) To what sales this order applies. If you are a dealer in anthracite, you are bound by the prices, charges and discounts, and by all other provisions of this order for all deliveries within Coal Area VII, whether or not you are located in Coal Area VII.

(b) What this order prohibits. Regardless of any contract or other obligations, you shall not:

(1) Sell or, in the course of trade or business, buy anthracite of the sizes and in the quantities set forth in the Schedule herein, at prices higher than the maximum prices computed as set forth in paragraph (c) of this order, although you may charge, pay, or offer less than maximum prices.

(2) Obtain any price higher than the applicable maximum price by:

(i) Changing the discounts authorized herein, or

(ii) Charging for any service which is not expressly requested by the buyer, or

(iii) Charging for any service for which a charge is not specifically authorized by this order, or

(iv) Charging a price for any service higher than the Schedule price for such service, or

(v) Using any tying agreement or requiring that the buyer purchase anything in addition to the fuel requested by him except that a dealer may comply with requirements or standards with respect to deliveries which have been or may be issued by an agency of the United States Government.

(vi) Using any other device by which a higher price than the applicable maximum price is obtained, directly or indirectly.

(c) How to compute maximum prices. You must figure your maximum price as follows:

(1) Refer to Schedule I which contains a separate table of prices for "direct-delivery" sales and "yard sales" of anthracite. (You will find Schedule I in paragraph (d).)

(2) Take the dollar-and-cents figure set forth in the applicable table of the Schedule for the size and quantity you are selling.

(3) Deduct from that figure the amount of the discount which you are required to give as specified therein. Where a discount is required, you must state it separately on your invoice.

(4) If, at your purchaser's request, you actually render him a service for which this order authorizes a charge, you may add to the figure derived as above no more than the maximum authorized service charge. You must state that charge separately on your invoice. The only authorized service charges are those provided for in Schedule I.

(d) Schedule I. Schedule I establishes specific maximum prices for certain sizes of anthracite in certain specific quantities, delivered to or at any point within Coal Area VII. There is a separate table of prices for "direct-delivery" sales and "yard sales".

(1) Sales on a "direct-delivery" basis.

You shall deduct from the prices set forth in table (2) of this schedule, on sales and deliveries of all sizes except screenings, in quantities of one ton or more, a discount of 60¢ per net ton, where payment is made within fifteen days after delivery. Nothing herein requires you to sell on other than a cash basis.

(e) Commingling. If you sell one size of anthracite commingled with another size of anthracite, your maximum price for the combination shall be the maximum price established in this order for the smallest of the sizes so commingled, except in the following situation. Where a purchaser requests that two or more sizes of anthracite be commingled in one delivery, then, and in that event, if those sizes are separately weighed at the point of loading, the dealer may commingle those sizes in the truck or other vehicle in which the delivery is made. The price for anthracite so commingled shall be calculated on the basis of the applicable per net ton price for each size in the combination, and the invoice shall separately state the price, so determined, for the quantity of each size in the combination.

(f) Ex Parte 148 Freight Rate Increase. Since the Ex Parte 148 Freight Rate Increase has been rescinded by the Interstate Commerce Commission, the dealers' freight rates are the same as those of December 1941. Therefore, you may not increase any schedule price on account of freight rates.

(g) Addition of increase in supplier's maximum prices prohibited. You may not increase the specific maximum prices established by this order to reflect, in whole or in part, any subsequent increase to you in your supplier's maximum price for the same fuel. The specific maximum prices already reflect increases to you in your supplier's maximum prices occurring up to the effective date of this order. If increases in your supplier's maximum prices should occur after such date, as the result of any amendment to or revision of a maximum price regulation issued by the Office of Price Administration governing sales and deliveries made by such suppliers, the Regional Administrator will, if he then deems it to be warranted, take appropriate action to amend this order to reflect such increases.

(h) Taxes. If you are a dealer subject to this order you may collect, in addition to the specific maximum prices established herein, provided you state it separately, the amount of the Federal tax upon the transportation of property imposed by section 620 of the Revenue Act of 1942 actually paid or incurred by you, or an amount equal to the amount of such tax paid by any of your prior suppliers and separately stated and collected from you by the supplier from whom you purchased. On sales to the United States or any agency thereof, or to the State of New York or any political subdivision thereof, you need not state this tax separately.

(i) Adjustable pricing. You may not make a price adjustable to a maximum price which will be in effect at some time after delivery of the anthracite has been completed; but the price may be adjustable to the maximum price in effect at the time of delivery.

(j) Petitions for amendment. Any person seeking an amendment of any provision of this order may file a petition for amendment in accordance with the provisions of Revised Procedural Regulation No. 1, except that a petition shall be filed with the Regional Administrator and acted upon by him.

(k) Right of amendment or revocation. The Regional Administrator or the Price Administrator may amend, revoke or rescind this order, or any provision thereof, at any time.

(l) Applicability of other regulations. If you are a dealer subject to this order, you are governed by the licensing provisions of Licensing Order 1. Licensing Order 1 provides, in brief, that a license is required of all persons making sales for which maximum prices are established. A license is automatically granted. It is not necessary to apply for the increase. The license may be suspended for violations in connection with the sale of any commodity for which maximum prices are established. If your license is suspended, you may not sell any such commodity during the period of suspension.

(m) Records. If you are a dealer subject to this order, you shall preserve, keep, and make available for examination by the Office of Price Administration, a record of every sale of anthracite hereunder, showing the date, the name and address of the buyer, if known, the per net ton price charged, and the solid fuel sold. The solid fuel shall be identified in the manner in which it is described in the order. The record shall also state separately each service rendered and the charge made for it.

(n) Posting of maximum prices, sales slips and receipts. (1) If you are a dealer subject to this order, you shall post all your maximum prices (as set forth in the applicable table and schedule of this order) in your place of business in a manner plainly visible to and understandable by the purchasing public.

(2) If you are a dealer subject to this order, you shall, except for a sale of less than one-half ton, give each purchaser a sales slip or receipt showing your name and address, the kind, size and quantity of the anthracite sold to him, the date of the sale or delivery and the price charged, separately stating the amount, if any, of the required discounts which must be deducted from, and the authorized service charges and the taxes, which may be added to, the specific maximum prices prescribed herein.

In the case of all other sales, you shall give each purchaser a sales slip or receipt containing the information described in the foregoing paragraph, if requested by such purchaser or if, during December 1941, you customarily gave purchasers such sales slips or receipts.

(o) Enforcement. (1) Persons violating any provision of this order are subject to civil and criminal penalties, including suits for treble damages, provided for by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended.

(2) Persons who have any evidence of any violation of this order are urged to communicate with the Binghamton District Office of the Office of Price Administration, or with the Price Panel of the appropriate War Price and Rationing Board.

"Direct delivery" in 100 lb. and 50 lb. lots shall mean depositing in buyer's bin or other storage space designated by the buyer.
